6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me as long as I live.

7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me, as the unrighteous.

8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul?

9 Will God hear his cry, when trouble cometh upon him?
10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God?
11 I will teach you by the hand of God that which is with the Almighty, will I not conceal.
12 Behold, all ye your selves have seen it: why then are ye thus altogether vain?
13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressours, which they shall receive of ℣ Almighty.
14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword: and his off-spring shall not be satisfied with bread.
15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death, and his widows shall not weep.
16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay:
17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.
18 He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper maketh.
19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not:
20 Terrours take hold of him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.
21 The east-winde carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.
22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain flee out of his hand.
23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hisse him out of his place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

Surely there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.
2 Iron is taken out of ℣ earth, & brasse is molten out of ℣ stone
3 He setteth an end to darkenesse, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkenesse, and the shadow of death.
4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.
5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.
6 The stones of it are the place of saphirs; & it hath dust of gold
7 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vultures eye hath not seen.
8 The lions whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.
9 He putteth forth his hand upon the rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.
10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks, and his eye seeth every precious thing.
11 He bindeth the floods from overflowing, and the thing that is hid, bringeth he forth to light.
12 But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?
13 Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.
14 The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.
15 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.
16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the saphire.
17 The gold & ℣ chrystal cannot equall it, & ℣ exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold 18 No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for ℣ price of wisdom is above rubies.
19 The topaz of Ethiopia shal not equall it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
20 Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?
21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.
22 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.
23 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof:
24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven:
25 To make the weight for the windes, and he weigheth the waters by measure.

26 When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder.

27 Then did he see it, and declare it, he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.

28 And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the LORD, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

CHAP. XXIX.

MOreover, Job continued his parables, and said,

2 O that I were as in moneths past, as in the dayes when God preserved me:

3 When his candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked thorow darkneſſe:

4 As I was in the dayes of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle:

5 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me:

6 When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil:

7 When I went out to the gate thorow the city, when I prepared my seat in the street.

8 The young men saw me, and hid themſelves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

9 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.

10 The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witneſſe to me:

12 Becauſe I delivered the poor that cried, & § fatherleſſe, and him that had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widows heart to sing for joy.

14 I put on righteouſneſſe, and it clothed me: my judgement was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was eyes to the blinde, and feet was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor: and the cauſe which I knew not, I searched out.

17 And I brake the jawes of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shal multiply my dayes as the sand.

19 My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

20 My glory was fresh in me, and my bowe was renewed in mine hand.

21 Unto me men gave eare, and waited, and kept silence at my counsell.

22 After my words they spake not again, and my speech dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me as for the rain; & they opened their mouth wide as for § latter rain.

24 If I laughed on them, they believed it not, and the light of my countenance they caſt not down.

25 I choſe out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

CHAP. XXX.

BUt now they that are younger then I, have me in derision, whoſe fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

3 For want and famine they were solitary, fleeing into the wilderneſſe, in former time deſolate and waſte:

4 Who cut up mallows by §bushes, & juniper roots for their meat.

5 They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them, as after a chief.)

6 To dwell in the clifts of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

8 They were children of fools, yea, children of base men: they were viler then the earth.

9 And now am I their song, yea, I am their by-word.

10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face.

11 Becauſe he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have alſo let loose § bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand rise the youth; they puſh away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.

14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

15 Terrours are turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the winde: and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.

16 And now my soul is poured out upon me: the dayes of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season, and my sinews take no rest.

18 By the great force of my disease, is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19 He hath cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou doest not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.

21 Thou art become cruell to me: with thy strong hand thou opposest thy self against me.

22 Thou liftest me up to the winde: thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolvest my substance.

23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

24 Howbeit, he will not stretch out his hand to ✝ grave, though they cry in his destruction.

25 Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor?

26 When I looked for good, then evil came unto me: and when I waited for life, there came darkness.

27 My bowels boiled and rested not: the dayes of affliction prevented me.

28 I went mourning without the sun: I stood up and I cried in the congregation.

29 I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to owls.

30 My skin is black upon me, & my bones are burnt with heat.

31 My harp also is turned to mourning, and my organ into the voice of them that weep.

CHAP. XXXI.

I Made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

2 For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to ✝ workers of iniquity?

4 Doth not he see my wayes, and count all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hasted to deceit:

6 Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of the way, & mine heart walked after mine eyes, & if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands;

8 Then let me sowe, and let another eat, yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbours door:

10 Then let my wife grinde unto another, and let others bow down upon her.

11 For this is an heinous crime, yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, & would root out all mine increase.

13 If I did despise the cause of my man-servant, or of my maid-servant, when they contended with me:

14 What then shall I do, when God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15 Did not he ✝ made me in ✝ womb, make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?

16 If I have withheld ✝ poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of ✝ widow to fail

17 Or have eaten my morsell my self alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof:

18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me as with a father, and I have guided her from my mothers womb)

19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;

20 If

20 If his loins have not blessed me, & if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep:
21 If I have lift up my hand against the fatherlesse, when I saw my help in the gate:
22 Then let mine arm fal from my shoulder blade, & mine arm be broken from the bone.
23 For destruction from God was a terrour to me: and by reason of his highnesse I could not endure.
24 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence:
25 If I rejoyced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much:
26 If I beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightnesse:
27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath kissed my hand:
28 This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judge:
for I should have denied the God that is above.
29 If I rejoyced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lift up my self when evil found him;
30 (Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin, by wishing a curse to his soul:)
31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied;
32 The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doors to the traveller.
33 If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom: 34 Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrifie me: that I kept silence, and went not out of the door?
35 Oh that one would hear me! behold, my desire is, that the Almighty would answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book.
36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and binde it as a crowa to me.
37 I would declare unto him the number of my steps, as a prince would I go neer unto him 38 If my land cry against me, or that the furrows likewise thereof complain:
39 If I have eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life:
40 Let thistles grow in stead of wheat & cockle in stead of barley. The words of Job are ended.

CHAP. XXXII.

SO these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.
2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kinred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled: because he justified himself rather then God.
3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled: because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.
4 Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken: because they were elder then he.
5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.
6 And Elihu the son of Barchel the Buzite answered & said,
I am young, & ye are very old;
wherefore I was afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion.
7 I said, Dayes should speak, and multitude of yeers should teach wisdom.
8 But there is a spirit in man:
and ℣ inspiration of ℣ Almighty giveth them understanding.
9 Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgement.
10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me: I also will shew mine opinion.
11 Behold, I waited for your words: I gave ear to your reasons, whilest you searched out what to say.
12 Yea, I attended unto you:
and behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words: 13 Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man.
14 Now he hath not directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They were amazed, they answered no more, they left off speaking.

16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still and answered no more)

17 I said, I will answer also my part, I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am full of matter, the spirit within me constraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent, it is ready to burst like new bottles.

20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, accept any mans person: neither let me give flattering titles unto man.

22 For I know not to give flattering titles: in so doing my Maker would soon take me away.

CHAP. XXXIII.

WHerefore Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the uprightnesse of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 The spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up.

6 Behold, I am according to thy wish in Gods stead: I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terrour shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavie upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 I am clean without transgression, I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy.

11 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, That God is greater then man.

13 Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth no account of any of his matters.

14 For God speaketh once, yea, twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed:

16 Then he openeth the eares of men, and sealeth their instruction,

17 That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain.

20 So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul dainty meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen, & his bones that were not seen, stick out.

22 His soul draweth neer unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightnesse:

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit; I have found a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher then a childes: he shall return to the dayes of his youth.

26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him, and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousnesse.

27 He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not:

28 He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

29 Lo, all these things worketh God oftentimes with man,

30 To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me, hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, so say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justifie thee.

33 If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

FUrthermore, Elihu answered and said,

2 Hear my words, O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 For the ear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meat.

4 Let us chuse to us judgement: let us know among our selves what is good.

5 For Job hath said, I am righteous: and God hath taken away my judgement.

6 Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression.

7 What man is like Job, who drinketh up scorning like water?

8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.

9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing, that he should delight himself with God.

10 Therefore hearken unto me ye men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness, & from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.

11 For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to finde according to his ways.

12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgement.

13 Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed the whole world?

14 If he set his heart upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;

15 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.

17 Shall even he that hateth right govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?

18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?

19 How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more then the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.

20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and passe away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

22 There is no darknesse nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

23 For he will not lay upon man more then right, that he should enter into judgement with God.

24 He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead.

25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are destroyed.

26 He striketh them as wicked men, in the open sight of others,

27 Because they turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways.

28 So that they cause the cry of § poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of § afflicted.

29 When he giveth quietnesse, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man onely:

30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared.

31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have born chastisement, I will not offend any more

32 That which I see not, teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.

33 Should it be according to thy minde? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou chuse, and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.

34 Let men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

35 Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

36 My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end, because of his answers for wicked men.

37 For

17 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands amongst us, and multiplieth his words against God.

CHAP. XXXV.

Elihu spake moreover, and said,

2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more then God's?

3 For thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my sin?

4 I will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

5 Look unto the heavens, and see, and behold the clouds, which are higher then thou.

6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

7 If thou be righteous, what giveth thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art: & thy righteousness may profit ✠ son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions, they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of ✠ mighty.

10 But none saith, Where is God my maker, who giveth songs in the night?

11 Who teacheth us more then the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser then the fowls of heaven.

12 There they cry (but none giveth answer) because of the pride of evil men.

13 Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.

14 Although thou sayest, thou shalt not see him, yet judgement is before him, therefore trust thou in him.

15 But now because it is not so, he hath visited in his anger, yet he knoweth it not in great extremity:

16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain: he multiplieth words without knowledge.

CHAP. XXXVI.

Elihu also proceeded & said,

2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee, that I have yet to speak on Gods behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge, is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and wisdom.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the poor.

7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on ✠ throne, yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction:

9 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions, that they have exceeded.

10 He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey & serve him, they shall spend their dayes in prosperity, and their yeers in pleasures.

12 But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shal die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them.

14 They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean.

15 He delivereth the poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitnesse, and that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatnesse.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgement of ✠ wicked: judgement & justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.

19 Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather then affliction.

22 Be-

22 Beholds God exalteth by his power: who teacheth like him?
23 Who hath inioyned him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?
24 Remember that thou magnifie his work which men behold
25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.
26 Behold God is great, & we know him not, neither can ỹ number of his yeers be searched out.
27 For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof:
28 Which the clouds do drop, and distil upon man abundantly.
29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle?
30 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea.
31 For by them iudgeth he the people, he giveth meat in abundance.
32 With clouds he covereth the light, and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt.
33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattell also concerning the vapour

CHAP. XXXVII.

AT this also my heart trembleth, & is moved out of his place.
2 Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.
3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, & his lightening unto the ends of the earth.
4 After it a voice roareth: he thundereth ẅ the voice of his excellency, and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.
5 God thundereth marvellously ẅ his voice: great things doth he, ẅ we cannot comprehend.
6 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth: likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.
7 He sealeth up the hand of every man: that all men may know his work.
8 Then ỹ beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.
9 Out of ỹ south cometh the whirlwinde: & cold out of ỹ north 10 By the breath of God ice is given, and the breadth of waters is straitened.
11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth his bright cloud.
12 And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.
13 He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for his mercy.
14 Hearken unto this, O Iob: stand still & consider the wondrous works of God.
15 Dost ỹ know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?
16 Dost thou know the ballancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?
17 How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south winde?
18 Hast ỹ with him spread out the skie, which is strong, and as a molten looking glasse?
19 Teach us what we shall say unto him: for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.
20 Shall it be told him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.
21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the winde passeth, and cleanseth them.
22 Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.
23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot finde him out: he is excellent in power, & in iudgment, and in plenty of iustice: he will not afflict.
24 Men do therefore fear him: he respecteth not any that are wise of heart.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

THen the LORD answered Iob out of the whirlwinde, and said,
2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?
3 Gird up now thy loins like a man: for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.
4 Where wast thou when I laid

4 the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof?

7 When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy.

8 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?

9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swadling band for it,

10 And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars & doors,

11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: & here shall thy proud waves be stayed.

12 Hast thou commanded the morning since thy dayes? and caused the day-spring to know his place;

13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it?

14 It is turned as clay to the seal: & they stand as a garment.

15 And from the wicked their light is withholden, and the high arm shall be broken.

16 Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?

17 Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?

18 Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare, if thou knowest it all.

19 Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof?

20 That thou shouldest take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof.

21 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy dayes is great?

22 Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail,

23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battell & war?

24 By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east-wind upon the earth?

25 Who hath divided the water-course for the overflowing of waters: or a way for the lightening of thunder,

26 To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is: on the wilderesse, wherein there is no man?

27 To satisfie the desolate and waste ground, and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth.

28 Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

29 Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it?

30 The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.

31 Canst thou binde the sweet influences of Pleiades? or loose the bands of Orion?

32 Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?

33 Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?

34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

35 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, Here we are?

36 Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven, 38 When the dust groweth into hardnesse, and the clods cleave fast together?

39 Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the appetite of the young lions, 40 When they couch in their dens, and abide in the covert to lie in wait?

41 Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat.

CHAP. XXXIX.

KNowest thou the time when the wilde goats of the rock bring bring forth? or canst thou mark when the hindes do calve?

2 Canst thou number the moneths that they fulfill? or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?

3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrows.

4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corn: they go forth, and return not unto them.

5 Who hath sent out the wilde asse free? or who hath loosed the bands of the wilde asse?

6 Whose house I have made the wildernesse, and the barren his dwellings.

7 He scorneth the multitude of the city, neither regardeth he the crying of the driver.

8 The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searcheth after every green thing.

9 Will the unicorn be willing to serve thee? or abide by thy crib?

10 Canst thou binde the unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee?

11 Wilt ℣ trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labour to him?

12 Wilt thou believe him, that he will bring home thy seed? & gather it into thy barn?

13 Gavest thou the goodly wings unto ℣ peacocks? or wings and feathers unto the ostrich?

14 Which leaveth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in dust,

15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wilde beast may break them.

16 She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labour is in vain without fear.

17 Because God hath deprived her of wisdom, neither hath he imparted to her understanding.

18 What time she lifteth up her self on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider.

19 Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?

20 Canst thou make him afraid as a grashopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.

21 He paweth in the valley, rejoyceth in his strength: he goeth on to meet the armed men.

22 He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted: neither turneth he back from the sword.

23 The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering speare and the shield.

24 He swalloweth the ground with fiercenesse and rage: neither believeth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.

25 He saith among the trumpets, Ha, ha, and he smelleth the battell afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

26 Doth the hawk flie by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings towards the south?

27 Doth the eagle mount up at thy commaund? and make her nest on high?

28 She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the cragge of the rock, and the strong place.

29 From thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afar off.

30 Her young ones also suck up blood: and where the slain are, there is she.

CHAP. XL.

MOreover, the LORD answered Job, and said,

2 Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

3 ¶ Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

4 Behold, I am vile, what shall I answer thee? I will lay my hand upon my mouth.

5 Once have I spoken, but I will not answer: yea twice, but I will proceed no further.

6 ¶ Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

7 Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

8 Wilt thou also disannul my judgement? wilt thou condemn me, that ℣ mayest be righteous?

9 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

10 Deck thy self now with majesty and excellency, and array thy self with glory and beauty.

11 Cast

11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low: and tread down the wicked in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together, and bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee, that thine own right hand can save thee.

15 ¶ Behold now behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox.

16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.

17 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapt together.

18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass: his bones are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food: where all the beasts of the field play.

21 He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed and fens.

22 The shady trees cover him with their shadows; the willows of the brook compass him about.

23 Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.

24 He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares.

CHAP. XLI.

1 Canst thou draw out leviathan with an hook? or his tongue with a cord, which thou lettest down?

2 Canst thou put an hook into his nose? or bore his jaws through with a thorn?

3 Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?

4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish-spears?

8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battel: do no more.

9 Behold, the hope of man is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?

10 None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me?

11 Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.

12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.

15 His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.

16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.

17 They are joyned one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundred.

18 By his neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eye-lids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or cauldron.

21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him.

23 The flakes of his flesh are joyned together, they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.

24 His heart is as firm as a stone, yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.

25 When

25 When he raiſeth up himſelf, the mighty are afraid: by reaſon of breakings they purifie themſelves.

26 The ſword of him that layeth at him, cannot hold: the ſpear, the dart, nor the habergeon.

27 He eſteemeth iron as ſtraw, and braſs as rotten wood.

28 The arrow cannot make him flee: ſling-ſtones are turned with him into ſtubble:

29 Darts are counted as ſtubble: he laugheth at the ſhaking of a ſpear.

30 Sharp ſtones are under him: he ſpreadeth ſharp-pointed things upon the mire.

31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the ſea like a pot of ointment.

32 He maketh a path to ſhine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary.

33 Upon earth there is not his like: who is made without fear.

34 He beholdeth all high things, he is a king over all the children of pride.

CHAP. XLII.

THen Job anſwered the LORD, and ſaid,

2 I know that thou canſt do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee.

3 Who is he that hideth counſel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I underſtood not; things too wonderfull for me, which I knew not.

4 Hear, I beſeech thee, and I will ſpeak; I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye ſeeth thee.

6 Wherefore I abhor my ſelf, and repent in duſt and aſhes.

7 ¶ And it was ſo, after the LORD had ſpoken theſe words unto Job, the LORD ſaid to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled againſt thee, & againſt thy two friends: for ye have not ſpoken of me the thing that is right, as my ſervant Job hath.

8 Therefore take unto you now ſeven bullocks, and ſeven rams, and go to my ſervant Job, and offer up for your ſelves a burnt-offering; and my ſervant Job ſhall pray for you, for him will I accept: leſt I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not ſpoken of me the thing which is right, like my ſervant Job.

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, went and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD alſo accepted Job.

10 And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: alſo the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his ſiſters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his houſe: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man alſo gave him a piece of money, and every one an ear-ring of gold.

12 So the LORD bleſſed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thouſand ſheep, and ſix thouſand camels, and a thouſand yoke of oxen, and a thouſand ſhe-aſſes.

13 He had alſo ſeven ſons and three daughters.

14 And he called the name of the firſt, Jemima; and the name of the ſecond, Kezia; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found ſo fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 After this lived Job an hundred and fourty years, & ſaw his ſons, and his ſons ſons, even four generations.

17 So Job died, being old and full of dayes.

¶ THE

¶ THE BOOK OF PSALMS.

PSAL. I.

BLessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornfull.

2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD, & in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season: his leaf also shall not wither, and whatsoever he doth shall prosper.

4 The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the Judgement, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSAL. II.

WHy do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together against the LORD, and against his Anointed, saying,

3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

4 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Sion.

7 I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee.

8 Ask of me, & I shal give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron, & shalt dash them in pieces like a potters vessel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed ye judges of the earth.

11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoyce with trembling.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little: blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

PSAL. III.

¶ A psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

LORD, how are they increased that trouble me? many are they that rise up against me.

2 Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in God. Selah.

3 But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me: my glory, and the lifter up of mine head.

4 I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Selah.

5 I laid me down, and slept; I awaked, for the LORD sustained me.

6 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about.

7 Arise, O LORD, save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek-bone: thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.

PSAL. IV.

¶ To the chief musician on Neginoth, A psalm of David.

HEar me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress: have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.

3 But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.

4 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.

6 There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? LORD,

LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

7 Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more then in the time that their corn and their wine increased.

8 I will both lay me down in peace, & sleep: for thou, LORD, onely makest me dwel in safety.

PSAL. V.

¶ To the chief musician upon Nehiloth, A psalm of David.

GIve ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.

2 Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my king, & my God: for unto thee will I pray.

3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD: in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness, neither shal evil dwel with thee.

5 The foolish shal not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the LORD wil abhor the bloody and deceitfull man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house, in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousnesse, because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth, their inward part is very wickednesse: their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.

10 Destroy thou them, O God, let them fall by their own counsels: cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions, for they have rebelled against thee.

11 But let all those that put their trust in thee, rejoyce: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that love thy Name, be joyfull in thee.

12 For thou, LORD, wilt blesse the righteous: with favour wilt thou compasse him, as with a shield.

PSAL. VI.

¶ To the chief musician upon Gineth upon Sheminith, a psalm of David.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am weak: O LORD heal me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, how long?

4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: O save me for thy mercies sake.

5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shal give thee thanks?

6 I am weary with my groaning, all night make I my bed to swim: I water my couch with my tears.

7 Mine eye is consumed because of griefe, it waxeth old, because of all mine enemies.

8 Depart from me all ye workers of iniquity: for the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The LORD hath heard my supplication, the LORD will receive my prayer.

10 Let all mine enemies be ashamed & sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.

PSAL. VII.

¶ Shiggaion of David, which he sang unto the LORD, concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.

O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me.

2 Lest he rend my soul like a lion: rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

3 O LORD my God, if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands:

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me (yea, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy.)

5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah.

6 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, lift up thy self, because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake

make for me to the judgement that thou hast commanded.

7 So shall the congregation of the people compasse thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

8 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousnesse, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

9 O let the wickednesse of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

10 My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.

11 God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

12 If he turn not, he will whet his sword: he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death: he ordaineth the arrows against the persecutors.

14 Behold, he travelleth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, & brought forth falshood.

15 He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

17 I will praise the LORD according to his righteousnesse: and will sing praise to the Name of the LORD most high.

PSAL. VIII.

¶ To the chief musician upon Gittith, A psalm of David.

O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy Name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength, because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars which thou hast ordained;

4 What is man, that thou art mindfull of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

5 For thou hast made him a little lower then the angels; and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thine hands: thou hast put all things under his feet.

7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field,

8 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth thorow the paths of the seas.

9 O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy Name in all the earth!

PSAL. IX.

¶ To the chief musician upon Muth-Labben, A psalm of David.

I Will praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart: I will shew forth all thy marvelous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoyce in thee: I will sing praise to thy Name, O thou most High.

3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall, and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause: thou satest in the throne judging right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked: thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to perpetuall end: and thou hast destroyed cities, their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgement.

8 And he shall judge the world in righteousnesse, he shall minister judgement to the people in uprightnesse.

9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that know thy Name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Sion: declare among the people his doings.

12 When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

13 Have mercy upon me, O

LORD, consider my trouble, which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:

14 That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Sion: I will rejoyce in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid, is their own foot taken.

16 The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

18 For the needy shall not alway be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

19 Arise, O LORD, let not man prevail; let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in fear, O LORD, that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

PSAL. X

WHy standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thy self in times of trouble?

2 The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor; let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

3 For the wicked boasteth of his hearts desire, and blesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.

5 His wayes are alwayes grievous; thy judgements are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

7 His mouth is full of cursing, and deceit, and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

8 He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor.

9 He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den, he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor when he draweth him into his net.

10 He croucheth and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones.

11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face, he will never see it.

12 Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up thine hand: forget not the humble.

13 Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

14 Thou hast seen it, for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatherlesse.

15 Break thou the arm of the wicked, and the evil man: seek out his wickednesse, till thou finde none.

16 The LORD is king for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

17 LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:

18 To judge the fatherlesse and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress.

PSAL. XI.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David.

IN the LORD put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

2 For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

4 The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORDS throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try the children of men.

5 The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked & him that loveth violence, his soul hateth.

6 Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest, this shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousnesse: his countenance doth behold the upright.

PSAL.

PSAL. XII.

¶ To the chief musician upon Sheminith, A psalm of David.

HElp, LORD, for the godly man ceaseth, for the faithfull fail from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips, and with a double heart do they speak.

3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things.

4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, (saith the LORD:) I will set him in safety, from him that puffeth at him.

6 The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

7 Thou shalt keep them, (O LORD) thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

8 The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.

PSAL. XIII.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David.

HOw long, wilt thou forget me (O LORD) for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2 How long shall I take counsell in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemie be exalted over me?

3 Consider, and hear me, O LORD my God; lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death.

4 Lest mine enemie say, I have prevailed against him: and those that trouble me, rejoyce when I am moved.

5 But I have trusted in thy mercy, my heart shall rejoyce in thy salvation.

6 I will sing unto the LORD, because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

PSAL. XIIII.

THe fool hath said in his heart, There is no God; they are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

2 The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand and seek God.

3 They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doth good, no not one.

4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the LORD.

5 There were they in great fear; for God is in the generation of the righteous.

6 You have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge.

7 O that the salvation of Israel were come out of Sion! when the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoyce, and Israel shall be glad.

PSAL. XV.

¶ A psalm of David.

LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousnesse, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

3 He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned: but he honoureth them that fear the LORD: he that sweareth to his own hurt, & changeth not.

5 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doth these things shall never be moved.

PSAL. XVI.

¶ Michtam of David.

PReserve me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my Lord; my goodnesse extendeth not to thee,

3 But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent in whom is all my delight.

4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another God: their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

5 The LORD is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup, thou maintainest my lot.

6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places: yea, I have a goodly heritage.

7 I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons.

8 I have set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

10 For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine holy One to see corruption.

11 Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

PSAL. XVII.

¶ A prayer of David.

HEar the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer that goeth not out of feigned lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

3 Thou hast proved mine heart, thou hast visited me in the night, thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgresse.

4 Concerning the works of men, by the words of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

5 Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.

6 I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God; incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

7 Shew thy marvellous loving kindnesse, O thou that savest by thy right hand, them which put their trust in thee, from those that rise up against them.

8 Keep me as the apple of the eye: hide me under the shadow of thy wings,

9 From the wicked that oppresse me, from my deadly enemies, who compasse me about.

10 They are inclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.

11 They have now compassed us in our steps: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;

12 Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, & as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

13 Arise, O LORD, disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy sword:

14 From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

15 As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousnesse: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likenesse.

PSAL. XVIII.

¶ To the chief musician, A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of this song, in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said,

I Will love thee, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortresse, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust, my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon ¶ LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distresse I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his eares.

7 Then the earth shook and trembled: the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and and came down: and darkneſſe was under his feet.

10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did flie: yea, he did flie upon the wings of the winde.

11 He made darkneſſe his ſecret place: his pavilion round about him were dark waters, and thick clouds of the ſkies.

12 At the brightneſs that was before him his thick clouds paſſed, hail ſtones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD alſo thundered in the heavens, and the higheſt gave his voice, hail-ſtones and coals of fire.

14 Yea, he ſent out his arrows & ſcattered them: and he ſhot out lightenings, & diſcomfited them.

15 Then the chanels of waters were ſeen, and the foundations of the world were diſcovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blaſt of thy breath of thy noſtrils.

16 He ſent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.

17 He delivered me from my ſtrong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too ſtrong for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my ſtay.

19 He brought me forth alſo into a large place: he delivered me, becauſe he delighted in me.

20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteouſneſſe, according to the cleanneſs of my hands hath he recompenſed me.

21 For I have kept the wayes of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgements were before me: and I did not put away his ſtatutes from me.

23 I was alſo upright before him: and I kept my ſelf from mine iniquity.

24 Therefore hath the LORD recompenſed me according to my righteouſneſſe, according to the cleanneſſe of my hands in his eye-ſight.

25 With the mercifull thou wilt ſhew thy ſelf merciful, with an upright man thou wilt ſhew thy ſelf upright.

26 With the pure thou wilt ſhew thy ſelf pure, & with the froward thou wilt ſhew thy ſelf froward

27 For thou wilt ſave the afflicted people: but wilt bring down high looks.

28 For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkneſſe.

29 For by thee I have run through a troop: and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

30 As for God, his way is perfect, the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all thoſe that truſt in him.

31 For who is God, ſave the LORD? or who is a rock, ſave our God?

32 It is God that girdeth me with ſtrength, and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like hindes feet, and ſetteth me upon my high places.

34 He teacheth my hands to war: ſo that a bowe of ſteel is broken by mine arms.

35 Thou haſt alſo given me the ſhield of thy ſalvation, & thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleneſſe hath made me great.

36 Thou haſt enlarged my ſteps under me, that my feet did not ſlip.

37 I have purſued mine enemies, & overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were conſumed.

38 I have wounded them, that they were not able to riſe: they are fallen under my feet.

39 For thou haſt girded me with ſtrength unto the battell: thou haſt ſubdued under me thoſe that roſe up againſt me.

40 Thou haſt alſo given me the necks of mine enemies: that I might deſtroy them that hate me.

41 They cried, but there was none to ſave them: even unto the LORD, but he anſwered them not.

42 Then did I beat them ſmall, as the duſt before the winde: I did caſt them out as the dirt in the ſtreets.

43 Thou haſt delivered me from the ſtrivings of the people, and haſt made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known ſhal ſerve me.

44 As ſoon as they hear of me, they ſhall obey me: the ſtrangers ſhall ſubmit themſelves unto me.

45 The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

46 The LORD liveth, & blessed be my rock: and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

47 It is God that avengeth me: & subdueth y people under me.

48 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

49 Therefore will I give thanks unto thee (O LORD) among the heathen: and sing praises unto thy Name.

50 Great deliverance giveth he to his king: & sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore.

PSAL. XIX.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David.

THe heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth his handy-work.

2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

3 There is no speech, nor language, where their voice is not heard.

4 Their line is gone out through all the earth, & their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun:

5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoyceth as a strong man to run a race.

6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, & his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.

8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoycing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgements of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey, and the hony-comb.

11 Moreover, by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can understand his errours? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sin: let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, & I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.

PSAL. XX.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David.

THe LORD hear thee in the day of trouble, the Name of the God of Jacob defend thee.

2 Send thee help from the sanctuary: and strengthen thee out of Sion.

3 Remember all thy offerings, & accept thy burnt-sacrifice. Selah.

4 Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfill all thy counsell.

5 We will rejoyce in thy salvation, and in the Name of our God we will set up our banners. The LORD fulfil all thy petitions.

6 Now know I, that the LORD saveth his anointed: he will hear him from his holy heaven, with the saving strength of his right hand.

7 Some trust in chariots, & some in horses: but we will remember the Name of the LORD our God.

8 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright.

9 Save, LORD, let the king hear us when we call.

PSAL. XXI.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David.

THe king shall joy in thy strength, O LORD: and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoyce!

2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire, & hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.

3 For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him: even length of dayes for ever and ever.

5 His

5 His glory is great in thy salvation: honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him.

6 For thou hast made him most blessed for ever: thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.

7 For the King trusteth in the LORD: and through the mercy of the most High he shall not be moved.

8 Thine hand shall finde out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall finde out those that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the LORD shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, & their seed from among the children of men.

11 For they intended evil against thee: they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.

12 Therefore shalt thou make them turn their back, when thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon thy strings, against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

PSAL. XXII.

¶ To the chief musician upon Aijeleth Shahar. A psalm of David.

MY God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

2 O my God, I cry in the day time, but thou hearest not; & in the night season, & am not silent.

3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel!

4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 All they that see me, laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

8 He trusted on the LORD, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou didst make me hope, when I was upon my mothers breasts.

10 I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from my mothers belly.

11 Be not far from me, for trouble is neer; for there is none to help.

12 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

13 They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joynt: my heart is like wax, it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

16 For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet.

17 I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me.

18 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

19 But be not thou far from me, O LORD: O my strength, haste thee to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the dog.

21 Save me from the lions mouth: for thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorns.

22 I will declare thy Name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

23 Ye that fear the LORD, praise him: all ye the seed of Jacob, glorifie him, and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.

24 For he hath not despised, nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted: neither hath he hid his face from him, but when he cried unto him, he heard.

25 My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before them that fear him.

26 The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the LORD that seek him; your heart shall live for ever.

27 All the ends of the world shall remember, and turn unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

28 For the kingdom is the LORDS: and he is the governour among the nations.

29 All they that be fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust, shall bow before him, and none can keep alive his own soul.

30 A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

31 They shall come, and shall declare his righteousnesse unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

PSALM XXIII.

¶ A psalm of David.

THE LORD is my shepherd: I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in § paths of righteousnesse for his Names sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod, and thy staff, they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me, in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodnesse and mercy shall follow me all the dayes of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

PSALM XXIIII.

¶ A psalm of David.

THE earth is the LORDS, and the fulnesse thereof: the world, & they that dwel therein.

2 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? and who shall stand in his holy place?

4 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lift up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

5 He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousnesse from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him: that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.

7 Lift up your heads, O gates, and be ye lift up ye everlasting doors; and the king of glory shall come in.

8 Who is this king of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battell.

9 Lift up your heads, O gates, even lift them up, ye everlasting doors: and the king of glory shall come in.

10 Who is this king of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the king of glory. Selah.

PSALM XXV.

A psalm of David.

UNto thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

2 O my God, I trust in thee, let me not be ashamed: let not mine enemies triumph over me.

3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgresse without cause.

4 Shew me thy wayes, O LORD; teach me thy paths.

5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

6 Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies, and thy loving kindenesses: for they have been ever of old.

7 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me, for thy goodnesse sake, O LORD.

8 Good and upright is the LORD: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

9 The meek will he guide in judgement: and the meek will he teach his way.

10 All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth, unto such as keep his covenant, and his testimonies.

11 For thy Names sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity, for it is great.

12 What man is he that feareth § LORD? him shall he teach in the way that he shall chuse.

13 His

13 His soul shall dwell at ease: and his seed shall inherit ȳ earth

14 The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him: and he will shew them his covenant.

15 Mine eyes are ever towards the LORD: for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me: for I am desolate and afflicted.

17 The troubles of mine heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my distresses.

18 Look upon my affliction and my pain, and forgive all my sins

19 Consider mine enemies: for they are many, and they hate me with cruel hatred.

20 O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed, for I put my trust in thee.

21 Let integrity & uprightnes preserve me: for I wait on thee.

22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

PSAL. XXVI.

¶ A psalm of David.

JUdge me, O LORD, for I have walked in mine integrity: I have trusted also in the LORD, therefore I shall not slide.

2 Examine me, O LORD, and prove me: try my reins and my heart.

3 For thy loving kindnesse is before mine eyes: and I have walked in thy truth.

4 I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers.

5 I have hated the congregation of evil doers: and will not sit with the wicked.

6 I will wash my hands in innocency: so will I compasse thine altar, O LORD:

7 That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wonderous works.

8 LORD, I have loved ȳ habitation of thine house, & the place where thine honour dwelleth.

9 Gather not my soul ẅ sinners, nor my life with bloody men.

10 In whose hand is mischief: and their right hand is full of bribes.

11 But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity, redeem me, and be mercifull unto me.

12 My foot standeth in an even place: in the congregations will I bieſſe the LORD.

PSAL. XXVII.

¶ A psalm of David.

THe LORD is my light and my salvation, whom shall I fear? the LORD is ȳ strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid?

2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

3 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

4 One thing have I desired of the LORD, ȳ will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the dayes of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, & to enquire in his temple.

5 For in ȳ time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me, he shall set me up upon a rock.

6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy: I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.

7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

8 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face, my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek.

9 Hide not thy face far from me, put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help, leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me up.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

12 Deliver me not over unto ȳ will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

13 I had fainted, unles I had believed to see the goodnes of the LORD in the land of the living.

14 Wait on ȳ LORD, be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on ȳ LORD

PSAL. XXVIII.

¶ A Psalm of David.

UNto thee will I cry, O LORD my rock, be not silent to me: lest if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my supplication when I cry unto thee: when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

3 Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity: which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.

4 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands, render to them their desert.

5 Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shal destroy them, & not build them up.

6 Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

7 The LORD is my strength and my shield, my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoyceth, and with my song will I praise him.

8 The LORD is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his anointed.

9 Save thy people, and blesse thine inheritance, feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

PSAL. XXIX.

¶ A Psalm of David.

GIve unto the LORD (O ye mighty) give unto the LORD glory and strength.

2 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his Name: worship the LORD in the beauty of holines.

3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth, the LORD is upon many waters.

4 The voice of the LORD is powerfull: the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

5 The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars: yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf: Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.

7 The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderneſſe: the LORD shaketh the wilderneſſe of Kadesh.

9 The voice of the LORD maketh the hindes to calve, & discovereth the forests: & in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.

10 The LORD ſitteth upon the flood: yea, the LORD ſitteth King for ever.

11 The LORD will give ſtrength unto his people: the LORD will bleſſe his people with peace.

PSAL. XXX.

¶ A pſalm or ſong at the dedication of the houſe of David.

I Will exalt thee, O LORD, for thou haſt lifted me up, and haſt not made my foes to rejoyce over me.

2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou haſt healed me.

3 O LORD, thou haſt brought up my ſoul from the grave: thou haſt kept me alive, that I ſhould not go down to the pit.

4 Sing unto the LORD (O ye ſaints of his) & give thanks at the remembrance of his holineſſe.

5 For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

6 And in my proſperity I ſaid, I ſhall never be moved.

7 LORD, by thy favour thou haſt made my mountain to ſtand ſtrong: thou didſt hide thy face, and I was troubled.

8 I cried to thee, O LORD: and unto the LORD I made ſupplication.

9 What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? ſhall the duſt praiſe thee? ſhall it declare thy truth?

10 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me: LORD be thou my helper.

11 Thou haſt turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou haſt put off my ſackcloth, and girded me with gladneſſe.

12 To the end that my glory may ſing praiſe to thee, & not be ſilent: O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

PSAL. XXXI.

¶ To the chief muſician, A pſalm of David.

IN thee, O LORD, do I put my truſt; let me never be aſhamed: de-deliver me in thy righteousnesse.

2 Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock for an house of defence to save me.
3 For thou art my rock and my fortresse, therefore for thy Names sake lead me & guide me.
4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.
5 Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.
6 I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD.
7 I will be glad and reloyce in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble, ℣ hast known my soul in adversities;
8 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a large room.
9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed ℣ grief, yea, my soul and my belly.
10 For my life is spent with grief, and my yeers with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.
11 I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours & a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me.
12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of minde; I am like a broken vessell.
13 For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.
14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD; I said, Thou art my God.
15 My times are in thy hands: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.
16 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies sake.
17 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD, for I have called upon thee; let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in ℣ grave.
18 Let the lying lips be put to silence: which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.
19 O how great is thy goodnesse, ℣ thou hast laid up for them that fear thee, which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee, before the sons of men!
20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence, from the pride of man; thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion, from the strife of tongues.
21 Blessed be the LORD: for he hath shewed me his marvelous kindenesse in a strong city.
22 For I said in my hastes I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless, thou hearedst the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.
23 O love the LORD, all ye his saints: for the LORD preserveth the faithfull, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.
24 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD.

PSAL. XXXII.

¶ A psalm of David, Maschil. Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
2 Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.
3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old, through my roaring all the day long.
4 For day and night thy hand was heavie upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.
5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid: I said, I will confesse my transgressions unto ℣ LORD, and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.
6 For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in ℣ floods of great waters they shal not come nigh unto him.
7 Thou art my hiding place; ℣ shalt preserve me from trouble: ℣ shalt compasse me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.
8 I will instruct thee, & teach thee in ℣ way ℣ thou shalt go: I will guide thee ℣ mine eye.
9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be field in with bit and bridle, lest they come neer unto thee.

10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compasse him about.

11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoyce ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSAL. XXXIII.

REjoyce in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery, and an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song: play skilfully with a loud noise.

4 For the word of the LORD is right: and all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousnesse and judgement: the earth is full of the goodnesse of the LORD.

6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made, & all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together, as an heap: he layeth up the depth in store-houses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spake, & it was done: he commanded, & it stood fast.

10 The LORD bringeth the counsell of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 The counsell of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD: and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

13 The LORD looketh from heaven: he beholdeth all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike: he considereth all their works.

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17 An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;

19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

20 Our soul waiteth for the LORD: he is our help & our shield.

21 For our heart shall rejoyce in him: because we have trusted in his holy Name.

22 Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

PSAL. XXXIV.

A psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech: who drove him away, and he departed.

I Will blesse the LORD at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 O magnifie the LORD with me, & let us exalt his Name together.

4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

5 They looked unto him, and were lightened, and their faces were not ashamed.

6 This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

7 The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

8 O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many dayes, that he may see good?

13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

14 Depart from evil, and do good: seek peace, and pursue it.

15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

16 The

16 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

18 The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.

21 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

22 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: & none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

PSAL. XXXV.

¶ A Psalm of David.

PLeade my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me; fight against them that fight against me.

2 Take hold of shield & buckler, and stand up for mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame, that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion, that devise my hurt.

5 Let them be as chaff before the winde: and let the angel of the LORD chase them.

6 Let their way be dark and slippery, and let the angel of the LORD persecute them.

7 For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.

8 Let destruction come upon him at unawares, and let his net that he hath hid, catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall.

9 And my soul shall be joyfull in the LORD: it shall rejoyce in his salvation.

10 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

11 False witnesses did rise up: they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me evil for good, to the spoiling of my soul.

13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting: and my prayer returned into mine own bosom.

14 I behaved my self as though he had been my friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine adversity they rejoyced, and gathered themselves together, yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me: and I knew it not: they did rend me, and ceased not.

16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

17 LORD, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul from their destructions, my darling from the lions.

18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

19 Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoyce over me: neither let them wink with the eye, that hate me without a cause.

20 For they speak not peace: but they devise deceitfull matters against them that are quiet in the land.

21 Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me, & said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it.

22 This thou hast seen (O LORD) keep not silence: O LORD, be not far from me.

23 Stir up thy self, and awake to my judgement, even unto my cause, my God and my LORD.

24 Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousnesse, and let them not rejoyce over me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we have it: let them not say, We have swallowed him up.

26 Let them be ashamed, and brought to confusion together, that rejoyce at mine hurt: let them be clothed with shame and dishonour, that magnifie themselves against me.

27 Let

27 Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause: yea, let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servants.

28 And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousnesse, and of thy praise all the day long.

PSAL. XXXVI.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

THe transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

4 He deviseth mischief upon his bed, he setteth himself in a way that is not good: he abhorreth not evil.

5 Thy mercy (O LORD) is in the heavens: and thy faithfulnesse reacheth unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousnesse is like § great mountains; thy judgements are a great deep: O LORD, thou preservest man and beast.

7 How excellent is thy loving kindnesse, O God! therefore § children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatnesse of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of § river of thy pleasures.

9 For with thee is the fountain of life, in thy light shall we see light.

10 O continue thy loving kindnesse unto them that know thee: and thy righteousnesse to the upright in heart.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, & let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

12 There are § workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

PSAL. XXXVII.

¶ A psalm of David.

FRet not thy self because of evil doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grasse, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD, and be good, so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thy self also in the LORD, and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 Commit thy way unto the LORD: trust also in him, and he shall bring it to passe.

6 And he shal bring forth thy righteousnesse as the light, and thy judgement as the noon day.

7 Rest in the LORD, & wait patiently for him: fret not thy self because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to passe.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thy self in any wise to do evil.

9 For evil doers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.

10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 But the meek shall inherit the earth: and shal delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13 The LORD shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bowe, to cast down § poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation.

15 Their sword shall enter into their heart, & their bowes shall be broken.

16 A little that a righteous man hath, is better then the riches of many wicked.

17 For the arms of the wicked shal be broken: but § LORD upholdeth the righteous.

18 The LORD knoweth the dayes of the upright: and their inheritance shall be for ever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the dayes days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as § fat of lambs: they shall consume: into smoke shall they consume away.

21 The wicked borroweth and payeth not again, but the righteous sheweth mercy & giveth.

22 For such as be blessed of him, shall inherit the earth: and they that be cursed of him, shall be cut off.

23 The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.

24 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old: yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

26 He is ever merciful, and lendeth: and his seed is blessed.

27 Depart from evil, and do good, and dwell for evermore.

28 For the LORD loveth judgement, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

30 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgement.

31 The law of God is in his heart: none of his steps shall slide.

32 The wicked watcheth § righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he his judged.

34 Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

35 I have seen the wicked in great power: and spreading himself like a green bay-tree.

36 Yet he passed away, and lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

38 But the transgressours shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But the salvation of § righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble.

40 And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

PSAL. XXXVIII.

¶ A psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 For thine arrows stick fast in me: and thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh, because of thine anger: neither is there any rest in my bones, because of my sin.

4 For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavie burden, they are too heavie for me.

5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt, because of my foolishnesse:

6 I am troubled, I go bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a loathsom disease: and there is no soundnesse in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietnesse of my heart.

9 Lord, all my desire is before thee: and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sore, and my kinsmen stand afar off.

12 They also that seek after my life, lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt, speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long.

13 But I as a deaf man, heard not; and I was as a dumb man, that openeth not his mouth.

14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, & in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in thee, O LORD, do I hope

I hope: thou wilt hear, O Lord my God.

16 For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoyce over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnifie themselves against me.

17 For I am ready to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.

18 For I will declare mine iniquity, I will be sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies are lively, and they are strong, and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

20 They also that render evil for good, are mine adversaries: because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O LORD: O my God, be not far from me.

22 Make haste to help me, O LORD, my salvation.

PSAL. XXXIX.

¶ To the chief musician, even to Ieduthun, A psalm of David:

I Said, I will take heed to my wayes, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

2 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred.

3 My heart was hot within me, while I was musing, the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue.

4 LORD, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my dayes, what it is: that I may know how frail I am.

5 Behold, thou hast made my dayes as an hand-breadth, & mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

6 Surely every man walketh in a vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foolish.

9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth, because thou didst it.

10 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.

11 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Selah.

12 Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

13 O spare me, that I may recover strength: before I go hence, and be no more.

PSAL. XL.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David.

I Waited patiently for the LORD, and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, & set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, & fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

4 Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

5 Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to usward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

6 Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire, mine ears hast thou opened: burnt-offring & sin-offering hast thou not required.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me:

8 I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

9 I have preached righteousnesse in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest.

10 I have not hid thy righteousnesse within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness, and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

12 For innumerable evils have compaſſed me about, mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, ſo that I am not able to look up: they are more than the hairs of mine head, therefore my heart faileth me.
13 Be pleaſed, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haſte to help me.
14 Let them be aſhamed and confounded together that ſeek after my ſoul, to deſtroy it: let them be driven backward, & put to ſhame, that wiſh me evil.

PSAL. XLI.

¶ To the chief muſician,
A pſalm of David.

BLeſſed is he that conſidereth the poor, the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.
2 The LORD will preſerve him, and keep him alive: and he ſhall be bleſſed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.
3 The LORD will ſtrengthen him upon the bed of languiſhing: thou wilt make all his bed in his ſickneſſe.
4 I ſaid, LORD, be merciful unto me: heal my ſoul, for I have ſinned againſt thee.
5 Mine enemies ſpeak evill of me: when ſhall he die, and his name periſh?
6 And if he come to ſee me, he ſpeaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to it ſelf, when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.
7 All that hate me, whiſper together againſt me: againſt me do they deviſe my hurt.
8 An evil diſeaſe, ſay they, cleaveth faſt unto him: & now that he lieth, he ſhall riſe up no more.
9 Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I truſted, which did eat of my bread, hath lift up his heel againſt me.
10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raiſe me up, that I may requite them.
11 By this I know that thou favoureſt me: becauſe mine enemy doth not triumph over me.
12 And as for me, thou upholdeſt me in mine integrity: and ſetteſt me before thy face for ever.
13 Bleſſed be the LORD God of Iſrael from everlaſting, and to everlaſting. Amen, and Amen.

PSAL. XLII.

¶ To the chief muſician, Maſchil, for the ſons of Korah.

AS the hart panteth after the water-brooks, ſo panteth my ſoul after thee, O God.
2 My ſoul thirſteth for God, for the living God: when ſhall I come and appear before God?
3 My tears have been my meat day and night: while they continually ſay unto me, Where is thy God?
4 When I remember theſe things, I pour out my ſoul in me; for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the houſe of God, with the voice of joy and praiſe, with a multitude that kept holy day.
5 Why art thou caſt down, O my ſoul, and why art thou diſquieted in me? hope thou in God, for I ſhall yet praiſe him for the help of his countenance.
6 O my God, my ſoul is caſt down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Miſar.
7 Deep calleth unto deep at the noiſe of thy water-ſpouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.
8 Yet the LORD will command his loving kindneſſe in the day time: and in the night his ſong ſhall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.
9 I will ſay unto God, My rock, why haſt thou forgotten me? why go I mourning, becauſe of the oppreſſion of the enemy?
10 As with a ſword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me: while they ſay daily unto me, me, Where is thy God?

11 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSAL. XLIII.

JUdge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation: O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

2 For thou art the God of my strength, why dost thou cast me off? why go I mourning, because of the oppression of the enemy?

3 O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me, let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles.

4 Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy: yea, upon ℣ harp will I praise thee, O God, my God.

5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope in God, for I shall yet praise him who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSAL. XLIIII.

℣ To the chief musician, for the sons of Korah, Maschil.

WE have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.

2 How thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them, how thou didst afflict ℣ people, & cast them out.

3 For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto them.

4 Thou art my king, O God: command deliverances for Jacob.

5 Through thee will we push down our enemies: through thy Name will we tread them under that rise up against us.

6 For I will not trust in my bowe, neither shall my sword save me.

7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us.

8 In God we boast all the long: and praise thy Name ever. Selah.

9 But thou hast cast off, & put us to shame: and goest not forth with our armies.

10 Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us, spoil for themselves.

11 Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat, & hast scattered us among the heathen.

12 Thou sellest thy people for nought, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.

13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

14 Thou makest us a by-word among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people.

15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me

16 For the voice of him that reproacheth, & blasphemeth, by reason of the enemy & avenger.

17 All this is come upon us, yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

18 Our heart is not turned back: neither have our steps declined from thy way.

19 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.

20 If we have forgotten the Name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god:

21 Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

22 Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long, we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face? and forgettest our affliction, and our oppression?

25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust; our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

26 Arise for our help, and redeem us for thy mercies sake.

PSAL.

PSAL. XLV.

To the chief musician upon Shoshannim, for the sons of Korah, Maschil: A song of loves.

My heart is inditing a good matter: I speak of ꝑ things, which I have made touching the king: my pen is the tongue of a ready writer.

2 Thou art fairer than the children of men: grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

3 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most mighty: with thy glory and thy majesty.

4 And in thy majesty ride prosperously, because of truth, and meekness, and righteousness: and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the kings enemies: whereby ꝑ people fall under thee.

6 Thy throne (O God) is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

7 Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God thy God hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

8 All thy garments smell of myrrhe, and aloes, and cassia: out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

9 Kings daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

10 Hearken (O daughter) and consider, and incline thine ear: forget also thine own people, and thy fathers house.

11 So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy Lord, and worship thou him.

12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift, even the rich among the people shall intreat thy favour.

13 The kings daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.

14 She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needlework: the virgins her companions that follow her, shall be brought unto thee.

15 With gladnes and rejoycing shall they be brought, they shall enter into ꝑ kings palace.

16 In stead of thy fathers shall be thy children, whom ꝑ mayest make princes in all the earth.

17 I will make thy Name to be remembered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

PSAL. XLVI.

¶ To the chief musician, for the sons of Korah, A song upon Alamoth.

GOd is our refuge and strength: a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore will not I fear, though the earth be removed: and though the mountains be carried into the midst of ꝑ sea.

3 Though the waters thereof roar, and be troubled: though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

4 There is a river, the streams whereof shal make glad the city of God: the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

5 God is in the midst of her: she shal not be moved: God shal help her, and that right early.

6 The heathen raged, the kingdoms were removed: he uttered his voice, ꝑ earth melted.

7 The LORD of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

8 Come, behold the works of the LORD, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

9 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth: he breaketh the bowe, and cutteth the spear in sunder, he burneth the charet in the fire.

10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The LORD of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

PSAL. XLVII.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm for the sons of Korah.

O Clap your hands (all ye people:) shout unto God with the voice of triumph:

2 For the LORD most high is terrible; he is a great king over all the earth.

3 He shal subdue ꝑ people under us, & ꝑ nations under our feet

4 He

4 He shall chuse our inheritance for us: the excellency of Jacob whom he loved. Selah.

5 God is gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

6 Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

7 For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

8 God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of his holinesse.

9 The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the God of Abraham: for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

PSAL. XLVIII.

¶ A song and psalm for the sons of Korah.

GReat is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holinesse.

2 Beautifull for situation, the joy of the whole earth is mount Sion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.

3 God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

4 For lo, the kings were assembled: they passed by together.

5 They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away.

6 Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travell.

7 Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish, with an east winde.

8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah.

9 We have thought of thy loving kindnesse, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

10 According to thy Name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousnesse.

11 Let mount Sion rejoyce, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgements.

12 Walk about Sion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.

13 Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.

PSAL. XLIX.

¶ To the chief musician, a psalm for the sons of Korah.

HEar this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2 Both low and high, rich and poor together.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom, and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

4 I will encline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the dayes of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him:

8 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:)

9 That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.

10 For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations: and call their lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless, man abiding in honour, abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.

13 This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah.

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave, death shall feed on them: and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning, and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. Selah.

6 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased.

7 For when he dieth, he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.

8 Though while he lived, he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee when thou doest well to thy self.

9 He shall go to the generation of his fathers, they shall never see light.

10 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

PSALM L.

¶ A psalm of Asaph.

1 The mighty God even the LORD hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun, unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Sion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather my saints together unto me: those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself. Selah.

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak. O Israel, and I will testifie against thee: I am God, even thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices, or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.

9 I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he-goats out of thy folds.

10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattel upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wilde beasts of the field are mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer unto God thanksgiving, and pay thy vows unto the most High:

15 And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorifie me.

16 But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?

17 Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behinde thee.

18 When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

19 Thou givest thy mouth to evil, & thy tongue frameth deceit.

20 Thou sittest, and speakest against thy brother, thou slanderest thine own mothers son.

21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence: thou thoughtest that I was altogether such a one as thy self: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

22 Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

23 Whoso offereth praise, glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright, will I shew the salvation of God.

PSALM LI.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

1 HAve mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving kindness, according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against thee, thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me.

6 Be-

6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness, that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoyce.

9 Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thy holy spirit from me.

12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation: and uphold me with thy free spirit.

13 Then will I teach transgressours thy wayes, and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

15 O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

16 For thou desirest not sacrifice, else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt-offering.

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Sion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering, and whole burnt-offering; then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

PSAL. LII.

¶ To the chief musician, Maschil, A psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

WHy boastest thou thy self in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

2 Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs, like a sharp rasour working deceitfully.

3 Thou lovest evil more than good, and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

4 Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.

5 God shall likewise destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

6 The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him:

7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength, but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

9 I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy Name, for it is good before thy saints.

PSAL. LIII.

¶ To the chief musician upon Mahalath, Maschil, A psalm of David.

THE fool hath said in his heart, There is no God: they are corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doth good.

2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God.

3 Every one of them is gone back, they are altogether become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread: they have not called upon God.

5 There were they in great fear, where no fear was: for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.

6 O that the salvation of Israel were come out of Sion! when God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoyce, and Israel shall be glad.

PSAL. LIV.

To the chief musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A psalm of David, When the Ziphims came & told to Saul, Doth not David hide himself with us?

1 Save me, O God, by thy Name, and judge me by thy strength.

2 Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers are risen up against me, and oppressours seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. Selah.

4 Behold, God is mine helper: the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

5 He shall reward evil unto mine enemies: cut them off in thy truth.

6 I will freely sacrifice unto thee: I will praise thy Name (O LORD); for it is good.

7 For he hath delivered me out of all trouble: and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

PSAL. LV.

To the chief musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A psalm of David.

GIve ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thy self from my supplication.

2 Attend unto me, and hear me: I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise.

3 Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me.

4 My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrours of death are fallen upon me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horrour hath overwhelmed me.

6 And I said, O that I had wings like a dove! for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

7 Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah.

8 I would hasten my escape from windie storm & tempest.

9 Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues: for I have seen violence & strife in the city.

10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof: deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

12 For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have born it: neither was it he that hated me that did magnifie himself against me, then I would have hid my self from him.

13 But it was thou, a man, mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance.

14 We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God in company.

15 Let death seize upon them, & let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

16 As for me, I will call upon God; And the Lord shall save me.

17 Evening, and morning, and at noon will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice.

18 He hath delivered my soul in peace, from the battel that was against me: for there were many with me.

19 God shall hear and afflict them, even he that abideth of old. Selah: because they have no changes, therefore they fear not God.

20 He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: he hath broken his covenant.

21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

22 Cast thy burthen upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitfull men shall not live out half their dayes: but I will trust in thee.

PSAL. LVI.

To the chief musician upon Jonath-Elem-Rechokim, Michtam of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath.

BE mercifull unto me, O God, for man would swallow me up: he fighting daily, oppresseth me.

2 Mine enemies would daily swallow swallow me up: for there be many that fight against me, O thou most High.

3 What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

4 In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust, I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

5 Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for evil.

6 They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps when they wait for my soul.

7 Shall they escape by inquity? in thine anger cast down the people, O God.

8 Thou tellest my wanderings, put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book?

9 When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back:
this I know, for God is for me.

10 In God will I praise his word: in the LORD will I praise his word.

11 In God have I put my trust:
I will not be afraid what man
can do unto me.

12 Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee.

13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt not thou deliver my feet from fall-ling? that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

PSAL. LVII.

¶ To the chief musician Al-taschith, Michtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me, for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

2 I will cry unto God most high: unto God that performeth all things for me.

3 He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. Selah. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.

4 My soul is among lions: and I lie even among them that are set on fire: even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

6 They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down; they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah.

7 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise.

8 Awake up my glory; awake psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

9 I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations.

10 For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.

11 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

PSAL. LVIII.

¶ To the chief musician Al-taschith, Michtam of David.

DO ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?

2 Yea, in heart ye work wickedness; ye weigh the violence of your hands on the earth.

3 The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies.

4 Their poison is like the poison of a serpent: they are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear;

5 Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, charming never so wisely.

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD.

7 Let them melt away as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces.

8 As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away: like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

9 Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living, and in his wrath.

10 The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

11 So that a man shall say,

Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily He is a God that judgeth in the earth.

PSAL. LIX.

¶ To the chief musician Al-taschith, Michtam of David: when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

DEliver me from mine enemies, O my God: defend me from them ¶ rise up against me.

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: the mighty are gathered against me: not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: awake to help me, and behold.

5 Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressours. Selah.

6 They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth: swords are in their lips: for who, say they, doth hear?

8 But thou, O LORD, shalt laugh at them; thou shalt have all the heathen in derision.

9 Because of his strength will I wait upon thee, for God is my defence.

10 The God of my mercy shall prevent me: God shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies.

11 Slay them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by thy power, and bring them down, O Lord our shield.

12 For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips, let them even be taken in their pride: and for cursing and lying which they speak.

13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, ¶ they may not be: and let them know ¶ God ruleth in Jacob unto the ends of ¶ earth. Selah.

14 And at evening let them return; and let them make a noise like a dog, and go round about ¶ city.

15 Let them wander up and down for meat; and grudge, if they be not satisfied.

16 But I will sing of thy power; yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning: for thou hast been my defence, and refuge in the day of my trouble.

17 Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing: for God is my defence, and the God of my mercy.

PSAL. LX.

¶ To the chief musician upon Shushan Eduth, Michtam of David, to teach, when he strove with Aram Naharaim, and with Aram Zobah, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt, twelve thousand.

O God, thou hast cast us off, thou hast scattered us, thou hast been displeased, O turn thy self to us again.

2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal the breaches thereof, for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewed thy people hard things: thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

4 Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee: that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

5 That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and hear me.

6 God hath spoken in his holiness, I will rejoyce: I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine, Ephraim also is the strength of my head, Judah is my law-giver.

8 Moab is my wash-pot, over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia, triumph thou because of me.

9 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

10 Wilt not thou, O God, which hadst cast us off? and thou, O God, which didst not go out with our armies?

11 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

12 Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSAL. LXI.

¶ To the chief musician upon Neginoh A psalm of David.

HEar my cry, O God: attend unto my prayer.

From

2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

3 For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemie.

4 I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: I will trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.

5 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that feare thy Name.

6 Thou wilt prolong the kings life: and his yeers as many generations.

7 He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.

8 So will I sing praise unto thy Name for ever, that I may daily performe my vows.

PSAL. LXII.

¶ To the chief musician, to Jeduthun, A psalm of David.

TRuly my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

2 He onely is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence, I shal not be greatly moved.

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: a bowing wall shall ye be, and a tottering fence.

4 They onely consult to cast him down from his excellency, they delight in lies: they blesse with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah.

5 My soul, wait thou onely upon God: for my expectation is from him.

6 He onely is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence, I shall not be moved.

7 In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times, ye people, pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.

9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter then vanity.

10 Trust not in oppression, become not vain in robbery, if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

11 God hath spoken once, twice have I heard this: that power belongeth unto God.

12 Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

PSAL. LXIII.

¶ A psalm of David, when he was in the wildernesse of Judah.

O God, thou art my God: early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee, in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is:

2 To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 Because thy loving kindnesse is better then life: my lips shall praise thee.

4 Thus will I blesse thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy Name.

5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatnesse: and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

6 When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.

7 Because thou hast been my help: therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoyce.

8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

9 But those that seek my soul to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 They shal fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.

11 But the king shall rejoyce in God, every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

PSAL. LXIIII.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David.

HEar my voice O God in my prayer: preserve my life from feare of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked: from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

3 Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bow to shoot their arrowes, even bitter words:

4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and feare not.

5 They

5 They encourage themselves in an evil matter, they commune of laying snares privily; they say, Who shall see them?

6 They search out Iniquities, they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart is deep.

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow, suddenly shall they be wounded.

8 So they shal make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shal flee away.

9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God: for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him: and all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSAL. LXV.

To the chief musician, A psalm and song of David.

PRaise waiteth for thee, O God, in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

5 By terrible things in righteousness, wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation: who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are far off upon the sea.

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains, being girded with power.

7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts, are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the out-goings of the morning and evening to rejoyce.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof, thou makest it soft with showers, thou blessest the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest the yeer with thy goodness, and thy paths drop fatnesse.

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wildernesse, and the little hills rejoyce on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks: the valleys also are covered over with corn: they shout for joy, they also sing.

PSAL. LXVI.

¶ To the chief musician, A song, or psalm.

MAke a joyfull noise unto God, all ye lands.

2 Sing forth the honour of his Name: make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works? through the greatnesse of thy power shal thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

4 All the earth shall worship thee, and shal sing unto thee: they shall sing to thy Name. Selah.

5 Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

6 He turned the sea into dry land: they went thorow the flood on foot, there did we rejoyce in him.

7 He ruleth by his power for ever, his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.

8 O blesse our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard.

9 Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.

10 For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us as silver is tried.

11 Thou broughtest us into the net: thou layedst affliction upon our loins.

12 Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads, we went thorow fire, and thorow water, but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

13 I will go into thy house with burnt-offerings: I will pay thee my vows.

14 Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.

15 I will offer unto thee burnt-sacrifices of fatlings, with the incense of rams: I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah.

16 Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

17 I cryed unto him with my mouth: and he was extolled with my tongue.

18 If I regard iniquity in my heart, ℣ Lord will not hear me.

19 But verily God hath heard me: he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

20 Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

PSAL. LXVII.

¶ To the chief musician on Neginoth, A psalm or song.

GOd be mercifull unto us, and bless us: and cause his face to shine upon us. Selah.

2 That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise thee, O God: let all ℣ people praise thee.

4 O let the nations be glad, and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, ℣ govern the nations upon earth. Selah.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God: let all ℣ people praise thee.

6 Then shall the earth yeeld her increase: and God, even our own God shall bless us.

7 God shall bless us, and all the ends of ℣ earth shall fear him.

PSAL. LXVIII.

¶ To the chief musician, ℣ psalm or song of David.

LEt God arise, let his enemies be scattered, let them also that hate him flee before him.

2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad: let them rejoyce before God, yea, let them exceedingly rejoyce.

4 Sing unto God, sing praises to his Name: extoll him that rideth upon the heavens, by his Name JAH, and rejoyce before him.

5 A father of the fatherless, and a Judge of the widowes, is God in his holy habitation.

6 God setteth the solitary in families: he bringeth out those which are bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people: when thou didst march through the wildernesse? Selah.

8 The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, didst send a plentifull rain, whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodnes for the poor.

11 The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it.

12 Kings of armies did flee apace: and she that tarried at home divided the spoil.

13 Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove, covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold.

14 When the Almighty scattered kings in it, it was white as snow in Salmon.

15 The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan, an high hill, as the hill of Bashan.

16 Why leap ye, ye high hills, this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in, yea, the Lord will dwell in it for ever.

17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels: the LORD is among them, as in Sinai, in ℣ holy place.

18 Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive, thou hast received gifts for men, yea, for the rebellious also, that the Lord God might dwell among them.

19 Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. Selah.

20 He that is our God, is the God of salvation: and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death.

21 But God shall wound the head of his enemies: and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his trespasses.

22 The Lord said, I will bring again from Bashan, I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea:

23 That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies, and the tongue of thy dogs in the same.

24 They have seen thy goings, O God, even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary.

25 The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after; amongst them were the damsels playing with timbrels.

26 Bless ye God in the congregations, even the Lord, from the fountain of Israel.

27 There is little Benjamin with their ruler, the princes of Judah, and their counsell, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

28 Thy God hath commanded thy strength: strengthen, O God, that which thou hast wrought for us.

29 Because of thy temple at Jerusalem, shall kings bring presents unto thee.

30 Rebuke the company of spearmen, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people, till every one submit himself with pieces of silver: scatter thou the people that delight in war.

31 Princes shall come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.

32 Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth: O sing praises unto the Lord. Selah.

33 To him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old: lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice.

34 Ascribe ye strength unto God: his excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the clouds.

35 O God, thou art terrible out of thy holy places: the God of Israel is he that giveth strength and power unto his people: blessed be God.

PSAL. LXIX.

To the chief musician upon Shoshannim, A psalm of David.

Save me, O God, for the waters are come in unto my soul.

2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

3 I am weary of my crying, my throat is dried: mine eyes fail, while I wait for my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause, are more than the hairs of my head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away.

5 O God, thou knowest my foolishness, and my sins are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord GOD of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.

7 Because for thy sake I have born reproach: shame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mothers children.

9 For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up: and the reproaches of them that reproached thee, are fallen upon me.

10 When I wept and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach.

11 I made sackcloth also my garment, and I became a proverb to them.

12 They that sit in the gate, speak against me: and I was the song of the drunkards.

13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, in an acceptable time; O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

15 Let not the water-flood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

16 Hear me, O LORD, for thy loving kindeness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

17 And hide not thy face from thy servant, for I am in trouble: hear me speedily.

18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me, because of mine enemies.

19 Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversories are all before thee.

20 Reproach hath broken mine heart: & I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.
21 They gave me also gall for my meat, and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
22 Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.
23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not: and make their loins continually to shake.
24 Pour out thine indignation upon them, & let thy wrathfull anger take hold of them.
25 Let their habitation be desolate, and let none dwell in their tents.
26 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the grief of those whom thou hast wounded.
27 Adde iniquity unto their iniquity, and let them not come into thy righteousnesse.
28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with ¶ righteous.
29 But I am poor and sorrowfull: let thy salvation (O God) set me up on high.
30 I will praise the Name of God with a song, and will magnifie him with thanksgiving.
31 This also shall please the LORD better then an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.
32 The humble shall see this, and be glad: and your heart shal live that seek God.
33 For ¶ LORD heareth ¶ poor, and despiseth not his prisoners.
34 Let the heaven and the earth praise him, the seas, and every thing ¶ moveth therein.
35 For God will save Sion, and will build the cities of Judah, that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.
36 The seed also of his servants shal inherit it: & they that love his Name, shal dwel therein.

PSAL. LXX.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

Make haste, O God, to deliver me, make haste to help me, O LORD.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.
3 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame, that say, Aha, Aha.
4 Let all those ¶ seek thee, rejoyce & be glad in thee & let such as love thy salvation, say continually, Let God be magnified.
5 But I am poor and needy, make haste unto me, O God: thou art my help, and my deliverer, O LORD, make no tarrying.

PSAL. LXXI.

IN thee, O LORD, do I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion.
2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, & cause me to escape: incline thine ear unto me, and save me.
3 Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given commandment to save me, for thou art my rock, and my fortresse.
4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruell man.
5 For thou art my hope, O Lord GOD: thou art my trust from my youth.
6 By thee have I been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mothers bowels, my praise shall be continually of thee.
7 I am as a wonder unto many, but thou art my strong refuge.
8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise, and with thy honour all the day.
9 Cast me not off in the time of old age: forsake me not when my strength faileth.
10 For mine enemies speak against me: & they ¶ lay wait for my soul, take counsell together, 11 Saying, God hath forsaken him: persecute and take him, for there is none to deliver him.
12 O God, be not far fro me: O my God, make haste for my help.
13 Let them be confounded, and consumed, that are adversaries to my soul: let them be covered with reproach & dishonour, that seek my hurt.

15 My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousnesse, and thy salvation all the day: for I know not the numbers thereof.

16 I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD: I will make mention of thy righteousnesse, even of thine onely.

17 O God thou hast taught me from my youth: & hitherto have I declared thy wonderous works.

18 Now also when I am old, and gray headed, O God, forsake me not: untill I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

19 Thy righteousnesse also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: O God, who is like unto thee?

20 Thou hast shewed me great & sore troubles shalt quicken me again, & shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, & comfort me on every side.

22 I will also praise thee with ♆ psaltery, even thy truth, O my God unto thee will I sing ♈ with the harp, O ♆ holy One of Israel.

23 My lips shall greatly rejoyce when I sing unto thee: and my soul, which thou hast redeemed.

24 My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousnesse all the day long: for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame that seek my hurt.

PSAL. LXXII.

¶ A Psalm for Solomon.

Give the king thy judgements, O God, and thy righteousnesse unto ♆ kings son.

2 He shall judge thy people with righteousnesse, and thy poor with judgement.

3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people: and the little hills by righteousnesse.

4 He shall judge the poor of the people, he shal save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressour.

5 They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

6 He shall come down like rain upon the mowen grasse: as showers that water the earth.

7 In his dayes shall the righteous flourish: and abundance of peace so long as ♆ moon endureth.

8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him: and his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tarshish, and of the iles, shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba, and Seba shall offer gifts.

11 Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

12 For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth: the poor also, and him ♆ hath no helper.

13 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight.

15 And he shall live, and to him shall be given of ♆ gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for him continually, and daily shall he be praised.

16 There shall be an handfull of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon, and they of the city shall flourish like grasse of the earth.

17 His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun; and men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed.

18 Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, who onely doth wonderous things.

19 And blessed be his glorious Name for ever, & let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen, and amen.

20 The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

PSAL. LXXIII.

¶ A psalm of Asaph.

Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone: my steps had well nigh slipt.

3 For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is firm.

5 They are not in trouble as other men: neither are they plagued like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain: violence covereth them as a garment.

7 Their eyes stand out with fatnesse: they have more than heart could wish.

8 They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

9 They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world, they increase in riches.

13 Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus: behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

16 When I thought to know this, it was too painfull for me.

17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God, then understood I their end.

18 Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrours.

20 As a dream when one awaketh: so, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22 So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before thee.

23 Nevertheless, I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsell, and afterward receive me to glory.

25 Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee.

26 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

27 For lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

28 But it is good for me to draw neer to God: I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may declare all thy works.

PSAL. LXXIIII.

¶ Maschil of Asaph.

O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

2 Remember thy congregation which thou hast purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Sion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetuall desolations: even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

4 Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations: they set up their ensignes for signes.

5 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees:

6 But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

7 They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy Name to the ground.

8 They said in their heart Let us destroy them together: they have burnt up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not our signes, there is no more any prophet, neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy Name for ever?

11 Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? plucke it out of thy bosom.

12 For God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

14 Thou brakest the heads of leviathan vinthan in pieces, and gave it him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wildernesse.

15 Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood: thou driedst up mighty rivers.

16 The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.

18 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and that the foolish people have blasphemed thy Name.

19 O deliver not the soul of thy turtle-dove unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.

20 Have respect unto the covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy Name.

22 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.

23 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against thee increaseth continually.

PSAL. LXXV.

¶ To the chief musician Al-taschith. A psalm or song of Asaph.

UNto thee, O God, do we give thanks: unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy Name is neer, thy wondrous works declare.

2 When I shall receive ℣ congregation I will judge uprightly.

3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it. Selah.

4 I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly: and to the wicked, Lift not up the horn.

5 Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck.

6 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south.

7 But God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

8 For in the hand of ℣ LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red: it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

9 But I will declare for ever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10 All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

PSAL. LXXVI.

¶ To the chief musician on Neginoth. A psalm or song of Asaph.

IN Judah is God known: his Name is great in Israel.

2 In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Sion.

3 There brake he the arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battel. Selah.

4 Thou art more glorious and excellent than the mountains of prey.

5 The stout-hearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep, and none of the men of might have found their hands.

6 At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

7 Thou, even thou art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?

8 Thou didst cause judgement to be heard from heaven: the earth feared and was still.

9 When God arose to judgement, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah.

10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.

11 Vow and pay unto ℣ LORD your God: let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.

12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes: he is terrible to the kings of the earth.

PSAL. LXXVII.

¶ To the chief musician, to Jeduthun. A psalm of Asaph.

I Cryed unto God with my voice: even unto God with my voice, and he gave ear unto me.

2 In the day of my trouble I sought the LORD: my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

3 I remembred God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

5 I have considered the dayes of old, & yeers of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart, and my spirit made diligent search.

7 Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more?

8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore?

9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.

10 And I said: This is my infirmity; but I will remember the yeers of the right hand of the most High.

11 I will remember & works of the LORD, surely I will remember thy wonders of old.

12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

13 Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God?

14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

15 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee: they were afraid; the depths also were troubled.

17 The clouds poured out waters: the skies sent out a sound: thine arrows also went abroad.

18 The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook.

19 Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.

20 Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

PSAL. LXXVIII.

1 Maschil of Asaph.

GIve ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:

3 Which we have heard and known: and our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come & praises of the LORD, and his strength and his wonderful works & he hath done.

5 For he established a testimony in Jacob & appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers: that they should make them known to their children.

6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born: who should arise and declare them to their children:

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments:

8 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation: a generation & set not their heart aright, & whose spirit was not stedfast & God.

9 The children of Ephraim being armed, & carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

10 They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law:

11 And forgat his works & his wonders & he had shewed them.

12 Marvellous things did he in & sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in & field of Zoan.

13 He divided the sea, & caused them to passe: & he made & waters to stand as an heap.

14 In the day time also he led them with a cloud: and all the night with a light of fire.

15 He clave the rocks in the wilderness, & gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned yet more against him: by provoking the most High in the wilderness.

18 And they tempted God in their heart: by asking meat for their lust.

19 Yea, they spake against God: they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

20 Behold, he smote the rock, that & waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed: can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

21 There-

21 Therefore the LORD heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel:

22 Because they believed not in God: and trusted not in his salvation:

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven:

24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat: and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 Man did eat angels food: he sent them meat to the full.

26 He caused an east winde to blow in the heaven: & by his power he brought in the south winde.

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea.

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp round about their habitations.

29 So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire.

30 They were not estranged from their lust: but while their meat was yet in their mouthes, 31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them: and smote down the chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this they sinned still: and believed not for his wondrous works.

33 Therefore their dayes did he consume in vanity, and their yeers in trouble.

34 When he slew them, then they sought him: & they returned, and enquired early after God.

35 And they remembred that God was their rock: and the high God their redeemer.

36 Nevertheless, they did flatter him ✠ their mouth and they lied unto him ✠ their tongues.

37 For their heart was not right with him: neither were they stedfast in his covenant.

38 But he, being full of compassion forgave their iniquity, & destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.

39 For he remembred ✠ they were but flesh: a winde ✠ passeth away, and cometh not again.

40 How oft did they provoke him in the wildernesse, and grieve him in the desart?

41 Yea, they turned back, and tempted God: and limited the holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand: nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy.

43 How he had wrought his signes in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan:

44 And had turned their rivers into blood: and their floods that they could not drink.

45 He sent divers sorts of flies among them, ✠ devoured them: and frogs which destroyed them.

46 He gave also their increase unto the caterpiller: and their labour unto the locust.

47 He destroyed their vines with hail; and their sycomore-trees with frost.

48 He gave up their cattel also to the hail: and their flocks to hot thunder-bolts.

49 He cast upon them the fiercenesse of his anger, wrath, & indignation, & trouble: by sending evil angels among them:

50 He made a way to his anger: he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence.

51 And smote all the first-born in Egypt: the chief of their strength in ✠ tabernacles of Ham.

52 But made his own people to go forth like sheep: and guided them in ✠ wildernes like a flock.

53 And he led them on safely, so ✠ they feared not: but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary: even to this mountain which his right hand had purchased.

55 He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line: and made the tribes of Israel to dwel in their tents.

56 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, & kept not his testimonies:

57 But turned back and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitfull bowe.

58 For they provoked him to anger ✠ their high places, & moved him to jealousie with their graven images.

59 When God heard this, he was wroth & greatly abhorred Israel 60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh the tent which he placed among men, 61 And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemies hand.

62 He gave his people over also unto the sword: and was wroth with his inheritance.
63 The fire consumed their young men: and their maidens were not given to marriage.
64 Their priests fell by the sword: and their widows made no lamentation.
65 Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep: and like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.
66 And he smote his enemies in the hinder parts: he put them to a perpetuall reproach.
67 Moreover, he refused the tabernacle of Joseph: and chose not the tribe of Ephraim, 68 But chose the tribe of Judah: & mount Sion which he loved.
69 And he built his sanctuary like high palaces: like the earth which he hath established for ever.
70 He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheep folds:
71 From following the ewes great with young, he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.
72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart: and guided them by the skilfulnesse of his hands.

PSAL. LXXIX.

¶ A Psalm of Asaph.

O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance, thy holy temple have they defiled, they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.
2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of heaven: the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of earth.
3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem: and there was none to bury them.
4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours: a scorn & derision to them that are round about us.
5 How long, LORD, wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousie burn like fire.
6 Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have not known thee, and upon the kingdomes that have not called upon thy Name.
7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place.
8 O remember not against us former iniquities; let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us:
for we are brought very low.
9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy Name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins for thy Names sake.
10 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight, by the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed.
11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee, according to the greatnesse of thy power: preserve thou those that are appointed to die.
12 And render unto our neighbours seven fold into their bo-soms their reproach wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.
13 So we thy people & sheep of thy pasture, will give thee thanks for ever: we will shew forth thy praise to all generations.

¶ To the chief musician upon Shushannim Eduth. A psalm of Asaph.

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock: thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.
2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin, and Manasseh, stir up thy strength: and come and save us.
3 Turn us again, O God: and cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.
4 O LORD God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?
5 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears: and givest them tears to drink in great measure.
6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh among themselves.
7 Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.
8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.
9 Thou preparedst room before it: & didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.

11 She sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her branches unto the river.

12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedges, so that all they which passe by the way do pluck her?

13 The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wilde beast of ℣ field doth devour it.

14 Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts: look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine:

15 And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted: and the branch that thou madest strong for thy self.

PSALM. LXXXI.

¶ To the chief musician upon Gittith. A psalm of Asaph.

SIng aloud unto God our strength: make a joyfull noise unto the God of Jacob.

2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrell: the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon: in ℣ time appointed, on our solemn feast day.

4 For this was a statute for Israel: and a law of the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out thorow the land of Egypt: where I heard a language that I understood not.

6 I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands were delivered from the pots.

7 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee, I answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. Selah.

8 Hear, O my people, and I will testifie unto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me:

9 There shall no strange god be in thee, neither shalt thou worship any strange god.

10 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice, and Israel would none of me.

12 So I gave them up unto their own hearts lust: and they walked in their own counsels.

13 O that my people had hearkened unto me: and Israel had walked in my wayes!

14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

15 The haters of the LORD should have submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.

16 He should have fed them also with the finest of ℣ wheat: and with honey out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

PSAL. LXXXII.

¶ A psalm of Asaph.

GOd standeth in the congregation of the mighty: he judgeth among the gods.

2 How long will ye judge unjustly: and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.

3 Defend the poor and fatherlesse: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4 Deliver the poor and needy, rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

5 They know not, neither will they understand, they walk on in darknesse: all ℣ foundations of the earth are out of course.

6 I have said, Ye are gods: and all of you are children of the most High:

7 But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

8 Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.

PSAL. LXXXIII.

¶ A song, or psalm of Asaph.

KEep not thou silence, O God, hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.

2 For lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee, have lift up the head.

3 They have taken crafty counsell against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones.

4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation: that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee.

6 The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmelites: of Moab, and the Hagarens.

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek: the Philistines, with the inhabitants of Tyre.

8 Assur also is joyned with them: they have holpen the children of Lot. Selah.

9 Do unto them as unto the Midianites: as to Sisera, as to Jabin at the brook of Kison, 10 Which perished at En-dor: they became as dung for the earth.

11 Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb: yea, all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna:

12 Who said, Let us take to our selves the houses of God in possession.

13 O my God, make them like a wheel: as the stubble before the winde.

14 As the fire burneth a wood: and as the flame setteth the mountains on fire:

15 So persecute them with thy tempest: and make them afraid with thy storm.

16 Fill their faces with shame, that they may seek thy Name, O LORD.

17 Let them be confounded, & troubled for ever: yea, let them be put to shame and perish:

18 That men may know that thou, whose Name alone is JEHOVAH, art the most High over all the earth.

PSAL. LXXXIII.

¶ To the chief musician upon Gittith, A psalm for the sons of Korah.

HOw amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts!

2 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the LORD: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for her self, where she may lay her young: even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are the wayes of them:

6 Who passing through the valley of Baca, make it a well: the rain also filleth the pools.

7 They go from strength to strength: every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

9 Behold, O God our shield: and look upon the face of thine anointed.

10 For a day in thy courts is better then a thousand: I had rather be a doór-keeper in the house of my God, then to dwell in the tents of wickednesse.

11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

12 O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

PSAL. LXXXV.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm for the sons of Korah.

LORD, thou hast been favourable unto thy land: thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people: thou hast covered all their sin. Selah.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: thou hast turned thy self from the fiercenes of thine anger.

4 Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger towards us to cease.

5 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

6 Wilt thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoyce in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O LORD: and grant us thy salvation.

8 I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not turn again to folly.

9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him, that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together: righteousnes & peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth shall spring out of the earth: and righteousnesse shall look down from heaven.

12 Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good, and our land shall yeeld her increase.

13 Righteousnesse shall go before him: and shall set us in the way of his steps.

PSAL. LXXXVI.

¶ A prayer of David.

BOw down thine ear, O LORD, hear me: for I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul, for I am holy: O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, O Lord: for I cry unto thee daily.

4 Rejoyce the soul of thy servant: for unto thee (O Lord) do I lift up my soul.

5 For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive: & plenteous in mercy to all them that call upon thee.

6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer: and attend the voice of my supplications.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

8 Among the gods there is none like unto thee (O Lord:) neither are there any works like unto thy works.

9 All nations whom thou hast made, shall come and worship before thee, O Lord, and shall glorifie thy Name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wonderous things: thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD, I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy Name

12 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorifie thy Name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me: & thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

14 O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul, and have not set thee before them.

15 But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious; long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

16 O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me, give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thy hand-maid.

17 Shew me a token for good, & they that hate me may see it, & be ashamed: because thou, LORD, hast holpen me, & comforted me.

PSAL. LXXXVII.

¶ A psalm or song for the sons of Korah.

HIs foundation is in the holy mountains.

2 The LORD loveth & gates of Zion, more then all & dwellings of Jacob.

3 Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Selah.

4 I will make mention of Rahab, and Babylon, to them that know me; behold, Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia: this man was born there.

5 And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her: and the Highest himself shall establish her.

6 The LORD shall count when he writeth up the people: that this man was born there. Selah.

7 As well & singers, as & players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in thee.

PSAL. LXXXVIII.

¶ A song or psalm for the sons of Korah, to & chief musician upon Mahalath Leannoth, Maschil of Heman & Ezrahite

O LORD God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee.

2 Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry.

3 For my soul is full of troubles: and my life draweth nigh unto the grave.

4 I am counted with them & go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength.

5 Free among & dead, like the slain slain ¶ lie in the grave, whom thou remembrest no more: and they are cut off from thy hand.

6 Thou hast laid me in ¶ lowest pit: in darkenesse, in the deeps.

7 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me: & thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Selah.

8 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me: thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

9 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: LORD, I have called daily upon thee: I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

10 Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise, and praise thee? Selah.

11 Shall thy loving kindeness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 Shal thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousnese in the land of forgetfulnes?

13 But unto thee have I cried, O LORD: and in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee.

14 LORD, why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am afflicted and ready to die, from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrours, I am distracted.

16 Thy fierce wrath goeth over me: thy terrours have cut me off.

17 They came round about me daily like water: they compassed me about together.

18 Lover and friend hast thou put far from me: and mine acquaintance into darkness.

PSAL. LXXXIX

1 Maschil of Ethan ¶ Ezrahite. I Will sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulnes to all generations.

2 For I have said, Mercy shal be built up for ever: thy faithfulnesse shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

3 I have made a covenant with my chosen: I have sworn unto David my servant.

4 Thy seed will I establish for ever, & build up thy throne to all generations. Selah.

5 And the heavens shal praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulnes also in the congregation of the saints.

6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto ¶ LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?

7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.

8 O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD like unto thee? or to thy faithfulnes round about thee?

9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain: thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.

11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulnes thereof, thou hast founded them.

12 The north & the south, thou hast created them: Tabor & Hermon shall rejoyce in thy Name.

13 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

14 Justice & judgement are the habitation of thy throne: mercy & truth shall go before thy face.

15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shal walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.

16 In thy Name shal they rejoyce all the day: and in thy righteousnes shal they be exalted.

17 For thou art the glory of their strength: & in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.

18 For the LORD is our defence: and the holy One of Israel is our king.

19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy One, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty, I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

20 I have found David my servant: with my holy oil have I anointed him.

21 With whom my hand shal be established: mine arm also shall strengthen him.

22 The enemy shal not exact upon him: nor the son of wickednesse afflict him.

23 And

23 And I will beat down his foes before his face: and plague them that hate him:
24 But my faithfulnesse and my mercy shall be with him:
and in my Name shall his horn be exalted.
25 I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.
26 He shal cry unto me, Thou art my Father, my God, and the rock of my salvation.
27 Also I will make him my first-born: higher then the kings of the earth.
28 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore: and my covenant shal stand fast with him.
29 His seed also will I make to endure for ever: and his throne as the dayes of heaven.
30 If his children forsake my lawand walk not in my judgements:
31 If they break my statutes,
& keep not my commandments:
32 Then will I visit their transgressions with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.
33 Nevertheless, my loving kindenesse will I not utterly take from him: nor suffer my faithfulnesse to fail.
34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.
35 Once have I sworn by my holinesse, that I will not lie unto David.
36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me
37 It shall be established for ever as ☽ moon: & as a faithfull witnesse in heaven. Selah.
38 But thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.
39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown, by casting it to the ground.
40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges: thou hast brought his strong holds to ruine.
41 All that passe by the way, spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbours.
42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries: & hast made all his enemies to rejoyce.
43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in ☿ battell.
44 Thou hast made his glory to cease: and cast his throne down to the ground.
45 The dayes of his youth hast thou shortned: thou hast covered him with shame. Selah.
46 How long, LORD, wilt thou hide thy self, for ever? shal thy wrath burn like fire?
47 Remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men in vain?
48 What man is he that liveth, and shal not see death? shal he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah.
49 Lord, where are thy former loving kindenesses, which thou swarest unto David in thy truth?
50 Remember (Lord) the reproach of thy servants: how I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty people.
51 Where with thine enemies have reproached, O LORD, wherewith they have reproached
the footsteps of thine anointed.
52 Blessed be the LORD for evermore. Amen, and amen.

PSAL. XC.

¶ A prayer of Moses the man of God.

LOrd, ☿ hast been our dwelling place in all generations.
2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world:
even from everlasting to everlasting thou art God.
3 Thou turnest man to destruction, and sayest, Return ye children of men.
4 For a thousand yeers in thy sight are but as yesterday, when it is past: and as a watch in the night.
5 Thou carriest them away
as ♍ a flood, they are as a sleep:
in the morning they are like grasse which groweth up.
6 In ☽ morning it flourisheth, and groweth up: in the evening
it is cut down and withereth.
7 For we are consumed by thine anger: and by thy wrath are we troubled.
8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee: our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.
9 For

9 For all our dayes are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our yeers as a tale that is told.

10 The dayes of our yeers are threescore yeers and ten: and if by reason of strength they be fourscore yeers, yet is their strength labour and sorrow: for it is soon cut off, and we flee away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

12 So teach us to number our dayes: that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

14 O satisfie us early with thy mercy, that we may rejoyce, and be glad all our dayes.

15 Make us glad according to the dayes wherein thou hast afflicted us: and the yeers wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants: and thy glory unto their children.

17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us, and establish thou the work of our hands upon us: yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

PSAL. XCI.

HE that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge, and my fortresse: my God, in him will I trust.

3 Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisom pestilence.

4 He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terrour by night: nor for the arrow that flieth by day:

6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darknesse; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noon day.

7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Onely with thine eyes shalt thou behold: and see the reward of the wicked.

9 Because, thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

10 There shall no evil befall thee: neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy wayes.

12 They shall bear thee up in their hands: lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my Name.

15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him, and honour him.

16 With long life will I satisfie him, & shew him my salvation.

PSAL. XCII.

¶ A psalm or song for the sabbath day.

IT is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy Name, O most High:

2 To shew forth thy loving kindnesse in the morning, and thy faithfulnesse every night:

3 Upon an instrument of ten strings, & upon ♪ psaltery: upon the harp with a solemn sound.

4 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

5 O LORD, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep.

6 A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

7 When the wicked spring as ♪ grasse, and when all ♪ workers of iniquity do flourish: it is that they shall be destroyed for ever.

8 ¶ But thou, LORD, art most high for evermore.

9 For lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for lo, thine enemies shall perish: all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

10 But my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn:

shall be anointed with fresh oil.
11 Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.
12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
13 Those that be planted in the house of the LORD, shall flourish in the courts of our God.
14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age: they shall be fat and flourishing:
15 To shew that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM. XCIII.

THE LORD reigneth, he is clothed with majesty: the LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself:
the world also is established, that it cannot be moved.
2 Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.
3 The floods have lifted up,
O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice: the floods lift up their waves.
4 The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters: yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.
5 Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, for ever.

PSALM. XCIIII.

O LORD God to whom vengeance belongeth: O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thy self.
2 Lift up thy self, thou Judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.
3 LORD, how long shall the wicked; how long shall the wicked triumph?
4 How long shall they utter, and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?
5 They break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage.
6 They slay the widow and the stranger: and murder the fatherless.
7 Yet they say, The LORD shall not see: neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.
8 Understand, O ye brutish among the people: and ye fools when will ye be wise?
9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?
10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct?
he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?
11 The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.
12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law:
13 That thou mayest give him rest from the dayes of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.
14 For the LORD will not cast off his people: neither will he forsake his inheritance.
15 But Judgement shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it.
16 Who will rise up for me against the evill doers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?
17 Unlesse the LORD had been my help: my soul had almost dwelt in silence.
18 When I said, my foot slippeth: thy mercy, O LORD, held me up.
19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me, thy comforts delight my soul.
20 Shall the throne of Iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?
21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous: and condemn the innocent blood.
22 But the LORD is my defence:
and my God is the rock of my refuge.
23 And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness: yea, the LORD our God shall cut them off.

PSALM. XCV.

O Come, let us sing unto the LORD: let us make a joyfull noise to the rock of our salvation.
2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and make a joyfull noise unto him with psalms.

3 For

3 For the LORD is a great God: and a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it, and his hands formed the dry land.

6 O come let us worship, and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our Maker.

7 For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand: to day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wildernesse:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work.

10 Fourty yeers long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do erre in their hearts: and they have not known my wayes.

11 Unto whom I sware in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

PSAL. XCV?.

O Sing unto the LORD a new song, sing unto the LORD, all the earth.

2 Sing unto the LORD, blesse his Name: shew forth his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his glory among the heathen: his wonders among all people.

4 For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

5 For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.

9 Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

7 Give unto the LORD, (O ye kinreeds of the people) give unto ℣ LORD glory & strength.

8 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his Name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

9 O worship the LORD in the beauty of holinesse: fear before him, all the earth.

10 Say among the heathen, that the LORD reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge ℣ people righteously.

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad: let the sea roar, and ℣ fulnesse thereof.

12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all ℣ trees of the wood rejoice

13 Before the LORD, for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousnesse, and the people with his truth.

PSAL. XCVII.

THe LORD reigneth, let the earth rejoyce: let the multitude of Isles be glad thereof.

2 Clouds and darknesse are round about him: righteousnesse and judgement are the habitation of his throne.

3 A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

4 His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.

5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth,

6 The heavens declare his righteousnesse: and all the people see his glory.

7 Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols; worship him all ye gods.

8 Sion heard and was glad, and the daughters of Judah rejoyced: because of thy judgements, O LORD.

9 For thou, LORD, art high above all the earth: thou art exalted far above all gods.

10 Ye that love the LORD hate evil: he preserveth ℣ souls of his saints: he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladnesse for the upright in heart.

12 Rejoyce in the LORD, ye righteous, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holinesse.

PSAL. XCVIII.

¶ A psalm.

O Sing unto the LORD a new song, for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand & his holy arm hath gotten him the victory.

2 The

2 The LORD hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

3 He hath remembred his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

4 Make a joyfull noise unto the LORD, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoyce, and sing praise.

5 Sing unto the LORD with the harp: with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

6 With trumpets and sound of cornet: make a joyfull noise before the LORD, the king.

7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof: the world, and they that dwell therein.

8 Let ‖ floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyfull together

9 Before ‖ LORD, for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge ‖ world, and the people with equity.

PSAL. XCIX.

THE LORD reigneth, let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubims, let the earth be moved.

2 The LORD is great in Zion: and he is high above all people.

3 Let them praise thy great and terrible Name: for it is holy.

4 The kings strength also loveth judgement, thou dost establish equity: thou executest judgement and righteousness in Jacob.

5 Exalt ye the LORD our God: and worship at his foot-stool for he is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his Name: they called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

7 He spake unto them in the cloudy pillar; they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them.

8 Thou answeredst them, O LORD our God: thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions.

9 Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy hill: for the LORD our God is holy.

PSAL. C.

¶ A psalm of praise.

MAke a joyfull noise unto the LORD all ye lands.

2 Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

3 Know ye that the LORD he is God, it is he that hath made us, and not we our selves: we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankfull unto him, and bless his Name.

5 For the LORD is good, his mercy is everlasting: & his truth endureth to all generations.

PSAL. CI.

¶ A psalm of David,

I will sing of mercy and judgement: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.

2 I will behave my self wisely in a perfect way, O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside, it shall not cleave to me.

4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath a high look & a proud heart will not I suffer.

6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithfull of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

7 He that worketh deceit shal not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

8 I will early destroy all the wicked of the land, that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

PSAL. CII.

¶ A prayer of the afflicted when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD.

HEar my prayer, O LORD: & let my cry come unto thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble;

trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call, answer me speedily.

3 For my days are consumed like smoke: and my bones are burnt as an hearth.

4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass: so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones cleave to my skin.

6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert.

7 I watch, & am as a sparrow alone upon the house top.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day: and they that are mad against me are sworn against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread; and mingled my drink with weeping.

10 Because of thine indignation & thy wrath; for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

11 My days are like a shadow, that declineth: and I am withered like grass.

12 But thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever: and thy remembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time is come.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the dust thereof.

15 So the heathen shall fear the Name of the LORD: and all ¶ kings of ¶ earth thy glory.

16 When ¶ LORD shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

18 This shall be written for the generation to come: & the people which shall be created, shall praise the LORD.

19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary: from heaven did the LORD behold the earth.

20 To hear the groanings of the prisoner: to loose those that are appointed to death:

21 To declare the Name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem, 22 When the people are gathered together: and the kingdoms to serve the LORD.

23 He weakened my strength in the way, he shortened my days.

24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days; thy years are throughout all generations.

25 Of old hast ¶ laid ¶ foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure, yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment: as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed.

27 But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

28 The children of thy servants shall continue, & their seed shall be established before thee.

PSAL. CIII.

¶ A Psalm of David.

BLesse the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy Name.

2 Blesse the LORD, O my soul: and forget not all his benefits.

3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities, who healeth all thy diseases.

4 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies.

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things: so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 The LORD executeth righteousness, and judgement for all that are oppressed.

7 He made known his ways unto Moses: his acts unto the children of Israel.

8 The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

9 He will not always chide, neither will he keep his anger for ever.

10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins: nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11 For as the heaven is high above the earth: so great is his mercy toward them ¶ fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

13 Like as a father pitieth his children: so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth our frame:
he remembreth that we are dust.
15 As for man, his dayes are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.
16 For the winde passeth over it, and it is gone, and the place thereof shall know it no more.
17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children children:
18 To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.
19 The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens: and his kingdom ruleth over all.
20 Bless the LORD, ye his angels that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.
21 Bless ye the LORD all ye his hosts: ye ministers of his that do his pleasure.
22 Bless ¶ LORD, all his works, in all places of his dominion: Bless the LORD, O my soul.

PSAL. CIV.

BLess the LORD, O my soul, O LORD my God, thou art very great: thou art clothed with honour and majesty.
2 Who coverest thy self with light, as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain.
3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: who maketh the clouds his chariot: who walketh upon the wings of the winde.
4 Who maketh his angels spirits: his ministers a flaming fire.
5 Who laid the foundations of the earth: that it should not be removed for ever.
6 Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.
7 At thy rebuke they fled: at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.
8 They go up by the mountains: they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.
9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over: that they turn not again to cover the earth.
10 He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills.
11 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses quench their thirst.
12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation: which sing among ¶ branches.
13 He watereth the hills from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.
14 He causeth ¶ grass to grow for the cattel, & herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth:
15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, & oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth mans heart.
16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap: the cedars of Lebanon which he hath planted:
17 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the firr trees are her house.
18 The high hils are a refuge for the wilde goates, and the rocks for the conies.
19 He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth his going down.
20 Thou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein all ¶ beasts of the forest do creep forth.
21 The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.
22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.
23 Man goeth forth unto his work, and to his labour untill the evening.
24 O LORD, how manifold are thy works? in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.
25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.
26 There go the ships: there is that leviathan whom thou hast made to play therein.
27 These wait all upon thee: that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.
28 That thou givest them they gather: thou openest thine hands they are filled with good.
29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled; thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

30 Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth.

31 The glory of the LORD shall endure for ever: the LORD shall rejoyce in his works.

32 He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth: he toucheth the hills, and they smoke.

33 I will sing unto the LORD as long as I liveel: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

34 My meditation of him shall be sweet, I will be glad in the LORD.

35 Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless thou the LORD, O my soul. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CV.

O Give thanks unto the LORD, call upon his Name: make known his deeds among the people.

2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk ye of all his wonderous works.

3 Glory ye in his holy Name: let the heart of them rejoyce that seek the LORD.

4 Seek the LORD & his strength, seek his face evermore.

5 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done: his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth,

6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

7 He is the LORD our God: his judgments are in all the earth.

8 He hath remembred his covenant for ever: the word which he commanded to a thousand generations:

9 Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;

10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant:

11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance:

12 When they were but a few men in number, yea, a very few, and strangers in it.

13 When they went from one nation to another: from one kingdom to another people:

14 He suffered no man to do them wrong, yea, he reproved kings for their sakes:

15 Saying, Touch not mine anointed: and do my prophets no harm.

16 Moreover, he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread.

17 He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant.

18 Whose feet they hurt in fetters: he was laid in iron.

19 Until the time that his word came: the word of the LORD tryed him.

20 The king sent and loosed him: even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.

21 He made him lord of his house: & ruler of all his substance:

22 To binde his princes at his pleasure: and teach his senators wisdom.

23 Israel also came into Egypt, and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

24 And he increased his people greatly, and made them stronger then their enemies.

25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.

26 He sent Moses his servant, and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 They shewed his signes among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He sent darkness, and made it dark: and they rebelled not against his word.

29 He turned their waters to blood, and slew their fish.

30 The land brought forth frogs, in abundance in the chambers of their kings.

31 He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies: and lice in all their coasts.

32 He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also, and their fig-trees, and brake the trees of their coasts.

34 He spake, and the locust came, and caterpillar, and that without number.

35 And did eat up all the herbe in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

36 He smote also all the born in their land : the chief of all their strength.

37 He brought them forth also with silver and gold : and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

38 Egypt was glad when they departed : for the fear of them fell upon them.

39 He spread a cloud for a covering : and fire to give light in the night.

40 The people asked, and he brought quails : and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

41 He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out : they ran in the dry places like a river.

42 For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.

43 And he brought forth his people with joy : and his chosen with gladnesse :

44 And gave them the lands of the heathen : and they inherited the labour of the people.

45 That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CVI.

PRaise ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that keep judgement, and he that doth righteousnesse at all times.

4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people. O visit me with thy salvation :

5 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoyce in the gladnesse of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers : we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt : they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies : but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red-sea.

8 Nevertheless he saved them for his Names sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known.

9 He rebuked the Red-sea also, and it was dried up : so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 And the waters covered their enemies : there was not one of them left.

12 Then believed they his words : they sang his praise.

13 They soon forgat his works : they waited not for his counsel :

14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness : and tempted God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their request : but sent leanness into their soul.

16 They envied Moses also in the camp : and Aaron the saint of the LORD.

17 The earth opened, and swallowed up Dathan : and covered the company of Abiram.

18 And a fire was kindled in their company : the flame burnt up the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Horeb : and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grasse.

21 They forgat God their Saviour : which had done great things in Egypt :

22 Wonderous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red-sea.

23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach : to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised the pleasant land : they believed not his word :

25 But murmured in their tents : and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.

26 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness.

27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They joyned themselves also unto Baal-Peor : and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.

30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed iudgement: and so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousnesse: unto all generations for evermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of strife: so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:

33 Because they provoked his spirit: so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them:

35 But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them.

37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils,

38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they defiled with their own works: & went a whoring with their own inventions.

40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people: insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

41 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen: & they that hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them: and they were brought into subiection under their hand.

43 Many times did he deliver them: but they provoked him with their counsell, and were brought low for their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless, he regarded their affliction: when he heard their cry.

45 And he remembered for them his covenant: and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

46 He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy Name: and to triumph in thy praise.

48 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amen. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CVII.

O Give thanks unto the LORD for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so: whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

4 They wandered in the wilderneſse in a solitary way: they found no city to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirsty: their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble: and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7 And he led them forth by the right way: that they might go to a city of habitation.

8 O that men would praise the LORD for his goodneſse: and for his wonderfull works to the children of men.

9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodneſse.

10 Such as sit in darkneſse and in the shadow of death: being bound in affliction and iron.

11 Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsell of the most High:

12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour: they fell down, and there was none to help.

13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble: and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 He brought them out of darkneſse, and the shadow of death: and brake their bands in sunder.

15 O that men would praise the LORD for his goodneſse: and for his wonderfull works to the children of men.

16 For he hath broken the gates of braſſe: and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

17 Fools because of their transgreſſion, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat: and they draw neer unto the gates of death.

19 Then

19 Then they cry unto ¶LORD in their trouble: he saveth them out of their distresses.

20 He sent his word, and healed them: and delivered them from their destructions.

21 O that men would praise the LORD for his goodnesse: and for his wonderfull works to the children of men.

22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving: and declare his works with rejoycing.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do businesse in great waters:

24 These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep:

25 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy winde: which lifteth up the waves thereof,

26 They mount up to the heaven: they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man: and are at their wits end.

28 Then they cry unto ¶LORD in their trouble: and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

29 He maketh the storm a calm: so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then they are glad, because they be quiet: so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

31 O that men would praise the LORD for his goodnesse: and for his wonderfull works to the children of men.

32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

33 He turneth rivers into a wildernesse, and the waterspringes into dry ground:

34 A fruitfull land into barrennesse: for the wickednesse of them that dwell therein.

35 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into waterspringes.

36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell: that they may prepare a city for habitation, 37 And sowe the fields, and plant vineyards: which may yeeld fruits of increase.

38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly: and suffereth not their cattel to decrease.

39 Again, they are minished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

40 He poureth contempt upon princes: and causeth them to wander in the wildernesse where there is no way.

41 Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock.

42 The righteous shall see it, and rejoyce: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

43 Whoso is wise, and will observe those things: even they shall understand the loving kindnesse of the LORD.

PSAL. CVIII.

¶ A song or psalm of David.

O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

2 Awake, psaltery and harp: I my self will awake early.

3 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.

6 That thy beloved may be delivered, save with thy right hand, and answer me.

7 God hath spoken in his holinesse, I will rejoyce, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine, Manasseh is mine, Ephraim also is the strength of mine head: Judah is my law-giver.

9 Moab is my wash-pot, over Edom will I cast out my shoe: over Philistia will I triumph.

10 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

11 Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off? & wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

12 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

13 Through God we shall do valiantly: for he is it is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSAL. CIX.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David.

HOld not thy peace, O God of my praise.

2 For the mouth of § wicked, and the mouth of § deceitfull are opened against me: they have spoken against me w a lying tongue.

3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred: and fought against me without a cause.

4 For my love they are my adversaries; but I give my self unto prayer:

5 And they have rewarded me evil for good: and hatred for my love.

6 Set thou a wicked man over him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.

7 When he shall be judged, let him be condemned: and let his prayer become sin.

8 Let his dayes be few, and let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

10 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.

11 Let the extortioner catch all that he hath: and let the stranger spoil his labour.

12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favour his fatherlesse children.

13 Let his posterity be cut off, and in the generation following, let their name be blotted out.

14 Let the iniquity of his father's be remembered with the LORD: and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

15 Let them be before the LORD continually: that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

16 Because that he remembred not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heart.

17 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

18 As he clothed himself with cursing, like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him: and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD: and of them that speak evil against my soul.

21 But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord, for thy Names sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

24 My knees are weak through fasting: and my flesh faileth of fatnesse.

25 I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me, they shaked their heads.

26 Help me, O LORD my God: O save me according to thy mercy.

27 That they may know that this is thy hand: that thou LORD, hast done it.

28 Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed: but let thy servant rejoyce.

29 Let my adversaries be clothed with shame, & let them cover themselves with their own confusion as with a mantle.

30 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth: yea, I will praise him among § multitude.

31 For he shall stand at § right hand of § poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.

PSAL. CX.

¶ A psalm of David.

THe LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy foot-stool.

2 The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

3 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holinesse from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

4 The LORD hath sworn and will not repent, Thou art a priest priest for ever, after the order of Melchi-zedek.

5 The Lord at thy right hand shall strike thorow kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies: he shall wound the heads over many countreys.

7 He shall drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall he lift up the head.

PSAL. CXI.

PRaise ye the LORD, I will praise the LORD with my whole heart; in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

2 The works of the LORD are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3 His work is honourable and glorious: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 He hath made his wonderfull works to be remembered: the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindeful of his covenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works: that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The works of his hands are verity and judgement: all his commandments are sure.

8 They stand fast for ever and ever: and are done in truth and uprightness.

9 He sent redemption unto his people; he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his Name.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

PSAL. CXII.

PRaise ye the LORD. Blessed is the man that feareth the LORD, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth; the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

3 Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: he is gracious and full of compassion and righteous.

5 A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth: he will guide his affairs with discretion.

6 Surely he shall not be moved for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

7 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings; his heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.

8 His heart is established, he shall not be afraid, until he see his desire upon his enemies.

9 He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor, his righteousness endureth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.

10 The wicked shall see it, and be grieved; he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away: the desire of the wicked shall perish.

PSAL. CXIII.

PRaise ye the LORD, praise, O ye servants of the LORD: praise the Name of the LORD.

2 Blessed be the Name of the LORD, from this time forth and for evermore.

3 From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same: the LORDS Name is to be praised.

4 The LORD is high above all nations; and his glory above the heavens.

5 Who is like unto the LORD our God, who dwelleth on high?

6 Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth?

7 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill:

8 That he may set him with princes; even with the princes of his people.

9 He maketh the barren woman to keep house; to be a joyfull mother of children; praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CXIIII.

WHen Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language:

2 Judah was his sanctuary, and Israel his dominion.

3 The sea saw it, and fled; Jordan was driven back.

4 The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hils like lambs.

5 What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest? thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?

6 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills like lambs?

7 Tremble thou earth at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the God of Jacob.

8 Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters.

PSAL. CXV.

NOt unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy Name give glory: for thy mercy, and for thy truths sake.

2 Wherfore should the heathen say: Where is now their God?

3 But our God is in the heavens; he hath done whatsoever he pleased.

4 Their idols are silver and gold: the work of mens hands.

5 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not.

6 They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not.

7 They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they thorow their throat.

8 They that make them, are like unto them: so is every one that trusteth in them.

9 O Israel, trust thou in the LORD: he is their help, and their shield.

10 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

11 Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

12 The LORD hath been mindfull of us: he will bless us, he will bless the house of Israel: he will bless the house of Aaron.

13 He will bless them that fear the LORD, both small and great.

14 The LORD shall increase you more and more, you, and your children.

15 You are blessed of the LORD: which made heaven and earth.

16 The heaven, even the heavens are the LORDS: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

17 The dead praise not the LORD: neither any that go down into silence.

18 But we will bless the LORD, from this time forth, and for evermore. Praise the LORD.

PSAL. CXVI.

I Love the LORD: because he hath heard my voice, and my supplications.

2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me: therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

3 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then called I upon the Name of the LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee deliver my soul.

5 Gracious is the LORD, and righteous: yea, our God is mercifull.

6 The LORD preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me.

7 Return unto thy rest, O my soul: for the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.

8 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.

10 I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted.

11 I said in my haste; All men are liars.

12 What shall I render unto the LORD: for all his benefits towards me?

13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the Name of the LORD.

14 I will pay my vows unto the LORD: now in the presence of all his people.

15 Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.

16 O LORD, truly I am thy servant, I am thy servant, and the son of thy hand-maid: thou hast loosed my bonds.

17 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving: and will call upon the Name of the LORD.

18 I will pay my vows unto the LORD, now in the presence of all his people.

19 In the courts of the house of the LORD, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL.

PSAL. CXVII.

O Praise the LORD, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.

2 For his mercifull kindnes is great toward us, and the truth of the LORD endureth for ever. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CXVIII.

O Give thanks unto § LORD, for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let Israel now say: that his mercy endureth for ever.

3 Let the house of Aaron now say: that his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Let them now that fear the LORD, say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

5 I called upon the LORD in trouble: the LORD answered me, and set me in a large place.

6 The LORD is on my side, I will not fear: what can man do unto me?

7 The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.

8 It is better to trust in the LORD: then to put confidence in man.

9 It is better to trust in the LORD: then to put confidence in princes.

10 All nations compassed me about: but in the Name of the LORD will I destroy them.

11 They compassed me about, yea, they compassed me about: but in the Name of the LORD I will destroy them.

12 They compassed me about like bees, they are quenched as § fire of thornes: for in § Name of § LORD I will destroy them.

13 Thou hast thrust sore at me, that I might fall: but the LORD helped me.

14 The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.

15 The voice of rejoycing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of § LORD doth valiantly.

16 The right hand of § LORD is exalted: the right hand of the LORD doth valiantly.

17 I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.

18 The LORD hath chastened me sore, but he hath not given me over unto death.

19 Open to me the gates of righteousnesse: I will go into them, and I will praise § LORD.

20 This gate of the LORD: into which § righteous shal enter

21 I will praise thee, for thou hast heard me: and art become my salvation.

22 The stone which § builders refused: is become the head stone of the corner.

23 This is the LORDS doing: it is marvellous in our eyes.

24 This is the day which the LORD hath made: we will rejoyce and be glad in it.

25 Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

26 Blessed be he that cometh in the Name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.

27 God is the LORD, which hath shewed us light, binde the sacrifice with cords: even unto the horns of the altar.

28 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee: thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

29 O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

PSAL. CXIX.

ALEPH.

BLessed are the undefiled in the way: who walk in the law of the LORD.

2 Blessed are they that keep his testimonies: and that seek him with the whole heart.

3 They also do no iniquity: they walk in his wayes.

4 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently.

5 O that my wayes were directed to keep thy statutes!

6 Then shall I not be ashamed: when I have respect unto all thy commandments.

7 I will praise thee with uprightnesse of heart: when I shall have learned thy righteous judgements.

8 I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly.

BETH.

9 Wherewithall shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.

10 With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

11 Thy word have I hid in my heart: that I might not sin against thee.

12 Blessed art thou, O LORD: teach me thy statutes.

13 With my lips have I declared all the judgements of thy mouth.

14 I have rejoyced in the way of thy testimonies: as much as in all riches.

15 I will meditate in thy precepts: and have respect unto thy wayes.

16 I will delight my self in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

GIMEL.

17 Deal bountifully with thy servant: that I may live and keep thy word.

18 Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wonderous things out of thy law.

19 I am a stranger in the earth: hide not thy commandments from me.

20 My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgements at all times.

21 Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, which do erre from thy commandments.

22 Remove from me reproach and contempt: for I have kept thy testimonies.

23 Princes also did sit, and speak against me: but thy servant did meditate in thy statutes.

24 Thy testimonies also are my delight and my counsellours.

DALETH.

25 My soul cleaveth unto the dust: quicken thou me according to thy word.

26 I have declared my wayes, and thou heardest me: teach me thy statutes.

27 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wonderous works.

28 My soul melteth away for heavinesse: strengthen thou me according to thy word.

29 Remove from me the way of lying: and grant me thy law graciously.

30 I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgements have I laid before me.

31 I have stuck unto thy testimonies: O LORD put me not to shame.

32 I will run the way of thy commandments: when thou shalt enlarge my heart.

HE.

33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes: and I shall keep it unto the end.

34 Give me understanding & I shall keep thy law: yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

35 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments: for therein do I delight.

36 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies: and not to covetousnesse.

37 Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity: and quicken thou me in thy way.

38 Stablish thy word unto thy servant: who is devoted to thy feare.

39 Turn away my reproach which I feare: for thy judgements are good.

40 Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousnesse.

VAU.

41 Let thy mercies come also unto me, O LORD: even thy salvation, according to thy word.

42 So shall I have wherewith to answer him that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word.

43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth: for I have hoped in thy judgements.

44 So shall I keep thy law continually: for ever and ever.

45 And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts.

46 I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed.

47 And I will delight my self in thy commandments, which I have loved.

48 My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments which I have loved: and I will meditate in thy statutes.

ZAIN.

49 Remember the word unto thy thy servant: upon which thou hast caused me to hope.

50 This is my comfort in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened me.

51 The proud have had me greatly in derision: yet have I not declined from thy law.

52 I remembred thy judgements of old, O LORD; and have comforted my self.

53 Horrour hath taken hold upon me: because of the wicked that forsake thy law.

54 Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage.

55 I have remembred thy Name, O LORD, in the night, and have kept thy law.

56 This I had: because I kept thy precepts.

CHETH.

57 Thou art my portion, O LORD: I have said that I would keep thy words.

58 I intreated thy favour with my whole heart: be mercifull unto me according to thy word.

59 I thought on my wayes: and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.

60 I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments.

61 The bands of the wicked have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law.

62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee: because of thy righteous judgements.

63 I am a companion of all them that fear thee: and of them that keep thy precepts.

64 The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy: teach me thy statutes.

TETH.

65 Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD according unto thy word.

66 Teach me good judgement and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments.

67 Before I was afflicted, I went astray: but now have I kept thy word.

68 Thou art good, and doest good: teach me thy statutes.

69 The proud have forged a lie against me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart.

70 Their heart is as fat as grease: but I delight in thy law.

71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes.

72 The law of thy mouth is better unto me, then thousands of gold and silver.

JOD.

73 Thy hands have made me, and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

74 They that fear thee will be glad when they see me: because I have hoped in thy word.

75 I know, O LORD, that thy judgements are right: and that thou in faithfulnesse hast afflicted me.

76 Let, I pray thee, thy mercifull kindnesse be for my comfort: according to thy word unto thy servant.

77 Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight.

78 Let the proud be ashamed, for they dealt perversly with me, without a cause: but I will meditate in thy precepts.

79 Let those that fear thee turn unto me: and those that have known thy testimonies.

80 Let my heart be found in thy statutes: that I be not ashamed.

CAPH.

81 My soul fainteth for thy salvation: but I hope in thy word.

82 Mine eyes fail for thy word: saying, When wilt thou comfort me?

83 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke: yet do I not forget thy statutes.

84 How many are the dayes of thy servant? when wilt thou execute judgement on them that persecute me?

85 The proud have digged pits for me, which are not after thy law.

86 All thy commandments are faithfull: they persecute me wrongfully; help thou me.

87 They had almost consumed me upon earth: but I forsook not thy precepts.

88 Quicken me after thy loving kindnesse: so shall I keep the testimony of thy mouth.

LAMED.

89 For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven.

90 Thy faithfulneſſe is unto all generations: thou haſt eſtabliſhed the earth, and it abideth.
91 They continue this day according to thine ordinances: for all are thy ſervants.
92 Unleſſe thy law had been my delights: I ſhould then have periſhed in mine affliction.
93 I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou haſt quickened me.
94 I am thine, ſave me: for I have ſought thy precepts.
95 The wicked have waited for me to deſtroy me: but I will conſider thy teſtimonies.
96 I have ſeen an end of all perfection: but thy commandment is exceeding broad.

M E M.

97 O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day.
98 Thou through thy commandments haſt made me wiſer then mine enemies: for they are ever with me.
99 I have more underſtanding then all my teachers: for thy teſtimonies are my meditation.
100 I underſtand more then the ancients: becauſe I keep thy precepts.
101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way: that I may keep thy word.
102 I have not departed from thy judgements: for thou haſt taught me.
103 How ſweet are thy words unto my taſte! yea, ſweeter then honey to my mouth.
104 Through thy precepts I get underſtanding, therefore I hate every falſe way.

N U N.

105 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet: & a light unto my path.
106 I have ſworn, and I will perform it: that I will keep thy righteous judgements.
107 I am afflicted very much: quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word.
108 Accept, I beſeech thee, the free-will-offerings of my mouth, O L O R D, and teach me thy judgements.
109 My ſoul is continually in my hand: yet do I not forget thy law.
110 The wicked have laid a ſnare for me: yet I erred not from thy precepts.
111 Thy teſtimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoycing of my heart.
112 I have inclined my heart to perform thy ſtatutes always, even unto the end.

S A M E C H.

113 I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love.
114 Thou art my hiding place & my ſhield: I hope in thy word.
115 Depart from me ye evil doers: for I will keep the commandments of my God.
116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: and let me not be aſhamed of my hope.
117 Hold thou me up, and I ſhall be ſafe: and I will have reſpect unto thy ſtatutes continually.
118 Thou haſt trodden down all them that err from thy ſtatutes: for their deceit is falſhood.
119 Thou putteſt away all the wicked of the earth like droſſe: therefore I love thy teſtimonies.
120 My fleſh trembleth for fear of thee: and I am afraid of thy judgements.

A I N.

121 I have done judgement and juſtice: leave me not to mine oppreſſours.
122 Be ſurety for thy ſervant for good: let not the proud oppreſſe me.
123 Mine eyes fail for thy ſalvation: and for the word of thy righteouſneſſe.
124 Deal with thy ſervant according unto thy mercy, and teach me thy ſtatutes.
125 I am thy ſervant, give me underſtanding: that I may know thy teſtimonies.
126 It is time for thee, LORD, to work: for they have made void thy law.
127 Therefore I love thy commandments above gold, yea, above fine gold.
128 Therefore I eſteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right: and I hate every falſe way.

P E.

129 Thy teſtimonies are wonderfull: therefore doth my ſoul keep them.
130 The entrance of thy words giveth light: it giveth underſtanding unto the ſimple.
131 I opened

131 I opened my mouth, and panted: for I longed for thy commandments.

132 Look ℣ upon me, & be merciful unto me, as ℣ usest to do unto those that love thy Name.

133 Order my steps in thy word: and let not any iniquity have dominion over me.

134 Deliver me from the oppression of man: so will I keep thy precepts.

135 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: and teach me thy statutes.

136 Rivers of waters run down mine eyes: because they keep not thy law.

TSADDI.

137 Righteous art thou, O LORD, and upright are thy judgements.

138 Thy testimonies that thou hast commanded, are righteous and very faithfull.

139 My zeal hath consumed me: because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

140 Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.

141 I am small & despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts.

142 Thy righteousnesse is an everlasting righteousnesse: and thy law is the truth.

143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me: yet thy commandments are my delights.

144 The righteousnesse of thy testimonies is everlasting: give me understanding, and I shall live.

KOPH.

145 I cryed with my whole heart: hear me, O LORD, I will keep thy statutes.

146 I cryed unto thee, save me: and I shall keep thy testimonies.

147 I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cryed: I hoped in thy word.

148 Mine eyes prevent the night watches: that I might meditate in thy word.

149 Hear my voice according unto thy loving kindnesse: O LORD, quicken me according to thy judgement.

150 They draw nigh that follow after mischief: they are far from thy law.

151 Thou art neer, O LORD: & all thy commandments are truth.

152 Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old, ℣ thou hast founded them for ever.

RESH.

153 Consider mine affliction, and deliver me: for I do not forget thy law.

154 Plead my cause, and deliver me: quicken me according to thy word.

155 Salvation is far frō ℣ wicked: for they seek not thy statutes.

156 Great are thy tender mercies, O LORD: quicken me according to thy judgements.

157 Many are my persecutors, and mine enemies, yet do I not decline from thy testimonies.

158 I beheld the transgressours, and was grieved, because they kept not thy word.

159 Consider how I love thy precepts: quicken me, O LORD, according to thy loving kindness.

160 Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgements endureth for ever.

SCHIN.

161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause: but my heart standeth in aw of thy word.

162 I rejoyce at thy word: as one that findeth great spoil.

163 I hate and abhor lying: but thy law do I love.

164 Seven times a day do I praise thee: because of thy righteous judgements.

165 Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them.

166 LORD, I have hoped for thy salvation: and done thy commandments.

167 My soul hath kept thy testimonies: and I love them exceedingly.

168 I have kept thy precepts and thy testimonies: for all my wayes are before thee.

TAU.

169 Let my cry come neer before thee, O LORD: give me understanding according to thy word.

170 Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word.

171 My lips shall utter praise, when ℣ hast taught me thy statutes.

172 My tongue shall speak of thy words: for all thy commandments are righteousness.

173 Let thine hand help me: for I have chosen thy precepts.

174 I have longed for thy salvation, O LORD: and thy law is my delight.

175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee: and let thy judgements help me.

176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep: seek thy servant; for I do not forget thy commandments.

PSALM. CXX.

¶ A song of degrees.

IN my distresse I cryed unto the LORD: and he heard me.

2 Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips: and from a deceitfull tongue.

3 What shall be given unto thee? or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue?

4 Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.

5 Woe is me, that I sojourn in Mesech: that I dwell in the tents of Kedar.

6 My soul hath long dwelt with him that hateth peace.

7 I am for peace: but when I speak, they are for war.

PSALM. CXXI.

¶ A song of degrees.

I Will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

2 My help cometh from the LORD: which made heaven and earth.

3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

4 Behold he that keepeth Israel, shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The LORD is thy keeper: the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand.

6 The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

7 The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

8 The LORD shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in, from this time forth, and even for evermore.

PSALM. CXXII.

¶ A song of degrees of David.

I was glad when they said unto me: Let us go into the house of the LORD.

2 Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

3 Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together:

4 Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the Name of the LORD.

5 For there are set thrones of judgement: the thrones of the house of David.

6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

7 Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

8 For my brethren and companions sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

9 Because of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek thy good.

PSALM. CXXIII.

¶ A song of degrees.

UNto thee I lift up mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistresse; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

PSALM. CXXIV.

¶ A song of degrees of David.

IF it had not been the LORD who was on our side, now may Israel say:

2 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us;

3 Then they had swallowed us up quick: when their wrath was kindled against us.

4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul.

5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

6 Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

7 Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the soul is broken, and we are escaped.

8 Our help is in the Name of the LORD: who made heaven and earth.

PSAL. CXXV.

¶ A song of degrees.

1 They ‖ trust in the LORD shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

2 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about his people: from henceforth even for ever.

3 For the rod of § wicked shall not rest upon the lot of § righteous: lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

4 Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good: and to them that are upright in their hearts.

5 ‖ As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, § LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

PSAL. CXXVI.

1 When the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them § dream.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, & our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD hath done great things for them.

3 The LORD hath done great things for us: whereof we are glad.

4 Turn again our captivity, O LORD: as § streams in § south.

5 They that sowe in tears: shall reap in joy.

6 He § goeth forth & weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoycing, bringing his sheaves with him.

PSAL. CXXVII.

¶ A songof degrees for Solomon.

1 Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

3 Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.

4 As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man: so are children of the youth.

5 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them, they shall not be ashamed: but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

PSAL. CXXVIII.

¶ A song of degrees.

1 Blessed is every one that feareth the LORD: that walketh in his ways.

2 For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

3 Thy wife shall be as a fruitfull vine by the sides of thine house, thy children like olive plants round about thy table.

4 Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD.

5 The LORD shall bless thee out of Zion, and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the dayes of thy life.

6 Yea, § shalt see thy childrens children: and peace upon Israel.

PSAL. CXXIX.

¶ A song of degrees.

1 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth: may Israel now say,

2 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me.

3 The plowers plowed upon my back: they made long their furrows.

4 The LORD is righteous: he hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.

5 Let them all be confounded and turned back that hate Zion.

6 Let them be as the grasse upon the house tops: which withereth afore it groweth up:

7 Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand: nor he that bindeth sheaves, his bosom.

8 Neither do they which go by, say, The blessing of § LORD be upon you: we bless you in the Name of the LORD.

PSAL. CXXX.

¶ A song of degrees.

1 Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD.

2 Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

3 If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities: O Lord, who shall stand?

4 But there is forgivenes with thee: that thou mayest be feared.

5 I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait: and in his word do I hope.

6 My soul waiteth for the Lord, more then they that watch for the morning: I say, more then they that watch for the morning.

7 Let Israel hope in § LORD, for with the LORD there is mercy: and with him is plenteous redemption.

8 And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

PSAL. CXXXI.

¶ A song of degrees of David.

LORD, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty: neither do I exercise my self in great matters, or in things too high for me.

2 Surely I have behaved & quiered my self as a childe that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as a weaned childe.

3 Let Israel hope in the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

PSAL. CXXXII.

¶ A song of degrees.

LORD, remember David, and all his afflictions:

2 How he sware unto the LORD, and vowed unto § mighty God of Jacob.

3 Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed.

4 I will not give sleep to mine eyes: or slumber to mine eye-lids,

5 Untill I finde out a place for the LORD: an habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

6 Lo, we heard of it at Ephratah: we found it in the fields of the wood.

7 We will go into his tabernacles: we will worship at his footstool.

8 Arise, O LORD, unto thy rest: thou and the ark of thy strength.

9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousnesse, & thy saints shout for joy.

10 For thy servant Davids sake: turn not away the face of thine anointed.

11 The LORD hath sworn in truth unto David, he will not turn from it: of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.

12 If thy children will keep my covenant, and my testimony that I shal teach them; their children also shall sit upon thy throne for evermore.

13 For the LORD hath chosen Zion: he hath desired it for his habitation.

14 This is my rest for ever, here will I dwell, for I have desired it.

15 I will abundantly blesse her provision: I will satisfie her poor with bread.

16 I will also clothe her priests with salvation: and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

17 There will I make the horn of David to bud: I have ordained a lamp for mine anointed.

18 His enemies will I clothe with shame, but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

PSAL. CXXXIII.

¶ A song of degrees of David.

BEhold, how good and how pleasant it is: for brethren to dwell together in unity!

2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aarons beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments.

3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon § mountains of Zion, for there the LORD commanded the blessing: even life for evermore.

PSAL. CXXXIIII.

¶ A song of degrees.

BEhold, blesse ye the LORD, all ye servants of the LORD: which by night stand in the house of the LORD.

2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary: and blesse the LORD.

3 The LORD that made heaven and earth, blesse thee out of Zion.

PSAL. CXXXV.

PRaise ye the LORD, praise ye the Name of the LORD: praise him, O ye servants of the LORD.

2 Ye that stand in the house of the LORD, in the courts of of the house of our God.

3 Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good: sing praises unto his Name, for it is pleasant.

4 For the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself: and Israel for his peculiar treasure.

5 For I know that the LORD is great, and that our LORD is above all gods.

6 Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth: in the seas, and all deep places.

7 He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth, he maketh lightenings for the rain: he bringeth the winde out of his treasuries.

8 Who smote the first-born of Egypt: both of man and beast:

9 Who sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt: upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants.

10 Who smote great nations: and slew mighty kings.

11 Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan: and all the kingdoms of Canaan:

12 And gave their land for an heritage: an heritage unto Israel his people.

13 Thy Name, O LORD, endureth for ever: and thy memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations.

14 For the LORD will judge his people: and he will repent himself concerning his servants.

15 The idols of the heathen are silver and gold: the work of mens hands.

16 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not.

17 They have ears, but they hear not: neither is there any breath in their mouths.

18 They that make them are like unto them: so is every one that trusteth in them.

19 Bless the LORD, O house of Israel: bless the LORD, O house of Aaron.

20 Bless the LORD, O house of Levi: ye that fear the LORD, bless the LORD.

21 Blessed be the LORD out of Zion: which dwelleth at Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CXXXVI.

O Give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 O give thanks unto the God of gods: for his mercy endureth for ever.

3 O give thanks to the Lord of lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 To him who alone doth great wonders: for his mercy endureth for ever.

5 To him that by wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.

6 To him that stretched out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth for ever.

7 To him that made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever.

8 The sun to rule by day: for his mercy endureth for ever.

9 The moon and stars to rule by night: for his mercy endureth for ever.

10 To him that smote Egypt in their first-born: for his mercy endureth for ever.

11 And brought out Israel from among them: for his mercy endureth for ever.

12 With a strong hand, & with a stretched-out arm: for his mercy endureth for ever.

13 To him which divided the Red-sea into parts: for his mercy endureth for ever.

14 And made Israel to passe thorow the midst of it: for his mercy endureth for ever.

15 But overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Red-sea: for his mercy endureth for ever.

16 To him which led his people thorow the wildernesse: for his mercy endureth for ever.

17 To him which smote great kings: for his mercy endureth for ever.

18 And slew famous kings: for his mercy endureth for ever.

19 Sihon king of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for ever.

20 And Og the king of Bashan: for his mercy endureth for ever.

21 And gave their land for an heritage: for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 Even an heritage unto Israel

Israel his servant; for his mercy endureth for ever.

23 Who remembered us in our low estate: for his mercy endureth for ever.

24 And hath redeemed us from our enemies: for his mercy endureth for ever.

25 Who giveth food to all flesh: for his mercy endureth for ever.

26 O give thanks unto the God of heaven: for his mercy endureth for ever.

PSAL. CXXXVII.

BY the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept, when we remembred Zion.

2 We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof.

3 For there they that carried us away captive, required of us a song, and they that wasted us, required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

4 How shall we sing the LORDS song in a strange land?

5 If I forget thee, O Jerusalem; let my right hand forget her cunning.

6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.

7 Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom, in the day of Jerusalem, who said, Raze it, raze it, even to the foundation thereof.

8 O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be that rewardeth thee, as thou hast served us.

9 Happy shall he be that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

PSAL. CXXXVIII.

A psalm of David.

I Will praise thee with my whole heart, before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

2 I will worship towards thy holy temple, and praise thy Name, for thy loving kindeness, and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy Name.

3 In the day when I cried, thou answeredst me: and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD: when they hear the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD; for great is the glory of the LORD.

6 Though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly; but the proud he knoweth afar off.

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me, thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

8 The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me, thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever; forsake not the works of thine own hands.

PSAL. CXXXIX.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David.

O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me.

2 Thou knowest my down-sitting, & mine up-rising; thou understandest my thought afar off.

3 Thou compassest my path, and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

4 For there is not a word in my tongue; but lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.

5 Thou hast beset me behinde and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6 Such knowledge is too wonderfull for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

7 Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there; if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning; and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

12 Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee, but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

13 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mothers womb.

Psalms prayer for deliverance.

4 I will praise thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

15 My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret: and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God: how great is the sum of them!

18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore ye bloody men.

20 For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy Name in vain.

21 Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

24 And see if there be any wicked way in me: and lead me in the way everlasting.

PSAL. CXL.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David.

DEliver me, O LORD, from the evill man: preserve me from the violent man.

2 Which imagine mischief in their heart: continually are they gathered together for war.

3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent: adders poison is under their lips. Selah.

4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked, preserve me from the violent man: who have purposed to overthrow my goings.

5 The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords: they have spread a net by ✠ way side: they have set gins for me. Selah.

6 I said unto the LORD, Thou art my God: hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.

7 O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation: thou hast covered my head in the day of battel.

8 Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked: further not his wicked device, lest they exalt themselves. Selah.

9 As for the head of those that compass me about: let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

10 Let burning coals fall upon them, let them be cast into the fire: into deep pits, that they rise not up again.

11 Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth: evill shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

12 I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted: and the right of ✠ poor.

13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy Name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

PSAL CXLI.

¶ A psalm of David.

LORD, I cry unto thee, make haste unto me: give ear unto my voice when I cry unto thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense: and the lifting up of my hands, as the evening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch (O LORD) before my mouth: keep the door of my lips.

4 Incline not my heart to any evill thing, to practise wicked works, with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.

5 Let the righteous smite me, it shall be a kindnesse: and let him reprove me, it shal be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

6 When their Judges are overthrown in stony places, they shal hear my words, for they are sweet.

7 Our bones are scattered at the graves mouth: as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.

8 But mine eyes are unto thee, O GOD the Lord: in thee is my trust, leave not my soul destitute.

9 Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, & § grins of § workers of iniquity.

10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets: whilest that I withall escape.

PSAL. CXLII.

¶ Maschil of David. A prayer when he was in the cave.

I Cried unto the LORD with my voice: with my voice unto the LORD did I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaint before him: I shewed before him my trouble.

3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me; refuge failed me: no man cared for my soul.

5 I cried unto thee, O LORD, I said, Thou art my refuge, and my portion in § land of § living

6 Attend unto my cry, for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors: for they are stronger than I.

7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy Name: the righteous shall compasse me about: for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

PSAL. CXLIII.

¶ A psalm of David,

HEar my prayer, O LORD, give ear to my supplications: in thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness,

2 And enter not into judgement with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul, he hath smitten my life down to the ground: he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me: my heart within me is desolate,

5 I remember the dayes of old, I meditate on all thy work: I muse on § work of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul thirsteth after thee, as a thirsty land. Selah.

7 Hear me speedily, O LORD, my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 Cause me to hear thy loving kindnesse in the morning, for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk: for I lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies: I flie unto thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God, thy spirit is good: lead me into the land of uprightnesse.

11 Quicken me, O LORD, for thy Names sake: for thy righteousnesse sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And of thy mercy cut off mine enemies, and destroy all them that afflict my soul: for I am thy servant.

PSAL. CXLIIII.

¶ A psalm of David.

BLessed be the LORD my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight.

2 My goodnesse, and my fortresse, my high tower, and my deliverer, my shield, and he in whom I trust: who subdueth my people under me.

3 LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him? or the son of man, that thou makest account of him?

4 Man is like to vanity: his dayes are as a shadow that passeth away.

5 Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down: touch § mountains, and they shall smoke.

6 Cast forth lightnings, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.

7 Send thine hand from above, rid me, and deliver me out of great waters: from the hand of strange children.

8 Whose mouth speaketh vanity: and their right hand is a right hand of falshood.

I will sing a new song unto thee, O God: upon a psaltery, and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.

10 It is he that giveth salvation unto kings: who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

11 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

12 That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth: that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace.

13 That our garners may be full, affording all manner of store: that our sheep may bring forth thousands, and ten thousands in our streets.

14 That our oxen may be strong to labour, that there be no breaking in nor going out; that there be no complaining in our streets.

15 Happy is that people that is in such a case; yea, happy is that people whose God is the LORD.

PSAL. CXLV.

1 David's psalm of praise. I will extoll thee, my God, O king; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy Name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the LORD, & greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

4 One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

5 I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty; and of thy wondrous works.

6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts; and I will declare thy greatness.

7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness; and shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 The LORD is gracious and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy.

9 The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.

10 All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD; and thy saints shall bless thee:

11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom: and talk of thy power.

12 To make known to § sons of men his mighty acts; & § glorious majesty of his kingdom.

13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom; and thy dominion endureth thorowout all generations.

14 The LORD upholdeth all that fall; and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

18 The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him; to all that call upon him in truth.

19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him; he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

20 The LORD preserveth all them that love him; but all the wicked will he destroy.

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD; and let all flesh bless his holy Name for ever and ever.

PSAL. CXLVI.

PRaise ye the LORD; praise the LORD, O my soul.

2 While I live will I praise the LORD; I will sing praises unto my God, while I have any being.

3 Put not your trust in princes; nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

4 His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth, in that very day his thoughts perish.

5 Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help; whose hope is in the LORD his God.

6 Which made heaven & earth, the sea, and all that therein is; which keepeth truth for ever:

7 Which executeth judgement for the oppressed, which giveth food to the hungry: the LORD looseth the prisoners.

8 The LORD openeth the eyes of

of the blinde, the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down, the LORD loveth the righteous.

9 The LORD preserveth the strangers, he relieveth the fatherlesse and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

10 The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generation. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CXLVII.

PRaise ye the LORD: for it is good to sing praises unto our God: for it is pleasant, and praise is comely.

2 The LORD doth build up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

3 He healeth the broken in heart: & bindeth up their wounds.

4 He telleth the number of the stars: he calleth them all by their names.

5 Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite.

6 The LORD lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to the ground.

7 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving: sing praise upon the harp unto our God:

8 Who covereth the heaven with cloudes, who prepareth rain for the earth: who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

9 He giveth to the beast his food: and to the young ravens which cry.

10 He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

11 The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him: in those that hope in his mercy.

12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem: praise thy God, O Zion;

13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates: he hath blessed thy children within thee.

14 He maketh peace in thy borders: and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

15 He sendeth forth his commandement upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

16 He giveth snow like wooll: he scattereth the hoar frost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

18 He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his winde to blow, and the waters flow.

19 He sheweth his word unto Jacob: his statutes & his judgements unto Israel.

20 He hath not dealt so with any nation: & as for his judgements, they have not known them. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CXLVIII.

PRaise ye the LORD. Praise ye the LORD from the heavens: praise him in the heights.

2 Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts.

3 Praise ye him, sun & moon: praise him, all ye stars of light.

4 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens: and ye waters that be above the heavens.

5 Let them praise the Name of the LORD: for he commanded, and they were created.

6 He hath also established them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not passe.

7 Praise the LORD from the earth: ye dragons, and all deepes:

8 Fire and hail, snow and vapour: stormy winde fulfilling his word:

9 Mountains, and all hills: fruitfull trees, and all cedars:

10 Beasts, and all cattell: creeping things, and flying fowl:

11 Kings of the earth, and all people: princes, and all judges of the earth:

12 Both young men and maidens: old men and children:

13 Let them praise the Name of the LORD, for his Name is excellent: his glory is above the earth and heaven.

14 He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints, even of the children of Israel, a people neer unto him. Praise the LORD.

PSAL. CXLIX.

PRaise ye the LORD: sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.

2 Let Israel rejoyce in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyfull in their king.

3 Let them praise his Name, the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

4 For the LORD taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation.

5 Let the saints be joyfull in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds.

6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth: and a two-edged sword in their hand:

7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen: and punishments upon the people.

8 To binde their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron.

9 To execute upon them the judgement written: this honour have all his saints. Praise ye § LORD

PSAL. CL.

PRaise ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

2 Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatnes.

3 Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp.

4 Praise him with the timbrell and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

5 Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.

6 Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD.

¶ THE PROVERBS.

CHAP. I.

THe proverbs of Solomon the son of David king of Israel,

2 To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding,

3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgement and equity,

4 To give subtility to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.

5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning: and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

6 To understand a proverb and the interpretation; the words of the wise and their dark sayings.

7 ¶ The fear of § LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thine head, and chains about thy neck.

10 ¶ My son, if sinners intice thee, consent thou not.

11 If they say, come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave, and whole as those that go down into the pit:

13 We shall finde all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

14 Cast in thy lot among us, let us all have one purse:

15 Walk not thou in the way with them, refrain thy foot from their path:

16 For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

17 Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.

18 And they lay wait for their own bloods, they lurk privily for their own lives.

19 So are the wayes of every one that is greedy of gain, which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

20 ¶ Wisdom crieth without, she uttereth her voice in § streets:

21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

24 Because I have called, and ye refused, I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded:

25 ¶ But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:

26 I also will laugh at your calamity calamity, I will mock when your fear cometh.

27 When your fear cometh as deſolation, and your deſtruction cometh as a whirlwinde; when diſtreſſe and anguiſh cometh upon you:

28 Then ſhall they call upon me, but I will not anſwer: they ſhall ſeek me early, but they ſhal not finde me:

29 For that they hated knowledge, and did not chuſe the feare of the LORD, 30 They would none of my counſell: they deſpiſed all my reproof.

31 Therefore ſhall they eat of the fruit of their own way, & be filled with their own devices.

32 For the turning away of the ſimple ſhal ſlay them, & ꝙ proſperity of fools ſhal deſtroy them.

33 But whoſo hearkeneth unto me, ſhall dwell ſafely, and ſhall be quiet from feare of evil.

CHAP. II.

MY ſon, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine eare unto wiſdom, and apply thine heart to underſtanding:

3 Yea, if thou criеſt after knowledge, and lifteſt up thy voice for underſtanding:

4 If thou ſeekeſt her as ſilver, and ſearcheſt for her as for hid treaſures.

5 Then ſhalt thou underſtand the feare of the LORD, and finde the knowledge of God.

6 For the LORD giveth wiſdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and underſtanding.

7 He layeth up ſound wiſdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of judgement, and preſerveth the way of his ſaints.

9 Then ſhalt thou underſtand righteouſneſs & judgement, and equity: yea, every good path.

10 ¶ When wiſdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleaſant unto thy ſoul;

11 Diſcretion ſhal preſerve thee, underſtanding ſhall keep thee.

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man ꝙ ſpeaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightneſs, to walk in the ways of darkneſs;

14 Who rejoyce to do evil, & delight in the frowardneſs of the wicked;

15 Whoſe wayes are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from the ſtrange woman, even from the ſtranger which flattereth with her words.

17 Which forſaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

18 For her houſe inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

19 None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

20 That thou mayeſt walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

21 For the upright ſhall dwell in the land, and the perfect ſhall remain in it.

22 But the wicked ſhall be cut off from the earth, and the tranſgreſſours ſhal be rooted out of it.

CHAP. III.

MY ſon, forget not my law, but let thine heart keep my commandments:

2 For length of dayes, and long life, and peace ſhall they adde to thee.

3 Let not mercy and truth forſake thee: binde them about thy neck, write them upon the table of thine heart.

4 So ſhalt thou finde favour, and good underſtanding in the ſight of God and man.

5 ¶ Truſt in the LORD with all thine heart: and lean not unto thine own underſtanding.

6 In all thy wayes acknowledge him, and he ſhall direct thy paths.

7 ¶ Be not wiſe in thine own eyes; feare the LORD, and depart from evil.

8 It ſhall be health to thy navill, and marrow to thy bones.

9 Honour the LORD with thy ſubſtance, and with the firſtfruits of all thine increaſe:

10 So ſhall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy preſſes ſhall burſt out with new wine.

11 ¶ My ſon, deſpiſe not the chaſtening of the LORD, neither be weary of his correction:

12 For

2 For whom § LORD loveth
he correcteth, even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.
13 ¶ Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding.
14 For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.
15 She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire, are not to be compared unto her.
16 Length of dayes is in her right hand, and in her left hand riches and honour:
17 Her wayes are wayes of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.
18 She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her;
and happy is every one that retaineth her.
19 The LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth: by understanding he hath stablished the heavens.
20 By his knowledge the depths are broken up: and the clouds drop down the dew.
21 ¶ My son, let not them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion; 22 So shall they be life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck.
23 Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.
24 When thou liest down,
thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.
25 Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.
26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.
27 ¶ Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it.
28 Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to morrow I will give, when thou hast it by thee.
29 Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.
30 Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.
31 ¶ Envy thou not the oppres-sour, & chuse none of his wayes.
32 For the froward is abomination to the LORD: but his secret is with the righteous.
33 ¶ The curse of § LORD is in § house of § wicked: but he bles-seth the habitation of the just.
34 Surely he scorneth the scorners, but he giveth grace unto the lowly.
35 The wise shall inherit glory, but shame shall be the promotion of fools.

CHAP. IV.

HEar, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.
2 For I give you good doctrine:
forsake you not my law.
3 For I was my fathers son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.
4 He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words; keep my commandments, and live.
5 Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not, neither decline from the words of my mouth.
6 Forsake her not; and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee.
7 Wisdom is the principall thing, therefore get wisdom:
and with all thy getting, get understanding.
8 Exalt her, and she shal promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour when thou dost embrace her.
9 She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shal she deliver to thee.
10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings, and the yeers of thy life shall be many.
11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom: I have led thee in right paths.
12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened: and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.
13 Take fast hold of instruction, let her not go; keep her, for she is thy life.
14 ¶ Enter not into the path of the wicked: and go not in the way of evil men.
15 Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.
16 For they sleep not, except they have done mischief: and their

their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

18 But ¶ path of the just is as the shining light, ¶ shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

19 The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.

20 ¶ My son, attend to my words, incline thine ear unto my sayings.

21 Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart.

22 For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh.

23 ¶ Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

24 Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.

25 Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eye-lids look straight before thee.

26 Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established.

27 Turn not to the right hand, nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

CHAP. V.

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding.

2 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge.

3 ¶ For ¶ lips of a strange woman drop as an honey-comb, and her mouth is smoother than oil.

4 But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two edged sword.

5 Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell.

6 Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

8 Remove thy way far from her, & come not nigh the door of her house.

9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruell:

10 Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth, and thy labours be in ¶ house of a stranger;

11 And ¶ mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed, 12 And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof!

13 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!

14 I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

15 ¶ Drink waters out of thine own cisterns, and running waters out of thine own well.

16 Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.

17 Let them be only thine own, and not strangers with thee.

18 Let thy fountain be blessed: and rejoyce with the wife of thy youth:

19 Let her be as the loving hinde, and pleasant roe; let her breasts satisfie thee at all times, and be thou ravished always with her love.

20 And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

21 For the ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord, & he pondereth all his goings.

22 ¶ His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.

23 He shall die without instruction, and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

CHAP. VI.

MY sonne, if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger,

2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thy self, when thou art come into ¶ hand of thy friend; go, humble thy self, and make sure thy friend.

4 Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eye-lids.

5 Deliver thy self as a roe

...ard of the hunter, and as ...bird from the hand of the ...ler.

6 Go to the ant, thou sluggard, ...sider her ways, and be wise.

7 Which having no guide, o...erseer, or ruler,

8 Provideth her meat in the ...mer, and gathereth her food ...the harvest.

9 How long wilt thou sleep, ...sluggard? when wilt thou a...ise out of thy sleep?

10 Yet a little sleep, a little ...slumber, a little folding of the ...hands to sleep.

11 So shall thy poverty come ...one that travelleth, and thy ...want as an armed man.

12 A naughty person, a wicked ...man walketh with a froward mouth.

13 He winketh with his eyes, ...he speaketh with his feet, he ...teacheth with his fingers.

14 Frowardness is in his heart, ...he deviseth mischief continual...ly: he soweth discord.

15 Therefore shall his calami...ty come suddenly; suddenly shall ...he be broken without remedy.

16 ¶ These six things doth the LORD hate: yea, seven are an ...abomination unto him.

17 A proud look, a lying ...tongue, and hands that shed in...nocent blood,

18 An heart that deviseth ...wicked imaginations, feet that ...be swift in running to mischief:

19 A false witnes that speak...eth lies, and him that soweth ...discord among brethren.

20 ¶ My son keep thy fathers ...commandment, and forsake not ...the law of thy mother.

21 Bind them continually ...upon thine heart, and tie them ...about thy neck:

22 When thou goest, it shall ...lead thee; when thou sleepest, it ...shall keep thee; and when thou ...awakest, it shall talk with thee.

23 For the commandment is a lamp, and the law is light; ...and reproofs of instruction are ...the way of life:

24 To keep thee from the evil ...woman, from the flattery of the ...tongue of a strange woman.

25 Lust not after her beauty ...in thine heart, neither let her ...take thee with her eye-lids.

26 For by means of a whorish woman, a man is brought to a piece of bread, & the adulteresse will hunt for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, & his clothes not be burnt?

28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burnt?

29 So he that goeth in to his neighbours wife; whosoever toucheth her, shall not be innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfie his soul, when he is hungry.

31 But if he be found, he shall restore seven-fold, he shall give all the substance of his house.

32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman, lacketh understanding: he that doth it destroyeth his own soul.

33 A wound and dishonour shall he get, and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

34 For jealousie is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

35 He will not regard any ransome; neither will he rest content, though thou giveest many gifts.

CHAP. VII.

MY son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.

2 Keep my commandments, and live: and my law as the apple of thine eye.

3 Binde them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.

4 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:

5 That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.

6 ¶ For at the window of my house I looked thorow my casement,

7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,

8 Passing thorow the street neer her corner; and he went the way to her house,

9 In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night.

10 And behold, there met him a woman, with the attire of an harlot, and subtill of heart.

11 (She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:
12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)
13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him, 14 I have peace offerings with me; this day have I payed my vows.
15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.
16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.
17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrhe, aloes, and cynamom.
18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning, let us solace our selves with loves.
19 For the good man is not at home, he is gone a long journey.
20 He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed.
21 With much fair speech she caused him to yeeld, with ¶ flattering of her lips she forced him.
22 He goeth after her straightway, as an Ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks, 23 Till a dart strike through his liver, as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.
24 ¶ Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, & attend to the words of my mouth.
25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths.
26 For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her.
27 Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

CHAP. VIII.

DOth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?
2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.
3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.
4 Unto you, O men, I call, and my voice is to the sons of men.
5 O ye simples, understand wisdom, and ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.
6 Hear, for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.
7 For my mouth shall speak truth, and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
8 All ¶ words of my mouth are in righteousness, there is nothing froward or perverse in them.
9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that finde knowledge.
10 Receive my instruction and not silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold.
11 For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired, are not to be compared to it.
12 I wisdom dwell with prudence, and finde out knowledge of witty inventions.
13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth do I hate.
14 Counsell is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding, I have strength.
15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.
16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.
17 I love them that love me, and those that seek me early shall finde me.
18 Riches and honour are with me, yea, durable riches and righteousness.
19 My fruit is better than gold, yea than fine gold, and my revenue than choice silver.
20 I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgement, 21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance: and I will fill their treasures.
22 The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.
23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.
24 When there were no depths I was brought forth: when there were no fountains abounding with waters,

25 Before the mountains were setled: before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compasse upon the face of the depth:

28 When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep:

29 When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not passe his commandement: when he appointed the foundations of the earth:

30 Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoycing alwayes before him.

31 Rejoycing in the habitable part of his earth, and my delights were with the sons of men.

32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed are they that keep my wayes.

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

34 Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

35 For whoso findeth me, findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD.

36 But he that sinneth against me, wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me, love death.

CHAP. IX.

WIsdom hath builded her house: she hath hewen out her seven pillars.

2 She hath killed her beeves, she hath mingled her wine: she hath also furnished her table.

3 She hath sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city:

4 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him:

5 Come eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forsake foolish, and live, and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner, getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man, getteth himself a blot.

8 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 For by me thy dayes shall be multiplied: and the yeers of thy life shall be increased.

12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thy self: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 ¶ A foolish woman is clamorous, she is simple and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat, in the high places of the city:

15 To call passengers who go right on their wayes,

16 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him:

17 Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

18 But he knoweth not that the dead are there, and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

CHAP. X.

THe proverbs of Solomon: A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heavinesse of his mother.

2 Treasures of wickednesse profit nothing: but righteousnesse delivereth from death.

3 The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away the substance of the wicked.

4 He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer, is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments, but a prating fool shall fall.

9 He that walketh uprightly, walketh surely, but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 He that winketh with the eye, causeth sorrow: but a prating fool shall fall.

11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding, wisdom is found: but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is neer destruction.

15 The rich mans wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof, erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander is a fool.

19 In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom.

22 The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.

23 It is as a sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes: so is the sluggard to them that send him.

27 The fear of the LORD prolongeth dayes: but the yeers of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

31 The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaketh frowardnesse.

3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressours shall destroy them.

4 Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righteousnesse delivereth from death.

5 The righteousnesse of the perfect shall direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousnesse of the upright shall deliver them: but transgressours shall be taken in their own naughtinesse.

7 When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

8 The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

9 An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

10 When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoyceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He that is void of wisdom, despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13 A tale-bearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithfull spirit concealeth the matter.

17 The merciful man doth good to his own ſoul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own fleſh.

18 The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but to him that ſoweth righteouſneſs, ſhall be a ſure reward.

19 As righteouſneſs tendeth to life: ſo he that purſueth evil, purſueth it to his own death.

20 They that are of a froward heart, are abomination to the LORD: but ſuch as are upright in their way, are his delight.

21 Though hand joyn in hand, the wicked ſhal not be unpuniſhed: but the ſeed of the righteous ſhall be delivered.

22 As a jewel of gold in a ſwines ſnout; ſo is a fair woman which is without diſcretion.

23 The deſire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

24 There is that ſcattereth, & yet increaſeth: and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

25 The liberall ſoul ſhall be made fat: and he that watereth, ſhall be watered alſo himſelf.

26 He that withholdeth corn, the people ſhall curſe him: but bleſſing ſhall be upon the head of him that ſelleth it.

27 He that diligently ſeeketh good, procureth favour; but he that ſeeketh miſchief, it ſhall come unto him.

28 He that truſteth in his riches ſhall fall; but the righteous ſhal flouriſh as a branch.

29 He that troubleth his own houſe ſhall inherit the winde; and the fool ſhall be ſervant to the wiſe of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth ſouls is wiſe.

31 Behold, the righteous ſhal be recompenſed in the earth: much more the wicked and the ſinner.

5 The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counſels of the wicked are deceit.

6 The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright ſhall deliver them.

7 The wicked are overthrown and are not: but the houſe of the righteous ſhall ſtand.

8 A man ſhall be commended according to his wiſdom; but he that is of a perverſe heart, ſhall be deſpiſed.

9 He that is deſpiſed, and hath a ſervant, is better then he that honoureth himſelf, and lacketh bread.

10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his beaſt: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

11 He that tilleth his land ſhal be ſatisfied with bread; but he that followeth vain perſons, is void of underſtanding.

12 The wicked deſireth the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yeldeth fruit.

13 The wicked is snared by the tranſgreſſion of his lips: but the juſt ſhal come out of trouble.

14 A man ſhal be ſatisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: and the recompence of a mans hands ſhal be rendered unto him.

15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes; but he that hearkeneth unto counſel, is wiſe.

16 A fools wrath is preſently known: but a prudent man covereth ſhame.

17 He that ſpeaketh truth, ſheweth forth righteouſneſs: but a falſe witneſſe deceit.

18 There is that ſpeaketh like the piercings of a ſword: but the tongue of the wiſe, is health.

19 The lip of truth ſhall be eſtabliſhed for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

20 Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counſellours of peace is joy.

21 There ſhal no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.

22 Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly, are his delight.

23 A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishnesse.

24 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothfull shall be under tribute.

25 Heavinesse in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but a good word maketh it glad.

26 The righteous is more excellent then his neighbour: but ℣ way of ℣ wicked seduceth them.

27 The slothfull man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.

CHAP. XIII.

2 A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but the soul of the transgressours shall eat violence.

3 He that keepeth his mouth, keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

4 The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.

5 A righteous man hateth lying: but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.

11 Wealth gotten by vanity, shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour, shall increase.

12 Hope deferred, maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

13 Whoso despiseth the word, shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded.

14 The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

15 Good understanding giveth favour: but the way of transgressours is hard.

16 Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge: but a fool layeth open his folly.

17 A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but a faithfull ambassadour is health.

18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof, shall be honoured.

19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.

20 He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

21 Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repayed.

22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his childrens childrun: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

23 Much food is in the tillage of the poor: but there is that is destroyed for want of judgement.

24 He that spareth his rod, hateth his son: but he that loveth him, chasteneth him betimes.

25 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of ℣ wicked shall want.

CHAP. XIIII.

EVery wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down ℣ her hands.

2 He that walketh in his uprightnesse, feareth the LORD: but he that is ℣ perverse in his wayes despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 A faithfull witnesse will not not lie: but a false witnesse will vtter lies.

6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easie vnto him that vnderstandeth.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man when thou perceiuest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to vnderstand his way: but the folly of fooles is deceit.

9 Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is fauor.

10 The heart knoweth his owne bitternesse; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his ioy.

11 The house of the wicked shall be ouerthrown: but the tabernacle of the vpright shall flourish.

12 There is a way which seemeth right vnto a man: but the end thereof are the wayes of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful, and the end of that mirth is heauinesse.

14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his owne wayes: and a good man shall be satisfied from himselfe.

15 The simple beleeueth euery word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from euil: but the foole rageth, and is confident.

17 He that is soon angry, dealeth foolishly: and a man of wicked deuices is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 The euil bow before the good: and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poore is hated euen of his own neighbour: but the rich hath many friends.

21 He that despiseth his neighbour, sinneth: but he that hath mercy on the poore, happy is he.

22 Do they not erre that deuise euil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that deuise good.

23 In all labour there is profit: but the talke of the lips tendeth onely to penury.

24 The crowne of the wise is their riches: but the foolishnes of fooles is folly.

25 A true witnesse deliuereth soules; but a deceitfull witnesse speaketh lies.

26 In the feare of the LORD is strong confidence: and his children shall haue a place of refuge.

27 The feare of the LORD is a fountaine of life, to depart from the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the kings honour: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 He that is slow to wrath is of great vnderstanding: but he that is hasty of spirit, exalteth folly.

30 A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but enuie the rottennesse of the bones.

31 He that oppresseth the poore, reproacheth his maker: but he that honoureth him hath mercy on the poore.

32 The wicked is driuen away in his wickednesse: but the righteous hath hope in his death.

33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath vnderstanding: but that which is in the midst of fooles, is made known.

34 Righteousnesse exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.

35 The Kings fauour is toward a wise seruant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

CHAP. XV.

A Soft answer turneth away wrath: but grieuous words stir vp anger.

2 The tongue of the wise vseth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fooles powreth out foolishnesse.

3 The eyes of the LORD are in euery place, beholding the euil and the good.

4 A wholsome tongue is a tree of life: but peruersenesse therein is a breach in the spirit.

5 A foole despiseth his fathers instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the reuenues of the wicked is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doth not so.

8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the vpright is his delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto § LORD: but he loveth him that followeth after righteousnesse.

10 Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh § way: and he that hateth reproof shall die.

11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more then the hearts of the children of men?

12 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go unto the wise.

13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of § heart § spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding, seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishnesse.

15 All the dayes of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continuall feast.

16 Better is little with the feare of the LORD, then great treasure, and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, then a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

18 A wrathfull man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 The way of § slothfull man is as an hedge of thornes: but the way of § righteous is made plain.

20 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 Folly is joy to him § is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

22 Without counsell purposes are disappointed: but in § multitude of counsellours they are established.

23 A man hath joy by § answer of his mouth: and a word spoken in due season, how good is it?

24 The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 The LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish § border of § widow.

26 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

27 He that is greedy of gain, troubleth his own house: but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 The LORD is far from the wicked: but he heareth § prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoyceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 The eare that heareth the reproof of lifeabideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth instruction, despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproofgetteth understanding.

33 The feare of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility.

CHAP. XVI.

THE preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

2 All the wayes of a man are clean in his own eyes: but the LORD weigheth the spirits.

3 Commit thy works unto the LORD: and thy thoughts shall be established.

4 The LORD hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

5 Every one that is proud in heart, is an abomination to the LORD: though hand ioyn in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

6 By mercy and truth iniquity is purged: and by § feare of the LORD men depart from evil.

7 When a mans wayes please the LORD, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 Better is a little with righteousnesse, then great revenues without right.

9 A mans heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps.

10 A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgement.

11 A just weight and balance are the LORDS: all the weights of the bag are his work.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickednesse: for the throne is established by righteousnesse.

13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings: and they love him that speaketh right.

14 The

14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacifie it.

15 In the light of the kings countenance is life, and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold? and to get understanding, rather to be chosen than silver?

17 The high way of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way, preserveth his soul.

18 Pride goeth before destruction: and an haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 He that handleth a matter wisely, shall finde good: and whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 Understanding is a well-spring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.

23 The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

24 Pleasant words are as an honey-comb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

25 There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

26 He that laboureth, laboureth for himself: for his mouth craveth it of him.

27 An ungodly man diggeth up evil: and in his lips there is as a burning fire.

28 A froward man soweth strife: and a whisperer separateth chief friends.

29 A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: moving his lips he bringeth evil to passe.

31 The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

32 He that is slow to anger, is better than the mighty: and he that ruleth his spirit, than he that taketh a city.

33 The lot is cast into the lap: but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.

CHAP. XVII.

BEtter is a dry morsell and quietnes therewith, than an house full of sacrifices with strife.

2 A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame: and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

3 The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the LORD trieth the hearts.

4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips: and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

5 Whoso mocketh the poor, reproacheth his Maker: and he that is glad at calamities, shall not be unpunished.

6 Childrens children are the crown of old men, and the glory of children are their fathers.

7 Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much lesse do lying lips a prince.

8 A gift is as a precious stone in his eyes of him that hath it: whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth.

9 He that covereth a transgression, seeketh love: but he that repeateth a matter, departeth very friends.

10 A reproof entereth more into a wise man, than an hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeketh onely rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

12 Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

13 Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore leave off contention before it be medled with.

15 He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just: even they both are abomination to the LORD.

16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it?

17 A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

18 A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

19 He loveth transgression, that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

20 He that hath a froward heart, under: no good: and he that hath a perverse tongue, falleth into mischief.

21 He that begetteth a fool, doth it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool hath no joy.

22 A merry heart doth good like a medicine; but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom, to pervert the ways of judgement.

24 Wisdom is before him that hath understanding: but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him.

26 Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

27 He that hath knowledge, spareth his words: and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

28 Even a fool when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips, is esteemed a man of understanding.

CHAP. XVIII.

THrough desire a man having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover it self.

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy, reproach.

4 The words of a mans mouth are as deep waters, and the well-spring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

5 It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgement.

6 A fools lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 A fools mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

8 The words of a tale bearer are as wounds, & they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

9 He also that is slothfull in his work, is brother to him that is a great waster.

10 The Name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

11 The rich mans wealth is his strong city: and as an high wall in his own conceit.

12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

13 He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity: but a wounded spirit who can bear?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge, and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

16 A mans gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

17 He that is first in his own cause, seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

19 A brother offended is harder to be won then a strong city, and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20 A mans belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth, and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21 Death & life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

22 Whoso findeth a wife, findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.

23 The poor useth intreaties, but the rich answereth roughly.

24 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer then a brother.

CHAP. XIX.

BEtter is the poor that walketh in his integrity, then he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Also that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good: & he that hasteth with his feet, sinneth.

3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the LORD.

4 Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

5 A false witness shall not be unpunished: and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6 Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

7 All the brethren of the poor do to have him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

5 He that getteth wisdom, loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding, shall finde good.

6 A false witnesse shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

7 Delight is not seemly for a fool, much lesse for a servant to rule over princes.

8 The discretion of a man deferreth his anger: and it is his glory to passe over a transgression.

9 The kings wrath is as the roaring of a lion: but his favour is as dew upon the grasse.

10 A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continuall dropping.

11 House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from the LORD.

12 Slothfulnesse casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.

13 He that keepeth the commandment, keepeth his own soul: but he that despiseth his waies shall die.

14 He that hath pity upon the poor, lendeth unto the LORD, and that which he hath given, will be pay him again.

15 Chasten thy son while there is hope: and let not thy soul spare for his crying.

16 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again.

17 Heare counsell, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.

18 There are many devices in a mans heart: nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.

19 The desire of a man is his kindnesse: and a poor man is better then a liar.

20 The feare of the LORD tendeth to life: and he that hath it shall abide satisfied: he shall not be visited with evil.

21 A slothfull man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

22 Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware: and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.

23 He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

24 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to erre from the words of knowledge.

25 An ungodly witnes scorneth judgement: and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

26 Judgements are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

CHAP. XX.

1 Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: & whosoever is deceived thereby, is not wise.

2 The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provoketh him to anger, sinneth against his own soul.

3 It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be medling.

4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold: therfore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 Counsell in the heart of man is like deep water: but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 Most men will proclaime every one his own goodnesse: but a faithfull man who can finde?

7 The just man walketh in his integrity: his children are blessed after him.

8 A king that sitteth in the throne of judgement, scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

9 Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

10 Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.

11 Even a childe is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.

12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the LORD hath made even both of them.

13 Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty: open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.

14 It is naught, it is naught, (saith the buyer:) but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.

15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

15 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger: and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

17 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.

18 Every purpose is established by counsel: and with good advice make war.

19 He that goeth about as a tale bearer, revealeth secrets: therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips.

20 Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.

21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

22 Say not thou, I will recompense evil: but wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.

23 Divers weights are an abomination to the LORD; and a false balance is not good.

24 Mans goings are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way?

25 It is a snare to a man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vows to make inquiry.

26 A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them.

27 The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly.

28 Mercy and truth preserve the king: and his throne is upholden by mercy.

29 The glory of young men is their strength: and the beauty of old men is the gray head.

30 The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

CHAP. XXI.

1 The kings heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts.

3 To do justice and judgement is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

4 An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked is sin.

5 The thoughts of the diligent tend onely to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty, onely to want.

6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

7 The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them, because they refuse to do judgement.

8 The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.

9 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house top, than with a brawling woman in a wide house.

10 The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour findeth no favour in his eyes.

11 When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.

12 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness.

13 Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

14 A gift in secret pacifieth anger, and a reward in the bosom strong wrath.

15 It is joy to the just to do judgement: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

16 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding, shall remain in the congregation of the dead.

17 He that loveth pleasure, shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil, shall not be rich.

18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressour for the upright.

19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.

20 There is treasure to be desired, and oil in the dwelling of the wise: but a foolish man spendeth it up.

21 He that followeth after righteousness and mercy, findeth life, righteousness, and honour.

22 A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

23 Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue, keepeth his soul from troubles.

24 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth in proud wrath.

25 The desire of the slothfull killeth him: for his hands refuse to labour.

26 He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the righteous giveth, and spareth not.

27 The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked minde?

28 A false witnesse shall perish: but the man that heareth, speaketh constantly.

29 A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way.

30 There is no wisdome, nor understanding, nor counsell against the LORD.

31 The horse is prepared against the day of battell: but safety is of the LORD.

CHAP. XXII.

A Good name is rather to be chosen then great riches, and loving favour, rather then silver and gold.

2 The rich and poor meet together: the LORD is the maker of them all.

3 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, & hideth himself: but the simple passe on, & are punished.

4 By humility and the feare of the LORD, are riches and honour, and life.

5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward: he that doth keep his soul, shall be far from them.

6 Train up a childe in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

7 The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.

8 He that soweth iniquity, shall reap vanity, and the rod of his anger shall fail.

9 He that hath a bountifull eye shall be blessed: for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

10 Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.

11 He that loveth pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge, and he overthroweth the words of the transgressour.

13 The slothfull man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.

14 The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he § abhorred of § LORD, shall fall therein.

15 Foolishnesse is bound in the heart of a childe: but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

16 He that oppresseth § poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.

17 Bow down thine eare, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge.

18 For it is a pleasant thing, if thou keep them within thee; they shall withall be fitted in thy lips.

19 That thy trust may be in § LORD, I have made known to thee this day, even to thee.

20 Have not I written to thee excellent things in councels and knowledge:

21 That I might make thee know the certainty of § words of truth, that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee?

22 Rob not the poor, because he is poor: neither oppresse the afflicted in the gate:

23 For the LORD will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

24 Make no friendship with an angry man: and with a furious man thou shalt not go;

25 Lest thou learn his wayes, and get a snare to thy soul.

26 Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.

27 If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he take away thy bed from under thee?

28 Remove not § ancient landmark, w^h thy fathers have set.

29 Seest thou a man diligent in his businesse? he shall stand before kings, he shall not stand before mean men.

CHAP. XXIII.

WHen thou sittest to eat with a ruler, consider diligently ligently what is before thee;

2 And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.
3 Be not desirous of his dainties: for they are deceitful meat.
4 Labour not to be rich: cease from thine own wisdom.
5 Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.
6 Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats:
7 For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee, but his heart is not with thee.
8 The morsel which thou hast eaten, shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.
9 Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.
10 Remove not the old landmark: and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:
11 For their Redeemer is mighty: he shall plead their cause with thee.
12 Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.
13 Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.
14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.
15 My son, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, even mine.
16 Yea, my reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things.
17 Let not thine heart envie sinners: but be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.
18 For surely there is an end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.
19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way.
20 Be not among wine-bibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:
21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.
22 Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.
23 Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.
24 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child, shall have joy of him.
25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.
26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.
27 For an whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.
28 She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.
29 Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?
30 They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixt wine.
31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.
32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.
33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.
34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.
35 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick: they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

CHAP. XXIIII.

BE not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them.
2 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.
3 Through wisdom is an house builded, and by understanding it is established.
4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.
5 A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellours there is safety.

7 Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that deviseth to do evil, shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought of foolishnesse is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small:

11 If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain:

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not: doth not he that pondereth the heart, consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?

13 My sonne eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycombe which is sweet to thy taste:

14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Lay not wait (O wicked man) against the dwelling of the righteous: spoil not his resting place.

16 For a just man falleth seven times, & riseth up again: but the wicked shal fal into mischief.

17 Rejoyce not when thine enemy falleth, & let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

18 Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 Fret not thy self because of evil men: neither be thou envious at the wicked.

20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man: the candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My sonne fear thou ℣ LORD, & ℣ king: and meddle not with them that are given to change.

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly, and who knoweth the ruine of them both?

23 These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgement.

24 He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse; nations shall abhor him:

25 But to them that rebuke him, shall be delight, & a good blessing shall come upon them.

26 Every man shall kisse his lips that giveth a right answer.

27 Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thy self in the field; and afterwards build thine house.

28 Be not a witnesse against thy neighbour without cause: and deceive not with thy lips.

29 Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work.

30 I went by the field of the slothfull, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding:

31 And lo, it was all grown over with thornes, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone-wall thereof was broken down:

32 Then I saw, and considered it well, I looked upon it, and received instruction.

33 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

34 So shall thy poverty come, as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

CHAP. XXV.

THese are also proverbs of Solomon, ℣ men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

2 It is ℣ glory of God to conceal a thing; but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.

3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, & the heart of kings is unsearchable.

4 Take away the drosse from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessell for the finer.

5 Take away the wicked from before ℣ king, & his throne shall be established in righteousnesse.

6 Put not forth thy self in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men.

7 For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither; then that thou shouldest be put lower in ℣ presence of ℣ prince whom thine eyes have seen.

8 Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

9 Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself, and discover not a secret to another:

10 Lest he that heareth it, put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away.

11 A word fitly spoken, is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

12 As an ear-ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold: so is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear.

13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest; so is a faithfull messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the soul of his masters.

14 Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift, is like clouds and winde without rain.

15 By long forbearing is a prince perswaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

16 Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

17 Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbours house: lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 A man that beareth false witnesse against his neighbour, is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

19 Confidence in an unfaithfull man in time of trouble, is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joynt.

20 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre: so is he that singeth songs to an heavie heart.

21 If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat: and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:

22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward thee.

23 The north winde driveth away rain: so doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.

24 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house top, then with a brawling woman, and in a wide house.

25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul: so is good news from a far country.

26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked, is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.

27 It is not good to eat much honey: so for men to search their own glory, is not glory.

28 He that hath no rule over his own spirit, is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

CHAP. XXVI.

AS snow in summer, and as rain in harvest: so honour is not seemly for a fool.

2 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying: so the curse causeless shall not come.

3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the asse, and a rod for the fools back.

4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool, cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage.

7 The legs of the lame are not equall: so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

8 As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that giveth honour to a fool.

9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard: so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 The great God that formed all things, both rewardeth fools, and rewardeth transgressours.

11 As a dog returneth to his vomit: so a fool returneth to his folly.

12 Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool then of him.

13 The slothfull man saith, There is a lion in the way, a lion is in the streets.

14 As the door turneth upon his hinges: so doth the slothfull upon his bed.

15 The slothfull hideth his hand in his bosom, it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit, then seven men that can render a reason.

17 He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

21 As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold: so is a man to his praise.

22 Though thou bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestell, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

23 Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds.

24 For riches are not for ever: & doth the crown endure to every generation?

25 The hay appeareth, & the tender grass sheweth it self, & herbs of the mountains are gathered.

26 The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of thy field.

27 And thou shalt have goats milk enough for thy food, for the 21 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, am I not in sport?

20 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so where there is no tale-bearer, strife ceaseth.

21 As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

22 The words of a tale-bearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

23 Burning lips, and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

24 He that hateth, dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him.

25 When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 Whose hatred is covered by craft, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.

27 Whoso diggeth a pit, shall fall therein: & he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.

28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it, and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Boast not thy self of to morrow: for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, & not thine own lips.

3 A stone is heavie, and the sand weighty: but a fools wrath is heavier then them both.

4 Wrath is cruel, and anger outrageous: but who is able to stand before envie?

5 Open rebuke is better then secret love.

6 Faithfull are the wounds of a friend: but the kisses of an enemy are deceitfull.

7 The full soul loatheth an honey-comb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest: so is a man that wandereth from his place.

9 Ointment and perfume rejoyce the heart: so doth the sweetnesse of a mans friend by hearty counsell.

10 Thine own friend, & thy fathers friend, forsake not: neither go into thy brothers house in the day of thy calamity; for better is a neighbour that is neer, then a brother far off.

11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

12 A prudent man foreseeth evil, and hideth himself: but the simple passe on, and are punished.

13 Take his garment, for he is surety for a stranger; & take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

14 He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shal be counted a curse to him.

15 A continual dropping in a very rainy day, and a contentious woman are alike.

16 Whosoever hideth her, hideth the winde, and the ointment of his right hand, which betrayeth it self.

17 Iron sharpeneth iron: so a man sharpneth the countenance of his friend.

18 Whoso keepeth the fig-tree, shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured.

19 As in water face answereth to face: so the heart of man to man.

20 Hell and destruction are never full: so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

the food of thy houshold, & for ꝯ maintenance for thy maidens.

CHAP. XXVIII.

THe wicked flee when no man purſueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the tranſgreſſion of a land, many are the princes thereof: but by a man of underſtanding and knowledge, the ſtate thereof ſhall be prolonged.

3 A poor man that oppreſſeth the poor, is like a ſweeping rain which leaveth no food.

4 They that forſake the law, praiſe ꝯ wicked: but ſuch as keep the law, contend with them.

5 Evil men underſtand not judgement: but they that ſeek ꝯ LORD, underſtand all things.

6 Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightneſſe, then he that is perverſe in his wayes, though he be rich.

7 Whoſo keepeth the law, is a wiſe ſon: but he that is a companion of riotous men, ſhameth his father.

8 He that by uſury and unjuſt gain increaſeth his ſubſtance, he ſhall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer ſhall be abomination.

10 Whoſo cauſeth the righteous to go aſtray in an evill way, he ſhall fall himſelf into his own pit: but ꝯ upright ſhall have good things in poſſeſſion.

11 The rich man is wiſe in his own conceit: but the poor that hath underſtanding ſearcheth him out.

12 When righteous men do rejoyce, there is great glory: but when the wicked riſe, a man is hidden.

13 He that covereth his ſins, ſhall not proſper: but whoſo confeſſeth and forſaketh them, ſhall have mercy.

14 Happy is ꝯ man that feareth always: but he that hardeneth his heart, ſhall fall into miſchief.

15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear: ſo is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth underſtanding is alſo a great oppreſſour: but he ꝯ hateth covetouſneſs, ſhall prolong his dayes.

17 A man that doth violence to the blood of any perſon, ſhall flee to the pit: let no man ſtay him.

18 Whoſo walketh uprightly, ſhall be ſaved: but he ꝯ is perverſe in his wayes ſhall fall at once.

19 He that tilleth his land, ſhall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain perſons, ſhall have poverty enough.

20 A faithfull man ſhall abound with bleſſings: but he that maketh haſte to be rich, ſhall not be innocent.

21 To have reſpect of perſons is not good: for, for a piece of bread that man will tranſgreſſe.

22 He ꝯ haſteth to be rich, hath an evil eye, and conſidereth not ꝯ poverty ſhall come upon him.

23 He that rebuketh a man, afterward, ſhall finde more favour then he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoſo robbeth his father or his mother, and ſaith, it is no tranſgreſſion: the ſame is the companion of a deſtroyer.

25 He that is of a proud heart, ſtirreth up ſtrife: but he that putteth his truſt in the LORD, ſhall be made fat.

26 He that truſteth in his own heart, is a fool: but whoſo walketh wiſely, he ſhall be delivered.

27 He that giveth unto ꝯ poor, ſhall not lack: but he ꝯ hideth his eyes, ſhall have many a curſe.

28 When the wicked riſe, men hide themſelves: but when they perish, the righteous increaſe.

CHAP. XXIX.

HE that being often reproved, hardeneth his neck, ſhall ſuddenly be deſtroyed, and that without remedy.

2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoyce: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

3 Whoſo loveth wiſdom, rejoyceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots, ſpendeth his ſubſtance.

4 The king by judgement eſtabliſheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts, overthroweth it.

5 A man ꝯ flattereth his neighbour, ſpreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the tranſgreſſion of an evil man, there is a ſnare: but the righteous doth ſing & rejoyce.

7 The

The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 The blood-thirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

11 A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor & the merciful man meet together: the LORD lighteneth both their eyes.

14 The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 The rod & reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself, bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall.

17 Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand, he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a childe, shall have him become his son in the length.

22 An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is partner *w*ith a thief, hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD, shall be safe.

26 Many seek the rulers favour, but every mans judgement cometh from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way, is abomination to the wicked.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy: the man spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal,

2 Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

3 I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy.

4 Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the winde in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment: who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his sons name, if thou canst tell?

5 Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

6 Adde thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I required of thee: deny me them not before I die.

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies, give me neither poverty nor riches: feed me with food convenient for me.

9 Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

10 Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty:

11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not blesse their mother.

12 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthinesse.

13 There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eye-lids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, It is enough:

16 The grave, and the barren womb, womb; the earth that is not filled with water: and the fire that saith not, It is enough:

17 The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother; the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too wonderfull for me, yea, four which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air, the way of a serpent upon a rock, the way of a ship in the midst of the sea, and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman: she eateth and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

22 For a servant when he reigneth, and a fool when he is filled with meat:

23 For an odious woman when she is married, and an hand-maid that is heir to her mistresse.

24 There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise:

25 The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer.

26 The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks.

27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands.

28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings palaces.

29 There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:

30 A lion which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any:

31 A gray-hound, an he-goat also, and a king against whom there is no rising up.

32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thy self, or if thou hast thought evil, lay thine hand upon thy mouth.

33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of § nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

CHAP. XXXI.

THe words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother taught him.

2 What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows?

3 Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings.

4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine: nor for princes strong drink:

5 Lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted.

6 Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those § be of heavie hearts.

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his miserie no more.

8 Open thy mouth for the dumb, in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.

9 Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

10 ¶ Who can finde a vertuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

11 The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.

12 She will do him good, and not evil, all § dayes of her life.

13 She seeketh wooll and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.

14 She is like the merchants ships, she bringeth her food from afar.

15 She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her houshold, and a portion to her maidens.

16 She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.

17 She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.

18 She perceiveth that her merchandise is good; her candle goeth not out by night.

19 She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.

20 She stretcheth out her hand to the poor, yea, she reacheth forth her hands to § needy.

21 She not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet.

22 She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.

23 Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.

24 She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.

25 Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoyce in time to come.

26 She openeth her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the law of kindness.

27 She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.

28 Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

29 Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.

30 Favour is deceitful, & beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.

31 Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her own works praise her in the gates.

ECCLESIASTES, or, THE PREACHER.

CHAP. I.

1 The words of the preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

2 Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher, vanity of vanities, all is vanity.

3 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the earth abideth for ever.

5 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he arose.

6 The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, & the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

7 All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full: unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again.

8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be: and that which is done, is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come, with those that shall come after.

12 I the preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom, concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travel hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith.

14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; & behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight, & that which is wanting cannot be numbred.

16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, & have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

17 And I gave my heart to know wisdom, & to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For in much wisdom is much grief, & he that increaseth knowledge, increaseth sorrow.

CHAP. II.

1 I Said in my heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and behold this also is vanity.

2 I said of laughter, It is mad, and of mirth, What doth it?

3 I sought in my heart to give my self unto wine, (yet acquainting my heart with wisdom) and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what were that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the dayes of their life.

4 I made me great works, I builded me houses, I planted me vineyards.

5 I

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kinde of fruits.

6 I made me pools of water to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees.

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house: also I had great possessions of great and small cattel, above all that were in Jerusalem before me.

8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings, and of the provinces: I got me men singers, and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musicall instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So I was great, and increased more then all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired, I kept not from them: I withheld not mine heart from any joy; for my heart rejoyced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then looked I on all the works ℣ my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and behold, all was vanity, and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 ¶ And I turned my self to behold wisdom, and madnesse, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darknesse.

14 The wise mans eyes are in his head, but the fool walketh in darknesse: and I my self perceived that also one event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? then I said in my heart, That this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise, more then of the fool for ever: seeing that which now is, in the dayes to come shall be forgotten; & how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life, because ℣ work ℣ is wrought under ℣ sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 ¶ Yea I hated all my labour ℣ I had taken under ℣ sun: because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, & wherein I have shewed my self wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour ℣ I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, & in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein, shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity, and a great evil.

22 For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For all his dayes are sorrows, and his travel grief; yea his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 ¶ There is nothing better for a man, then that he should eat and drink, & that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw that it was from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat or who else can hasten hereunto more then I?

26 For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to ℣ sinner he giveth travel, to gather and to heap up that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER III.

1 To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven.

2 A time to be borne, and a time to die: a time to plant, and a time to pluck up ℣ which is planted.

3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up.

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh: a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

21 Who knoweth the ſpirit of man that goeth upward, and the ſpirit of the beaſt that goeth downward to the earth?

22 Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man ſhould rejoyce in his own works: for that is his portion: for who ſhall bring him to ſee what ſhall be after him?

CHAP. IIII.

SO I returned, and conſidered all the oppreſſions that are done under the ſun: and behold, the tears of ſuch as were oppreſſed, and they had no comforter; and on the ſide of their oppreſſours there was power, but they had no comforter.

2 Wherefore I praiſed the dead which are already dead, more than the living which are yet alive

3 Yea, better is he than both they which hath not yet been, which hath not ſeen the evil work that is done under the ſun.

4 ¶ Again I conſidered all travell, and every right work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbour: this is alſo vanity and vexation of ſpirit.

5 The fool folded his hands together, and eateth his own fleſh.

6 Better is an handfull with quietneſs, than both the hands full with travell, and vexation of ſpirit.

7 ¶ Then I returned, and I ſaw vanity under the ſun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a ſecond; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labours, neither is his eye ſatisfied with riches, neither ſaith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my ſoul of good? this is alſo vanity, yea it is a ſore travell.

9 ¶ Two are better then one; becauſe they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth: for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail againſt him, two ſhall withſtand him: and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better

13 Better is a poor and a wise childe, then an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reign, whereas also he ¶ is born in his kingdom become poor.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second childe that shal stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoyce in him, for ¶ this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAP. V.

KEep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, & be more ready to hear, then to give ¶ sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash ¶ with thy mouth, & let not thy heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, & upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of businesses, and a fools voice is known by multitude of words.

4 When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it: for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

5 Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, then that ¶ thou shouldest vow, and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin, neither say thou before the angel that it was an errour: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in ¶ multitude of dreams and many words, there are also divers vanities: but fear ¶ God.

8 ¶ If thou seest the oppression of the poor, & violent perverting of judgement & justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher then the highest, regardeth, and there be higher then they.

9 ¶ Moreover, the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shal not be satisfied with silver: nor he that loveth abundance, with increase: ¶ this is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but ¶ abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun: ¶ namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travel: & he begetteth a son, & there is nothing in his hand.

15 As he came forth of his mothers womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, & shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: & what profit hath he ¶ that laboured for ¶ wind?

17 All his dayes also he eateth in darkness, & he hath much sorrow & wrath ¶ with his sickness.

18 ¶ Behold, that ¶ I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat, & to drink, & to enjoy the good of all his labour that he take ¶ under the sun the dayes of his life, which God giveth him: for it is his portion.

19 Every man also to whom God hath given riches & wealth, & hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoyce in his labour: this is the gift of God.

20 For he shall not much remember the dayes of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

CHAP. VI.

THere is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men;

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all ¶ he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 ¶ If a man beget an hundred children, & live many years, so that the dayes of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, & also that

...ore so Iustath I say that an un-
...ruite birth is better then he.
4 For he cometh in with
...ity, and departeth in dark-
...ss, and his name shall be co-...ed with darkenesse.
5 Moreover, he hath not seen
...n sor known any thing: this
...s rest then the other.
6 Yea, though he live a thou-
...and yeers twice told, yet hath
...e seen no good: do not all go
...o one place?
7 All the labour of man is
...or his mouth, and yet the appe-
...te is not filled.
8 For what hath the wise more ...than the fool? what hath the
...or, that knoweth to walk be...fore the living?
9 ¶ Better is the sight of the
...yes than the wandering of the
...esire: this is also vanity and
...vexation of spirit.
10 That which hath been is ...named already, and it is known ...that it is a man: neither may
...he contend with him that is
...mightier then he.
11 ¶ Seeing there be many ...things that increase vanity, what
...is man the better?
12 For who knoweth what is ...good for man in this life, all the ...dayes of his vain life, which he
...spendeth as a shadow? for who ...can tell a man what shall be af...ter him under the sun.

CHAP. VII.

A Good name is better then
...a precious ointment: and
...the day of death then the day
...of one's birth.
2 ¶ It is better to go to the ...house of mourning, then to go to ...the house of feasting: for that ...is the end of all men, and the li...ving will lay it to his heart.
3 Sorrow is better then laugh...ter: for by the sadnesse of the countenance the heart is made better.
4 The heart of the wise is in the ...house of mourning, but the heart
...of fools is in the house of mirth.
5 It is better to hear the rebuke
...of the wise, then for a man to ...hear the song of fools.
6 For as the crackling of thorns
...under a pot, so is the laughter of
...the fool: this also is vanity.
7 ¶ Surely oppression maketh
...a wise man mad: and a gift de-
...stroyeth the heart.
8 Better is the end of a thing
...then the beginning thereof: and
...the patient in spirit is better
...then the proud in spirit.
9 Be not hasty in thy spirit to ...be angry: for anger resteth in
...the bosom of fools.
10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former dayes were ...better then these? for thou dost
...not enquire wisely concerning this.
11 ¶ Wisdom is good with an ...inheritance: and by it there is
...profit to them that see the sun.
12 For wisdom is a defence,
...and mony is a defence: but the ...excellency of knowledge is, that ...wisdom giveth life to them that
...have it.
13 Consider the work of God:
...for who can make that straight
...which he hath made crooked?
14 In the day of prosperity be ...joyfull, but in the day of adver-
...sity consider: God also hath set
...the one over against the other,
...to the end that man should finde
...nothing after him.
15 All things have I seen in the ...dayes of my vanity: there is a
...just man that perisheth in his ...righteousnesse, and there is a ...wicked man that prolongeth his ...life in his wickednesse.
16 Be not righteous over much,
...neither make thy self over wise:
...why shouldest thou destroy thy self?
17 Be not overmuch wicked, neither be thou foolish: why should-
...est thou die before thy time?
18 It is good that thou should-...est take hold of this: yea, also
...from this withdraw not thine
...hand: for he that feareth God
...shall come forth of them all.
19 Wisdom strengthereth the ...wise, more then ten mighty men
...which are in the city.
20 For there is not a just man
...upon earth, that doth good, and
...sinneth not.
21 Also take no heed unto all ...words that are spoken, lest thou
...hear thy servant curse thee.
22 For oftentimes also thine ...own heart knoweth that thou thy
...self likewise hast cursed others.
23 ¶ All this have I proved by ...wisdom: I said, I will be wise;
...but it was far from me.
24 That is far off, & exceed...ing deep: who can finde it out?

25 I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

26 And I finde more bitter then death, the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her, but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found, (saith the preacher) counting one by one to finde out the account.

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I finde not: one man among a thousand have I found, but a woman among all those have I not found.

29 Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright: but they have sought out many inventions.

CHAP. XI.

WHo is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a mans wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the boldnesse of his face shall be changed.

2 I counsell thee to keep the kings commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God.

3 Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing, for he doth whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

5 Whoso keepeth the commandment, shall feel no evil thing: and a wise mans heart discerneth both time & judgement.

6 ¶ Because to every purpose there is time and judgement: therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be?

8 There is no man that hath power over the spirit, to retain the spirit: neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war: neither shall wickednesse deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come, and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily: therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 ¶ Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his dayes be prolonged: yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him.

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his dayes which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth, that there be just men unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked: again, there be wicked men to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said, that this also is vanity.

15 Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, then to eat, and to drink, & to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour, the dayes of his life which God giveth him under the sun.

16 ¶ When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the businesse that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot finde out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yea further, though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to finde it.

CHAP. IX.

FOr all this I considered in mine heart, even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2 All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good goods and to the clean, and to the unclean; and to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 ¶ For to him that is joined to all the living, there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward, for the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envie, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 ¶ Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

9 Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the dayes of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the dayes of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might: for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 ¶ I returned and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battell to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

12 For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 ¶ This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me.

14 ¶ There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, & he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16 Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless, the poor mans wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet, more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

CHAP. X.

DEad flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly, him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise mans heart is at his right hand: but a fools heart at his left.

3 Yea, also when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place: for yeelding pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler:

6 Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 He that diggeth a pit, shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones, shall be hurt therewith: and he that cleaveth wood, shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better.

12 The words of a wise mans mouth are gracious: but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishnesse: and the end of his talk is mischievous madnesse.

14 A fool also is full of words; a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

16 ¶ Wo to thee, O land, when thy king is a childe, and thy princes eat in the morning.

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, & not for drunkennesse.

18 ¶ By much slothfullnesse the building decayeth, & through idleneſſe of the hands the house droppeth through.

19 ¶ A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

20 ¶ Curse not the king, no, not in thy thought, and curse not the rich in thy bed-chamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

CHAP. XI.

CAst thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt finde it after many dayes.

2 Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the winde, shall not sowe, & he that regardeth the clouds, shall not reap.

5 As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with childe: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sowe thy seed: and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 ¶ Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing is it for the eyes to behold the sun.

8 But if a man live many yeers, and rejoyce in them all; yet let him remember the dayes of darknesse, for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 ¶ Rejoyce, O young man, in thy youth, and let thine heart cheer thee in the dayes of thy youth, and walk in the wayes of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou that for all these things God will bring thee into judgement.

10 Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childehood and youth are vanity.

CHAP. XII.

REmember now thy Creator in the dayes of thy youth, while evil dayes come not, nor the yeers draw nigh when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them:

2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the raine:

3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease, because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened:

4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low.

5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond-tree shall flourish, and the grashopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets:

6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

7 Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

8 ¶ Vanity of vanities, (saith the preacher) all is vanity.

9 And

9 And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge, yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10 The preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written, was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 ¶ Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, And keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.

14 For God shall bring every work into judgement, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

¶ THE SONG OF SOLOMON.

THe song of songs, which is Solomons.

2 Let him kisse me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine.

3 Because of the savour of thy good ointments, thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore the virgins love thee.

4 Draw me, we will run after thee: the king hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoyce in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: ¶ upright love thee.

5 I am black, but comely, (O ye daughters of Jerusalem) as the tents of Kedar, and the curtains of Solomon.

6 Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mothers children were angry with me: they made me the keeper of the vineyards, but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

7 Tell me, (O thou whom my soul loveth) where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flocks to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?

8 ¶ If thou know not, (O thou fairest among women) go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds tents.

9 I have compared thee, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaohs chariots.

10 Thy cheeks are comely with rows of iewels, thy neck with chains of gold.

11 We will make thee borders of gold, with studs of silver.

12 ¶ While the king sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof.

13 A bundle of myrrhe is my welbeloved unto me, he shall lie all night betwixt my brests.

14 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of camphire in the vineyards of Engedi.

15 Behold, thou art fair, my love, behold, thou art fair, thou hast doves eyes.

16 Behold, thou art fair my beloved, yea, pleasant: also our bed is green.

17 The beams of our house are cedars and our rafters of fir.

CHAP. II.

I Am the rose of Sharon, and the lilie of the valleys.

2 As the lilie among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

3 As the apple-tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

4 He brought me to the banquetting house, and his banner over me was love.

5 Stay me with flagons, comfort me with apples, for I am sick of love.

6 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me.

7 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hindes of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

8 ¶ The voice of my beloved! behold! he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

9 My beloved is like a ro, or a young hart: behold, he standeth behinde our wall: he looketh forth at the window, shewing himself thorow the lattesse.

10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up my love, my fair one, and come away,

11 For lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone.

12 The flowers appear on the earth, the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of ℣ turtle is heard in our land.

13 The fig-tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the render grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

14 ¶ O my dove! that art in the clifts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs: let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

15 Take us the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the vines: for they have tender grapes.

16 ¶ My beloved is mine, & I am his: he feedeth among ℣ lilies

17 Until ℣ day break, and the shadows flee away: turn, my beloved, and be thou like a ro, or a young hart upon the mountains of Bether.

CHAP. III.

BY night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth, I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now, & go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 The watchmen that go about the city, found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mothers house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hindes of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love till he please.

6 ¶ Who is this that cometh out of the wilderne, like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrhe and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomons: threescore valiant men are about it of the valiant of Israel:

8 They all hold ℣ swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh, because of fear in the night.

9 King Solomon made himself a charet of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherwith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladnesse of his heart.

CHAP. IIII.

BEhold, thou art fair, my love, behold, thou art fair, thou hast doves eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, that appear from mount Gilead.

2 Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, ℣ came up from the washing: whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.

3 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

4 Thy neck is like the tower of David, builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

5 Thy two brests are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

6 Untill the day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrhe, and to the hill of frankincense.

7 Thou art all fair, my love, there is no spot in thee.

8 ¶ Come with me from Lebanon, (my spouse) ℣ top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon from the lions dens,

from

from the mountains of the leopards.
9 Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.
10 How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!
11 Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honey comb: honey and milk are under thy tongue, and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.
12 A garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring that is shut up, a fountain sealed.
13 Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard, 14 Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cynamom, with all trees of frankincense; myrrhe and aloes, with all the chief spices.
15 A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, & streams from Lebanon.
16 ¶ Awake, O north winde, and come thou south, blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

CHAP. V.

I Am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse, I have gathered my myrrhe with my spice; I have eaten my honey-comb with my honey, I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends, drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.
2 ¶ I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled, for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.
3 I have put off my coat, how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet, how shall I defile them?
4 My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved for him.
5 I rose up to open to my beloved, and my hands dropped with myrrhe, and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrhe, upon the handles of the lock.
6 I opened to my beloved, but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spake: I sought him, but I could not finde him: I called him, but he gave me no answer.
7 The watchmen that went about the city, found me, they smote me, they wounded me, the keepers of the walls took away my vail from me.
8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye finde my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love.
9 ¶ What is thy beloved more then another beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more then another beloved, that thou doest so charge us?
10 My beloved is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand.
11 His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are bushie, and black as a raven.
12 His eyes are as the eyes of doves, by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and fitly set.
13 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers, his lips like lilies dropping sweet smelling myrrhe.
14 His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires.
15 His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold; his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.
16 His mouth is most sweet, yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAP. VI.

WHither is thy beloved gone? O thou fairest among women, whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee.
2 My beloved is gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.
3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.
4 ¶ Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.

5 Turn away thine eyes from me, for they have overcome me: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead.

6 Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

7 As a piece of a pomegranate, are thy temples within thy locks.

8 There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

9 My dove, my undefiled is but one: she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bare her: the daughters saw her, and blessed her: yea, the queens & the concubines, and they praised her.

10 ¶ Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

11 I went down into the garden of nuts, to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranates budded.

12 Or ever I was aware, my soul made me like the chariots of Aminadib.

13 Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return; that we may look upon thee: what will ye see in the Shulamite? as it were the company of two armies.

CHAP. VII.

HOw beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

2 Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not liquor: thy belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies.

3 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins.

4 Thy neck is as a tower of ivory: thine eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon, which looketh toward Damascus.

5 Thine head upon thee is like Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple: the king is held in the galleries.

6 How fair, and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights?

7 This thy stature is like to a palm-tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

8 I said, I will go up to the palm-tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples.

9 And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine, for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are asleep, to speak.

10 ¶ I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.

11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field, let us lodge in the villages.

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards, let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give thee my loves.

13 The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

CHAP. VIII.

O That thou were as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother: when I should finde thee without, I would kiss thee: yea I should not be despised.

2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mothers house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine, of the juice of my pomegranate.

3 His left hand should be under my head: & his right hand should embrace me.

4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up nor awake my love, until he please.

5 (Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved?) I raised thee up under the apple-tree: there thy mother brought thee forth, there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

6 ¶ Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death, jealousie is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

7 Many

Judah's rebellion.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

8 ¶ We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar.

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found favour.

11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon, he let out ỳ vineyard unto keepers: every one for ỳ fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

12 My vineyard which is mine, is before me: thou (O Solomon) must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

13 Thou ỳ dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: cause me to hear it.

14 ¶ Make haste my beloved, and be ỳ like to a roe, or to a young hart upon ỳ mountains of spices.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH.

CHAP. I.

THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for ỳ LORD hath spoken: I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

3 The ox knoweth his owner, and the asse his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil doers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken ỳ LORD, they have provoked the holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

5 ¶ Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot, even unto the head, there is no soundness in it, but wounds, & bruises, & putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

7 Your country is desolate: your cities are burnt with fire: your land, strangers devour it, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

8 And ỳ daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

9 Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 ¶ Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me, saith the LORD? I am full of ỳ burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts, and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats.

12 When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread in my courts?

13 Bring no more vain oblations, incense is an abomination unto me: the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies I cannot away with: it is iniquity, even ỳ solemn meeting.

14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth, they are a trouble unto me, I am weary to bear them.

15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you, yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

16 ¶ wash ye, make you clean, put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes, cease to do evil,

17 Learn to do well, seek judgement, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wooll.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat ℣ good of ℣ land

20 But if ye refuse and rebell, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 ¶ How is the faithfull city become an harlot? it was full of judgement: righteousnesse lodged in it; but now murderers.

22 Thy silver is become drosse, thy wine mixt with water.

23 Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, & followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherlesse, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith ℣ LORD, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies.

25 ¶ And I will turn my hand upon thee, & purely purge away thy drosse, and take away all thy tin.

26 And I will restore thy judges, as at ℣ first, & thy counsellours, as at ℣ beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousnesse. The faithfull city.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgement, and her converts with righteousnesse.

28 ¶ And ℣ destruction of ℣ transgressours, and of ℣ sinners shall be together: & they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens ℣ ye have chosen.

30 For ye shall be as an oake whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

31 And the strong shall be as tow, & ℣ maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

CHAP. II.

THE word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw, concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And it shall come to passe in the last dayes, ℣ ℣ mountain of the LORDS house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of ℣ LORD, to the house of ℣ God of Jacob, and he will teach us of his waies, & we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth ℣ law, & the word of ℣ LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plow shares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, & let us walk in ℣ light of ℣ LORD.

6 ¶ Therefore ℣ hast forsaken thy people, ℣ house of Jacob, because they be replenished from ℣ east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, & they please themselves in ℣ children of strangers.

7 ¶ Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures: their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots.

8 Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself; therefore forgive them not.

10 ¶ Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and ℣ haughtinesse of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up, and he shall be brought low;

13 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, & upon all ℣ oaks of Bashan,

14 And upon all the high mountains, and upon all ℣ hills that are lifted up,

3 The captain of fifty, and the honourable man, and the counsellour, and the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator.

4 And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

5 And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the childe shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

6 When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruine be under thy hand:

7 In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be an healer: for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 ¶ The shew of their countenance doth witnesse against them, and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not: woe unto their soul, for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

10 Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him, for they shall eat § fruit of their doings.

11 Wo unto § wicked, it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

12 ¶ As for my people, children are their oppressours, and women rule over them: O my people, they which lead thee, cause thee to erre, and destroy the way of thy paths.

13 The LORD standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people.

14 The LORD will enter into judgement with the ancients of his people, and § princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the vineyard: the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

15 What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grinde the faces of the poor, saith the Lord GOD of hosts?

16 ¶ Moreover § LORD saith, Because § daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks, and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, & making a tinkling § their feet:

17 Therefore the LORD will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughter of Zion, and the LORD will discover their secret parts.

18 In that day the LORD will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their round tires like the moon,

19 The chains, and the bracelets, and the mufflers,

20 The bonnets, and the ornaments of § legs, & § head-bands, and § tablets, and the ear-rings,

21 The rings, & nose jewels,

22 The changeable suits of apparell, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping-pins,

23 The glasses, and § fine linen, and the hoods, and § vailes.

24 And it shall come to passe, that instead of sweet smell there shall be stinke,& in stead of a girdle, a rent; and in stead of well set hair, baldnes; & in stead of a stomacher, a girding of sackcloth; and burning in stead of beauty.

25 Thy men shal fal by ȳ sword, and thy naighty in the war.

26 And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she being desolate, shall sit upon the ground.

CHAP. IV.

AND in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparell: onely let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach.

2 In that day shall the Branch of ȳ LORD be beautifull & glorious, & ȳ fruit of ȳ earth shal be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel.

3 And it shall come to passe, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem.

4 When the LORD shall have washed away ȳ filth of ȳ daughters of Zion, & shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by ȳ spirit of judgement, and by ȳ spirit of burning.

5 And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies a cloud, and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence.

6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the day time from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.

CHAP. V.

NOw will I sing to my wel-beloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard: my wel-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitfull hill.

2 And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepresse therein: & he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wildegrapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, Judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? wherefore when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wilde grapes?

5 And now go to, I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be troden down.

6 And I will lay it waste; it shall not be pruned, nor digged, but there shall come up briars & thorns: I will also command the clouds ȳ they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of ȳ LORD of hosts is ȳ house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgement, but behold oppression; for righteousnes, but behold a cry.

8 ¶ Wo unto them that joyn house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth.

9 In mine ears said the LORD of hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yeeld one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

11 ¶ Wo unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them.

12 And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

13 ¶ Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged her self, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoyceth shall descend into it.

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgement, and God that is holy, shall be sanctified in righteousnesse.

17 Then shall ¶ lambs feed after their manner, & ¶ waste places of fat ones shall strangers eat.

18 ¶ Wo unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sinne as it were with a cart rope,

19 That say, Let him make speede, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let ¶ counsell of the holy One of Israel draw nigh & come, that we may know it.

20 ¶ Wo unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darknesse for light, and light for darknesse, that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter.

21 Wo unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight.

22 Wo unto them that are mighty to drink wine, & men of strength to mingle strong drink.

23 Which justifie the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousnesse of the righteous from him.

24 Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be rottennesse, & their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away ¶ law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the holy One of Israel.

25 Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcases were torn in the midst of the streets: for all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

26 ¶ And he will lift up an ensigne to the nations from far, and will hisse unto them from the end of the earth: and behold, they shall come with speed swiftly.

27 None shall be weary, nor stumble among them: none shall slumber nor sleep, neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken.

28 Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bowes bent, their horses hoofs shal be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwinde.

29 Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions: yea, they shall roar and lay hold on ¶ prey, & shal carry it away safe, & none shall deliver it.

30 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, behold darknesse and sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

CHAP. VI.

IN the yeer that king Uzziah died, I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high & lifted up, and his train filled ¶ temple.

2 Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did flie.

3 And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts, the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And ¶ posts of ¶ door moved at ¶ voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 ¶ Then said I, Wo is me, for I am undone, because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the king, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off ¶ altar.

7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips: & thine iniquity is taken away, & thy sin purged.

8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then I said, Here am I, send me.

9 ¶ And he said, Go, and tell this people; Hear ye indeed, but understand not: and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavie, and shut their eyes: lest they see with their eyes, & hear with their ears, & understand with their heart, & convert, and be healed.

11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities cities be wasted without inhabitant, & ℈ houses without man, & the land be utterly desolate;

12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 ¶ But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teyl-tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

CHAP. VII.

AND it came to passe in the dayes of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel, went up towards Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim: & his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the winde.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shear-jashub thy son, at ℈ end of the conduit of the upper pool, in the high way of the fullers field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be faint-hearted, for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin, with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have taken evil counsell against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal.

7 Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to passe.

8 For ℈ head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin, and within threescore and five yeers shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliahs son: if ye will not beleeve, surely ye shall not be established.

10 ¶ Moreover, the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask thee a signe of the LORD thy God: ask it either in the depth, or in ℈ height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David, Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will you weary my God also?

14 Therefore the LORD himself shall give you a signe: Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a Son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

15 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and chuse the good.

16 For before the childe shall know to refuse the evil, & chuse the good, the land that thou abhorrest, shall be forsaken of both her kings.

17 ¶ The LORD shall bring upon thee, & upon thy people, and upon thy fathers house, dayes that have not come, from ℈ day that Ephraim departed from Judah, even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the LORD shall hisse for the flie that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes.

20 In ℈ same day shall ℈ Lord shave with a razour that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, & the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to passe in ℈ day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, & two sheep.

22 And it shall come to passe, for the abundance of milk that they shall give, he shall eat butter: for butter & honey shall every one eat that is left in the land.

23 And it shall come to passe in that day, that every place shall shall be, where there were a thousand vines, at a thousand shekels, it shall even be for briers and thorns.

7 With arrows & with bowes shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

8 And on all hils that shall be digged ¶ § mattocks, there shall not come thither ¶ fear of briers & thorns; but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, & for the treading of lesser cattell.

CHAP. VIII.

MOreover, the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a mans pen concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took unto me faithfull witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

3 And I went unto the prophetesse, and she conceived and bare a son: then said the LORD to me, Call his Name Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

4 For before the childe shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the riches of Damascus, & the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 ¶ The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forsomuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoyce in Rezin, and Remaliahs son:

7 Now therefore behold, the Lord bringeth upupon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his chanels, and go over all his banks.

8 And he shall passe thorow Judah, he shall overflow, and go over, he shall reach even to the neck, and the stretching out of his wings, shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 ¶ Associate your selves, O people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of farre countreys: gird your selves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird your selves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10 Take counsell together, and it shall come to nought: speak the word, and it shall not stand; for God is with us.

11 ¶ For the LORD spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me, that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 Say ye not, A confederacy to all them, to whom this people shall say, A confederacy: neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

13 Sanctifie the LORD of hosts himself, and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

14 And he shall be for a sanctuary: but for a stone of stumbling, and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel; for a gin, and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 And many among them shal stumble, & fall, & be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 Binde up the testimony, seal ¶ law among my disciples.

17 And I will wait upon the LORD that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.

18 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me, are for signes, and for wonders in Israel: from the LORD of hosts which dwelleth in mount Zion.

19 ¶ And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards, that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living, to the dead?

20 To the law, and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

21 And they shall passe thorow it hardly bestead, and hungry: and it shall come to passe, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king, and their God, and look upward.

22 And they shall look unto § earth: & behold trouble & darkness, dimnes of anguish; and they shall be driven to darknesse.

CHAP. IX.

NEverthelesse, the dimnesse shall not be such as was in her her vexation: when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grieuously afflict her, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

2 The people that walked in darkness, haue seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, vpon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the ioy: they ioy before thee, according to the ioy in harvest, and as men reioyce when they diuide the spoil.

4 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressour, as in the day of Midian.

5 For euery battell of the warriour is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood: but this shall be with burning, and fuell of fire.

6 For vnto vs a childe is born, vnto vs a sonne is giuen; and the gouernment shall be vpon his shoulder: and his Name shall be called, Wonderfull, Counsellour, The mighty God, The euerlasting Father, The prince of peace.

7 Of the increase of his gouernment and peace, there shall be no end, vpon the throne of Dauid, and vpon his kingdom, to order it, and to stablish it with iudgement and iustice, from henceforth euen for euer: the zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform it.

8 ¶ The LORD sent a word into Iacob, and it lighted vpon Israel.

9 And the people shall know, euen Ephraim, and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride, and stoutnesse of heart,

10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewen stones: the sycomores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

11 Therefore the LORD shall set vp the aduersaries of Rezin against him, and shall ioyn his enemies together.

12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behinde, & they shall deuour Israel with open mouth: for all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

13 ¶ For the people turneth not vnto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the LORD of hosts.

14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head & tail, branch and rush in one day.

15 The ancient & honourable, he is the head: and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

16 For ¶ leaders of this people cause them to erre: and they that are led of them, are destroyed.

17 Therefore the Lord shall haue no ioy in their young men, neither shal haue mercy on their fatherles & widows: for euery one is an hypocrite, and an euill doer, and euery mouth speaketh folly: for all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

18¶ For wickednes burneth as the fire: it shall deuour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shal mount vp like the lifting vp of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuell of the fire: no man shall spare his brother.

20 And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat euery man the flesh of his own arm.

21 Manasseh, Ephraim: and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Iudah: for all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

CHAP. X.

WO vnto them that decree vnrighteous decrees, and that write grieuousnesse which they haue prescribed:

2 To turn aside ¶ needy from iudgement, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherlesse.

3 And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from hat? to whom will ye flee help? and where will ye ve your glory?

Without me they shall bow er the prisoners, & they shal ter the slain: for all this nger is not turned away,
s hand is stretched out still.

¶ O Assyrian, the rod of ine anger, & the staff in their is mine indignation.

ll will send him against an pocritical nation, & against people of my wrath will I im a charge to take the spoil, ake the prey, and to tread n down like the mire of reets.

Howbeit he meaneth not so,
ither doth his heart think so;
t is in his heart to destroy,
nd cut off nations not a few.

For he saith, Are not my nces altogether kings?

s not Calno as Carchemish?
s not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus?

As my hand hath found e kingdoms of the idols, and ose graven images did excel em of Jerusalem & of Samaria;

Shall I not, as I have done
Samaria and her idols, so Jerusalem and her idols?

Wherefore it shal come to ss, that when the Lord hath rformed his whole work upon mount Zion, and on Jerusalem, will punish the fruit of the stout art of the king of Assyria, and e glory of his high looks.

For he saith, By the strength my hand I have done it, and my wisdom; for I am prudent:
nd I have removed the bounds
the people, and have robbed eir treasures, and I have put own the inhabitants like a vaiant man.

And my hand hath found
s as it were the riches of a people, nd as one gathereth eggs that re left, have I gathered all the arth; and there was none that oved the wing, or opened the outh, or peeped.

Shall the ax boast it self gainst him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnifie itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake it self against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up it self, as if it were no wood.

15 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts send among his fat ones leanness, and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his holy One for a flame: and it shal burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day:

18 And shal consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruit-full field, both soul and body:
and they shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth.

19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a childe may write them.

20 ¶ And it shal come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shal no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shal stay upon the LORD the holy One of Israel in truth.

21 The remnant shal return, even the remnant of Jacob unto the mighty God.

22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shal return: the consumption decreed shal overflow with righteousnes.

23 For the Lord GOD of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined in the midst of all the land.

24 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt.

25 For yet a very little while and the indignation shal cease, & mine anger in their destruction.

26 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him, according to the slaughter of Midian, at the rock Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt.

27 And it shal come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, & his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.

28 He

28 He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron: at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages.

29 They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba, Ramah is afraid, Gibeah of Saul is fled.

30 Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gallim: cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth.

31 Madmenah is removed, the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.

32 As yet shall ye remain at Nob that day: he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hil of Jerusalem.

33 Behold, the lord, the LORD of hosts shall lop the bough with terrour: and high ones of stature shall be hewen down, and the haughty shall be humbled.

34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forests with iron; and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

CHAP. XI.

AND there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots.

2 And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsell and might, the spirit of knowledge, and of the fear of the LORD.

3 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD, and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears.

4 But with righteousnesse shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity, for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

5 And righteousnesse shall be the girdle of his loins, & faithfulnesse the girdle of his reins.

6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid: and the calf, and the young lion and the fatling together: and a little childe shall lead them.

7 And the cow and the bear shall feed, their young ones shall lie down together, and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 And the sucking childe shall play on the hole of the aspe, and the weaned childe shall put his hand on the cockatrice den.

9 They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

10 ¶ And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensigne of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek, and his rest shall be glorious.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall set his hand again the second time, to recover the remnant of his people which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, & from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the Islands of the sea.

12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah, from the four corners of the earth.

13 The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envie Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim.

14 But they shall flie upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west, they shal spoil them of the east together, they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon shall obey them.

15 And the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea, and with his mighty winde shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dry-shod.

16 And there shall be an high way for the remnant of his people, which shall be left from Assyria, like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

CHAP. XII.

AND in that day thou shalt say, O LORD, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me.

ermits.

behold, God is my salvation, I will trust, and not be afraid: for the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength, and my song, he also is become my salvation.

3 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

4 And in that day shall ye say, Praise the LORD, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his Name is exalted.

5 Sing unto the LORD; for he hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth.

6 Cry out, and shout thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The burden of Babylon, which Esaiah the son of Amoz did see.

2 Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

3 I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoyce in my highness.

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together, the LORD of hosts mustereth the hosts of § battel.

5 They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

6 Howl ye, for the day of the LORD is at hand, it shal come as a destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every mans heart shall melt.

8 And they shall be afraid: pangs & sorrows shall take hold of them, they shall be in pain as a woman that travelleth: they shall be amazed one at another, their faces shall be as flames.

9 Behold, the day of § LORD cometh, cruel, both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.

10 For the stars of heaven, and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

12 I will make a man more precious then fine gold, even a man then § golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.

14 And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

15 Every one that is found, shall be thrust thorow: and every one that is joyned unto them, shall fall by the sword.

16 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; & as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

18 Their bowes also shall dash the young men to pieces, and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb: their eye shall not spare children.

19 ¶ And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Caldees excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomortha.

20 It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there: neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

21 But wilde beasts of the desert shall lie there, and their houses shall be full of dolefull creatures, and owls shall dwell there, & satyres shal dance there.

22 And the wilde beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces, and her time time is neer to come, and her dayes shall not be prolonged.

CHAP. XIIII.

FOr ℣ LORD will have mercy on Jacob, & will yet chuse Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joyned with them, & they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possesse them in the land of the LORD, for servants, and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were, and they shall rule over their oppressours.

3 And it shall come to passe in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve,

4 ¶ That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressour ceased? the golden city ceased!

5 The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the scepter of the rulers.

6 He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled ℣ nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth.

7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.

8 Yea, the fir trees rejoyce at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

9 Hell from beneath is moved for thee, to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.

10 All they shall speak, and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?

11 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

12 How art thou fain from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning? how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will be like the most High.

15 Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to ℣ sides of the pit.

16 They that see thee, shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, ℣ is this the man that made ℣ earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms?

17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof? that opened not the house of his prisoners?

18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them lie in glory, every one in his own house.

19 But thou art cast out of thy grave, like an abominable branch: and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcase trodden under feet.

20 Thou shalt not be joyned with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: ℣ seed of evildoers shall never be renowned.

21 Prepare slaughter for his children, for ℣ iniquity of their fathers, that they do not rise, nor possesse the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

22 For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the LORD.

23 I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water; and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

24 ¶ The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, surely as I have thought, so shall it come to passe; and as I have purposed, it shall stand:

25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

This is the purpose that is ded upon the whole earth:
is the hand ℣ is stretch-upon all the nations.
For the LORD of hosts purposed, and who shal dis-it? and his hand is stretch-who shal turn it back?
In the yeer that king Ahaz
ed this burden.
Rejoyce not thou, whole
, because the rod of him ote thee is broken: for of serpents root shal come cockatrice, and his fruit
a fiery flying serpent.
And the first-born of the shall feed, and the needy ie down in safety: and I ill thy root with famine,
e shall slay thy remnant.
Howl, O gate, cry O city, thou whole Palestina art dis-ed: for there shal come from north a smoke, and none shal tarry alone in his appointed times.
What shal one then answer messengers of the nation?
the LORD hath founded Sion, and the poor of his people shal trust in it.

CHAP. XV.

The burden of Moab: Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence:
2 he is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo and over Medeba, on all their heads shall be baldnes, and every beard cut off.
3 in their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth:
on the tops of their houses, and in their streets every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.
4 And Hesbon shall cry, and Eleleh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore ℣ armed souldiers of Moab shall cry out: his life shall be grievous unto him.
5 My heart shall cry out for Moab, his fugitives shal flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith, with weeping shal they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.
6 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away: the grasse fail-eth, there is no green thing.
7 Therefore ℣ abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of ℣ willowes.
8 For the cry is gone round about ℣ borders of Moab, ℣ howling thereof unto Eglaim, & the howling thereof unto Beer-Elim.
9 For the waters of Dimon shall be ful of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him ℣ escapeth of Moab, & upon the remnant of the land.

CHAP. XVI.

Send ye the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wildernesse, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.
2 For it shall be, that as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the foords of Arnon.
3 Take counsel, execute judgement, make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday, hide the out-casts, bewray not him that wandereth.
4 Let mine out-casts dwel with thee, Moab, be thou a covert to them from ℣ face of ℣ spoiler:
for the extortioner is at an end,
the spoiler ceaseth, ℣ oppressours are consumed out of the land.
5 And in mercy shall ℣ throne be established, & he shall sit upon it in truth, in ℣ tabernacle of David, judging, & seeking judgement, and hasting righteousnes.
6 ¶ We have heard of the pride of Moab, (he is very proud) even of his haughtinesse, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so.
7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl:
for the foundations of Kir-ha-reseth shall ye mourn, surely they are stricken.
8 For ℣ fields of Hesbon languish, and ℣ vine of Sibmah, the lords of ℣ heathen have broken down ℣ principal plants thereof:
they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wildernesse, her branches are stretched out: they are gone over the sea.
9 ¶ There-

9 Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for the shouting for thy summer fruits, and for thy harvest is fallen.

10 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field, and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, & mine inward parts for Kir-haresh.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray, but he shall not prevail.

13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab, since that time.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, Within three years, as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude: and the remnant shall be very small & feeble.

CHAP. XVII.

THe burden of Damascus: Behold Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap.

2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

3 The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shal be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 And in that day it shal come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shal be made thin, & the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

5 And it shall be as when the harvest man gathereth ✠ corn, & reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in ✠ valley of Rephaim.

6 (¶ Yet gleaning grapes shal be left in it, as the shaking of an olive-tree, with two or three berries in ✠ top of ✠ uppermost bough: four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel.

7 At ✠ day shall a man look to his Maker, & his eyes shall have respect to ✠ holy One of Israel.

8 And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves or the images.

9 ¶ In ✠ day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left, because of ✠ children of Israel: & there shall be desolation.

10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindefull of the Rock of thy strength; therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, & shalt set it with strange slips.

11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish: but the harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief, and of desperate sorrow.

12 ¶ Wo to the multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters.

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shal flee far off, & shal be chased as ✠ chaff of ✠ mountains before the winde, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwinde.

14 And behold, at evening tide trouble, and before ✠ morning he is not: this is the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

CHAP. XVIII.

WO to the land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia:

2 That sendeth ambassadors by the sea even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go ye swift messengers to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto: a nation meted out and troden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled.

3 All ye inhabitants of the world, & dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensigne on the mountains, & when

…ers a trumpet, hear ye.
…for so the LORD said unto
…I will take my rest, and I
…consider in my dwelling
…like a clear heat upon
…and like a cloud of dew in
…heat of harvest.
…fore the harvest, when
…d is perfect, and the sowre
…is ripening in the flower,
…all both cut off the sprigs
…pruning-hooks, and take a-
…and cut down the branches.
They shall be left together
…the fowls of the mountains
…the beasts of the earth:
…the fowls shall summer up-
…them, & all the beasts of the
…shall winter upon them.
…In that time shall the pre-
…be brought unto the LORD
…ople of a people scattered &
…ed, and from a people ter-
…from their beginning hi-
…a nation mered out and
…under foot, whose land
…rents have spoiled, to the
…of the Name of the LORD
…to the mount Zion.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The burden of Egypt: Behold the LORD rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt, and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.
2 And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, & every one against his neighbour, city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.
3 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof, and I will destroy the counsel thereof:
and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, & to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.
4 And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shal rule over them, saith the Lord,
the LORD of hosts.
5 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.
6 And they shall turn ¶ rivers far away, and the brooks of defence shall be emptied & dried up:
the reeds and flags shall wither.
7 The paper reeds by the brooks by ¶ mouth of ¶ brooks, and every thing sowen by the brooks shall wither, be driven away, and be no more.
8 The fishers also shal mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish.
9 Moreover, they that work in fine flax, and they that weave net-works shall be confounded.
10 And they shal be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make stuces and ponds for fish.
11 ¶ Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellours of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?
12 Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, & let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.
13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived, they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.
14 The LORD hath mingled a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to erre in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.
15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or rush may do.
16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: & it shall be afraid & fear, because of the shaking of the hand of ¶ LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it.
17 And the land of Judah shall be a terrour unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath determined against it.
18 ¶ In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Cana-an, and swear to the LORD of hosts: one shall be called the city of destruction.
19 In that day shall there be an altar to ¶ LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, & a pillar at
the

the border thereof to the LORD.

20 And it shall be for a signe, and for a witnesse unto ¶ LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shal cry unto ¶ LORD, because of the oppressours, and he shall send them a Saviour, and a great One, and he shal deliver them.

21 And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, & shal do sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it.

22 And the LORD shal smite Egypt, he shall smite and heal it: and they shall return even to the LORD, & he shal be intreated of them, and shall heal them.

23 ¶ In that day shal there be an high-way out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shal serve wth the Assyrians.

24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt, and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land:

25 Whom the LORD of hosts shall blesse, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

CHAP. XX.

IN ¶ yeer ¶ Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon ¶ king of Assyria sent him) & fought against Ashdod, and took it:

2 At the same time spake the LORD by Isaiah ¶ son of Amoz, saying, Go & loose ¶ sackcloth from off thy loins, & put off thy shoe from thy foot: & he did so, walking naked and bare-foot.

3 And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and bare-foot, three yeers, for a signe and wonder upon Egypt, and upon Ethiopia:

4 So shal the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and bare-foot, even wth their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

5 And they shal be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, & of Egypt their glory.

6 And the inhabitant of this isle shal say in that day, Behold, such a our expectation is, whither we flee for help, to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

CHAP. XXI.

THE burden of the desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south passe thorow: so it cometh from a desert, from a terrible land.

2 A grievous vision is declared unto me: The treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media: all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

3 Therefore are my loins filled with pain: pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travelleth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it: I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

4 My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.

5 Prepare the table, watch in the watch-tower, eat, drink: arise ye princes, and annoint ¶ shield.

6 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth.

7 And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsmen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed.

8 And he cried, A lion: my Lord, I stand continually upon the watch-tower in the day time, and I am set in my ward whole nights.

9 And behold, here cometh this chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen: & he answered & said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen: & all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.

10 O my threshing, & the corn of my floor: ¶ w^t I have heard of ¶ LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

11 ¶ The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? watchman, what of the night?

12 The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will enquire, enquire ye: return, come.

13 ¶ The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedanim.

14

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.

15 For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war.

16 For thus hath the Lord said unto me; Within a yeer, according to yeers of an hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail, 17 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar shall be diminished: for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the house-tops?

2 Thou that are full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battell.

3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which are fled from far.

4 Therefore said I, Look away from me, I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord GOD of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

6 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, & Kir uncovered the shield.

7 And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsmen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

8 ¶ And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest.

9 Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortifie the wall.

11 Ye made also a ditch between the two walls, for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day did the Lord GOD of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

13 And behold, joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat & drink; for to morrow we shall die.

14 And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord GOD of hosts.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say, 16 What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock?

17 Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee.

18 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lords house.

19 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down.

20 ¶ And it shall come to passe in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah:

21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder: so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open.

23 And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place, and he shall be for a glorious throne to his fathers house.

24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his fathers house, the off-spring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity; from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons.

25 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place, be removed, and be cut down and fall, and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

CHAP. XXIII.

THE burden of Tyre; Howl, ye ships of Tarshish, for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle, thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that passe over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters, the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river is her revenue, and she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon, for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travel not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Passe ye over to Tarshish, howle, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient dayes? her own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsell against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffiquers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all honourable of the earth.

10 Passe through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant-city, to destroy the strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoyce, O thou oppressed virgin daughter of Zidon, arise, passe over to Chittim, there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold, the land of the Caldeans, this people was not, the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof, and he brought it to ruine.

14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish, for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to passe in that day that Tyre shall be forgotten, seventy yeers, according to the dayes of one king: after the end of seventy yeers shall Tyre sing as an harlot.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten, make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 ¶ And it shall come to passe after the end of seventy yeers, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18 And her merchandise, and her hire shall be holinesse to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up: for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

CHAP. XXIIII.

BEHOLD, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistresse; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof, because they have transgressed the law, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, & few men left.

7 The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merry-hearted do sigh.

8 The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song, strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

10 The city of confusion is broken, every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets, all joyes darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 ¶ When thus It shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as ¶ shaking of an olive-tree, and as ¶ gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

15 Wherefore glorifie ye the LORD in the fires, even the Name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea.

16 ¶ From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous: but I said, My leanness, my leanness unto me, the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously, yea the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.

17 Fear, and the pit, and the snare are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shall come to passe, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear, shall fall into the pit, and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit, shall be taken in the snare; for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of ¶ earth do shake.

19 The earth is utterly broken down, ¶ earth is clean dissolved, ¶ earth is moved exceedingly.

20 The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage, & the transgression thereof shall be heavie upon it, and it shall fall, and not rise again.

21 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered together as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many dayes shall they be visited.

23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when ¶ LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, & in Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously.

CHAP. XXV.

O LORD, thou art my God, I will exalt thee, I will praise thy Name; for thou hast done wonderful things, thy counsels of old are faithfullnesse and truth.

2 For thou hast made of a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruine: a palace of strangers to be no city, it shall never be built.

3 Therefore shall the strong people glorifie thee; city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distresse, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat; when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as ¶ heat in a dry place; even ¶ heat with ¶ shadow of a cloud: ¶ branch of terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 ¶ And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

7 And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and ¶ vail that is spread over all nations.

8 He will swallow up death in victory, and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces, and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for ¶ LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD, we have waited for him; we will be glad, and rejoyce in his salvation.

10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be troden down under him, even as straw is troden down for the dunghill.

11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim: and he shall bring down their pride together, with the spoils of their hands.

12 And the fortresse of the high fort of thy walls shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

CHAP. XXVI.

IN that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah, We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls & bulwarks.

2 Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose minde is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.

4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength.

5 ¶ For he bringeth down them that dwell on high, the lofty city he layeth it low: he layeth it low even to the ground, he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

7 The way of the just is uprightnesse: thou most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, in the way of thy judgements, O LORD, have we waited for thee: the desire of our soul is to thy Name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 With my soul have I desired thee in the night, yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgements are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousnes.

10 Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousnesse: in the land of uprightnesse will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majestie of the LORD.

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see; but they shall see, & be ashamed for their envie at thy people, yea, & fire of thine enemies shal devour them.

12 ¶ LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works in us.

13 O LORD our God, other lords besides thee have had dominion over us; but by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live: they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, & made all their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation, thou art glorified, thou hadst removed it far unto all the ends of the earth.

16 LORD, in trouble have they visited thee: they poured out a prayer, when thy chastening was upon them.

17 Like as a woman with childe, that draweth neer the time of her delivery is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with childe, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth, neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise: awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 ¶ Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, & shut thy doors about thee; hide thy self as it were for a little moment, untill indignation be overpast.

21 For behold, the LORD cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

CHAP. XXVII.

IN that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall by the dragon that is in § sea.

2 In that day sing ye unto
A vineyard of red wine.
3 I the LORD do keep it, I water it every moment;
any hurt it, I will keep it ght and day.
4 Fury is not in me: who ould set the briers and thorns gainst me in battell? I would horow them, I would burn em together.
5 Or let him take hold of y strength, that he may make ace with me, and he shall make ace with me.
6 He shal cause them § come hall to take root: Israel shall ossom and bud, and fill the ce of the world with fruit.
7 ¶ Hath he smitten him, as e smote those § smote him? or e slain according to § slaugh-of them § are slain by him?
8 In measure when it shoot-h forth, thou wilt debate with
: he stayeth his rough winde
the day of the east-winde.
9 By this therefore shall the quity of Jacob be purged, and is all the fruit, to take away s sin: when he maketh all the nes of § altars as chalk-stones t are beaten in sunder, § groves
d images shall not stand up.
10 Yet the defenced city shal e desolate, and the habitaon forsaken, and left like a ilderneſſe: there shall the alf feed, and there shall he lie own, and consume the branch-s thereof.
11 When the boughs thereof
e withered, they shall be bro-en off: the women come and ght them on fire; for it is a peo-e of no understanding; there-re he that made them will ot have mercy on them, and e that formed them will shew em no favour.
12 ¶ And it shall come to passe in that day, that the LORD shall ake off from the channel of the ver unto the stream of Egypt, nd ye shall be gathered one by ne, O ye children of Israel.
13 And it shall come to passe
in that day, that the great trumet shall be blown, and they shal come which were ready to pesh in the land of Assyria, and the out-casts in the land of Egypt, and shal worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

CHAP. XXVIII.

WO to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine.
2 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with § hand.
3 The crown of, pride, the drunkards of Ephraim shal be troden under feet.
4 And the glorious beauty which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer: § when he that looketh upon it, seeth it, while it is yet in his hand, he eateth it up 5 ¶ In that day shal § LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty unto the residue of his people:
6 And for a spirit of judgement to him § sitteth in judgement, & for strength to them that turn § battell to the gate.
7 ¶ But they also have erred through wine, & through strong drink are out of § way: § priest & § prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of § way through strong drink, they erre in vision, they stumble in judgement.
8 For all tables are full of vomit, and filthineſſe, so that there is no place clean.
9 ¶ Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine?
them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breſts.
10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept;
line upon line, line upon line, here a little, and there a little.
11 For with stammering lips and another tongue wil he speak to this people.
12 To whom he said, This is the rest, wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest, and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

13 But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little; that they might go & fall backward, & be broken, & snared, & taken.

14 ¶ Wherefore hear the word of the LORD ye scornful men that rule this people, which are in Jerusalem.

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement, when the overflowing scourge shall passe thorow, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falshood have we hid our selves.

16 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

17 Judgement also will I lay to the line, & righteousnes to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shal overflow the hiding place.

18 ¶ And your covenant with death shall be disanulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand: when the overflowing scourge shall passe thorow, then ye shalbe troden down by it.

19 From the time it goeth forth it shal take you: for morning by morning shal it passe over, by day, and by night, and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower then that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to passe his act, his strange act.

22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts a consumption even determined upon the whole earth.

23 ¶ Give ear, and hear my voice, hearken, & hear my speech.

24 Doth the plowman plow all day to sowe? doth he open and break the clods of his ground?

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principall wheat, and the appointed barley, and the rie in their place?

26 For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart-wheel turned about upon the cummin: but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsmen.

29 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderfull in counsell, and excellent in working.

CHAP. XXIX.

WOe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! adde ye yeer to yeer; let them kill sacrifices.

2 Yet I will distresse Ariel, and there shalbe heavinesse & sorrow, and it shal be unto me as Ariel.

3 And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee.

4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, & thy voice shall be as of one that hath a familiar spirit out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust.

5 Moreover, the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly.

6 Thou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

7 ¶ And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her, and her munition, and that distresse her, shall be as a dream of a night vision.

8 It

1 It shall even be as when an hungry man dreameth, & behold, he eateth: but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, & behold, he drinketh: but he awaketh, and behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.

8 Stay your selves, & wonder;
cry you out, & cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stag-ger, but not with strong drink.

9 For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets, and your rulers, the seers hath he covered.

10 And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: & he saith, I cannot, for it is sealed.

11 And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.

12 ¶ Wherefore ¶ Lord said, forasmuch as this people draw near with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear towards me is taught by the precept of men:

13 Therefore behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder:
for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

14 Woe unto them ¶ seek deep to hide their counsel from ¶ LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?

15 Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potters clay: for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?

16 Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?

17 And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blinde shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.

18 The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoyce in ¶ holy one of Israel.

19 For the terrible one is brought to nought, & the scor-ner is consumed, and all that watch for iniquity are cut off:

20 That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of nought.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob,
Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale.

22 But when he seeth his children, ¶ work of mine hands in the midst of him, they shall sanctifie my Name, and sanctifie the holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel.

23 They also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

CHAP. XXX.

WOe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me,
and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may adde sin to sin:

2 That walk to go down into Egypt, (& have not asked at my mouth) to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt.

3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt, your confusion.

4 For his princes were at Zoan,
& his embassadors came to Hanes

5 They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help, nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproch.

6 The burden of the beasts of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, the viper, and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

7 For the Egyptians shall help in vain and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still.

8 ¶ Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever.

9 That this is a rebellious people, lying children that will not hear the law of the LORD:

10 Which say to the seers, See not: and to the prophets, Prophesie not unto us right things: speak unto us smooth things, prophesie deceits.

11 Get ye out of the way: turn aside out of the path: cause the holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

12 Wherefore thus saith the holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon:

13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

14 And he shall break it as the breaking of the potters vessel, that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the herth, or to take water withall out of the pit.

15 ¶ But thus saith the Lord GOD, the holy One of Israel, In returning and rest shall ye be saved, in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength, and ye would not.

16 But ye said, No, for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and we will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

17 One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one: at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensigne on a hill.

18 ¶ And therefore will the LORD wait that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgement: Blessed are all they that wait for him.

19 For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.

20 And though the Lord give you § bread of adversity, and water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more: but thine eyes shall see thy teachers:

21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

22 Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.

23 Then shall he give § rain of thy seed that thou shalt sow the ground withall, & bread of the increase of § earth, & it shall be fat & plentyous: in § day that thy cattel feed in large pasture.

24 The oxen likewise, and the young asses that eat the ground, shall eat clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovell, and with the fan.

25 And there shal be upon every high mountain, & upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.

26 Moreover, the light of the moon shall be as § light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be seven foldas § light of seven dayes, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

27 ¶ Behold, the Name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavie: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

28 And his breath as an overflowing stream shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations

trust in men.

nations with ☞ sieve of vanity: it shall be a bridle in ☞ jaws ☞ people, causing them to erre

29 Ye shall have a song as in ☞ night, when a holy solemnity is ☞ gladnes of heart, as when goeth ☞ a pipe to come into ☞ mountain of the LORD, to ☞ mighty one of Israel.

30 And ☞ LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shew ☞ lighting down of his arm, ☞ the indignation of his anger, and ☞ the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempests, and haitstones.

31 For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrians be beaten down, which smote ☞ a rod with a staff.

32 And in every place where ☞ grounded staff shall passe, which the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and with harps: and in battels of shaking will he fight with it.

33 For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD like a stream of brimstone doth kindle it.

CHAP. XXXI.

WO to them ☞ go down to Egypt for help, and stay on horses, & trust in charets, because they are many; & in horsemen because they are very strong: but they look not to ☞ holy One of Israel, neither seek ☞ LORD.

2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evil doers, & against the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; & their horses flesh, and not spirit: when the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

4 For thus hath ☞ LORD spoken unto me, Like as ☞ lion, and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voices, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it, and passing over, he will preserve it.

6 ¶ Turn ye unto him, from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.

7 For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin.

8 ¶ Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; & the sword not of a mean man shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, & his young men shall be discomfited.

9 And he shall passe over to his strong hold for fear, & his princes shall be afraid of the ensigne, saith ☞ LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

CHAP. XXXII.

BEhold, a king shall reign in righteousnesse, and princes shall rule in judgement.

2 And a man shall be as an hiding place from ☞ winde, & a covert from ☞ tempest: as riversof water in a dry place, as ☞ shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

3 And the eyes of them ☞ see, shall not be dim; and the eare of them ☞ hear, shall hearken.

4 The heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of ☞ stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberall, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For ☞ vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisie, and to utter errour against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry; and he will cause ☞ drink of ☞ thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices, to destroy ☞ poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

8 But the liberall divi∫eth liberall things; and by liberall things shall he stand.

9 ¶ Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careleſſe daughters, give ear unto my ſpeech.

10 Many dayes and yeers ſhall ye be troubled, ye careleſſe women: for the vintage ſhall fail, the gathering ſhall not come.

11 Tremble ye women that are at eaſe: be troubled, ye careleſſe ones, ſtrip ye, and make ye bare, and gird ſackcloth upon your loines.

12 They ſhall lament for their teats, for the pleaſant fields, for the fruitfull vine.

13 Upon the land of my people ſhall come up thorns and briers; yea upon all the houſes of joy in the joyous city.

14 Becauſe the palaces ſhall be forſaken, ℈ multitude of ỹ city ſhall be left, ℈ forts and towers ſhall be for dens for ever, a joy of wilde aſſes, a paſture of flocks;

15 Until ỹ ſpirit be poured upon us from on high, & ỹ wilderneſſe be a fruitful field, & ỹ fruitfull field be counted for a foreſt.

16 Then judgement ſhall dwel in ỹ wilderneſſe, and righteouſneſſe remain in ỹ fruitfull field.

17 And the work of righteouſneſſe ſhall be peace, and the effect of righteouſneſſe, quietneſſe and aſſurance for ever.

18 And my people ſhall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in ſure dwellings, and in quiet reſting places:

19 When it ſhall hail, coming down on the foreſt: and the city ſhall be low in a low place.

20 Bleſſed are ye that ſowe beſide all waters, that ſend forth thither the feet of ỹ ox & ỹ aſſe.

CHAP. XXXIII.

WOe to thee ỹ ſpoileſt, and thou waſt not ſpoiled, and dealeſt treacherouſly, and they dealt not treacherouſly with thee; when thou ſhalt ceaſe to ſpoil, thou ſhalt be ſpoiled; and when thou ſhalt make an end to deal treacherouſly, they ſhal deal treacherouſly with thee.

2 O LORD be gracious unto us, we have waited for thee: be thou their arm every morning, our ſalvation alſo in ỹ time of trouble.

3 At ỹ noiſe of the tumult the people fledde, ỹ lifting up of thy ſelf the nations were ſcattered.

4 And your ſpoil ſhall be gathered, like the gathering of ỹ caterpillar: as the running to & fro of locuſts ſhall he run upon them.

5 The LORD is exalted, for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with judgement and righteouſneſſe.

6 And wiſdom and knowledge ſhall be ỹ ſtability of thy times, and ſtrength of ſalvation: ỹ fear of the LORD is his treaſure.

7 Behold, their valiant ones ſhall cry without; the embaſſadours of peace ſhall weep bitterly.

10 Now will I riſe, ſaith the LORD; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up my ſelf.

CHAP. XXXIV.

COme neer, ye nations, to hear: and hearken, ye people: let the earth hear, and all that is therein, the world, and all things that come forth of it.

2 For ſ indignation of ſ LORD is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly deſtroyed them, he hath delivered them to the ſlaughter.

3 Their ſlain alſo ſhall be caſt out, and their ſtink ſhall come up out of their carcaſſes, and the mountains ſhall be melted with their blood.

4 And all ſ hoſt of heaven ſhall be diſſolved, and ſ heavens ſhall be rolled together as a ſcroll: and all their hoſt ſhall fal down, as a leaf falleth off from ſ vine, and a falling fig from ſ fig-tree.

5 For my ſword ſhall be bathed in heaven: behold, it ſhall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curſe to judgement.

6 The ſword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatneſſe, and with the blood of lambs & goats, with fat of ſ kidneys of rams: for ſ LORD hath a ſacrifice in Bozrah, and a great ſlaughter in ſ land of Idumea.

7 And the unicorns ſhall come down with them, and ſ bullocks with the bulls, and their land ſhall be ſoaked with blood: and their duſt made fat w fatneſſe.

8 For it is the day of the LORDS vengeance, and the yeer of recompences for the controverſie of Zion:

9 And the ſtreams thereof ſhall be turned into pitch, and the duſt thereof into brimſtone, and the land thereof ſhal become burning pitch.

10 It ſhall not be quenched night nor day, the ſmoke thereof ſhall go up for ever: from generation to generation it ſhall lie waſte, none ſhall paſſe thorow it for ever and ever.

11 ¶ The cormorant and the bittern ſhall poſſeſſe it, the owl alſo and the raven ſhall dwell in it, and he ſhall ſtretch out upon it the line of confuſion, and the ſtones of emptineſſe.

12 They ſhall call the nobles thereof to the kingdom, but none ſhall be there, and all her princes ſhall be nothing.

13 And thorns ſhall come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortreſſes thereof: and it ſhall be an habitation of dragons, and a court for owls.

14 The wilde beaſts of the deſert ſhall alſo meet with ſ wilde beaſts of the iſlands, & the ſatyre ſhal cry to his fellow ſ hairy: the owl alſo ſhall reſt there, and finde for her ſelfe a place of reſt.

15 There ſhall the great owl make her neſt, and lay & hatch, and gather under her ſhadow: there ſhall the vultures alſo be gathered, every one w her mate.

16 ¶ Seek ye out of the book of the LORD, and read; no one of theſe ſhall fail: none ſhall want her mate: for my mouth it hath commanded, and his ſpirit it hath gathered them.

17 And he hath caſt the lot for them, and his hand hath divided it unto them by line: they ſhall poſſeſſe it for ever; from generation to generation ſhall they dwell therein.

CHAP. XXXV.

THe wilderneſſe and the ſolitary place ſhall be glad for them: and the deſert ſhall rejoyce, and bloſſom as the roſe.

2 It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoyce even ℣ joy & singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon: they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God.

3 ¶ Strengthen ye the weak hands, & confirm ℣ feeble knees.

4 Say to them ℣ are of a fearfull heart, be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence: he will come & save you.

5 Then the eyes of the blinde shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

6 Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

7 And ℣ parched ground shall become a pool, and ℣ thirsty land springs of waters: in ℣ habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes.

8 And an high-way shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called the way of holiness, the unclean shall not passe over it, but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not erre therein.

9 No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there: but the redeemed shall walk there.

10 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return and come to Zion ℣ songs & everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

CHAP. XXXVI.

NOw it came to passe in the fourteenth yeer of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all ℣ defenced cities of Judah, & took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah, with a great army: and he stood by the conduit of ℣ upper pool, in the high-way of the fullers field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiahs son, ℣ was over ℣ house, & Shebna ℣ scribe, and Joah Asaphs son ℣ recorder.

4 ¶ And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, ℣ king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say (sayest thou) (but they are but vain words) I have counsell and strength for warrow: on whom doest thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt, whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt, to all that trust in him.

7 But if ℣ say to me, We trust in ℣ LORD our God: Is it not he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, & said to Judah & to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away ℣ face of one captain of the least of my masters servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsmen.

10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 ¶ Then said Eliakim and Shebna & Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in ℣ Syrian language, for we understand it: and speak not unto us in ℣ Jews language, in the ears of ℣ people ℣ are on ℣ wall.

12 ¶ But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men ℣ sit upon ℣ walls, that they may eat their own dung, & drink their own pisse with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith ℣ king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you, for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in ℣ LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, this

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
6 ¶ And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.
7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; & I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.
8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.
9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee & when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,
10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.
11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly, and shalt thou be delivered?
12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed; as Gozan, & Haran, & Rezeph, & the children of Eden which were in Telassar?
13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?
14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it, and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.
15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying, 16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone of all the kingdoms kingdoms of the earth, thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear, open thine eyes, O LORD, & see, & hear all § words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach § living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countreys, 19 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of mens hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of § earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou onely.

21 ¶ Then Isaiah § son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him, The virgin the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn, the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached & blasphemed? & against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against § holy One of Israel

24 By thy servants hast thou reproached the LORD, and hast said, By § multitude of my chariots am I come up to § height of § mountains, to § sides of Lebanon, & I will cut down § tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof; and I will enter into the height of his border, and the forest of his Carmel.

25 I have digged and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besieged places.

26 Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it, and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to passe, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded, they were as the grasse of the field, and as the green herb, as the grasse on § house tops, & as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thine abode, & thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult is come up into mine ears: therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

30 And this shall be a signe unto thee, Ye shall eat this yeer such as groweth of it self; and the second yeer § which springeth of the same; and in § third yeer sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, & eat the fruit thereof.

31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall agein take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning § king of Assyria, He shal not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, & for my servant Davids sake.

36 Then the angel of § LORD went forth and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred and fourscore & five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

38 And it came to passe as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of Armenia; and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

IN those dayes was Hezekiah sick unto death; and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD,

3 And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth & with a perfect heart, & have done ¶ which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiah wept sore.

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD the God of David thy father; I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will adde unto thy dayes fifteen yeers.

6 And I will deliver thee, and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city.

7 And this shall be a signe unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken.

8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees which is gone down in the sunne-dial of Ahaz ten degrees backward: so the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

9 ¶ The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sicknesse:

10 I said in the cutting off of my dayes, I shall go to the gates of the grave; I am deprived of the residue of my yeers.

11 I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD in the land of the living; I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherds tent; I have cut off like a weaver my life; he will cut me off with pining sicknesse; from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

13 Like a crane, or a swallow, so did I chatter, I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed, undertake for me.

14 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my yeers in the bitternes of my soul.

15 O Lord, by these things men live: and in all these things is the life of my spirit, so wilt thou recover me, & make me to live.

16 Behold, for peace I had great bitternesse, but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all thy sins behinde thy back.

17 For the grave cannot praise thee, death cannot celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

18 The living, the living he shall praise thee, as I do this day: the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

19 The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments, all the dayes of our life, in the house of the LORD.

20 For Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover.

21 Hezekiah also had said, What is the signe that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

CHAP. XXXIX.

AT that time Merodach Baladan the son of Baladan king of Babylon sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, & shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, & said unto him, What said these men and and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts.

6 Behold, the dayes come, that all that is in thine house, & that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken: he said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my dayes.

CHAP. XL.

COmfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

2 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, & cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned; for she hath received of the LORDS hand double for all her sins.

3 ¶ The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a high way for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough place plain.

5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shal see it together; for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grasse, & all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field.

7 The grasse withereth, the flower fadeth, because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grasse.

8 The grasse withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 ¶ O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain: O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength, lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God.

10 Behold, the Lord GOD will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

11 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

12 ¶ Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand? & meted out heaven with a span, & comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, & weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

13 Who hath directed the spirit of the LORD, or being his counsellour, hath taught him?

14 With whom took he counsell, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgement? and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, & are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt-offering.

17 All nations before him are as nothing, and they are counted to him lesse than nothing, and vanity.

18 ¶ To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

19 The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that is so impoverished that he hath no oblation, chuseth a tree that will not rot: he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.

21 Have ye not known? have not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, & spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:

23 That bringeth the princes to nothing; he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sowen; yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

25 To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the holy One?

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names, by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgement is passed over from my God?

28 ¶ Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.

29 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:

31 But they that wait upon the LORD, shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary, and they shall walk, and not faint.

CHAP. XLI.

1 Keep silence before me, O islands, and let the people renew their strength: let them come near, then let them speak: let us come near together to judgement.

2 Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings: he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bowe.

3 He pursued them, and passed safely, even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 Who hath wrought & done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD the first, and with the last; I am he.

5 The isles saw it, and feared, the ends of the earth were afraid, drew neer, and came.

6 They helped every one his neighbour, and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage.

7 So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smoteth with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the sodering: & he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.

8 But thou Israel art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant, I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 ¶ Fear thou not, for I am with thee: be not dismayed, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee, yea, I will help thee, yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousnesse.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing, and they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not finde them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing & as a thing of nought.

13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not, I will help thee.

14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel: I will help thee, saith the LORD and thy redeemer, the holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hils as chaff.

16 Thou

15 Thou shalt fan them, and the winde shall carry them away: and the whirlwinde shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoyce in the LORD, and shalt glory in the holy One of Israel.

17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the Lord will hear them; I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

18 I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in ¶ midst of the valleys: I will make the wildernesse a pool of waters, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wildernesse the cedar, the shittah-tree, and the myrtle, and the oil-tree: I will set in the desert the fir-tree, and the pine, and the box tree together.

20 That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of ¶ LORD hath done this, & ¶ holy One of Israel hath created it.

21 Produce your cause, saith ¶ LORD, bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob.

22 Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them, or declare us things for to come.

23 Shew the things that are to come hereafter: that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, & behold it together.

24 Behold ye are of nothing, & your work of nought: an abomination is he that chuseth you.

25 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my Name, and he shall come upon princes, as upon morter, and as the potter treadeth clay.

26 Who hath declared from ¶ beginning, that we may know? & before time, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that declareth, yea, there is none that sheweth, yea, there is none that heareth your words.

27 The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them, and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings.

28 For I beheld, and there was no man, even among them, and there was no counsellour, that when I asked of them, could answer a word.

29 Behold, they are all vanity, their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

CHAP. XLII.

BEhold my servant whom I uphold, mine elect in whom my soul delighteth: I have put my spirit upon him, he shall bring forth judgement to the Gentiles.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgement unto truth.

4 He shall not fail, nor be discouraged, till he have set judgement in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

5 ¶ Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it, he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein:

6 I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, & give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of ¶ Gentiles:

7 To open the blinde eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkesse, out of the prison-house.

8 I am the LORD, that is my Name, and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth, I tell you of them.

10 Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the Iles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wildernesse and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabit-from the top of the mountains.

Let them give glory unto LORD, and declare his praiſe the iſlands.
The LORD ſhall go forth a mighty man, he ſtirreth up jealouſie like a man of war: he eth yea roar, he ſhall prevail againſt his enemies.
I have long time holden peace, I have been ſtill, and refrained my ſelf; now will I like a travelling woman, I deſtroy, and devour at once.
I will make waſte mount-and hills, and dry up all herbs; and I will make rivers iſlands, and I will up the pools.
And I will bring the blinde a way that they knew not; I lead them in paths that they not known: I will make darkneſs light before them, and crooked things ſtraight. Theſe things will I do unto them, and not forſake them.
They ſhall be turned back, they ſhall be greatly aſhamed, that truſt in graven images, that ſay to the molten images, Ye are our gods.
Hear ye deaf, and look ye blinde, that ye may ſee.
Who is blinde, but my ſervant? or deaf, as my meſſenger that I ſent? who is blinde as he that is perfect, and blinde as the LORDS ſervant?
Seeing many things, but thou obſerveſt not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.
The LORD is well pleaſed for his righteouſneſſe ſake;
he will magnifie the law, and make it honourable.
But this is a people robbed and ſpoiled; they are all of them ſnared in holes, and they are hid in priſon-houſes: they are for a prey, and none delivereth;
for a ſpoil, and none ſaith, Reſtore.
Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken and hear for the time to come?
Who gave Jacob for a ſpoil, and Iſrael to robbers? Did not the LORD, he againſt whom we have ſinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the ſtrength of battel; and it hath ſet him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

CHAP. XLIII.

But now, thus ſaith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Iſ-rael, Fear not; for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee
by thy name, thou art mine.
When thou paſſeſt through waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they ſhall not overflow thee; when thou walkeſt through the fire, thou ſhalt not be burnt; neither ſhall the flame kindle upon thee.
For I am the LORD thy God,
the holy One of Iſrael, thy Saviour; I gave Egypt for thy ranſom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.
Since thou waſt precious in my ſight, thou haſt been honourable, and I have loved thee;
therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.
Fear not, for I am with thee, I will bring thy ſeed from the eaſt, and gather thee from the weſt.
I will ſay to the north, Give up; and to the ſouth, Keep not back; bring my ſons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth.
Even every one is called by my name; for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him, yea, I have made him.
Bring forth the blinde people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.
Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be aſſembled: who among them can declare this, and ſhew us former things? let them bring forth their witneſſes, that they may be juſtified: or let them hear, and ſay, It is truth.
Ye are my witneſſes, ſaith the LORD, and my ſervant whom I have choſen, that ye know and believe me, and underſtand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither ſhall
there be after me.
I, I, even I am the LORD, and beſide me there is no Saviour.
I have declared, and have ſa-ved,

ved, & I have shewed when there was no ſtrange god among you; therefore ye are my witneſſes, ſaith the LORD, that I am God.

13 Yea, before the day was I am he: and there is none that can deliver out of my hand; I will work, & who ſhall let it?

14 ¶ Thus ſaith the LORD your redeemer, the holy One of Iſrael, For your ſake I have ſent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Caldeans, whoſe cry is in the ſhips.

15 I am the LORD, your holy One, the Creatour of Iſrael, your king.

16 Thus ſaith the LORD, which maketh a way in the ſea, and a path in the mighty waters:

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horſe, the army and the power; they ſhall lie down together, they ſhall not riſe, they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 ¶ Remember ye not the former things, neither conſider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it ſhal ſpring forth, ſhall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderneſſe, and rivers in the deſert.

20 The beaſt of the field ſhal honour me, the dragons and the owls, becauſe I give waters in the wilderneſſe, and rivers in the deſert, to give drink to my people, my choſen.

21 This people have I formed for my ſelf, they ſhall ſhew forth my praiſe.

22 ¶ But thou haſt not called upon me, O Jacob, but thou haſt been weary of me, O Iſrael.

23 Thou haſt not brought me the ſmall cattell of thy burnt-offerings, neither haſt thou honoured me with thy ſacrifices; I have not cauſed thee to ſerve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incenſe.

24 Thou haſt bought me no ſweetcane for money, neither haſt thou filled me with the fat of thy ſacrifices; but thou haſt made me to ſerve with thy ſins, thou haſt wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I am he that bloteth out thy tranſgreſſions for mine own ſake, and will not remember thy ſins.

26 Put me in remembrance, let us plead together; declare thou, that thou mayeſt be juſtified.

27 Thy firſt father hath ſinned, and thy teachers have tranſgreſſed againſt me.

28 Therefore I have profaned the princes of the ſanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curſe, and Iſrael to reproaches.

CHAP. XLIIII.

YEt now hear, O Jacob my ſervant, and Iſrael whom I have choſen.

2 Thus ſaith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob my ſervant, and thou Jeſurun whom I have choſen.

3 For I will pour waters upon him that is thirſty, & floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my ſpirit upon thy ſeed, and my bleſſing upon thine off-ſpring:

4 And they ſhal ſpring up as among the graſſe, as willows by the water-courſes.

5 One ſhall ſay, I am the LORDS; and another ſhall call himſelf by the name of Jacob; & another ſhal ſubſcribe with his hand unto the LORD, & ſurname himſelf by the name of Iſrael.

6 Thus ſaith the LORD the King of Iſrael, and his Redeemer, the LORD of hoſts; I am the firſt, and I am the laſt, and beſides me there is no God.

7 And who, as I, ſhall call, and ſhal declare it, and ſet it in order for me, ſince I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and ſhal come, let them ſhew unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid; have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witneſſes. Is there a God beſides me? yea there is no God, I know not any.

9 ¶ They that make a graven image, are all of them vanity, and their deleitable things ſhall not profit, and they are their own witneſſes, they ſee not, nor know, that they may be aſhamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image, that is profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows ſhall be aſhamed: and the workmen, they

...they are of meniket them all be ...gathered together, let them stand ...up: yet they shall fear, and they
...shall be ashamed together.

12 The Smith with the tongs
...both worketh in the coals, and
...fashioneth it with hammers, and
...worketh it with the strength of ...his arms: yea, he is hungry, and
...his strength faileth: he drinketh
...no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth
...out his rule: he marketh it out ...with the line: he fitteth it with ...planes, & he marketh it out with
...the compass, and maketh it after
...the figure of a man, according ...to the beauty of a man, that it
...may remain in the house.

14 He heweth him down ce-
...dars, and taketh the cypresse and
...the oak, which he strengtheneth
...for himself among the trees of ...the forest: he planteth an ash,
...and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man
...to burn: for he will take there-
...of, and warm himself: yea, he
...kindleth it, and baketh bread,
...yea, he maketh a god, and wor-
...shippeth it: he maketh it a gra-
...ven image, and falleth down
...thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in
...the fire: with part thereof he
...eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and
...is satisfied; yea, he warmeth
...himself, and saith, Aha, I am
...warm, I have seen the fire.

17 And the residue thereof he
...maketh a god, even his graven
...image: he falleth down unto it,
...and worshippeth it, and prayeth
...unto it, and saith, Deliver me;
...for thou art my God.

18 They have not known,
...nor understood; for he hath
...shut their eyes, that they cannot ...see; and their hearts, that they ...cannot understand.

19 And none considereth in ...his heart, neither is there know...ledge nor understanding to say,
...I have burnt part of it in the ...fire; yea, also I have baked ...bread upon the coals thereof; I
...have roasted flesh, and eaten it,
...and shall I make the residue
...thereof an abomination? shall I
...fall down to the stock of a tree?

20 He feedeth of ashes; a de...ceived heart hath turned him a...side, that he cannot deliver his ...soul, nor say, Is there not a lie
...in my right hand?

21 ¶ Remember these, (O Ja...cob and Israel) for thou art my ...servant, I have formed thee: thou
...art my servant, O Israel, thou ...shalt not be forgotten of me.

22 I have blotted out, as a ...thick cloud, thy transgressions, &
...as a cloud thy sins: return unto
...me, for I have redeemed thee.

23 Sing, O ye heavens, for the ...LORD hath done it: shout ye
...lower parts of the earth: break
...forth into singing, ye mountains,
...O forest, and every tree therein:
...for the LORD hath redeemed Ja...cob, & glorified himself in Israel.

24 Thus saith the LORD thy ...Redeemer, and he that formed
...thee from the womb, I am the ...LORD that maketh all things,
...that stretcheth forth the heavens
...alone, that spreadeth abroad the ...earth by my self;

25 That frustrateth § tokens of
...the liars, & maketh diviners mad,
...that turneth wise men backward,
...& maketh their knowledg foolish;

26 That confirmeth the word
...of his servant, and performeth
...the counsel of his messengers,
...that saith to Jerusalem, Thou
...shalt be inhabited, and to the ci...ties of Judah, Ye shall be built,
...and I will raise up the decayed
...places thereof:

27 That saith to the deep, Be
...dry, and I will dry up thy rivers.

28 That saith of Cyrus, He is
...my shepherd, and shall perform
...all my pleasure, even saying to ...Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built;
...and to the temple, Thy foundation
...shall be laid.

CHAP. XLV.

THus saith the LORD to his a...nointed, to Cyrus, whose
...right hand I have holden to sub-
...due nations before him: & I will ...loose the loins of kings, to open
...before him the two-leaved gates,
...and the gates shall not be shut.

2 I will go before thee, & make ...the crooked places straight: I will ...break in pieces the gates of brass,
...& cut in sunder the bars of iron.

3 And I will give thee the trea...sures of darkness, and hidden
...riches of secret places, that thou
...mayest know § I § LORD which ...call

call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

4 For Jacob my servants sake and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me.

5 ¶ I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God besides me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me.

6 That they may know from the rising of the sun, & from the west, that there is none besides me. I am the LORD, & there is none else.

7 I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil; I the LORD do all these things.

8 Drop down ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness; let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it.

9 Wo unto him that striveth with his maker: let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth: shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

10 Wo unto him that saith unto his father, What begettest thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

11 Thus saith the LORD, the holy One of Israel, and his maker, ask me of things to come concerning my sons; and concerning the work of mine hands command ye me.

12 I have made the earth, & created man upon it: I, even my hands have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded.

13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways; he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for price, nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, & merchandise of Ethiopia, & of the Sabeans, men of stature shall come over unto thee, & they shall be thine, they shall come after thee in chains, they shall come over & they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee, & there is none else, there is no God.

15 Verily, thou art a God that hidest thy self, O God of Israel the Saviour.

16 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols.

17 But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation; ye shall not be ashamed, nor confounded world without end.

18 For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it, he hath established it, he created it not invain, he formed it to be inhabited, I am the LORD, and there is none else.

19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

20 ¶ Assemble your selves, & come; draw near together ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge, they set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.

21 Tell ye, & bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else besides me, a just God, and a Saviour; there is none beside me.

22 Look unto me, & be ye saved all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

23 I have sworn by my self, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.

24 Surely shall one say, In the LORD have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; & all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

25 In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, & shall glory.

CHAP. XLVI.

BEL boweth down, Nebo stoopeth, their idols were upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages were heavy loaden, they are a burden to the weary beast.

2 They

they stoop, they bow down together, they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity.

3 ¶ Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are borne by me from the belly, which are carried from the womb.

4 And even to your old age, I am he, and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear, even I will carry, and will deliver you.

5 ¶ To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like?

6 They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith, & he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea they worship.

7 They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, & he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

8 Remember this, and shew your selves men: bring it again to mind, O ye transgressours.

9 Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me,

10 Declaring the end from the beginning, & from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

11 Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

12 ¶ Hearken unto me, ye stouthearted, that are far from righteousness.

13 I bring near my righteousness: it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

CHAP. XLVII.

1 Come down and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones, and grinde meal, uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, passe over the rivers.

3 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

4 As for our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his Name, the holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called the lady of kingdoms.

6 ¶ I was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 ¶ And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thy heart, I am, and none else besides me, I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children.

9 But these two things shall come to thee in a moment, on one day; the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection, for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 ¶ For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee, and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me.

11 ¶ Therefore shall evil come upon thee, thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: & mischief shall fall upon thee, & shalt not be able to put it off: & desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thine enchantments, & with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude multitude of thy counsels: let now ☽ astrologers, ☽ star-gazers, the monethly prognosticators, stand up, & save thee from these things that shal come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shal be as stubble, the fire shall burn them, they shal not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shal not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom ☽ hast laboured, even thy merchants from thy youth, they shal wander every one to his quarter: none shall save thee.

CHAP. XLVIII.

HEear ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah, which swear by the Name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousnes.

2 For they call themselves of the holy city, & stay themselves upon the God of Israel; ☽ LORD of hosts ☽ his Name.

3 I have declared the former things from the beginning; & they went forth out of my mouth; & I shewed them, I did them suddenly, and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck ☽ an iron sinew, and thy brow brass.

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass, I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, & my molten image hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this, and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, & ☽ diddst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning, even before the day, when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time ☽ ear was no: opened: for I knew that ☽ would'st deal very treacherously, and was called a transgresseur from the womb.

9 ¶ For my Names sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, I have refined thee but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

11 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake will I do it: for how should my Name be polluted? and I will not give my glory unto another.

12 ¶ Hearken unto me, O Jacob & Israel my called: I am he; I am the first, I also am the last.

13 Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, & mine hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together.

14 All ye assemble your selves, & hear, & among them hath declared these things? the LORD hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Caldeans.

15 I, even I have spoken, yea I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 ¶ Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning, from the time that it was: there am I: and now the LORD God hath sent me, and his Spirit.

17 Thus saith the LORD ☽ Redeemer, the holy One of Israel, I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

18 O that ☽ hadst hearkened to my commandements! then had ☽ peace been as a river, and ☽ righteousnes as ☽ waves of the sea:

19 Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the off-spring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof: ☽ his name should not have been cut off, nor destroyed from before me.

20 ¶ Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Caldeans, with a voice of singing, declare ye, publish this, utter it even to ☽ end of the earth: say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts; he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

22 There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

CHAP. XLIX.

1 Listen, O isles, unto me, and hearken ye people from far, The LORD hath called me from the womb, from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

2 And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft: in his quiver hath he hid me,

3 And said unto me, Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified.

4 Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely my judgement is with the LORD, & my work with my God.

5 ¶ And now saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him: Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength.

6 And he said; It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers; kings shall see, and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithfull, and the holy One of Israel, and he shall chuse thee.

8 Thus saith the LORD, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee & I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages:

9 That thou mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darknesse, Shew your selves: they shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall not hunger nor thirst, neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold these shall come from far: and lo, these from the north, and from the west, and these from the land of Sinim.

13 ¶ Sing, O heaven, and be joyfull, O earth, and break forth into singing, O mountains: for God hath comforted his people, & will have mercy upon his afflicted.

14 But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.

15 Can a woman forget her sucking childe, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee.

16 Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands: thy walls are continually before me.

17 Thy children shall make haste, thy destroyers, and they that made thee waste, shall go forth of thee.

18 ¶ Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee: as I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and binde them on thee as a bride doth.

19 For thy waste, and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction shal even now be too narrow, by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up, shall be far away.

20 The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shal say again in thine ears, The place is too straight for me; give place to me, I may dwell.

21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these where had they been?

22 Thus saith the Lord GOD,

Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms: and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

24 ¶ Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawfull captive delivered?

25 But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shal be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

26 And I will feed them that oppresse thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour, and thy redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

CHAP. L.

THus saith the LORD, Where is the bill of your mothers divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is it, to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have you sold your selves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

2 Wherefore when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea: I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

4 The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

5 ¶ The Lord GOD hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back.

6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

7 ¶ For the Lord GOD will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

8 He is neer that justifieth me, who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is mine adversary? let him come neer to me.

9 Behold, the Lord GOD will help me, who is he that shall condemn me? Lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up.

10 ¶ Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in the Name of the LORD, and stay upon his God.

11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compasse your selves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

CHAP. LI.

HArken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewen, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.

3 For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD: joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 ¶ Harken unto me, my people, and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgement to rest for a light of the people.

5 M

5 My righteousnesse is neer: my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people: the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousnesse shall not be abolished.

7 ¶ Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousnes, the people in whose heart is my law. Fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

8 For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousnesse shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

9 ¶ Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD, awake as in the ancient dayes, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon?

10 Art thou not it which hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep, that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to passe over?

11 Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return and come with singing unto Zion, and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladnesse and joy: and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

12 I even I am he that comforteth you: who art thou that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, & of a son of man which shall be made as grasse?

13 And forgettest the LORD thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth, and hast feared continually every day, because of the fury of the oppressour, as if he were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressour?

14 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail.

15 But I am the LORD thy God, that divided the sea, whose waves roared; the LORD of hosts is his Name.

16 And I have put my words in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

17 ¶ Awake, awake, stand up O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury: thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth: neither is there any that taketh her by the hand, of all the sons that she hath brought up.

19 These two things are come unto thee, who shall be sorry for thee? desolation and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee?

20 Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wilde bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

21 ¶ Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted and drunken, but not with wine.

22 Thus saith thy Lord, the LORD, and thy God, that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury: thou shalt no more drink it again.

23 But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee: which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street to them that went over.

CHAP. LII.

AWake, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion, put on beautifull garments O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean.

2 Shake thy self from the dust, arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thy self from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the LORD, Ye have sold your selves for nought: and ye shall be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the Lord GOD, My people went down aforetime into Egypt, to sojourn there, and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

5 Now therefore what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD, and my Name continually every day is blasphemed.

6 Therefore my people shall know my Name; therefore they shall know in that day, that I am he that doth speak: Behold, it is I.

7 ¶ How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace, that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation, that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!

8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice, with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

9 ¶ Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 ¶ Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her, be ye clean that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for the LORD will go before you, and the God of Israel will be your rereward.

13 ¶ Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were astonished at thee, (his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men:)

15 So shall he sprinkle many nations, the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them, shall they see; and that which they had not heard, shall they consider.

CHAP. LIII.

WHo hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed.

2 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 He is despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4 ¶ Surely he hath born our griefs, & carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his stripes we are healed.

6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way, and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 He was taken from prison and from judgement; and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living, for the transgression of my people was he stricken.

9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death, because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 ¶ Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him, he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his dayes, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travell of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justifie many: for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressour, and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for ¶ transgressours.

CHAP. LIIII.

SIng, O barren, thou that didst not bear: break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travell with childe: for more are the children of the desolate, then the children of the married wife, saith ¶ LORD

2 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes.

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand, and on the left: and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not: for thou shalt not be ashamed, neither be thou confounded, for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 For thy Maker ✠ thine husband, (the LORD of hosts is his Name) and thy Redeemer the holy One of Israel, the God of the whole earth shall he be called.

6 For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken, and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7 For a small moment have I forsaken thee, but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment: but with everlasting kindnesse will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

9 For this ✠ is the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn, that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth: so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindnesse shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.

11 ¶ Oh thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with saphires.

12 And I will make thy windowes of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD, and great shall be the peace of thy children.

14 In righteousnes shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression, for thou shalt not fear; and from terrour, for it shall not come neer thee.

15 Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee, shall fal for thy sake.

16 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and bringeth forth an instrument for his work, & I have created the waster to destroy.

17 ¶ No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgement, thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousnesse is of me, saith the LORD.

CHAP. LV.

HO, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money: come ye, buy, and eat, yea come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? & your labour for ♄ which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, & eat ye that ♈ is good, and let your soul delight it self in fatnesse.

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your seal shall live, and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witnesse to the people, a leader and a commander to the people.

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee, shall run unto thee, because of the LORD thy God, and for the holy One of Israel: for he hath glorified thee.

6 ¶ Seek ye the LORD while he may be found; call ye upon him while he is neer.

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

8 ¶ For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your wayes my wayes, saith § LORD.

9 For as § heavens are higher then the earth: so are my wayes higher then your wayes, and my thoughts then your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shal accomplish § which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, & instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree, and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting signe that shall not be cut off.

CHAP. LVI.

THus saith the LORD, Keep ye judgement, & do justice: for my salvation is neer to come, and my righteousnesse to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doth this, & the son of man that layeth hold on it: that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 ¶ Neither let the son of the stranger, § hath joyned himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me frō his people: neither let § eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith § LORD unto the eunuchs § keep my sabbaths, and chuse § things § please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in mine house, and within my walls, a place, and a name better then of sons, and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name § shal not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger § joyn themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the Name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyfull in my house of prayer: their burnt-offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar: for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people.

8 The Lord GOD which gathereth the out-casts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, besides those that are gathered unto him.

9 ¶ All ye beasts of the field, come to devour: yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

10 His watchmen are blinde: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough: and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter.

12 Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink: and to morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

CHAP. LVII.

THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart, and mercifull men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

2 He shall enter into peace: they shal rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightnesse.

3 ¶ But draw neer hither, ye sonnes of the sorceresse, the seed of the adulterer, and the whore.

4 Against whom do ye sport your selves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, & draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falshood?

5 Inflaming your selves with idols under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys under the clifts of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the rivers is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink-offering, thou hast offred a meat-offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

7 Upon a lofty & high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behinde the doors also and the posts hast thou set thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thy self to another than me, and art gone up: thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made a covenant with them: thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it.

9 And thou wentest to the king with ointment, & didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thy self even unto hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the greatnesse of thy way, yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand, therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace, even of old, and thou fearest me not?

12 I will declare thy righteousnesse, and thy works, for they shall not profit thee.

13 ¶ When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them. but he that putteth his trust in me, shall possesse the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain.

14 And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling block out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy, I dwell in the high and holy place: with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, & to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the soules which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of his covetousnesse was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart.

18 I have seen his wayes, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him, and to his mourners.

19 I create the fruit of the lips: peace, peace to him that is neer, saith the LORD, and I will heal him.

20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

CHAP. LVIII.

CRy aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my wayes, as a nation that did righteousnesse, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice: they take delight in approaching to God.

3 ¶ Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, & thou takest no knowledge? Behold in the day of your fast you finde pleasure, and exact all your labours.

4 Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedneſſe: ye ſhall not faſt as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is it ſuch a faſt that I have choſen? a day for a man to afflict his ſoul? is it to bow down his head as a bulruſh, and to ſpread ſackcloth and aſhes under him? wilt ꝯ call this a faſt, & an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 Is not this ꝯ faſt ꝯ I have choſen? to looſe the bands of wickedneſs, to undo ꝯ heavie burdens, and to let the oppreſſed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that ꝯ bring the poor ꝯ are caſt out, to thy houſe? when ꝯ ſeeſt the naked, that thou cover him, and ꝯ thou hide not thy ſelf from thine own fleſh?

8 ¶ Then ſhall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health ſhall ſpring forth ſpeedily: and thy righteouſneſſe ſhall go before thee, the glory of the LORD ſhall be thy rereward.

9 Then ſhalt thou call, and the LORD ſhall anſwer: ꝯ ſhalt cry, and he ſhall ſay, Here I am: if thou take away from the midſt of thee ꝯ yoke, ꝯ putting forth of the finger, and ſpeaking vanity:

10 And if thou draw out thy ſoul to ꝯ hungry, & ſatisfie ꝯ afflicted ſoul; then ſhall thy light riſe in obſcurity, and thy darkneſſe be as the noon-day.

11 And the LORD ſhall guide thee continually, and ſatisfie thy ſoul in drought, & make fat thy bones, and thou ſhalt be like a watered garden, & like a ſpring of water, whoſe waters fail not.

12 And they that ſhall be of thee, ſhall build the old waſte places: thou ſhalt raiſe up the foundations of many generations; and thou ſhalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The reſtorer of paths to dwel in.

13 ¶ If ꝯ turn away thy foot from ꝯ ſabbath, from doing thy pleaſure on my holy day, & call the ſabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable, and ſhalt honour him, not doing thine own waies, nor finding thine own pleaſure, nor ſpeaking thine own words:

14 Then ſhalt thou delight thy ſelf in the LORD, and I will cauſe thee to ride upon ꝯ high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath ſpoken it.

CHAP. LIX.

BEhold, the LORDS hand is not ſhortened, that it cannot ſave; neither his ear heavie, that it cannot hear.

2 But your iniquities have ſeparated between you and your God, and your ſins have hid his face frō you, ꝯ he will not hear.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, & your fingers with iniquity, your lips have ſpoken lies, and your tongue hath muttered perverſneſſe.

4 None calleth for juſtice, nor any pleadeth for truth; they truſt in vanity, and ſpeak lies, they conceive miſchief, & bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch cockatrice eggs, and weave the ſpiders web: he that eateth of their eggs, dieth, and that which is cruſhed, breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their webs ſhall not become garments, neither ſhall they cover themſelves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haſte to ſhed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity, waſting and deſtruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not, & there is no judgement in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whoſoever goeth therein, ſhall not know peace.

9 ¶ Therefore is judgement far from us: neither doth juſtice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obſcurity; for brightneſs, but we walk in darkneſs.

10 We grope for the wall like the blinde, & we grope as if we had no eyes: we ſtumble at noon day as in the night; we are in deſolate places as dead men.

11 We roar all like beares, & mourn ſore like doves: we look for judgement, but there is none; for ſalvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our tranſgreſſions are multiplied before thee, & our ſins testifie against us for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities we know them:

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falshood.

14 And judgement is turned away backward, & justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, & equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth faileth, and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and § LORD saw it, and it displeased him, that there was no judgement.

16 ¶ And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessour. Therefore his arm brought salvation unto him, and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 For he put on righteousness as a brest-plate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

18 According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies, to the ilands he will repay recompence.

19 So shal they fear § Name of § LORD from the west, & his glory from § rising of § sun: when the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

20 ¶ And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

21 As for me, this is my covenant § them, saith the LORD, My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of § mouth of thy seed, nor out of § mouth of thy seeds seed, saith § LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

CHAP. LX.

ARise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

2 For behold, the darkenesse shal cover the earth, and grosse darkenesse the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, & his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the Gentiles shal come to thy light, and kings to the brightnesse of thy rising.

4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, & flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged, because the abundance of the sea shal be converted unto thee, § forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian & Ephah all they from Sheba shall come: they shal bring gold & incense, & they shal shew forth the praises of the LORD.

7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shal minister unto thee, they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorifie the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and § ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver & their gold w them, unto the Name of § LORD thy God, and to the holy one of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.

10 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, & their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually, they shall not be shut day nor night, that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee, shall perish: yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the firtree, the pine-tree, and the box together, to beautifie the place of my sanctuary: and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee, shall come bending unto thee, and all they that despised thee, shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, the Zion of the holy one of Israel.

15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went thorow thee; I will make thee an eternall excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the brest of kings, and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour, and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brasse I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brasse, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactours righteousnesse.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightnesse shall the moon give light unto thee; but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

20 Thy sun shall no more go down, neither shall thy moon withdraw it self: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the dayes of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherite the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

22 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

CHAP. LXI.

THe spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek, he hath sent me to binde up the brokenhearted, to proclame liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound:

2 To proclaime the acceptable yeer of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all that mourn.

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heavinesse; that they might be called trees of righteousnesse, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

4 And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vine-dressers.

6 But ye shall be named the priests of the LORD: men shall call you the ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall you boast your selves.

7 For your shame you shall have double: and for confusion they shall rejoyce in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possesse the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For I the LORD love judgement, I hate robbery for burnt-offerings, and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, & their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.

10 I will greatly rejoyce in the LORD, my soul shall be joyfull in my God: for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousnesse, as a bridegroom deckerh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth her self with her jewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud: and as the garden causeth the things that are sowen in it to spring forth: so the Lord GOD will cause righteousnesse and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

CHAP. LXII.

FOr Zions sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalems sake I will not rest, until the righteousnes thereof go forth as brightneſſes and the ſalvation thereof as a lamp that burneth;

2 And the Gentiles ſhall ſee thy righteouſneſſes, and all kings thy glory: and thou ſhalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD ſhall name.

3 Thou ſhalt alſo be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royall diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 Thou ſhalt no more be termed, Forſaken, neither ſhall thy land any more be termed Deſolate: but ℣ ſhalt be called, Hephzibah: & thy land Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land ſhall be married.

5 ¶ For as a young man marrieth a virgin; ſo ſhall thy ſons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoyceth over ℣ bride, ſo ſhall thy God rejoyce over thee.

6 I have ſet watchmen upon thy walls, O Jeruſalem, which ſhall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not ſilence:

7 And give him no reſt, till he eſtabliſh, and till he make Jeruſalem a praiſe in the earth.

8 The LORD hath ſworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his ſtrength: Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the ſons of the ſtrangers ſhall not drink thy wine for the which thou haſt laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it ſhall eat it, and praiſe the LORD; and they that have brought it together, ſhall drink it in the courts of my Holineſſe.

10 ¶ Go thorow, go thorow the gates: prepare you the way of the people: caſt up, caſt up the high way, gather out the ſtones; lift up a ſtandard for ℣ people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy ſalvation cometh: behold, his reward is with him, & his work before him.

12 And they ſhall call them, The holy people, the redeemed of the LORD: and thou ſhalt be called, Sought out, a city not forſaken.

CHAP. LXIII.

WHo is this that cometh from Edom, with died garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparell, travelling in the greatneſſe of his ſtrength? I that ſpeak in righteouſneſſe, mighty to ſave.

2 Wherefore are thou red in thine apparell, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

3 I have troden the wine-preſſe alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury, and their blood ſhall be ſprinkled upon my garments, and I will ſtain all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the yeer of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, & there was none to help: and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought ſalvation unto me, and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their ſtrength to the earth.

7 ¶ I will mention the loving kindneſſes of the LORD, and the praiſes of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath beſtowed on us; and the great goodneſſe towards the houſe of Iſrael, which he hath beſtowed on them, according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving kindneſſes.

8 For he ſaid, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: ſo he was their Saviour.

9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his preſence ſaved them: in his love, and in his pity he redeemed them, and he bare them, & carried them all the dayes of old.

10 ¶ But they rebelled, and vexed his holy ſpirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought againſt them.

11 Then he remembered the dayes of old, Moſes and his people, ſaying, Where is he that brought them up out of the ſea, with the ſhepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him.

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting Name.

13 That led them thorow the deep as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of ℣ LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thy self a glorious Name.

15 ¶ Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness, and of thy glory: where is thy zeal, and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels, and of thy mercies towards me? are they restrained?

16 Doubtlesse, thou art our Father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not; thou, O LORD art our Father, our redeemer, thy Name is from everlasting.

17 ¶ O LORD, why hast thou made us to erre from thy wayes? and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have troden down thy sanctuary.

19 We are thine, thou never barest rule over them, they were not called by thy Name.

CHAP. LXIV.

OH ℣ wouldest rent the heavens, ℣ thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence,

2 As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil: to make thy Name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence.

3 When thou didst terrible things, which we looked not for, thou camest down, ℣ mountains flowed down at thy presence.

4 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, besides thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou meetest him ℣ rejoyceth & worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy wayes: behold, thou art wroth, for we have sinned; in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, & all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags and we all do fade as a leaf, & our iniquities, like ℣ winds, have taken us away.

7 And there is none ℣ calleth upon thy Name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O LORD, thou art our Father: we are the clay, and thou our potter, and we all are the work of thine hand.

9 ¶ Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.

10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

11 Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burnt up ℣ fire, & all our pleasant things are laid waste.

12 Wilt thou refrain thy self for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

CHAP. LXV.

I Am sought of them that asked not for me, I am found of them ℣ sought me not: I said, behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my Name.

2 I have spread out mine hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walked in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts;

3 A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face, that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick:

4 Which remain among the graves, & lodge in ℣ monuments, which eat swines flesh, & broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

5 Which say, Stand by thy self, come not neer to me, for I am holier then thou: these are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

6 Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom,

7 Your

7 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, (saith the LORD) which have burnt incense upon the mountains, & blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

8 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not, for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, & out of Judah, an inheritour of my mountains: and mine elect shall inherit it, & my servants shall dwell there.

10 And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.

11 ¶ But ye are they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, & prepare a table for that troop, & that furnish the drink offering unto the number.

12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, & ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear, but did evil before mine eyes, and did chuse that wherein I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoyce, but ye shall be ashamed.

14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord GOD shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name:

16 That he who blesseth himself in the earth, shall bless himself in the God of truth: and he that sweareth in the earth, shall swear by the God of truth: because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

17 ¶ For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: & the former shall not be remembered nor come into minde.

18 But be you glad, & rejoyce for ever in that which I create: for behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoycing, and her people a joy.

19 And I will rejoyce in Jerusalem, and joy in my people, and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of dayes, nor an old man that hath not filled his dayes: for the childe shall die an hundred yeers old, but the sinner being an hundred yeers old, shall be accursed.

21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them: and they shal plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the dayes of a tree, are the dayes of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shal not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble: for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, & their off-spring with them.

24 And it shal come to passe, that before they call, I will answer: and whiles they are yet speaking, I will hear.

25 The wolf and the lamb shal feed together, & the lion shal eat straw like the bullock: & dust shall be the serpents meat. They shal not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD

CHAP. LXVI.

THus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD, but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor, & of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

3 He that killeth an ox, is as if he slew a man: he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dogs neck: he that offereth an oblation as if he offered swines blood:

blood: he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol: yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

4 I also will chuse their delusions, & will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer, when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 ¶ Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my Names sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD, that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

7 Before she travelled, she brought forth: before her pain came, she was delivered of a man-childe.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for assoon as Zion travelled, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth, saith the LORD? shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb, saith thy God?

10 Rejoyce ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoyce for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be born upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you: and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoyce, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known towards his servants, and his indignation towards his enemies.

15 For behold, the LORD will come with fire, & with his chariots, like a whirlwinde, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire & by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh, & the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 They that sanctifie themselves, and purifie themselves in the gardens behinde one tree in the midst, eating swines flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues, and they shall come and see my glory.

19 And I will set a signe among them, & I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bowe, to Tubal and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory, and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD, out of all nations, upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessell, into the house of the LORD.

21 And I will also take of them for priests, and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as the new heavens and the new earth which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, & from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched, and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH.

CHAP. I.

THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were in Anathoth, in the lot of Benjamin:

2 To whom the word of the LORD came in the dayes of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth yeer of his reign.

3 It came also in the dayes of Jehoiakim § son of Josiah king of Judah unto the end of the eleventh yeer of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth moneth.

4 Then the word of § LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; & before thou camest forth out of the womb, I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD, behold, I cannot speak, for I am a childe.

7 ¶ But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a childe: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, & whatsoever I command thee, thou shalt speak.

8 Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee, to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, & touched my mouth, and the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.

10 See, I have this day set thee over the nations, and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond-tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot, and the face thereof was towards the north.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD, & they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, & against all the cities of Judah.

16 And I will utter my judgements against them, touching all their wickednesse, who have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 ¶ Thou therefore gird up thy loins, & arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee; be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them.

18 For behold, I have made thee this day a defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brazen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against § priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee, saith § LORD, to deliver thee.

CHAP. II.

MOreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go, and cry in the eares of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I remember, thee the kindenesse of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderneſse, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was holinesse unto the LORD, and the first-fruits of his increase:

increaſe; all that devour him, ſhall offend; evil ſhall come upon them, ſaith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O houſe of Jacob, & all § families of the houſe of Iſrael.

5 ¶ Thus ſaith the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone fat from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither ſaid they, Where is the LORD, that brought us up out of the land of Egypt? that led us thorow the wilderneſſe, thorow a land of deſerts, and of pits, thorow a land of drought, and of the ſhadow of death, thorow a land that no man paſſed thorow, & where no man dwelt.

7 And I brought you into a plentifull countrey, to eat the fruit thereof, and the goodneſſe thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The prieſts ſaid not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law, knew me not: the paſtours alſo tranſgreſſed againſt me, & the prophets prophеſied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

9 ¶ Wherefore I will yet plead with you, ſaith § LORD, and with your childrens children will I plead.

10 For paſſe over the iſles of Chittim, and ſee; and ſend unto Kedar, and conſider diligently, and ſee if there be ſuch a thing.

11 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

12 Be aſtoniſhed, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very deſolate, ſaith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils: they have forſaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out ciſterns, broken ciſterns that can hold no water.

14 ¶ Is Iſrael a ſervant? is he a home-born ſlave? why is he ſpoiled?

15 The young lions roared upon him, and yelled, & they made his land waſte: his cities are burnt without inhabitant.

16 Alſo the children of Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of thy head.

17 Haſt thou not procured this unto thy ſelf, in that thou haſt forſaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?

18 And now what haſt thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what haſt thou to do in the way of Aſſyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own wickedneſſe ſhall correct thee, and thy backſlidings ſhall reprove thee: know therefore and ſee, that it is a evil thing and bitter, that thou haſt forſaken the LORD thy God, & § my fear is not in thee, ſaith the Lord GOD of hoſts.

20 ¶ For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burſt thy bands, and thou ſaidſt, I will not tranſgreſſe: when upon every high hill, and under every green tree thou wanderedſt, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right ſeed: how then are thou turned into the degenerate plant of a ſtrange vine unto me?

22 For though thou waſh thee with nitre, and take thee much ſope, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, ſaith the Lord GOD.

23 How canſt thou ſay, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? ſee thy way in the valley, know what thou haſt done: thou art a ſwift dromedary, traverſing her ways.

24 A wilde aſſe uſed to the wilderneſſe, that ſnuffeth up the winde at her pleaſure, in her occaſion who can turn her away? all they that ſeek her, will not weary themſelves; in her moneth they ſhall finde her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unſhod, and thy throat from thirſt: but thou ſaidſt, There is no hope. No, for I have loved ſtrangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is aſhamed, when he is found, ſo is the houſe of Iſrael aſhamed, they, their their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets, 28 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth; for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

29 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities, are thy gods, O Judah.
30 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.
31 In vain have I smitten your children, they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.
32 ¶ O generation, see ye the word of the LORD: have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? wherefore say my people, We are lords; we will come no more unto thee?
33 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number.
34 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.
35 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these.
36 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me: Behold, I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned.
37 Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.
38 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thine head: for ¶ the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, & thou shalt not prosper in them.

CHAP. III.

They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the LORD.
2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lien with: in the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness, and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms, and with thy wickedness.
3 Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain, and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.
4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth.
5 Will he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken, and done evill things as thou couldest.
6 ¶ The LORD said also unto me in the dayes of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain, and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.
7 And I said, after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me: but she returned not, and her treacherous sister Judah saw it.
8 And I saw when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery, I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went & played ¶ harlot also.
9 And it came to passe, through the lightnesse of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks.
10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the LORD.
11 And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel hath justified her self more then treacherous Judah.
12 ¶ Go, and proclaime these words toward the north, and say, say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD, and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever.

13 Onely acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, & hast scattered thy wayes to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD, for I am married unto you, and I will take you, one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

15 And I will give you pastours according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to passe, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land: in those dayes, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it come to mind, neither shall they remember it, neither shall they visit it, neither shall that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD, and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the Name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evill heart.

18 In those dayes the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north, to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, My father, and shalt not turn away from me.

20 ¶ Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband: so have you dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was heard upon the high places, weepings, and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings: behold, we come unto thee, for thou art the LORD our God.

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth: their flocks, their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25 We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

CHAP. III.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith ✠ LORD, return unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 And thou shalt sweare, The LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall blesse themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.

3 ¶ For thus saith the LORD to ✠ men of Judah & Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sowe not among thorns.

4 Circumcise your selves to ✠ LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah & inhabitants of Jerusalem, lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evill of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem, and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land; cry, gather together, and say, Assemble your selves, and let us go into the defenced cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion, retire, stay not: for I will bring evill from the north, and a great destruction.

7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer

Gentiles is on his way: he is go forth from his place to ake thy land desolate, and thy ties shall be laid waste without habitant.

For this gird you with cloth, lament and howl:
the fierce anger of ☩ LORD not turned back from us.

And it shall come to passe
that day, saith the LORD, the heart of the king shall sh, and the heart of the prinand the priests shall be ahed, and the prophets shall der.

Then said I, Ah Lord
, surely thou hast greatly ceived this people, and Jerum, saying, Ye shall have ace; whereas the sword reach-unto the soul.

At that time shall it be said this people, and to Jerusa-
, A dry winde of the high es in the wildernesse toward e daughter of my people, not an, nor to cleanse,

Even a full winde from ese places shall come unto e: now also will I give sence against them.

Behold, he shall come up e clouds, and his chariots shall be an whirlwinde: his horses are ifter then eagles: wo unto us, we are spoiled.

O Jerusalem, wash thine art from wickednesse, that u mayest be saved: how long all thy vain thoughts lodge thin thee?

For a voice declareth from n, and publisheth affliction
m mount Ephraim.

Make ye mention to the tions, behold, publish against rusalem: that watchers come m a far country, and give out ir voice against the cities Judah.

As keepers of a field are y against her round about:
cause she hath been rebellious ainst me, saith the LORD.

Thy way and thy doings ve procured these things un-thee, this is thy wickednesse, cause it is bitter, because it acheth unto thine heart.

¶ My bowels, my bowels, I pained at my very heart,
my heart maketh a noise in me;
I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

Destruction upon destruction is cried, for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have no understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

I beheld the earth, and lo, it was without form, and void: and the heavens, and they had no light.

I beheld the mountains, and lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

I beheld, and lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.

I beheld, and lo, the fruitfull place was a wilderness, and all ☩ cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

For thus hath ☩ LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end.

For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, & will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

The whole city shall flee for the noise of ☩ horsmen and bowe-men, they shall go into thickets, & climb upon ☩ rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? though thou clothest thy self with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting: in vain shalt thou make thy self fair, thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish, as of her that bringeth forth her first childe, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bebewaileth her self, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Wo is me now, for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

CHAP. V.

RUn ye to & fro therow the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can finde a man, if there be any that executeth judgement, that seeketh the truth, and I will pardon it.

2 And though they say, The LORD liveth, surely they swear falsely.

3 O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder then a rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor, they are foolish: for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgement of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them, for they have known the way of the LORD, and § judgement of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of the evening shall spoil them, a leopard shall watch over their cities; every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces, because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased.

7 ¶ How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no Gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots houses.

8 They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbours wife.

9 Shall I not visit for these things, saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 ¶ Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy, but make not a full end: take away her battelments for they are not the LORDS.

11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 They have belied § LORD, and said, It is not he, neither shall evil come upon us, neither shal we see sword nor famine.

13 And the prophets shall become windes, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I wil bring a nation upon you fro far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD; it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men of valour.

17 And they shall eat up thine harvest, and thy bread, which they should eat: they shall eat up thy sons & thy daughters: they shall eat up thy flocks & their herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless, in those dayes, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you.

19 ¶ And it shall come to passe, when ye shal say, Wherefore doth the LORD our God do all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding, which have eyes & see not, which have ears and hear not.

22 Fear ye not me, saith the LORD? will ye not tremble at my presence? which have placed the sand for the bound of the

For among my people are ...wicked men: they lay wait, ...as he that setteth snares; they set ...they catch men.

CHAP. VI.

Ye children of Benjamin, ...gather your selves to flee ...of the midst of Jerusalem, ...blow the trumpet in Tekoa, ...set up a signe of fire in ...Bethhaccerem: for evil appear...out of the north, and great ...destruction.

I have likened the daughter ...Zion to a comely and deli... ...women.

4 Prepare ye war against her: ...arise, and let us go up at noon: ...wo unto us, for the day goeth a...way, for the shadows of the even...ing are stretched out.

5 Arise, & let us go up by night, ...and let us destroy her palaces.

6 ¶ For thus hath the LORD ...of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, ...and cast a mount against Jerusa...lem: this is the city to be visi...ted, she is wholly oppression in the ...midst of her.

7 As a fountain casteth out ...her waters, so she casteth out ...her wickedness: violence and ...spoil is heard in her, before me ...continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusa...lem, lest my soul depart from ...thee, lest I make thee desolate, a ...land not inhabited.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of ...hosts, they shall thoroughly glean ...the remnant of Israel as a vine: ...turn back thine hand as a grape...gatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom shall I speak, ...and give warning, that they may ...hear? behold their ear is uncir...cumcised, & they cannot hearken: ...behold, the word of the LORD ...is unto them a reproach: they ...have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the ...fury of the LORD: I am weary ...with holding in, I will pour it ...out upon the children abroad, and ...upon the assembly of young men ...together: for even the husband ...with the wife shall be ta...ken, the aged with him that is ...full of dayes.

12 And their houses shall be ...turned unto others, with their ...fields, and wives together: for I ...will stretch out my hand upon ...the inhabitants of the land, saith ...the LORD.

13 For from the least of them, ...even unto the greatest of them, ...every one is given to covetous...nes; and from the prophet even ...unto the priest, every one deal...eth falsly.

14 They have healed also the ...hurt of the daughter of my peo...ple slightly, saying, Peace, peace, ...when there is no peace.

15 Were they ashamed when ...they had committed abomination? ...nay they were not at all ashamed, ...neither neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them, they shal be cast down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, & ye shall finde rest for your souls: but they said, we will not walk therein.

17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet: but they said, We will not hearken.

18 ¶ Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

19 Hear, O earth, behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba? and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shal fal upon them: the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north countrey, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shal lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy: their voice roareth like the sea, and they ride upon horses set in array as men for war, against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof, our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, & pain, as of a woman in travell.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way: for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

26 ¶ O daughter of my people, gird thee with sack-cloth, and wallow thy self in ashes: make thee mourning as for an onely son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a tower, and a fortresse among my people: that thou mayest know and try their way.

28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron, they are all corrupters.

29 The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire, the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away.

30 Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

CHAP. VII.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Stand in the gate of the LORDS house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your wayes, and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD are they.

5 For if you thoroughly amend your wayes and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour,

6 If ye oppresse not the stranger, the fatherless and the widow, & shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt:

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 ¶ Behold, ye trust in lying words that cannot profit.

9 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and sweare falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my Name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is this house, which is called by my name, become

...ers in your eyes? behold, e-
...I have seen it, saith § LORD.
12 But go ye now unto my
...ce which was in Shiloh, where
...ne my Name at the first, and
...e what I did to it, for the
...kedness of my people Israel.
13 And now, because ye have
...e all these works, saith the
...RD, & I spake unto you, rising
...e early, and speaking, but ye
...ard not; and I called you,
...ye answered not:
14 Therefore will I do unto
...s house, which is called by my
...me, wherein ye trust, and un-
...o the place which I gave to ...u and to your fathers, as I
...ve done to Shiloh.
15 And I will cast you out of
...y sight, as I have cast out all
...your brethren, even the whole
...ed of Ephraim.
16 Therefore pray not thou
...r this people, neither lift up
...r cry nor prayer for them, neither
...ke intercession to me, for I ...ll not hear thee.
17 ¶ Seest thou not what they ...do in the cities of Judah, and in
...e streets of Jerusalem?
18 The children gather wood,
...d the fathers kindle the fire &
...e women kneed their dough,
...make cakes to the queen of
...aven, and to pour out drink-
...erings unto other gods, that
...ey may provoke me to anger.
19 Do they provoke me to ...ger, saith the LORD? do they
...t provoke themselves to the
...nfusion of their own faces?
20 Therefore thus saith the
...rd GOD, Behold, mine anger
...d my fury shall be poured out
...on this place, upon man and
...on beast, and upon the trees
...of the field, and upon the fruit
...of the ground, and it shall burn
...and shall not be quenched.
21 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of
...sts, the God of Israel, Put ...your burnt-offerings unto your ...sacrifices, and eat flesh.
22 For I spake not unto your ...fathers, nor commanded them,
...in the day that I brought them
...out of the land of Egypt, concer...ning burnt-offerings or sacrifices:
23 But this thing commanded
...them, saying, Obey my voice,
...and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.
24 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels, and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward.
25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt, unto this day, I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them.
26 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardned their neck: they did worse then their fathers.
27 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them, but they will not hearken to thee:
thou shalt also call unto them,
but they will not answer thee.
28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of § LORD their God, nor receiveth correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.
29 Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places;
for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.
30 For § children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my Name, to pollute it 31 And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hin-nom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart.
32 ¶ Therefore behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.
33 And the carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth, and none shall fray them away.
34 Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and
from

from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of the bridegroom, & the voice of the bride: for the land shall be desolate.

CHAP. VIII.

AT that time, saith the LORD, they shal bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, & the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of their graves.

2 And they shall spread them before the sun, & the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, & whom they have served, & after whom they have walked, & whom they have sought, & whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried, they shalbe for dung upon the face of the earth.

3 And death shall be chosen rather then life, by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Moreover, thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, shall they fall, & not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem slyden back, by a perpetuall backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return.

6 I hearkened, and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickednes, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battell.

7 Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times, and the turtle, and the crane, and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgement of the LORD.

8 How do ye say, We are wise, & the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he it; the pen of the scribes is in vain.

9 The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed, and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD, and what wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousnesse, from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace, when there is no peace.

12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shal they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

13 ¶ I will surely consume them, saith the LORD, there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade, and the things that I have given them, shal passe away from them.

14 Why do we sit still? assemble your selves, & let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be silent there, for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us waters of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

15 We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones, for they are come, & have devoured the land, and all that is in it, the city, and those that dwell therein.

17 For behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices among you, which will not be charmed, and they shal bite you, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ When I would comfort my self against sorow, my heart is faint in me.

19 Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people, because of them that dwell in a far country: Is not the LORD in Zion? is not her king in her? why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities?

20 The harvest is past, the summer is ended, & we are not

21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.

22 Is there no balm in Gilead? is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

CHAP. IX.

OH that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people.

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men, that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3 And they bend their tongue for their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD.

4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother; for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders.

5 And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them: for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out, it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait.

9 ¶ Shall I not visit them for these things, saith the LORD? shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burnt up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattell, both the fowl of the heavens, and the beast are fled, they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons, and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 ¶ Who is the wise man that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it: for what the land perisheth, and is burnt up like a wilderness that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law, which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

14 But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them:

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, even this people with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: & I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women that they may come, and send for cunning women that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eye-lids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, how are we spoiled? we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and everyone her neighbour lamentation.

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD,

Even the carcases of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handfull after the harvest man, and none shall gather them.

23 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches,

24 But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth, and knoweth me; that I am the LORD, which exercise loving kindenesse, judgement, and righteousnesse in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

25 ¶ Behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised:

26 Egypt, and Judah, & Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderneſſe: for all these nations are uncircumcised; and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

CHAP. X.

HEar ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel.

2 Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signes of heaven, for the heathen are dismayed at them.

3 For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest (the work of the hands of the workman) with the ax.

4 They deck it with silver and with gold, they fasten it with nails, and with hammers that it move not.

5 They are upright as the palm-tree, but speak not: they must needs be born, because they cannot go: be not afraid of them, for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

6 Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O LORD, thou art great, and thy Name is great in might.

7 Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms there is none like unto thee.

8 But they are altogether brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

9 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder; blue and purple is their clothing: they are all the work of cunning men.

10 But the LORD is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

11 Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.

12 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

13 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

14 Every man is brutish in his knowledge, every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

15 They are vanity, and the work of errours: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

16 The portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things, and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his Name.

17 ¶ Gather up thy wares out of the land, O inhabitant of the fortresse.

18 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distresse them, that they may finde it so.

19 ¶ Woe is me for my hurt, my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly, this is a grief, and I must bear it.

20 My

20 My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

21 For the pastours are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country: to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons.

23 ¶ O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

24 O LORD, correct me, but with judgement; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

25 Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy Name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

CHAP. XI.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from ¶ LORD, saying,

2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God.

5 That I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, So be it, LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclame all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers, in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early, and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear: but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant which I commanded them to do: but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words: and they went after other gods, to serve them: the house of Israel, and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods, unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah: and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem, have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry, or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their trouble.

15 What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing the hath wrought lewdness with many? and the holy flesh is passed from thee: when thou doest evil, then thou rejoycest.

16 The LORD called thy name, A green olive-tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel, and of the house of Iudah, which they have done against themselves, to provoke me to anger, in offering incense unto Baal.

18 ¶ And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb, or an ox that is brought to the slaughter, and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and ♈ heart, let me see thy vengeance on them, for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith ♌ LORD of the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Prophesie not in the Name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore thus saith ♌ LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

23 And there shall be no remnant of them, for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the yeer of their visitation.

CHAP. XII.

RIghteous art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee, yet let me talk with thee of thy judgements: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit, thou art neer in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, knowest me, thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart towards thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds, because they said, He shall not see our last end.

5 ¶ If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in ♈ land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the ♈ swelling of Jordan?

6 For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee, yea, they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak fair words unto thee.

7 ¶ I have forsaken mine house: I have left mine heritage: I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a ♌ lion in the forest: it cried out against me, therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a speckled bird ♐ the birds round about are against her: come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour.

10 Many pastours have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from one end of the land even to the other end of the land, no flesh shall have peace.

13 They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit, and they shall be ashamed of your revenues, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that touch the inheritance ance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, & pluck out ȳ house of Judah from among them.

15 And it shall come to passe after that I have plucked them out, I will return, & have compassion on them, and will bring them again every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to passe, if they will diligently learn the wayes of my people, to swear by my Name, The LORD liveth (as they taught my people to swear by Baal) then shall they be built in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up, and destroy that nation, saith ȳ LORD.

CHAP. XIII.

THus saith ȳ LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle, according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of ȳ LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, & go to Euphrates, & hide it there in a hole of ȳ rock.

5 So I went and hid it by Euphrates, as ȳ LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to passe after many dayes, that ȳ LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, & digged, & took ȳ girdle from the place where I had hid it, and behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of ȳ LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man: so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, & for a Name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shal be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon Davids throne, & the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with drunkennesse.

14 And I will dash them one against another, even ȳ fathers & the sons together, saith ȳ LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them.

15 ¶ Hear ye, and give care, be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause darkenes, & before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it grosse darknesse.

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shal weep in secret places for your pride, and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORDS flock is carried away captive.

18 Say unto the king, & to the queen, Humble your selves, sit down, for your principalities shal come down, even the crown of your glory.

19 The cities of the south shal be shut up, and none shal open them, Judah shal be carried away captive all of it, it shal be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, & behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautifull flock?

21 What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee, (for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee) shall not sorrows take thee as a woman in travail?

22 ¶ And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? for the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble, that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD, because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.

26 Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

27 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in fields: wo unto thee, O Jerusalem, wilt thou not be made clean? when shall it once be?

CHAP. XIIII.

THE word of the LORD, that came to Jeremiah concerning the dearth.

2 Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish, they are black unto the ground, and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters, they came to the pits, and found no water, they returned with their vessels empty, they were ashamed, and confounded, and covered their heads.

4 Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the hinde also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass.

6 And the wilde asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind, like dragons: their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

7 ¶ O LORD, though our iniquities testifie against us, do thou it for thy Names sake: for our backslidings are many, we have sinned against thee.

8 O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble: why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man, that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

9 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonied, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy Name, leave us not.

10 ¶ Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the LORD doth not accept them, he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, Pray not for this people for their good.

12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry, and when they offer burnt offerings, & an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, & by the famine, & by the pestilence.

13 ¶ Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD, behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine, but I will give you assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesie lies in my Name, I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesie unto you a false vision, and divination, and thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesie in my Name, and I sent them not: yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land, By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesie, shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine & the sword, and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

17 ¶ Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them, Let mine eyes eyes run down with teare night and day, and let them not cease, for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword, and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine, yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

19 Hast thou utterly rejected Iudah? hath thy soul loathed Sion? why hast thou smitten us, there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good: and for the time of healing, and behold, trouble.

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickednesse, and the iniquity of our fathers: for we have sinned against thee.

21 Do not abhor us, for thy Names sake do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us.

22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

CHAP. XV.

THen said the LORD unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my minde could not be toward this people, cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to passe, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD, Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will appoint over them four kindes, saith the LORD, the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy.

4 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Iudah, for that which he did in Ierusalem.

5 For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside to aske how thou doest?

6 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out mine hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am weary with repenting.

7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land: I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people, saith they return not from their ways.

8 Their widowes are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them against the mother of the young men, a spoiler at noonday; I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrours upon the city.

9 She that hath born seven, languisheth: she hath given up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day; she hath been ashamed and confounded, and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

10 Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast born me a man of strife, and a man of contention to the whole earth: I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury, yet every one of them doth curse me.

11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to intreat thee well in the time of evil, and in the time of affliction.

12 Shall iron break the northern iron, and the steel?

13 Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the spoil without price, & that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders.

14 And I will make thee to passe with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not: for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

15 ¶ O LORD, thou knowest, remember me, and visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy long-suffering: know that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke.

16 Thy words were found, and I did eat them, and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoyting of mine heart: for I am called by thy Name, O LORD God of hosts.

17 I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoyced: I sat alone, because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation.

18 Why is my pain perpetuall? and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me as a liar? and as waters that fail?

19 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD, if thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee, but return not thou unto them.

20 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brazen wall: and they shall fight against thee: but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee, to save thee, and to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

21 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

CHAP. XVI.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons nor daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons, & concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land:

4 They shall die of grievous deaths, they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried: but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth, and they shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, and their carcasse shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, & for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament, nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even loving kindnesse and mercies.

6 Both the great & the small shall die in this land, they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them.

7 Neither shall men rent themselves for them in mourning to comfort them for the dead, neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father, or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them, to eat and to drink:

9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your dayes, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladnesse, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law:

12 And ye have done worse than your fathers, (for behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me:)

13 Therefore will I cast you out of this land, into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers, and there shall ye serve other gods day and night, where I will not shew you favour.

14 ¶ Therefore behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

15 But, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land, that I gave unto their fathers.

16 ¶ Behold, I will send for many many fishers, saith § LORD, and they shall fish them: and after wil I send for many hunters, & they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of § rocks.

17 For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance & the carcases of their detestable and abominable things.

19 O LORD, my strength, and my fortresse, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit.

20 Shall a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods?

21 Therefore behold, I will this once cause them to know: I will cause them to know mine hand & my might, and they shall know § my name is the LORD.

CHAP. XVII.

The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond; it is graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars:

2 Whilest their children remember their altars, and their groves by the green trees upon the high hills.

3 O my mountain in the field, I will give thy substance, and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin throughout all thine borders.

4 And thou, even thy self, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD.

6 For he shall be like § heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh, but shall inhabit § parched places in § wilderness, in a salt land, & not inhabited.

7 Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is.

8 For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not fee when heat cometh: but her leaf shall be green, and shall not be careful in the yeer of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

9 ¶ The heart is deceitfull above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

10 I the LORD search § heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his dayes, and at his end shall be a fool.

12 ¶ A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O LORD, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they § depart from me shall be written in § earth, because they have forsaken § LORD, the fountain of living waters.

14 Heal me, O LORD, & I shall be healed: save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise.

15 ¶ Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now?

16 As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastour to follow thee, neither have I desired the wofull day, thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

17 Be not a terrour unto me, § art my hope in the day of evil.

18 Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.

19 ¶ Thus saith § LORD unto me, Go, and stand in the gate of § children of § people, whereby § kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem.

20 And say unto them Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

21 Thus saith the LORD Take heed to your selves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem.

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath-day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I cómanded your fathers.

23 But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

24 And it shall come to passe if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden thorow the gates of this city on the sabbath-day, but hallow the sabbath-day, to do no work therein;

25 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes, sitting upon the throne of David, riding in charets and on horses, they and their princes, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city shall remain for ever.

26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt-offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise unto ỹ house of ỹ LORD.

27 But if you will not hearken unto me, to hallow the sabbath-day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at ỹ gates of Jerusalem on ỹ sabbath-day, then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

CHAP. XVIII.

THE word ỹ came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Arise, and go down to the potters house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potters house, and behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

4 And the vessell that he made of clay, was marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter, saith the LORD? Behold, as the clay is in the potters hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, & concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it,

8 If that nation against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then will I repent of the good wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 ¶ Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD: Behold I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

12 And they said, There is no hope, but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things? the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters ỹ come from another place be forsaken?

15 Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burnt incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their waies from the ancient paths, to walk in paths in a way not cast up;

16 To make their land desolate, and a perpetuall hissing; every every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head.

17 I will scatter them as with an east winde before the enemy: I will shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

18 ¶ Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah: for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet: come and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

20 Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul: remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.

21 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword, and let their wives be bereaved of their children, & be widows, and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battell.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

23 Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsell against me to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight: but let them be overthrown before thee: deal thus with them in thy time of thine anger.

CHAP. XIX.

THus saith the LORD, Go and get a potters earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests;

2 And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclame there the words that I shall tell thee:

3 And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle.

4 Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burnt incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they, nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents:

5 They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt-offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind.

6 Therefore behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Topher, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter.

7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah & Jerusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

8 And I will make this city desolate, and an hissing: every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hisse, because of all the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons, & the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege, & straitnesse, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

10 Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee,

11 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Even so will I break this people, and this city, as one breaketh a potters vessel that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury them in Topher, till there be no place else to bury.

12 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make their city as Topher.

13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah shall be defiled as the place of Topher, because of all § houses upon whose roofs they have burnt incense unto all§host of heaven, and have poured out drink-offerings unto other gods.

14 Then came Jeremiah from Topher, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesie: and he stood in the court of § LORDS house, & said to all the people,

15 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring upon this city, and upon all her towns, all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.

CHAP. XX.

NOw Pashur the son of Immer the priest, who was also chief governour in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.

2 Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks, that were in § high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

3 And it came to passe on the morrow, § Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but Magor missabib.

4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terrour to thy self, and to all thy friends, and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it; and I will give all Judah into § hand of the king of Babylon, & he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them w§ § sword.

5 Moreover, I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

6 And thou, Pashur, & all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and § shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt dy, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies.

7 ¶ O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived: thou art stronger then I, and hast prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

8 For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoile, because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision daily.

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his Name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.

10 ¶ For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it: all my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shal prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.

11 But the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible one; therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed, for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

12 But, O LORD of hosts that triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I opened my cause.

13 Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD: for he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evil doers.

14 ¶ Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me, be blessed.

15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A man-child is born unto thee, making him very glad.

16 And let that man be as the cities which the LORD overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear the cry in § morning, and the shouting at noon-tide;

17 Because he slew me not from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me.

18 Wherefore came I forth out of the womb to see labour & sor-

…ses, that my dayes should be consumed with shame?

CHAP. XXI.

THe word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

2 Enquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us, (for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us) if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wonderous works, that he may go up from us.

3 ¶ Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

4 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Caldeans which besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

5 And I my self will fight against you, with an outstretched hand, and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

7 And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, & such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, & into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life, and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

8 ¶ And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I set before you the way of life, & the way of death.

9 He that abideth in this city, shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Caldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey.

10 For I have set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

11 ¶ And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD.

12 O house of David, thus saith the LORD, execute judgement in the morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressour, lest my fury go out like fire, & burn, that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

13 Behold, I am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the LORD, which say, Who shal come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?

14 But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it.

CHAP. XXII.

THus saith the LORD, Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, & thy servants, & thy people that enter in by these gates.

3 Thus saith the LORD, Execute ye judgement and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressour: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house, kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by my self, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the kings house of Judah, Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon; yet surely

I will

I will make thee a wildernesse, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons, and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.

8 And many nations shal passe by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

9 Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

10 ¶ Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him, but weep sore for him that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD touching Shallum the son of Iosiah king of Iudah, which reigned in stead of Iosiah his father, which went forth out of this place, He shall not return thither any more.

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 ¶ Wo unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousnes, and his chambers by wrong: that useth his neighbors service without wages, and giveth him not for his work:

14 That saith, I will build me a wide house, & large chambers, & cutteth him out windows, and it is ceiled with cedar, and painted with vermilion.

15 Shalt thou reign, because thou closest thy self in cedar? did not thy father eat & drink, & do judgement & justice, and then it was well with him?

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy, then it was well with him: was not this to know me, saith the LORD?

17 But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousnesse, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence to do it.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Iehoiakim the son of Iosiah king of Iudah, They shall not lament for him, saying, Ah, my brother, or, ah sister: they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah Lord, or, ah his glory.

19 He shall be buried with the buriall of an asse, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Ierusalem.

20 Go up to Lebanon, & cry, and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all thy lovers are destroyed.

21 I spake unto thee in thy prosperity: but thou saidst, I will not hear: this hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice.

22 The winde shall eat up all thy pastours, & thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickednesse.

23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the paines, as of a woman in travell?

24 As I live, saith the LORD, though Coniah the son of Iehoiakim king of Iudah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence.

25 And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Caldeans.

26 And I will cast thee out, & thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born, and there shall ye die.

27 But to the land whereunto they desire to return, thither shall they not return.

28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?

29 O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD:

30 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man childelesse, a man that shall not prosper in his dayes: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of Dauid, and ruling any more in Iudah.

CHAP.

CHAP. XXIII.

WO be unto the pastours that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture, saith the LORD.

2 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastours that feed my people, Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

3 And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countreys, whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds, & they shall be fruitfull, and increase.

4 And I will set up shepherds over them, which shal feed them, and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.

5 ¶ Behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous branch, and a king shal reign & prosper, and shal execute judgement and justice in the earth.

6 In his dayes Judah shalbe saved, & Israel shall dwell safely, and this is his Name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESSE.

7 Therefore behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt:

8 But, the LORD liveth, which brought up, and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north countrey, and from all countreys whither I had driven them, and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 ¶ Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets, all my bones shake: I am like a drunken man, (and like a man whom wine hath overcome) because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holinesse.

10 For the land is full of adulterers, for because of swearing the land mourneth, the pleasant places of ℣ wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For both prophet & priest are profane, yea, in my house have I found their wickednesse, saith the LORD.

12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darknesse: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the yeer of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria, they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to erre.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Ierusalem an horrible thing: they commit a fultery, & walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evil doers, that none doth return from his wickednesse: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets, Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, & make them drink ℣ water of gall: for from the prophets of Ierusalem is prophanenesse gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto ℣ words of the prophets that prophesie unto you; they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.

18 For who hath stood in the counsell of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a whirlwinde of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwinde, it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The anger of the LORD shall not return, untill he have executed, and till he have performed ℣ thoughts of his heart: in the latter dayes ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 I have not sent these prophets;

phets, yet they prophesied 22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.
23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God a far off?
24 Can any hide himself in secret places, that I shall not see him, saith the LORD? do not I fill heaven and earth, saith the LORD?
25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesie lies in my Name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.
26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesie lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;
27 Which think to cause my people to forget my Name by their dreams ℣ they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my Name for Baal.
28 The prophet ℣ hath a dream let him tell a dream; & he ℣ hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully: what is ℣ chaff to the wheat, saith the LORD?
29 Is not my word like as a fire, saith the LORD, and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?
30 Therefore behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my word every one from his neighbour.
31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, ℣ use their tongues, and say, He saith.
32 Behold, I am against them that prophesie false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them; therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.
33 ¶ And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will even forsake you,
saith the LORD.
34 And as for the prophet, & the priest, and the people that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house.
35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and what hath the LORD spoken?
36 And the burden of ℣ LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden: for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts, our God.
37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and what hath
the LORD spoken?
38 But sith ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD, Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, & I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD:
39 Therefore behold, even I, will utterly forget you, & I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you, and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence.
40 And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

CHAP. XXIIII.

THE LORD shewed me, and behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebu-chadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths from Jerusalem, & had brought them to Babylon.
2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, ℣ could not be eaten they were so bad.
3 Then said ℣ LORD unto me,
What seest thou, Jeremiah? and I said, Figs; ℣ good figs, very good;
and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten they are so evil.
4 ¶ Again, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Like these good figs

kings, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Caldeans for their good.

6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land, and I will build them, and not pull them down, and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD, and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

8 ¶ And as the evil figs which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; (surely thus saith ℣ LORD) so will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, & the residue of Jerusalem that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt.

9 And I will deliver them to be removed into all ℣ kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach, and a proverb, a taunt, and a curse in all places whither I shall drive them.

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence among them, till they be consumed from off ℣ land ℣ I gave unto them & to their fathers.

CHAP. XXV.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon;

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3 From the thirteenth yeer of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, (that is the three and twentieth yeer) the word of § LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking, but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early & sending them, but ye have not hearkened nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, & dwel in ℣ land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever & ever;

6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger ℣ the works of your hands, and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD, that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, to your own hurt.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Because ye have not heard my words;

9 Behold, I will send & take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchad-rezzar the king of Babylon my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, & will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover, I will take from them the voice of mirth, & the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, & ℣ voice of ℣ bride, the sound of ℣ mil-stones, and the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy yeers.

12 ¶ And it shall come to passe when seventy yeers are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Caldeans, and will make it perpetuall desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 For many nations & great kings shall serve themselves of them also; and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 ¶ For thus saith the LORD God

God of Israel unto me, Take the wine-cup of this fury at my hand, & cause all the nations to whom I send thee, to drink it.

16 And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the LORDS hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me:

18 To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; (as it is this day:)

19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people:

20 And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, & the remnant of Ashdod.

21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon:

22 And all the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the isle, which are beyond the sea:

23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all that are in the utmost corners:

24 And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people, that dwell in the desert:

25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes:

26 And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth; & the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink.

29 For lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my Name, and should ye utterly unpunished? ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

30 Therefore prophesie thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon his habitation; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the LORD hath a controversie with the nations; he will plead with all flesh; he will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD.

32 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

33 And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth, even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

34 ¶ Howl, ye shepherds, and cry, and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principall of the flock: for the days of your slaughter, and of your dispersions are accomplished, and ye shall fall like a pleasant vessel.

35 And the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principall of the flock to escape.

36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and an howling of the principall of the flock shall be heard: for the LORD hath spoiled their pasture.

37 And the peaceable habitations are cut down, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

38 He hath forsaken his covert, as the lion: for their land is desolate, because of the fierceness of the oppressour, and because of his fierce anger.

CHAP. XXVI.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, came this

...ord from the LORD, saying;
2 Thus saith the LORD. Stand
...the court of the LORDS house,
...d speak unto all the cities of
...dah, which come to worship
...the LORDS house, all the
...rds that I command thee to ...speak unto them: diminish
...a word;
3 If so be they will hearken,
...d turn every man from his
...d way, that I may repent me
...of the evil which I purpose to ...do unto them, because of the ...evil of their doings.
4 And thou shalt say unto
...m, Thus saith the LORD, If ...ye will not hearken to me, to ...walk in my law which I have ...set before you,
5 To hearken to the words of
...my servants the prophets, whom
...I send unto you, both rising up ...early, and sending them, (but ...ye have not hearkened:)
6 Then will I make this ...house like Shiloh, and will make
...this city a curse to all the nati...ons of the earth.
7 So the priests and the pro...phets, and all the people heard
...Jeremiah speaking these words
...in the house of the LORD.
8 ¶ Now it came to pass
...when Jeremiah had made an end
...of speaking all that the LORD had ...commanded him to speak unto all
...the people, that the priests, & the ...prophets, & all the people took
...him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.
9 Why hast thou prophesied
...in the Name of the LORD, say...ing, This house shall be like Shi-
...loh, & this city shall be desolate
...without an inhabitant? & all the ...people were gathered against Je...remiah in the house of the LORD.
10 ¶ When the princes of Ju...dah heard these things, then they ...came up from the kings house,
...into the house of the LORD, and
...sat down in the entry of the
...new gate of the LORDS house.
11 Then spake the priests and
...the prophets unto the princes,
...and to all the people, saying,
...This man is worthy to die;
...for he hath prophesied against
...this city, as ye have heard
...with your ears.
12 ¶ Then spake Jeremiah un...to all the princes, and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesie against this house, and against this city, all the words that ye have heard.
13 Therefore now amend your ways, and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.
14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as seemeth good and meet unto you.
15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon your selves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you, to speak all these words in your ears.
16 ¶ Then said the princes, and all the people unto the priests, and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the Name of the LORD our God.
17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, & spake to all the assembly of the people, saying 18 Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the daies of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying,
Thus saith the LORD of hosts;
Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house, as the high places of a forest.
19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah, and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear the LORD, and beseought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? thus might we procure great evil against our souls.
20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the Name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah, of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city, & against this land, according to all the words of Jeremiah.
21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, & all the princes heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt.
22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men

men into Egypt, namely 3 Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt.

23 And they set forth thence out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king, who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless, the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people, to put him to death.

CHAP. XXVII.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD to me, make thee bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck:

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem, unto Zedekiah king of Judah.

4 And command them to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say unto your masters:

5 I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground by my great power, and by my outstretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon my servant, and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

10 For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD, and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah, according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon; for they prophesy a lie unto you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesie a lie in my Name, that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye and the prophets that prophesie unto you.

16 Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hearken not to the words of your prophets, that prophesie unto you, saying, Behold the vessels of the LORD'S house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesie a lie unto you.

17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and of Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

4 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,

5 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah ‡ son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, & all the nobles of Judah & Jerusalem ;

6 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and of Jerusalem,

7 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be, until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD : then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

AND it came to passe the same yeer, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth yeer, and in the fifth moneth, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in ‡ house of ‡ LORD, in the presence of the priests, & of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon :

3 Within two full yeers will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORDS house, that Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, & carried them to Babylon

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith ‡ LORD; for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 ¶ Then ‡ prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah, in ‡ presence of ‡ priests, & in ‡ presence of all the people, that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen, the LORD do so : the LORD perform the words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORDS house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless, hear ‡ now this word that I speak in thine ears, & in the ears of all the people.

8 The prophets that have been before me, and before thee of old, prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took ‡ yoke from off ‡ prophet Jeremiahs neck, & brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full yeers : and the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, (after that Hananiah the prophet had broken ‡ yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah) saying,

13 Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast broken the yokes of wood, but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, & they shall serve him ; & I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 ¶ Then said ‡ prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah ‡ prophet, Hear now, Hananiah, the LORD hath not sent thee, but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth : this yeer thou shalt die, because thou thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD.

17 So Hananiah ¶ prophet died ¶ same year, in ¶ seventh moneth

CHAP. XXIX.

NOw these are ¶ words of the letter ¶ Jeremiah ¶ prophet sent from Jerusalem unto ¶ residue of ¶ elders which were carried away captives, & to ¶ priests, & to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon.

2 (After ¶ Jeconiah the king, & the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah & Jerusalem, & the carpenters, & the smiths were departed from Jerusalem;)

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying,

4 Thus saith ¶ LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captive, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon:

5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; & take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons & daughters, that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek the peace of the city, whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto ¶ LORD for in ¶ peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 ¶ For thus saith ¶ LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets & your diviners, be in ¶ midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 For they prophesie falsly unto you in my Name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

10 ¶ For thus saith ¶ LORD, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

12 Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

13 And ye shall seek me, and finde me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

14 And I will be found of you, saith the LORD, and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith ¶ LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 ¶ Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

16 Know that thus saith ¶ LORD, of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, & of all the people ¶ dwelleth in this city, & of your brethren ¶ are not gone forth with you into captivity;

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach among all the nations whither I have driven them.

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith LORD, which I sent unto them by my servants, ¶ prophets, rising up early, & sending them, but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.

20 ¶ Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon.

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah ¶ son of Maaseiah, which prophesie a lie unto you in my Name; behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall slay them before your eyes.

22 And of them shall be taken carries by all the captivity of ith & are in Babylon, saying, the LORD make thee like Zead, and like Ahab, whom the ng of Baby on roasted in ℣ fire because they have committ-villany in Israel, and have ntned adultery with their eighbours wives, and have ken lying words in my Name, ich I have not commanded m, even I know, and am a ness, saith the LORD.

¶ Thus shalt ℣ also speak to emaiah ℣ Nehelamite, saying, Thus speaketh ℣ LORD of s, God of Israel, saying, Bc-use ℣ hast sent letters in thy me unto all ℣ people ℣ are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the n of Maaseiah the priest, and all the priests, saying;

The LORD hath made priest in the stead of Jehoida the priest, that ye should be cers in the house of ℣ LORD, every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that should put him in priand in the stocks:

Now therefore why hast not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himself prophet to you?

For therefore he sent unto Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens and eat the fruit of them.

And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

Then came ℣ word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite, Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he hath caused you to trust in a lie:
Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD: because he hath taught rebellion against ℣ LORD.

CHAP. XXX.

The word ℣ came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD, God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For lo, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith ℣ LORD; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 ¶ And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel, and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD, We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travel with child?
wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travel, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 Alasse! that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacobs trouble: but he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith ℣ LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him.

9 But they shall serve ℣ LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

10 ¶ Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith ℣ LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for lo, I will save thee from afar, & thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD,
Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: ℣ hast no healing medicines.

14 All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee ℣ ℣ wound of an enemy, with ℣ chastisement
of

of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity : because thy sins were increased.

15 Why cryest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for ℣ multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee,

16 Therefore all they ℣ devour thee shall be devoured, & all thine adversaries every one of them shall go into captivity, and they that spoil thee, shall be a spoil ; and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD, because they called thee an outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after :

18 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacobs tents, & have mercy on his dwelling places : and ℣ city shall be builded upon her own heap, & the palace shall remain after ℣ manner thereof.

19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving, and the voice of them that make merry : and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few, I will also glorifie them, & they shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be as aforetime, & their congregation shall be established before me, & I will punish all ℣ oppressors them.

21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, & their governour shall proceed from the midst of them, and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me : for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me, saith the LORD.

22 And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

23 Behold, the whirlwinde of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwinde, it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The fierce anger of ℣ LORD shall not return, untill he have done it, & untill he have performed the intents of his heart : in ℣ latter dayes ye shall consider it

CHAP. XXXI.

AT the same time, saith the LORD, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, & they shall be my people.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword, found grace in the wilderness, even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest.

3 The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love : therefore with loving kindness have I drawn thee.

4 Again, I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel : thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

5 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria : the planters shall plant, and cause them as common things.

6 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.

7 For thus saith the LORD, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations : publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from ℣ coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child, & her ℣ travell with child, together, a great company shall return thither.

9 They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them : I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble : for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

10 ¶ Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.

11 For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, & flow together to the nesse of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden, and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then shall the virgin rejoyce in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoyce from their sorrow.

14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatnesse, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodnesse, saith the LORD.

15 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping, Rahel weeping for her children, refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD, and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 ¶ I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus, Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned: for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant childe? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up way-markes, make thee high heaps: set thine heart toward the high way, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 How long wilt thou go about, O thou back-sliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth: A woman shall compasse a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah, and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity, The LORD blesse thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holinesse.

24 And there shall dwell in Judah it self, and in all the cities thereof together husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld, and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 ¶ Behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I will sowe the house of Israel, and the house of Judah, with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to passe, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict: so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 In those dayes they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sowre grape, and the childrens teeth are set on edge.

30 But every one shall die for his own iniquity, every man that eateth the sowre grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 ¶ Behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand, to bring them out of the land of Egypt, which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD.

33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those dayes, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts, and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD, for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars, for a light by night, which divideth the sea, when the waves thereof roar; the LORD of hosts is his Name.

36 If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD, If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel, for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD, from the tower of Hananeel, unto the gate of the corner.

39 And the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compasse about to Goath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook of Kidron, unto the corner of the horse gate, towards the east, shall be holy unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.

CHAP. XXXII.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, in the tenth yeer of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth yeer of Nebuchad-rezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore doest thou prophesie, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it:

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Caldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes.

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Caldeans, ye shall not prosper.

6 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel mine uncles son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine, buy it for thy self. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel mine uncles son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 ¶ And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many dayes.

15 For thus saith the LORD of Gods the God of Israel, Houses, and fields, and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah, Lord GOD, behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee.

18 Thou shewest loving kindnesse unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the great, the mighty God, the LORD of hosts is his Name?

19 Great in counsell, & mighty in work, (for thine eyes are open upon all the wayes of the sons of men, to give every one according to his wayes, and according to the fruit of his doings)

20 Which hast set signes and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and amongst other men, & hast made thee a Name as at this day;

21 And hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt, with signes, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with great terrour;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst sweare to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk & honey.

23 And they came in and possessed it, but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them.

24 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it, and the city is given into the hand of the Caldeans that fight against it, because of the sword, & of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to passe, and behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses: for the city is given into the hand of the Caldeans.

26 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Caldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it.

29 And the Caldeans that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel, and the children of Judah have onely done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have onely provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

31 For this city hath been to me as a provocation of mine anger, and of my fury, from the day that they built it, even unto this day: that I should remove it from before my face:

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel, and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the back, & not the face: though I taught them, rising up early, and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction,

34 But they set their abominations in the house (which is called by my Name) to defile it:

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to passe through the fire unto Molech, & I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 ¶ And now therefore, thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence:

37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countreys whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath, and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely.

38 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them.

40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good, but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

41 Yea, I will rejoyce over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly, with my whole heart, and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the LORD, Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate, without man or beast, it is given into the hand of the Caldeans.

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XXXIII.

MOreover the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, (while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison,) saying;

2 Thus saith the LORD, the maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to establish it, the LORD is his Name;

3 Call unto me and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword;

5 They come to fight with the Caldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger, and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah, and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them as at the first.

8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me: and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned against me, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 ¶ And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise & an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble, for all the goodness, and for all the prosperity that I procure it.

10 Thus saith the LORD, Again there shall be heard in this place (which ye say shall be desolate without man, and without beast) even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast)

11 The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, Praise the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD; for I will cause to return the captivity of the land as at the first, saith the LORD.

12 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Again in this place which is desolate without man, and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

17 In the cities of the mountains in the cities of the valey & in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks passe again under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

14 Behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

15 In those dayes & at that time, will I cause the branch of righteousnes to grow up unto David, & he shal execute judgement & righteousnes in the land.

16 In those dayes shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: & this is the Name wherewith she shall be called The LORD our righteousnesse.

17 For thus saith the LORD, David shal never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel.

18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat-offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD, If you can break my covenant of the day, & my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season:

21 Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; & with the Levites the priests, my ministers.

22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

23 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the LORD, If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven & earth:

26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, & David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, & Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babylon and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people fought against Jerusalem, & against all the cities thereof, saying

2 Thus saith the LORD the God of Israel, Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand, and thine eyes shal behold the king of Babylon, & he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 But thou shalt die in peace, and with the burnings of thy fathers the former kings, which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee, and they will lament thee, saying, ah Lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem;

7 When the king of Babylons army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah, that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclame liberty unto them;

9 That every man should let his man-servant, and every man his maid-servant, being an

Hebrew, or an Hebrewesse, go free; that none should serve himself on them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes and all the people which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his man-servant, and every one his maid-servant go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more: then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants, and for handmaids.

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD the God of Israel, I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying,

14 At the end of seven years, let ye go every man his brother, an Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee: and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour, & ye had made a covenant before me in ‡ house ‡ is called by my Name.

16 But ye turned & polluted my Name, & caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had let at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants, and for handmaids.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Ye have not hearkened unto me in proclaiming liberty every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclame a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine, and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of ‡ covenant which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twain, & passed between ‡ parts thereof,

19 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land ‡ passed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: & their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and into the hand of the king of Babylons army, which are gone up from you.

22 Behold, I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city, and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

CHAP. XXXV.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the dayes of Jehoiakim ‡ son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Go unto the house of ‡ Rechabites, & speak unto them, and bring them into ‡ house of the LORD, into one of ‡ chambers, and give them wine to drink.

3 Then I took Jaazaniah ‡ son of Jeremiah, ‡ son of Habazziniah, & his brethren, & all his sons, & ‡ whole house of ‡ Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of ‡ LORD, into ‡ chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of ‡ door:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of ‡ Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine, for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shal ye build house, nor sowe seed, nor plant vine-yard, nor have any: but all your dayes ye shall dwel in tents, that ye may live many dayes in the land where ye be strangers.
8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father, in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our dayes, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters:
9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in, neither have we vineyards, nor field, nor seed.
10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.
11 But it came to passe when Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come & let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Caldeans, & for fear of the army of Syrians: so we dwel at Jerusalem.
12 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,
13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Go, and tell the men of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words, saith the LORD?
14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their fathers commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early, and speaking, but ye hearkened not unto me:
15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early, & sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, & amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwel in the land which I have given to you, and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ears, nor hearkened unto me.
16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them, but this people hath not hearkened unto me:
17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard, & I have called unto them, but they have not answered.
18 ¶ And Jeremiah said unto the house of Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:
19 Therfore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

CHAP. XXXVI.

AND it came to passe in the fourth yeer of Jehoiakim the son of Iosiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
2 Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the dayes of Iosiah, even unto this day.
3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them, that they may return every man from his evil way, that I may forgive their iniquity & their sin.
4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.
5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up, I cannot go into the house of the LORD:
6 Therefore go thou and read in the roll which thou hast writ ten from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people, in the LORDS house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah, that come out of their cities.
7 It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD: and will return every one frō his evil way: for great is the anger & fury ſ the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch ſ ſon of Neriah did according to all ſ Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book ſ words of the LORD in the LORDS house.

9 And it came to paſs in ſ fifth yeer of Jehoiakim the ſon of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth moneth, that they proclamed a faſt before LORD, to all ſ people in Jeruſalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jeruſalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah, in the houſe of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the ſon of Shaphan the ſcribe, in the higher court at the entry of the new gate of the LORDS houſe, in the ears of all the people.

11 ¶ When Michaiah the ſon of Gemariah the ſon of Shaphan had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD:

12 Then he went down into the kings houſe, into the ſcribes chamber, and lo, all the princes ſat there, even Eliſhama the ſcribe, and Delaiah the ſon of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the ſon of Achbor, & Gemariah the ſon of Shaphan, and Zedekiah ſ ſon of Hananiah, and all ſ princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in ſ ears of ſ people.

14 Therefore all the princes ſent Jehudi the ſon of Nethaniah, the ſon of Shelemiah, the ſon of Cuſhi, unto Baruch, ſaying, Take in thine hand ſ roll wherin thou haſt read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the ſon of Neriah took ſ roll in his hand and came unto them.

15 And they ſaid unto him, Sit down now, & read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to paſs, when they had heard all ſ words, they were afraid both one and other, and ſaid unto Baruch, We will ſurely tell ſ king of all theſe words

17 And they aſked Baruch, ſaying, Tell us now, How didſt thou write all theſe words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch anſwered them, He pronounded all theſe words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then ſaid the princes unto Baruch, Go hide thee, thou and Jeremiah, and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into ſ court, but they laid up the roll in ſ chamber of Eliſhama the ſcribe, & told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king ſent Jehudi to fet the roll, and he took it out of Eliſhama ſ ſcribes chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in ſ ears of all the princes, ſ ſtood beſide the king.

22 Now ſ king ſat in ſ winter houſe in the ninth moneth: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to paſs, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and caſt it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was conſumed in the fire that was on ſ hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his ſervants that heard all theſe words.

25 Nevertheleſſe, Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made interceſſion to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the ſon of Hammelech, and Seraiah the ſon of Azriel, and Shelemiah the ſon of Abdiel, to take Baruch ſ ſcribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah (after that the king had burnt the roll and ſ words ẅ Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah) ſaying,

28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the firſt roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burnt:

29 And thou ſhalt ſay to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus ſaith the LORD, Thou haſt burnt this roll, ſaying, Why haſt thou written therein, ſaying, The king of Babylon ſhall certainly come and deſtroy this land, and ſhall cauſe to ceaſe from thence man and beaſt?

30 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He ſhal have none to ſit upon the throne of David: & his dead body ſhall be caſt out in the day to the heat, & in the night to the froſt.

31 And I will puniſh him and his ſeed: and his ſervants for their iniquity: and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jeruſalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced againſt them: but they hearkened not.

32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the ſcribe, the ſon of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burnt in the fire: and there were added beſides unto them many like words.

CHAP. XXXVII.

AND king Zedekiah the ſon of Joſiah reigned in ſtead of Coniah the ſon of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

2 But neither he, nor his ſervants, nor the people of the land did hearken unto the words of the Lord, which he ſpake by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king ſent Jehucal the ſon of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the ſon of Maaſeiah the prieſt, to the prophet Jeremiah, ſaying, Pray now unto the Lord our God for us.

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into priſon.

5 Then Pharaohs army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Caldeans that beſieged Jeruſalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jeruſalem.

6 Then came the word of the Lord unto the prophet Jeremiah, ſaying,

7 Thus ſaith the Lord the God of Iſrael: Thus ſhall ye ſay to the king of Judah, that ſent you unto me to enquire of me; Behold, Pharaohs army which is come forth to help you, ſhall return to Egypt into their own land.

8 And the Caldeans ſhal come again and fight againſt this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus ſaith the Lord, Deceive not your ſelves, ſaying, The Caldeans ſhal ſurely depart from us: for they ſhal not depart.

10 For though ye had ſmitten the whole army of the Caldeans that fight againſt you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet ſhould they riſe up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 And it came to paſſe that when the army of the Caldeans was broken up from Jeruſalem for fear of Pharaohs army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jeruſalem, to go into the land of Benjamin, to ſeparate himſelf thence in the midſt of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whoſe name was Irijah, the ſon of Shelemiah, the ſon of Hananiah, and he took Jeremiah the prophet, ſaying, Thou falleſt away to the Caldeans.

14 Then ſaid Jeremiah, It is falſe, I fall not away to the Caldeans: but he hearkened not to him: ſo Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and ſmote him, & put him in priſon, in the houſe of Jonathan the ſcribe: for they had made that the priſon.

16 When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many dayes:

17 Then Zedekiah the king ſent, and took him out: and the king aſked him ſecretly in his houſe, and ſaid, Is there any word from the Lord? And Jeremiah ſaid, There is; for, ſaid he, thou ſhalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover Jeremiah ſaid unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended againſt thee, or againſt thy ſervants, or againſt this people, that ye have put me in priſon,

19 Where are now your prophets, which propheſied unto you, ſaying, The king of Babylon ſhall not come againſt you, nor againſt this land?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee, ¶ thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan ¶ scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded ¶ they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

Then Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah heard ¶ words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this city, shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he that goeth forth to the Caldeans shall live: for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylons army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war ¶ remain in this city, and ¶ hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not ¶ welfare of this people, but ¶ hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah ¶ son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in ¶ dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 ¶ Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian one of ¶ eunuchs which was in the kings house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin)

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the kings house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of ¶ king under the armoury, and took thence old cast clouts, and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech ¶ Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts, old rotten rags under thine arm-holes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of ¶ dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in ¶ court of the prison.

14 ¶ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt ¶ not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt ¶ not hearken unto me?

16 So the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men ¶ seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou will assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylons princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire, and thou shalt live, and thine house.

18 But if ¶ will not go forth to the king of Babylons princes, then shall this city be given in to the hand of the Caldeans, and they shal burn it w fire: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Caldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee: obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me.

22 And behold, all the women that are left in ℣ king of Judahs house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon, princes, and those women shall say, They friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives, and thy children to the Caldeans, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burnt w fire.

24 ¶ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and ℣ shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king; hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathans house, to die there.

27 Then came all ℣ princes unto Jeremiah, & asked him: & he told them according to all these words. ℣ king had commanded: so they left off speaking w him, for ℣ matter was not perceived.

28 So Jeremiah abode in the court of ℣ prison, until ℣ day ℣ Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

CHAP. XXXIX.

IN the ninth yeer of Zedekiah ℣ king of Judah, in the tenth moneth came Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon, and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

2 And in the eleventh yeer of Zedekiah, in ℣ fourth moneth, the ninth day of the moneth, the city was broken up.

3 And all ℣ princes of ℣ king of Babylon came and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-Sharezer, Samgar Nebo-Sarsechim, Rabsaris, Nergal-Sharezer, Rabmag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah ℣ king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, & went forth out of ℣ city by night, by ℣ way of ℣ kings garden, by the gate betwixt ℣ two walls: & he went out the way of ℣ plain.

5 But the Caldeans army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in ℣ plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in ℣ land of Hamath, where he gave judgement upon him.

6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover, he put out Zedekiahs eyes, and bound him with chains to carry him to Babylon.

8 ¶ And the Caldeans burnt the kings house, and the houses of the people with fire, & brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people ℣ remained.

10 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

11 ¶ Now Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan ℣ captain of ℣ guard, saying,

12 Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm, but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee.

17 So Nebuzaradan ℣ captain of the guard sent and Nebushasban, Rabsaris, and Nergal-Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the king of Babylons princes:

14 Even they sent and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, & committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

15 ℣ Now the word of ℣ LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

16 Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, ℣ God of Israel, Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good, and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

17 But I will deliver thee in ℣ day, saith ℣ LORD, & thou shalt not be given into ℣ hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.

18 For I will surely deliver thee, and ℣ shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee, because ℣ hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XL.

THE word ℣ came to Jeremiah from ℣ LORD after that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let let him go from Ramath, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all ℣ were carried away captive of Jerusalem & Judah, ℣ were carried away captive unto Babylon.

2 And the captain of ℣ guard took Jeremiah & said unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

3 Now ℣ LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand: if it seem good unto thee to come ℣ me into Babylon, come, and I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon forbear: behold, all ℣ land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

5 Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governour over all the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah ℣ son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people ℣ were left in ℣ land.

7 ℣ Now when all the captains of ℣ forces ℣ were in the fields, even they and their men heard that ℣ king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governour in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, & children, & of ℣ poor of ℣ land, of them ℣ were not carried away captive to Babylon:

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them & to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Caldeans: dwel in the land, & serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah to serve the Caldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, & summer-fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, & among the Ammonites, & in Edom, & ℣ were in all ℣ countreys, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, & he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah unto Mi-

Mizpah and gathered wine and summer-fruits very much.

13 ¶ Moreover Johanan & ſon of Kareah, & all the captains of the forces & were in the field, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And ſaid unto him, Doeſt thou certainly know & Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath ſent Ishmael the ſon of Nethaniah to ſlay thee? but Gedaliah the ſon of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the ſon of Kareah ſpake to Gedaliah in Mizpah ſecretly, ſaying, Let me go, I pray thee, & I will ſlay Ishmael the ſon of Nethaniah, & no man ſhall know it. Wherefore ſhould he ſlay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee ſhould be ſcattered, and the remnant in Judah periſh?

16 But Gedaliah the ſon of Ahikam ſaid unto Johanan the ſon of Kareah, Thou ſhalt not do this thing, for thou ſpeakeſt falſly of Ishmael.

CHAP. XLI.

NOw it came to paſſe in the ſeventh moneth, that Ishmael the ſon of Nethaniah, the ſon of Elishamah, of the ſeed royall, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the ſon of Ahikam to Mizpah, and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then aroſe Ishmael the ſon of Nethaniah, & the ten men that were & him, & ſmote Gedaliah the ſon of Ahikam, the ſon of Shaphan, & the ſword, and ſlew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governour over & land.

3 Ishmael alſo ſlew all & Jews & were & him, even & Gedaliah at Mizpah, & & Caldeans & were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to paſſe the ſecond day after he had ſlain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

5 That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, & from Samaria, even fourſcore men, having their beards ſhaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themſelves, & offerings and incenſe in their hands, to bring them to the houſe of the LORD.

6 And Ishmael the ſon of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: & it came to paſs as he met them, he ſaid unto them, Come to Gedaliah ſon of Ahikam.

7 And it was ſo when they came into the midſt of the city, that Ishmael the ſon of Nethaniah ſlew them and caſt them into the midſt of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them, that ſaid unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treaſures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey: ſo he forbare, and ſlew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had caſt all the dead bodies of the men (whom he had ſlain becauſe of Gedaliah) was it which Aſa the king had made for feare of Baaſha king of Iſrael: and Ishmael the ſon of Nethaniah filled it with them that were ſlain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the reſidue of the people, & were in Mizpah, even the kings daughters, & all & people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan & captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah & ſon of Ahikam, & Ishmael & ſon of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

11 ¶ But when Johanan the ſon of Kareah, & all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the ſon of Nethaniah had done,

12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the ſon of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to paſſe, that when all the people which were with Ishmael ſaw Johanan the ſon of Kareah, & all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael carried away captive from Mizpah, caſt about and returned, and went unto Johanan the ſon of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael & ſon of Nethaniah eſcaped fro Johanan & eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then took Johanan the ſon of Kareah, & all the captains of the forces that were with him, all all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, (after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam) even mighty men of war, and the women, & the children, and the eunuchs whom he had brought again from Gibeon.

17 And they departed, and dwelt in ℣ habitation of Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt, 18 Because of the Caldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah ℣ son of Ahikam, whom ℣ king of Babylon had made governor in the land.

CHAP. XLII.

THen all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came neer,

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant: (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us)

3 That the LORD thy God may shew us the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do.

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words, and it shall come to pass, that whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will keep nothing back from you.

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithfull witnesse between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us.

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee, ℣ it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

7 ¶ And it came to passe after ten dayes, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.

8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, & all ℣ captains of the forces, which were with him, and all the people, from the least even to the greatest,

9 And said unto them, Thus saith ℣ LORD, ℣ God of Israel, unto whō ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

10 If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you: for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

12 And I will shew mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, & cause you to return to your own land.

13 ¶ But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of ℣ LORD your God,

14 Saying, No, but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no warr, nor heare the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread, and there will we dwell.

15 (And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there:)

16 Then it shall come to passe, that the sword which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you in Egypt, and there ye shall die.

17 So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt, to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.

18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As mine anger and my fury have been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem: so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be an execration and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach, and ye shall see this place no more.

19 ¶ The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Iudah, Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly, that I have admonished you this day.

20 For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto § LORD your God, & according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, & we will do it.

21 And now I have this day declared it to you, but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you.

22 Now therefore know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go, and to sojourn.

CHAP. XLIII.

AND it came to passe, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people, all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words;

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, & all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsly: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there.

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Caldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, & all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Iudah.

5 But Johanan § son of Kareah, and all § captains of the forces took all the remnant of Iudah, that were returned from all nations whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Iudah.

6 Even men, and women, and children, and the kings daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, & Baruch § son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD, thus came they even to Tahpanhes.

8 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln, which is at the entry of Pharaohs house, in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Iudah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will send and take Nebuchad-rezzar the king of Babylon my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid, and he shall spread his royall pavilion over them.

11 And when he cometh, he shall smite § land of Egypt, and deliver such as are for death, to death: and such as are for captivity, to captivity: and such as are for § sword, to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt, and he shall burn them, & carry them away captives, and he shall array himself, § land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment, and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

13 He shall break also the images of Bethshemesh, that is in the land of Egypt, and the house of the gods of § Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

CHAP. XLIII.

THe word that came to Jeremiah concerning all § Iews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, § God of Israel, Ye have seen all § evil § I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Iudah: and behold, this this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein,

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed, to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods whom they knew not, neither they, you, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit, I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early, & sending them, saying, Oh do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore my fury & mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, and they are wasted, and desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, childe and suckling out of Judah, to leave you none to remain:

8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut your selves off, and that ye might be a curse, and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes that I set before you, & before your fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt, to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt: they shall even be consumed by the sword, and by the famine they shall die, from [illegible] even unto the greatest, by the sword, & by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence;

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return to the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there; for none shall return, but such as shall escape.

15 ¶ Then all the men which knew that their wives had burnt incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword, & by the famine.

19 And when we burnt incense to the queen of heaven, & poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, & pour out drink offerings unto her without our men?

all the peoples, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying;

21 The incense that ye burnt in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye & your fathers, your kings, & your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed: therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

23 Because ye have burnt incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies: therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women; Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt.

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying; We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt, Behold, I have sworn by my great Name, saith the LORD, that my Name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah, in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord GOD liveth.

27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good, and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword, and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet a small number that escape the sword, shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah: and all the remnant of Judah that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine or theirs.

29 ¶ And this shall be a signe unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know my words shall surely stand against you for evil.

30 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give Pharaoh-Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, & into the hand of them that seek his life, as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon his enemy, and that sought his life.

CHAP. XLV.

THe word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the sonne of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth yeer of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch,

3 Thou didst say, Wo is me now, for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow, I fainted in my sighing, and I finde no rest.

4 ¶ Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus, Behold, that which I have built, will I break down, & that which I have planted, I will pluck up, even this whole land:

5 And seekest thou great things for thy self? seek them not: for behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

CHAP. XLVI.

THe word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet, against the Gentiles,

2 Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh-Necho, king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth yeer of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah:

3 Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw neer to battell.

4 Harnesse the horses, and get up, up, ye horsmen, and stand forth with your helmets, furbish the speares, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed, and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for fear was round about, saith the LORD.

6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall stumble and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city, and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses, & rage ye charets, and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians, and the Lybians that handle the shield, and the Lydians that handle, and bend the bow.

10 For this is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour, & it shall be satiate, & made drunk with their blood: for the Lord GOD of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north countrey by the river Euphrates.

11 Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for thou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 ¶ The word the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes, say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them.

16 He made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed by the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, whose Name is the LORD of hosts, Surely, as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

19 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, furnish thy self to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her, like fatted calves; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, & come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith, Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all those that trust in him.

26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants, and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD.

27 ¶ But fear not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for behold, I will save thee from afar off, from the land of their ivity, and Jacob shall reand be in rest and at ease, none shall make him afraid.

Fear thou not, O Jacob my ant, saith the LORD, for I with thee: for I will make a end of all the nations whi-I have driven thee, but I not make a full end of
, but correct thee in mea-yet will I not leave thee
ly unpunished.

CHAP. XLVII.

The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

Thus saith the LORD, Beholdwaters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land and all that is therein, the city, & them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, & all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.
3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands.

4 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of the country of Caphtor.
5 Baldness is come upon Gaza, Ashkelon is cut off, with the remnant of their valley: how long will thou cut thy self?

6 O thou sword of the LORD, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? put up thy self into thy scabbard, rest and be still.
7 How can it be quiet, seeing the LORD hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea-shore? there hath he appointed it.

CHAP. XLVIII.

Against Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Woe unto Nebo, for it is spoiled; Kirjathaim is confounded and taken, Misgab is confounded and dismayed.
2 There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation; also thou shalt be cut down, O Madmen, the sword shall pursue thee.

3 A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Moab is destroyed, her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 For in the going up of Luhith continual weeping shall go up: for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness.

7 ¶ For because thou hast trusted in thy works, and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken, and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together.

8 And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shal escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.

9 Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

10 Cursed be he that doth the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 ¶ Moab hath been at ease from his youth, & he hath setled on his lees, & hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, & his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence.

14 ¶ How say ye, We are mighty and strong men for the war?

15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose Name is LORD of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab is neer

neer to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye ¶ are about him, bemoan him; & all ye ¶ know his name, say, How is ¶ strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

18 Thou daughter that doest inhabit Dibon, come down from thy glory, & sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shal come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

19 O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and espie, ask him that fleeth, & her that escapeth, and say, What is done?

20 Moab is confounded, for it is broken down: howl and cry, tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled.

21 And judgement is come upon the plain country, upon Holon, & upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath,

22 And upon Dibon, & upon Nebo, & upon Beth-diblathaim,

23 And upon Kirjathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon,

24 And upon Kerioth, & upon Bozrah, & upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or neer.

25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, saith the LORD.

26 ¶ Make ye him drunken: for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

27 For was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among theeves? for since thou spakest of him, thou skippedst for joy.

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwel in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the holes mouth.

29 We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftinesse, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtinesse of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD, but it shall not be so, his lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab, mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.

32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer; thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer, the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer-fruit and upon thy vintage.

33 And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab, and I have caused wine to fail from the wine-presses; none shall tread with shouting, their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice; from Zoar, even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three yeers old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate.

35 Moreover, I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shal sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because the riches that he hath gotten is perished.

37 For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shal be lamentation generally upon all ¶ house-tops of Moab, & in ¶ streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel, wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back ¶ ashamed! so shall Moab be a derision, and a dismaying to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shal spread his wings over Moab.

41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprized, and the mighty mens hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 And Moab shal be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD.

43 Feer, and the pit, and the snare shall be upon thee, O inhabitant mat of Moab, saith ℣ LORD.

44 He that fleeth from the ear, shall fall into the pit, & he at getteth up out of ℣ pit, shal e taken in the snare: for I will ring upon it, even upon Moab, e year of their visitation, saith e LORD.
45 They that fled, stood under e shadow of Heshbon, because of e force: but a fire shal come forth om out of Heshbon, & a flame from ℣ dst of Sihon, & shall devour ℣ rner of Moab, & the crown of e head of ℣ tumultuous ones.
46 Woe unto thee, O Moab, e people of Chemosh perish:
r thy sons are taken cap-ve, and thy daughters captives to captivity of Moab in the latter ys, saith the LORD. Thus far e the judgement of Moab.

CHAP. XLIX.

Concerning the Ammonites,
Thus saith the LORD, Hath rael no sons? hath he no heir?
y then doth their king inheit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?
2 Therefore behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I ll cause an alarm of war to ar in Rabbah of the Am-onites, and it shall be a deso-te heap, and her daughters shal burnt with fire: then shall rael be heir unto them that re his heirs, saith the LORD.
3 Howl O Heshbon, for Ai is olled; cry ye daughters of abbah, gird ye with sackcloth:
ament, and run to and fro by e hedges: for their king shall o into captivity: and his priests d his princes together.
4 Wherefore glorieſt thou in e valleys, thy flowing valley, backsliding daughter? that usted in her treasures, saying, ho shall come unto me?
5 Behold, I will bring a fear on thee, saith the Lord GOD hosts, from all those that be out thee, and ye shal be driven ery man right forth, and one shall gather up him that anndereth.
6 And afterward I will bring ain the captivity of the child-n of Ammon, saith the LORD.
7 ¶ Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts, Is wiſdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wiſdom vaniſhed?
8 Flee ye, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan:
for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.
9 If grape gatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if theeves by night, they will destroy till they have enough.
10 But I have made Esau bare,
I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not.
11 Leave thy fatherleſs children, I will preſerve them alive:
and let thy widows truſt in me.
12 For thus saith the LORD,
Behold, they whoſe judgement was not to drink of ℣ cup, have aſſuredly drunken; & art ℣ he that shall altogether go unpuniſhed?
thou shalt not go unpuniſhed, but thou shalt surely drink of it.
13 For I have sworn by my ſelf, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waſte, and a curſe, and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.
14 I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an embaſſa-dour is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and riſe up to the battel.
15 For lo, I will make thee ſmall among the heathen, and deſpiſed among men.
16 Thy terribleneſs hath deceived thee, and ℣ pride of thine heart, O thou ℣ dwelleſt in the clefts of the rock, ℣ holdeſt the height of the hill: though thou shouldeſt make thy neſt as high as ℣ eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.
17 Alſo Edom shall be a deſolation, every one that goeth by it shall be aſtoniſhed, and shall hiſs at all the plagues thereof.
18 As in the overthrow of Sodom & Gomorrah, & ℣ neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither ſhall a ſon of man dwell in it.
19 Behold,

19 Behold, he shall come up as a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry, the noise thereof was heard in the Red sea.

22 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 ¶ Concerning Damascus, Hamath is confounded, and Arpad, for they have heard evil tidings: they are faint-hearted; there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

25 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Benhadad.

28 ¶ Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east.

29 Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels, and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side.

30 ¶ Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD, for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

31 Arise, get you up unto the wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone.

32 And their camels shall become a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil, and I will scatter into all winds them that are in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

33 And Hazor shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

34 ¶ The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, 35 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.

36 And upon Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation, whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come.

37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life: and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith the LORD; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them.

38 And I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD.

39 ¶ But it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD.

CHAP. L.

THE word that the LORD spake against Babylon, and against the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, mages are broken in pieces.

For out of the north there ch up a nation against her, hall make her land deso-none shall dwell there-they shall remove, they shall both man and beast.
In those days, and in the
with the LORD, the chilof Israel shall come, they,
the children of Judah toge-going & weeping: they shall seek the LORD their God
They shall ask the way to with their faces thither-saying, Come, and let us ourselves to the LORD, perpetual covenant that
not be forgotten.
My people hath been lost their shepherds have them to go astray, they turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their resting place.
All that found them have de-them, and their adversasaid, We offend not, because have sinned against the LORD, habitation of justice, even the hope of their fathers.
Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Caldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.
For lo, I will raise & cause to come up against Babylon, an assembly of great nations from the north country, and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence they shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain.
And Caldea shall be a spoil:
all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.
Because ye were glad, because ye rejoyced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls:
Your mother shall be sore confounded, she which bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hinder-most of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.
Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate:
every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.
Put your selves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD.
Shout against her round about: she hath given her hand:
her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is the vengeance of the LORD:
take vengeance upon her: as she hath done, do unto her.
Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest:
for fear of the oppressing sword, they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.
¶ Israel is a scattered sheep;
the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him, and last this Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.
Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon, & his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.
And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel & Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.
In those dayes, & in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; & the sins of Judah, & they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve.
Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod:
waste, and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded thee.
A sound of battel is in the land, and of great destruction.
How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder & broken? how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations?
I have laid a snare for thee, & thou art also taken, O Babylon, & thou wast not aware: thou art found, & also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.
The LORD hath opened
his

his armory, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts, in the land of the Caldeans.

26 Come against her from the utmost border, open her storehouses: cast her up as heaps, & destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her bullocks: let them go down to slaughter; wo unto them, for their day is come, the time of their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee & escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bowe, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work, according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O most proud, saith the Lord GOD of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The children of Israel, and the children of Judah, were oppressed together, and all that took them captives, held them fast, they refused to let them go.

34 Their redeemer is strong, the LORD of hosts is his Name, he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 ¶ A sword is upon the Caldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men.

36 A sword is upon the liars, and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men, and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her, and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures, and they shall be robbed.

38 A drought is upon her waters, and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

39 Therefore the wild beasts of the desert, with the wild beasts of the islands dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: and it shall be inhabited for ever: neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, & the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 They shall hold the bow and the lance: they are cruel, and will not shew mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they ride upon horses, every one put in array like a man of war, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan, unto the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make them run away from him: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me, and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

45 Therefore hear ye the counsel of the LORD that he hath taken against Babylon, & his purposes that he hath purposed against the land of the Caldeans: surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

for the noise of the taking Babylon the earth is moved, the cry is heard among nations.

CHAP. LI.

Thus saith the LORD, Behold,
I will raise up against Baby-and against them that dwell the midst of them that rise up gainst me a destroying winde;
And will send unto Babylon ers that shall fan her, and all empty her land: for in day of trouble they shall against her round about.
Against him that bendeth his archer bend his bowe, and gainst him that lifteth himself up his brigandine: and spare ye her young men, destroy ye utterly all her host.
Thus the slain shal fall in the land of the Caldeans, & they that are thrust thorow in her streets.
For Israel hath not been forsaken nor Judah of his God, the LORD of hosts: though their land was filled with sin against the holy One of Israel.
Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his life: be not cut off in her iniquity: for this is the time of the LORDS vengeance: he will render unto her a recompence.
Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORDS hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine, therefore the nations are mad.
Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her;
take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.
We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgement reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.
The LORD hath brought forth our righteousnesse: come and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.
Make bright the arrowes:
gather the shields: the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchman, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised, and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.
13 O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousnesse.
14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillers; and they shall lift up a shout against thee.
15 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.
16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth, he maketh lightnings with rain, & bringeth forth the winde out of his treasures.
17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image:
for his molten image is falshood, and there is no breath in them.
18 They are vanity, the work of errours: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.
19 The portion of Jacob is not like them, for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his Name.
20 Thou art my battle-axe, and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms.
21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider;
and with thee will I break in pieces the charet and his rider:
22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman, and with thee will I break in pieces old and young, and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid.
23 I will also break in pieces with thee shepherd & his flocks,
and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman, & his yoke of oxen: & with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 And I will render unto Babylon, and to all the inhabitants of Caldea, all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth; and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain.

26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD.

27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations: prepare the nations against her: call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz: appoint a captain against her; cause her horses to come up as the rough caterpillers.

28 Prepare against her the nations with the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborn to fight: they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burnt their dwelling places: her bars are broken.

31 One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end.

32 And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burnt with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, The daughter of Babylon is like a threshingfloor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.

34 Nebuchad-rezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me; he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Caldea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee, and I will drie up her sea, and make her springs dry.

37 And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling place for dragons, an astonishment and an hissing, without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions; they shall yell as lions whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.

41 How is Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprized! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man passe thereby.

44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up, and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him, yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore behold the days come, that I will do judgement the graven images of Babylon, and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then the heaven and the earth and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.
49 As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall; so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the earth.
50 Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.
51 We are confounded, because we have heard reproach; shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORDS house.
52 Wherefore behold, the dayes
come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgement upon her graven images, and through all her land the wounded shall groan.
53 Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortifie the height of her strength yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.
54 A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans.
55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered.
56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bowes is broken, for the LORD God of recom-pences shall surely requite.
57 And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men, and they shall sleep a perpetuall sleep, and not awake, saith the King, whose Name is
the LORD of hosts.
58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, & her high gates shall be burnt with fire, and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary.

59 ¶ The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah, the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon, in the fourth yeer of his reign: and this Seraiah was a quiet prince.
60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon: even all these words that are written against Babylon.
61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words:
62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever.
63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt binde a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates.
64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

CHAP. LII.

ZEdekiah was one and twenty yeer old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven yeers in Jerusalem, and his mothers name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.
2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD according to all that Jehoiakim had done.
3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to passe in Jerusalem, and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.
4 ¶ And it came to passe in the ninth yeer of his reign, in the tenth moneth, in the tenth day of the moneth, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.
5 So the city was besieged, unto the eleventh yeer of king Zedekiah.
6 And in the fourth moneth,

In the ninth day of the moneth, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the kings garden, (now the Caldeans were by the city round about) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 ¶ But the army of the Caldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath: where he gave judgement upon him.

10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Iudah in Riblah.

11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, & carried him to Babylon, & put him in prison till § day of his death.

12 ¶ Now in the fifth moneth, in the tenth day of the moneth, (which was the nineteenth yeer of Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon) came Nebuzaradan captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Ierusalem:

13 And burnt the house of the LORD, and the kings house, and all the houses of Ierusalem, and all the houses of the great men burnt he with fire.

14 And all the army of the Caldeans that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Ierusalem round about.

15 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, left certain of the poor of the land for vine-dressers, and for husband-men.

17 Also the pillars of that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Caldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

18 The cauldrons also, and the shovels and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and the vessels of brasse wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basins, and the pans, and the bowls, and the cauldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups: that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brazen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: the brasse of all these vessels was without weight.

21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a fillet of twelve cubits did compasse it, and the thickneſse thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapiter of brasse was upon it, and the height of one chapiter was five cubits, with net-work, & pomegranates upon the chapiters round about, all of brasse: the second pillar also with pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the net-work were an hundred round about.

24 ¶ And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war, & seven men of them that were neer the kings person, which were found in the city, and the principall scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land, & threescore men of the people of the land that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

27 And the king of Ba[illegible]

…ture them, & put them to death
…Riblah in the land of Hamath:
…so Judah was carried away ca-
…tive out of his own land.

6 This is the people whom Ne-
…buchad-nezzar carried away ca-
…tive in the seventh yeer, three …thousand Jewes & three & twenty
…in the eighteenth yeer of
…Nebuchad-nezzar he carried a…way captive from Jerusalem eight …hundred thirty and two persons.

…In the three & twentieth
…yeer of Nebuchad-nezzar, Nebu-
…zaradan the captain of the guard
…carried away captive of the Jews
…seven hundred fourty and five …persons: all the persons were
…foure thousand and six hundred.

…And it came to passe in
…seven and thirtieth yeer of the captivity of Jehoiakin king of Judah, in the twelfth moneth, in the five and twentieth day of the moneth, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first yeer of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiakin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison;

32 And spake kindly unto him, & set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon;

33 And changed his prison-garments: and he did continually eat bread before him all the dayes of his life.

34 And for his diet there was a continuall diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion, untill the day of his death, all the dayes of his life.

THE LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH.

CHAP. I.

HOw doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among nations, and princesse among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2 She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.

3 Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, & because of great servitude: she dwelleth now among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutours overtook her between the straits.

4 The wayes of Zion do mourn because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh: her virgins are afflicted, & she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper: for the Lord hath afflicted her, for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the dayes of her affliction, & of her miseries, all her pleasant things that she had in the dayes of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned, therefore she is removed: all that honoured her, despise her, because they have seen her nakednesse: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthinesse is in her skirts, she remembereth not her last end, therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter: O Lord, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command, that they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O Lord, & consider: for I am become vile.

12 Is it nothing to you, all ye that passe by? behold & see, if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them: he hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate, and faint all the day.

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fail, the Lord hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men. The Lord hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine presse.

16 For these things I weep, mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the Comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 ¶ The LORD is righteous, for I have rebelled against his commandment: hear I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins & my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O LORD: for I am in distresse, my bowels are troubled, mine heart is turned within me, for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh, there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble, they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast called, and they shall be like unto me.

22 Let all their wickedness come before thee: and do unto them as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

CHAP. II.

HOw hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger.

2 The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah: he hath brought them down to the ground, he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye, in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The Lord was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden, he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king & the priest.

7 The Lord hath cast off his altar: he hath abhorred his sanctuary: he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces: they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter

Zion: he hath stretched out his hand: he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament: they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground: he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more, her prophets also finde no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth:
the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled:
my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people, because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equall to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion?
for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee, and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity: but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

15 All that passe by, clap their hands at thee: they hisse & wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call the perfection of beauty, the joy of the whole earth?

16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hisse and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for: we have found, we have seen it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the dayes of old:
he hath thrown down and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoyce over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the Lord, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let teares run down like a river day and night: give thy self no rest, let not the apple of thine eyes cease.

19 Arise, cry out in the night:
in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord:
lift up thy hands toward him, for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street.

20 Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this: shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets;
my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword: thou hast slain them in the day of thy anger: thou hast killed, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called as in a solemn day my terrours round about; so that in the day of the LORDS anger, none escaped, nor remained: those that I have swadled and brought up, hath mine enemy consumed.

CHAP. III.

I Am the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me and brought me into darknesse, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned, he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old, he hath broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travell.

6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 He hath hedged me about that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my wayes with hewen stone: he hath made my paths crooked.

10 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my wayes, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bowe, and set me as a mark for ſ arrow.

13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was a derision to all my people; and their ſong all ſ day.

15 He hath filled me with bitterneſſe, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath alſo broken my teeth with gravell-ſtones, he hath covered me with aſhes.

17 And thou haſt removed my ſoul far off from peace: I forgat proſperity.

18 And I ſaid, My ſtrength and my hope is periſhed from the LORD:

19 Remembring mine affliction and my miſery, the wormwood and the gall.

20 My ſoul hath them ſtill in remembrance, and is humbled in me.

21 This I recall to my minde, therefore have I hope.

22 ¶ It is of the LORDS mercies that we are not conſumed, becauſe his compaſſions fail not.

23 They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulneſſe.

24 The LORD is my portion, ſaith my ſoul, therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the ſoul that ſeeketh him.

26 It is good that a man ſhould both hope, and quietly wait for the ſalvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 He ſitteth alone, and keepeth ſilence, becauſe he hath born it upon him.

29 He putteth his mouth in the duſt, if ſo be there may be hope.

30 He giveth his cheek to him that ſmiteth him, he is full with reproach.

31 For the Lord will not caſt off for ever.

32 But though he cauſe grief, yet will he have compaſſion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For he doth not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.

34 To cruſh under his feet all the priſoners of the earth,

35 To turn aſide the right of a man before the face of the moſt High,

36 To ſubvert a man in his cauſe, the Lord approveth not.

37 ¶ Who is he that ſaith, and it cometh to paſſe, when the Lord commandeth it not?

38 Out of the mouth of the moſt High proceedeth not evil and good?

39 Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the puniſhment of his ſins?

40 Let us ſearch and try our wayes, & turn again to ſ LORD.

41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in ſ heavens.

42 We have tranſgreſſed and have rebelled, thou haſt not pardoned.

43 Thou haſt covered with anger, and perſecuted us: thou haſt ſlain, thou haſt not pitied.

44 Thou haſt covered thy ſelf with a cloud, that our prayer ſhould not paſſe thorow.

45 Thou haſt made us as the off-ſcouring and refuſe in the midſt of the people.

46 All our enemies have opened their mouths againſt us.

47 Fear and a ſnare is come upon us, deſolation & deſtruction.

48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water, for the deſtruction of the daughter of my people.

49 Mine eye trickleth down and ceaſeth not, without any intermiſſion:

50 Till the LORD look down and behold from heaven.

51 Mine eye affecteth mine heart, becauſe of all the daughters of my city.

52 Mine enemies chaſed me ſore like a bird, without cauſe.

...ost pitifull estate.

...7 They have cut off my life ...the dungeon, and cast a stone ...me.

...54 Waters flowed over mine ...ad, then I said, I am cut off.

...55 I called upon thy Name, ...O LORD, out of the low dungeon.

...56 Thou hast heard my voice, ...and not thine ear at my breathing, ...at my cry.

...57 Thou drewest near in the ...day that I called upon thee: ...and saidst, Fear not.

...58 O Lord, thou hast pleaded ...the causes of my soul, thou hast ...redeemed my life.

...59 O LORD, thou hast seen my ...wrong: judge thou my cause.

...60 Thou hast seen all their ...vengeance, and all their imaginations against me.

...61 Thou hast heard their reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginations against me:

...62 The lips of those that rose ...up against me, and their device against me all the day.

...63 Behold their sitting down & their rising up: I am their musick.

...64 Render unto them a recompence, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.

...65 Give them sorrow of heart, thy curse unto them.

...66 Persecute & destroy them in anger from under the heavens of the LORD.

CHAP. IIII.

1 How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the sea-monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruell, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately, are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet, embrace dunghills.

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater then the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hand stayed on her.

7 Her Nazarites were purer then snow, they were whiter then milk, they were more ruddy in body then rubies, their polishing was of Saphyr.

8 Their visage is blacker then a coal: they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones, it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword, are better then they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10 The hands of the pitifull women have sodden their own children, they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury, he hath poured out his fierce anger, & hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, & all the inhabitants of the world would not have believed, that the adversary & the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her:

14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cryed unto them, Depart ye, it is unclean, depart, depart, touch not, when they fled away and wandered: they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The anger of the LORD hath divided them, he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is neer, our dayes are fulfilled, for our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are swifter then § eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laidwait for us in § wilderness.

20 The breath of our nostrills, the anointed of the LORD was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

21 ¶ Rejoyce and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz, the cup also shall passe thorow unto thee: thou shalt be drunken: and shalt make thy self naked.

22 ¶ The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion, he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom, he will discover thy sins.

CHAP. V.

REmember, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our reproach.

2 Our inheritance is turned to strangers: our houses to aliens.

3 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.

4 We have drunken our water for money: our wood is sold unto us.

5 Our necks are under persecution: we labour and have no rest.

6 We have given the hand to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

7 Our fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have born their iniquities.

8 Servants have ruled over us: there is none that doth deliver out of their hand.

9 We gat our bread with the peril of our lives, because of § sword of the wilderness.

10 Our skin was black like an oven, because of § terrible famine.

11 They ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah.

12 Princes are hanged up by their hand: the faces of elders were not honoured.

13 They took the young men to grinde, and the children fell under the wood.

14 The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their musick.

15 The joy of our heart is ceased, our dance is turned into mourning.

16 The crown is fallen from our head: wo unto us, that we have sinned.

17 For this our heart is faint, for these things our eyes are dim.

18 Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it.

19 Thou, O LORD, remainest for ever; thy throne from generation to generation.

20 Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us so long time?

21 Turn thou us unto thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned: renew our dayes as of old.

22 But thou hast utterly rejected us: thou art very wroth against us.

¶ THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL.

CHAP. I.

NOw it came to passe in the thirtieth yeer, in § fourth moneth, in the fifth day of § moneth (as I was among § captives by § river of Chebar) that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of § moneth (which was the fifth yeer of king Jehoiakins captivity)

3 The word of the LORD came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Caldeans, by § river Chebar; and the hand of § Lord was there upon him.

4 ¶ And I looked, and behold, a whirlwinde came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding it self, and a brightnesse was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likenesse of four living creatures. And this was their appearance: they had the likenesse of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were straight feet, and the sole of their like the sole of a calves foot they sparkled like the colour burnished brasse.

8 And they had the hands of under their wings on their sides: and they four had faces and their wings.

9 Their wings were joyned to another: they turned not when they went; they went e-one straight forward.

10 As for the likenes of their fa-they four had the face of a man, face of a lion on the right
: & they four had the face of on the left side: they four had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: & their wings were stretched upward, two wings of every one were joyned one to another, and two covered their bodies.

12 And they went every one right forward: whither the spiwas to go they went: and they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likenes of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, & like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures: & the fire was bright, & out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 ¶ Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures with his four faces.

16 The appearance of the wheels, and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: & their appearances and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high: and they were dreadfull: and their rings were full of eyes round about them four.

19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: & when the living creatures were lift up from the earth, the wheels were lift up.

20 Whithersoever the spirit was to go they went, thither was their spirit to go, & the wheels were lifted up over against them:
for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

21 When those went, those went; and when those stood, those stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels
were lifted up over against them:
for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And the likenes of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible chrystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other, every one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side their bodies.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 ¶ And above the firmament that was over their heads, was the likenes of a throne, as the appearance of a saphyr-stone, and upon the likenes of the throne was the likeness of the appearance of a man above upon it.

27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it: from the appearance of his loines even upward, and from the appearance of his loines even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28 As the appearance of the bowe that is in the cloud in the day of rain: so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likenes of the glory of the LORD: & when I saw it, I fell upon my face, & I heard a voice of one that spake.

CHAP. II.

AND he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And the spirit entered into me, when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against me: they & their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 For they are impudent children, and stiffe-hearted: I do send thee unto them; & thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD.

5 And they whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 And thou son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7 And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious.

8 But thou son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee.

9 And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me; and lo, a roll of a book was therein.

10 And he spread it before me, and it was written within and without: and there was written therein, lamentations, & mourning, and woe.

CHAP. III.

MOreover, he said unto me: Son of man, eat that thou findest: eat this roll, and go, speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it, and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

4 And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech, and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel;

6 Not to many people of a strange speech, and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand: surely had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismaled at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, & the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

15 Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked; Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it: set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against it round about.

3 Moreover, take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron betweene thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it: this shall be a signe to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the dayes that thou shalt lie upon it, thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the yeers of their iniquity, according to the number of the dayes, three hundred and ninety dayes. So shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah fourty dayes: I have appointed thee each day for a yeer.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesie against it.

8 And behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the dayes of thy siege.

9 ¶ Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, & fitches, & put them in one vessell, & make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the dayes that thou shalt lie upon thy side; three hundred and ninety dayes shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat, shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man in their sight.

13 And

13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD, behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now, have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces, neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for mans dung: and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem, and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment:

17 That they may want bread and water, and be astonied one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.

CHAP. V.

AND thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barbours rasour, & cause it to passe upon thine head, and upon thy beard: then take the balances to weigh, and divide the hair.

2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the dayes of ¶ siege are fulfilled; and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife; and a third part thou shalt scatter in the winde, and I will draw out a sword after them.

3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and binde them in thy skirts.

4 Then take of them again, & cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire: for thereof shall a fire come forth into all ¶ house of Israel.

5 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD, This is Jerusalem; I have set it in ¶ midst of ¶ nations & countreys that are round about her.

6 And she hath changed my judgements into wickednesse, more then the nations, and my statutes more then the countreys that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments; and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith ¶ GOD, because ye multiply more then the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgements, neither have done according to the judgements of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I even I am against thee, and will execute judgements in ¶ midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the windes.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee, neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 ¶ A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee: and I will scatter a third part into all the windes, and I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished; and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover, I will make thee waste, & a reproach among the nations ¶ are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, shall judgements in shall execute judgements in ne in anger, and in fury, and ke vengeance upon them, and ey shall know that I the LORD

ve spoken it.

Where I shall send upon
m the evil arrows of famine, ich shall be for their destruc-on, and which I will send to stroy you: and I will increase e famine upon you, and will ak your staff of bread.

So will I send upon you mine, and evil beasts, & they all bereave thee; and pestience and blood shall passe thro-gh thee; and I will bring the ord upon thee: I the LORD
ve spoken it.

CHAP. VI.

And the word of the LORD
came unto me, saying,

Son of man, set thy face ward the mountains of Isel, & prophesie against them,

And say, Ye mountains of rael, hear the word of the ord GOD. Thus saith ✠ Lord OD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I will bring a sword upon you, &
I will destroy your high places.

And your altars shall be deolate, and your images shall be roken: and I will cast down your slain men before your dols.

And I will lay the dead odies of the children of Isel before their idols; & I will atter your bones round about your altars.

In all your dwelling plaes the cities shall be laid waste, nd the high places shall be deolate, that your altars may be id waste, and made desolate, nd your idols may be broken nd cease, and your images may e cut down, & your works may e abolished.

And the slain shall fall in e midst of you; and ye shall now that I am the LORD.

✠ Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered thorow the countreys.

And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations, whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loath themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain, that I would do this evil unto them.

✠ Thus saith ✠ Lord GOD,
Smite with thine hand, & stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas, for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

He that is far off shall die of the pestilence, and he that is neer shall fall by the sword: and he that remaineth, and is besieged, shall die by the famine:
thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

So will I stretch out mine hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate then the wilderness towards Diblath, in all their habitations; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. VII.

MOreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

Also thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD unto the land of Israel, An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.

Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy wayes, and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

And mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity:
but I will recompense thy wayes upon thee, and thine abominations

minations ſhal be in the midſt of thee, and ye ſhall know that I am the LORD.

5 Thus ſaith the Lord GOD, An evil, an onely evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come, it watcheth for thee, behold, it is come.

7 The morning is come upon thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is neer, and not the ſounding again of ſ mountains.

8 Now will I ſhortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accompliſh mine anger upon thee: and I will judge thee according to thy wayes, and will recompenſe thee for all thine abominations.

9 And mine eye ſhall not ſpare, neither will I have pity: I will recompenſe thee according to thy wayes, and thine abominations ẏ are in the midſt of thee, and ye ſhal know that I am the LORD that ſmiteth.

10 Behol the day, behold, it is come, the morning is gone forth, the rod hath bloſſomed, pride hath budded:

11 Violence is riſen up into a rod of wickedneſſe: none of them ſhall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of theirs, neither ſhall there be wailing for them.

12 The time is come, the day draweth neer; let not the buyer rejoyce, nor the ſeller mourn: for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the ſeller ſhal not return to that which is ſold, although they were yet alive: for the viſion is touching the whole multitude thereof, which ſhall not return: neither ſhall any ſtrengthen himſelf in the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown ſ trumpet, even to make all ready, but none goeth to the battell: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

15 The ſword is without, & the peſtilence & ſ famine within: he ſ is in ſ field, ſhal die & ſ ſword and he ſ is in the city, famine and peſtilence ſhal devour him.

16 ¶ But they that eſcape of them, ſhall eſcape, and be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

17 All hands ſhall be feeble, and all knees ſhall be weak as water.

18 They ſhal alſo gird themſelves with ſackcloth, and horror ſhall cover them; and ſhame ſhall be upon all faces, and baldneſſe upon all their heads.

19 They ſhal caſt their ſilver in the ſtreets, & their gold ſhall be removed: their ſilver & their gold ſhall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they ſhall not ſatisfie their ſoul, neither fill their bowels, becauſe it is the ſtumbling block of their iniquity.

20 ¶ As for the beauty of his ornament, he ſet it in majeſty: but they made the images of their abominations and of their deteſtable things therein: therefore have I ſet it far from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of ſ ſtrangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a ſpoil, and they ſhall pollute it.

22 My face will I turn alſo from them, & they ſhall pollute my ſecret place: for the robbers ſhall enter into it, and defile it.

23 ¶ Make a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore I will bring the worſt of the heathen, and they ſhal poſſeſſe their houſes: I alſo make the pomp of the ſtrong to ceaſe, and their holy places ſhall be defiled.

25 Deſtruction cometh, and they ſhall ſeek peace, and there ſhall be none.

26 Miſchief ſhall come upon miſchief, and rumour ſhall be upon rumour: then ſhall they ſeek a viſion of the prophet; but the law ſhall periſh from the prieſt, and counſell from the ancients.

27 The king ſhall mourn, and the princes ſhall be clothed with deſolation, and the hands of the people of the land ſhall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and according to their deſerts will I judge them, me and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. VIII.

AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, & the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me.

2 Then I beheld, and lo, a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire: and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, as the colour of amber.

3 And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lift me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north, where was the seat of the image of jealousie, which provoketh to jealousie.

4 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

5 ¶ Then said he unto me,
Son of man, lift up thine eyes
now the way toward the north:
so I lift up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold, northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousie in the entery.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abomi-nations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary?
but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 ¶ And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in a wall.

8 Then said he unto me,
Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in and behold the wicked abomi-nations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw, and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel pourtrayed upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah, the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us not, the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

13 ¶ He said also unto me,
Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORDS house, which was towards the north; and behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 ¶ Then said he unto me,
Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abomi-nations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORDS house, and behold at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces towards the east, and they worshipped the sun towards the east.

17 ¶ Then he said unto me,
Hast thou seen this, O son of man? is it a light thing to the house of Judah, that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity:
and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will
I not hear them.

CHAP. IX.

HE cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And behold six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man a slaughter-weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writers inkhorn by his side: & they went in, & stood beside the brazen altar.

3 And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house; and he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writers inkhorn by his side.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh, and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 ¶ And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity.

6 Slay utterly old and young; both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary: then they began at the ancient men, which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain, go ye forth: and they went forth, & slew in § city

8 ¶ And it came to pass while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried and said, Ah Lord GOD, wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel, in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel, and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not.

10 And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will recompense their way upon their head.

11 And behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, reported matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

CHAP. X.

THen I looked, and behold in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubims, there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and scatter them over the city: And he went in my sight.

3 Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and a cloud filled the inner court.

4 Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORDS glory.

5 And the sound of the cherubims wings was heard even to the utter court, as § voice of the Almighty God, when he speaketh.

6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims, then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen, who took it and went out.

8 ¶ And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a mans hand under their wings.

9 And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubims; one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl stone.

10 And as for their appearances, every four had one likeneſſe ;

a wheel had been in the ſt a wheel.
When they went, they went on their four ſides, they turn-not as they went; but to the ace whither the head looked, y followed it, they turned ot as they went.
And their whole body, and backs, and their hands, and r wings, and the wheels were l of eyes round about, even wheels that they four had.
As for the wheels, it was
d unto them in my hearing, wheel.
And every one had four fa-
: the firſt face was the face cherub, and the ſecond face the face of a man, and third the face of a lion, and fourth the face of an eagle.
And the cherubims were ed up : this is the living ture that I ſaw by the river Chebar.
And when ☩ cherubims went, wheels went by them : and ☩ cherubims lift up their s to mount up from the th the ſame wheels alſo ned not from beſide them.
When they ſtood, theſe
ſtood; and when they were lifted
, they lift up themſelves alſo:
the ſpirit of the living creа-was in them.
Then the glory of the D departed from off the reſhold of the houſe, & ſtood ve the cherubims.
And the cherubims lift up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my ſight: when they went out, the wheels alſo were beſide them, and every one ſtood at the door of the eaſt-gate of the LORDS houſe, and the glory of the God of Iſrael was over them above.
This is the living creature that I ſaw under the God of Ifrael by ☩ river of Chebar, and I knew ☩ they were ☩ cherubims.
Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings, and the likeneſſe of the hands of a man was under their wings.
And the likeneſſe of their faces was the ſame faces which I ſaw by ☩ river of Chebar, their appearances & themſelves : they went every one ſtraight forward.

CHAP. XI.

MOreover, the ſpirit lift me up, & brought me unto the eaſt gate of the LORDS houſe, which looketh eaſtward: and behold, at the door of the gate five and twenty men ; among whom I ſaw Jaazaniah the ſon of Azur, and Pelatiah the ſon of Beniaiah, princes of the people.
2 Then ſaid he unto me, Son of man, theſe are the men that deviſe miſchief, and give wicked counſell in this city.
3 Which ſay, It is not near, let us build houſes : this city is the cauldron, and we be the fleſh.
4 ¶ Therefore propheſie a-gainſt them, propheſie, O ſon of man.
5 And the ſpirit of the LORD fell upon me, and ſaid unto me, Speak, thus ſaith the LORD,
Thus have ye ſaid, O houſe of Iſrael : for I know the things that come into your minde, every one of them.
6 Ye have multiplied your ſlain in this city, & ye have filled the ſtreets thereof with the ſlain.
7 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord GOD, Your ſlain, whom ye have laid in the midſt of it, they are the fleſh, and this city is the cauldron : but I will bring you forth out of the midſt of it.
8 Ye have feared the ſword, and I will bring a ſword upon you, ſaith the Lord GOD.
9 And I will bring you out of the midſt thereof, and deliver you into the hands of ſtrangers, and will execute judgements among you.
10 Ye ſhall fall by the ſword,
I will judge you in the border of Iſrael, and ye ſhall know that I am the LORD.
11 This city ſhall not be your cauldron, neither ſhall ye be the fleſh in the midſt thereof, but I will judge you in the border of Iſrael.
12 And ye ſhall know that I am the LORD: for ye have not walked in my ſtatutes, neither executed my judgements, but have done after ☩ manners of ☩ heathen that are round about you.
13 ¶ And

13 ¶ And it came to passe when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died: then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, & said, Ah Lord GOD, wilt thou make a full end of ꝧ remnant of Israel?

14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kinred, and all the house of Israel wholly are they, unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get ye far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countreys, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countreys where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countreys, where ye have been scattered; and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof, and all the abominations thereof from thence.

19 And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you: and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh,

20 That they may walk in my statutes, and mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things, and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord GOD.

22 ¶ Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

23 And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain, which is on the side of the city.

24 ¶ Afterwards the took me up, and brought vision by the spirit of God to Caldea to them of the tivity: so the vision that seen went up from me.

25 Then I spake unto of the captivity all the that the LORD had shewed

CHAP. XII.

THE word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, thou dwellest in ꝧ midst of a rebellious which have eyes to see, and not: they have ears to and hear not: for they are rebellious house.

3 Therefore thou son of prepare thee stuff for remove and remove by day in sight, and thou shalt remove from thy place to another In their sight: it may be will consider, though they a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring thy stuff by day in their as stuff for removing: and shalt go forth at even in their sight, as they that go forth captivity.

5 Dig thou through the wall their sight, & carry out there

6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for have set thee for a signe unto the house of Israel.

7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 ¶ And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not ꝧ house of Israel, ꝧ rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

11 Say

11 Say, I am your signe: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them; they shall remove and go into captivity.

12 And the prince ¶ that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in twilight, & shall go forth; they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Caldeans, yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And I will scatter towards every winde all that are about him to help him, & all his bands: & I will draw out a sword after them.

15 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, from the pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen, whither they come; & they shall know that I am the LORD.

17 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, & drink thy water with trembling, & with carefulness.

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord GOD of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel; They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate from all that therein is, because of the violence of them that dwell therein.

20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, & the land shall be desolate; & ye shall know that I am the LORD.

21 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The dayes are prolonged, & every vision faileth?

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall use it no more as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The dayes are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

24 For there shall be no more any vain vision, nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.

25 For I am the LORD: I will speak, & the word that I shall speak, shall come to pass: it shall be no more prolonged: for in your dayes, O rebellious house, will I say the word, & will perform it, saith the Lord GOD.

26 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for many dayes to come, & he prophesieth of the times that are far off:

28 Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, There shall none of my words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XIII.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesie against the prophets of Israel that prophesie, & say thou unto them that prophesie out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD.

3 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Wo unto the foolish prophets that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing.

4 O Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye have not gone up into the gaps, neither made up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in battel in the day of the LORD.

6 They have seen vanity, and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith, and the LORD hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith it, albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore behold, I am against you, saith the Lord GOD.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, & that divine lies: they shall not be in the the assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel: and ye shal know that I am the Lord GOD.

10 ¶ Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there was no peace: and one built up a wall, and lo, others daubed it with untempered morter;

11 Say unto them which daub it with untempered morter, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing showre; & ye, O great hail-stones, shall fall: and a stormy winde shall rent it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith ℣ Lord GOD, I will even rent it with a stormy wind in my fury: & there shall be an overflowing showre in mine anger, and great hail-stones in my fury to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered morter, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered; and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know, that I am the LORD.

15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered morter, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it.

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel, which prophesie concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord GOD.

17 ¶ Likewise thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesie out of their own heart, and prophesie thou against them,

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Wo to the women that sew pillows to all armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls: will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley, & for pieces of bread, to slay ℣ souls ℣ should not die, and to save the souls alive ℣ should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls to make them flee; and I will rent them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt, to make them flee.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I rend, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad, and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life.

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XIV.

THen came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their face: should I be enquired of at all by them?

4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, & putteth the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, & cometh to ℣ prophet, I ℣ LORD will answer him ℣ cometh according to the multitude of his idols;

5 That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

6 ¶ Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Repent, & turn your selves from your idols, turn away your faces from your abominations.

7 For every one of the house of Israel of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which sepa-rateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, & putteth the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire him concerning me, I ¶ LORD will answer him by my self.

8 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: ¶ & the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;

11 That the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted anymore with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, &
I may be their God, saith the Lord GOD.

12 ¶ The word of the LORD
came again to me, saying,

13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, & will cut off man and beast from it.

14 Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord GOD.

15 ¶ If I cause noisom beasts to pass thorow the land, & they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass thorow,
because of the beasts:

16 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters: they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.

17 ¶ Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go thorow the land, so that I cut off man and beast from it:

18 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters but they only shall be delivered themselves.

19 ¶ Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast:

20 Though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

21 For thus saith the Lord GOD, How much more when I send my four fore judgements upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, & the noisom beast, & the pestilence to cut off from it man and beast?

22 ¶ Yet behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters: they shal come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way, and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it.

23 And they shal comfort you, when ye see their ways, and their doings; and ye shall know that I have not done without cause, all that I have done in it,
saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XV.

AND the word of the LORD
came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, what is the vine-tree more then any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shal wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel: the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burnt: Is it meet for any work?

5 Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less shal it be meet yet for any work, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned?

6 ¶ There-

6 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: As the vine-tree, among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

7 And I will set my face against them; they shall go out from one fire, & another fire shal devour them, and ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

8 And I will make ℌ land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith ℌ Lord GOD.

CHAP. XVI.

AGain the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith ℌ Lord GOD unto Jerusalem: Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, & thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity in the day thou wast born, thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee: thou wast not salted at all, nor swadled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee, but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 ¶ And when I passed by thee, and saw thee pollured in thine own blood, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live: yea, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 I have caused thee to multiply as ℌ bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, & thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked & bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love, and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord GOD, and thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water: yea, I thorowly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with broidered work, and shod thee with badgers skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thine hands, and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and ear-rings in thine ears, and a beautifull crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast ℌ decked with gold and silver, and thy raiment was of fine linen & silk & broidered work: thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil, & thou wast exceeding beautifull, and didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy renown went forth among ℌ heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord GOD.

15 ¶ But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot, because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 And of thy garments thou didst take, & deckedst thy high places with diverse colours, & playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither be done.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold, and of my silver which I had given thee, and madest to thy self images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them.

18 And tookest thy broidered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord GOD.

20 Moreover, thou hast taken thy sons & thy daughters whom thou hast born unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured: Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter?

21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

and in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the dayes of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to passe after all thy wickednesse, (woe, woe unto thee, saith the Lord GOD)

24 That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by,
and multiplied thy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold therefore, I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable: yea, thou hast played harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto Caldea, and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord GOD, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of a imperious whorish woman?

31 In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street, and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire:

32 But as a wife that commit-teth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband.

33 They give gifts to all whores: but thou givest thy gifts unto all thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredoms.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms, and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee:
therefore thou art contrary.

35 ¶ Wherefore O harlot, hear
the word of the LORD.

36 Thus saith the Lord GOD;
Because thy filthinesse was poured out, and thy nakednes discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them;

37 Behold therefore I will gather all thy lovers with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakednes unto them, that they may see all thy nakednes.

38 And I will judge thee, as women that break wedlock & shed blood are judged: and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousie.

39 And I will also give thee into their hand, & they shall throw down thine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places:
they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, & shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked & bare.

40 They shall also bring up a company against thee, & they shal stone thee with stones, & thrust thee thorow with their swords.

41 And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgements upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot; and thou also shalt give no hire any more.

42 So will I make my fury towards thee to rest, and my jealousie shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43 Because thou hast not remem-bred the dayes of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold therefore, I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord GOD: & thou shalt not commit this lewdnesse above all thine abominations.

44 ¶ Behold, every one that useth proverbs, shall use this Proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mothers daughter, that loatheth her husband, and her children; & thou art the sister of thy sisters, which loathed their husbands, and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and thy younger sist r that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more then they in all thy waves.

48 As I live, saith ℣ Lord GOD, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou & thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom; Pride, fulnesse of bread, and abundance of idlenesse was in her, and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50 And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good.

51 Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sinnes: but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more then they, & hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 Thou also which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for the sins that thou hast committed more abominable then they: they are more righteous then thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 When I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them:

54 That thou mayst bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all ℣ hast done in that ℣ art a comfort unto them.

55 When thy sisters Sodom and her daughters shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

56 For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride:

57 Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all that are round about her, the daughters of ℣ Philistim, which despise thee round about.

58 Thou hast born thy lewdness, and thine abominations, saith the LORD.

59 For thus saith the Lord GOD, I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant.

60 ℣ Nevertheless, I will remember my covenant with thee in the dayes of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant.

61 Then thou shalt remember thy ways, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters thine elder, and thy younger; and I will give them unto thee for daughters, but not by thy covenant.

62 And I will establish my covenant with thee, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD:

63 That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee, for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XVII.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, A great eagle with great wings, long-winged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar:

4 He cropt off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffique: he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitfull field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow-tree.

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also another great eagle with great wings, and many feathers; and behold, this vine did bend her roots towards him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

9 Say thou, thus saith the Lord GOD, Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? shall it wither, in all the leaves of her springs, even without great power, or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east winde toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

13 And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath taken the mighty of the land:

14 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift it self up: but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

15 But he rebelled against him, in sending his embassadours into Egypt, that they might give him horses & much people; shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered?

16 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, Surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.

17 Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons:

18 Seeing he despised the oath, by breaking the covenant, (when lo, he had given his hand) and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

20 And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there, for his trespasse that he hath trespassed against me.

21 And all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered towards all windes: and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it.

22 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon an high mountain, and eminent.

23 In the mountain of Height of Israel will I plant it: and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar, and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing: in the shadow of the branches thereof shal they dwel.

24 And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the LORD have spoken, and have done it.

CHAP. XVIII.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me again, saying

2 What mean ye that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sowre grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?

3 As I live, saith ✠ Lord GOD, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.

4 Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die.

5 ¶ But if a man be just, and do that which is lawfull and right;

6 And hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbours wife, neither hath come neer to a menstruous woman;

7 And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment;

8 He that hath not given forth upon usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed true judgement between man and man,

9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgements to deal truly, he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord GOD.

10 ¶ If he beget a son that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and that doth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbours wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored a pledge, & hath lift up his eyes to idols, hath committed abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase; shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations, he shall surely die, his blood shall be upon him.

14 ¶ Now lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his fathers sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doth not such like;

15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbours wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury, nor increase, hath executed my judgements, hath walked in my statutes, he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

19 ¶ Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? when the son hath done that which is lawfull & right, and hath kept all my statutes, & hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die: the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawfull and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

23 Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die, saith the Lord GOD? and not that he should return from his ways and live?

24 ¶ But when the righteous doth turn away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doth, shall he live? all his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespasse that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 ¶ Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equall. Hear now, O house of Israel; is not my way equall? are not your ways unequall?

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteouswickedly committeth iniquity, & dieth in them: for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27 Again, when ¶ wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, & doeth ¶ which is lawful and right he shal save his soul alive.
28 Because he consydereth, & turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shal not die.
29 Yet saith the house of Israel: The way of the Lord is not equall: O house of Israel, are not my wayes equall? are not your wayes unequall?
30 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his wayes, saith the Lord GOD: repent, and turn your selves from all your transgressions: so iniquity shall not be your ruine.
31 ¶ Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed, & make you a new hert, & a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel.
32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn your selves, and live ye.

CHAP. XIX.

MOreover, take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,
2 And say, What is thy mother? A lionnes: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.
3 And she brought up one of her whelps: It became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey, it devoured men.
4 The nations also heard of him, he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.
5 Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.
6 And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men.
7 And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities, and the land was desolate, and the fulnesse thereof, by the noise of his roaring.
8 Then ¶ nations set against him on every side from the provinces, & spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit.
9 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to ¶ king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon ¶ mountains of Israel.
10 ¶ Thy mother is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters, she was fruitfull & full of branches, by reason of many waters.
11 And she had strong rods for ¶ scepters of them ¶ bare rule, & her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.
12 But she was plucked up in fury: she was cast down to the ground, and the east-winde dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered, the fire consumed them.
13 And now she is planted in the wildernesse, in a dry and thirsty ground.
14 And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so ¶ she hath no strong rod to be a scepter to rule this, is a lamentation, & shal be for a lamentation.

CHAP. XX.

AND it came to passe in the seventh yeer, in the fifth moneth, the tenth day of the moneth, that certain of ¶ elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and sat before me.
2 Then came ¶ word of the LORD unto me, saying,
3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, & say unto them: Thus saith ¶ Lord GOD, Are ye come to enquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be enquired of by you.
4 Wilt thou judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers:
5 ¶ And say unto them, Thus saith ¶ Lord GOD, In ¶ day when I chose Israel, & lifted up mine hand unto ¶ seed of ¶ house of Jacob, & made my self known unto them in ¶ land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am ¶ LORD your God:

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands:

7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not your selves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish mine anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 But I wrought for my Names sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made my self known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 ¶ Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderneſſe.

11 And I gave them my ſtatutes, and ſhewed them my judgements, which if a man do, he ſhall even live in them.

12 Moreover alſo, I gave them my ſabbaths to be a ſigne betweene me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that ſanctifie them.

13 But the houſe of Iſrael rebelled againſt me in the wilderneſſe: they walked not in my ſtatutes, and they deſpiſed my judgements, which if a man do, he ſhall even live in them, and my ſabbaths they greatly polluted: then I ſaid, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderneſſe, to conſume them:

14 But I wrought for my Names ſake, that it ſhould not be polluted before ſ heathen, in whoſe ſight I brought them out.

15 Yet alſo I lifted up mine hand unto them in the wilderneſſe, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands.

16 Becauſe they deſpiſed my judgements, and walked not in my ſtatutes, but polluted my ſabbaths: for their heart went after their idols.

17 Nevertheleſſe, mine eye ſpared them from deſtroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderneſſe.

18 But I ſaid unto their children in the wilderneſſe, Walk ye not in the ſtatutes of your fathers, neither obſerve their judgements, nor defile your ſelves with their idols.

19 I am the LORD your God; walk in my ſtatutes, and keep my judgements, and do them:

20 And hallow my ſabbaths, and they ſhall be a ſigne betweene me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God.

21 Notwithſtanding, the children rebelled againſt me: they walked not in my ſtatutes, neither kept my judgements to do them, which if a man do, he ſhall even live in them; they polluted my ſabbaths: then I ſaid, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger againſt them in the wilderneſſe.

22 Nevertheleſſe, I withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my Names ſake, that it ſhould not be polluted in the ſight of the heathen, in whoſe ſight I brought them forth.

23 I lifted up mine hand unto them alſo in the wilderneſſe, that I would ſcatter them among the heathen, and diſperſe them thorow the countreys:

24 Becauſe they had not executed my judgements, but had deſpiſed my ſtatutes and had polluted my ſabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers idols.

25 Wherefore I gave them alſo ſtatutes that were not good, and judgements whereby they ſhould not live

26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in ſ they cauſed to paſſe thorow the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them deſolate, to the end that that they might know that I am the LORD.

27 ¶ Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespasse against me.

28 For when I had brought them into ȳ land, for ȳ which I did lift up mine hand, to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees; and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they present-ed the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink-offerings.

29 Then I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? and the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day.

30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredom after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to passe through the fire, ye pollute your selves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be enquired of by you.

32 And that which cometh into your minde, shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as ȳ families of the countries, to serve wood & stone.

33 ¶ As I live saith the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with fury poured out will I rule over you.

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countreys wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and a stretched-out arm, & with fury poured out.

35 And I will bring you into the wildernesse of ȳ people, and there will I plead with you face to face.

36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wildernesse of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD.

37 And I will cause you to passe under ȳ rod, & I will bring you into the bond of ȳ covenant.

38 And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgresse against me; I will bring them forth out of the countrey where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, Thus saith ȳ Lord GOD, Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy Name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

40 For in mine holy mountain, in ȳ mountain of ȳ height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in ȳ land serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and ȳ first fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countreys wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

42 And ye shall know ȳ I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into ȳ land of Israel, into ȳ countrey for the ȳ I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And there shall ye remember your ways, & all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; & ye shall loath your selves in your own sight, for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 And ye shall know ȳ I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my Names sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

45 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

46 Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward ȳ south, & prophesie against ȳ forest of ȳ south field.

47 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of ȳ LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north, shall be burnt therein.

48 And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD, they say of me, Doth he not speak parables?

CHAP. XXI.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, & drop thy word toward ȝ holy places, & prophesie against the land of Israel,

3 And say to ȝ land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north:

5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it shall not return any more.

6 Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins, and with bitternesse sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings, because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cōeth, & shall be brought to passe, saith the Lord GOD.

8 ¶ Again, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesie and say, Thus saith the LORD, Say, a sword, a sword is sharpened, and also fourbished.

10 It is sharpened to make a fore slaughter; it is fourbished, that it may glitter: should we then make mirthith? contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree. ¶ 11 And he hath given it to be fourbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, & it is fourbished to give into the hand of the slayer.

12 Cry and howl, son of man, for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: terrours by reason of ȝ sword, shall be upon my people: smite therefore upon thy thigh.

13 Because it is a trial, and what if the sword contemn even the rod? it shall be no more, saith the Lord GOD.

14 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesie and smite thine hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of ȝ slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their privie chambers.

15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gate, that their heart may faint, and their ruines be multiplied. Ah, it is made bright, it is wrapped for the slaughter.

16 Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.

17 I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: I the LORD have said it.

18 ¶ The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land, and chuse thou a place, chuse it at ȝ head of the way to ȝ city.

20 Appoint a way that the sword may come to Rabbah of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced.

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his arrows bright; he consulted with images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open ȝ mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shoutings, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mound, and to build a fort.

29 And it shall be unto them as false divination in their sight, to them ☞ have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken 30 Therefore thus saith ☞ Lord GOD; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, ☞ ☞ in all your doings your sins do appear; because ☞ I say, that ye are come to remember-ance, ye shall be taken ☞ ☞ hand.
31 ¶ And thou profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end;
32 Thus saith the Lord GOD;
Remove the diadem, & take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.
33 I will overturn, overturn, overturn it, and it shall be no more, until he come, whose right it is; and I will give it him.
34 ¶ And ☞ son of man, prophesie and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning the Am-monites, and concerning their reproach: even say thou, The sword, ☞ sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is sourbished, to consume because of the glittering:
35 Whiles they see vanity unto thee, whiles they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon ☞ necks of them ☞ are slain, of ☞ wicked men, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.
36 Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where ☞ wast created, in the land of thy nativity.
37 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee, I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilfull to destroy.
38 Thou shalt be for fuell to the fire: thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the LORD have spoken it.

CHAP. XXII.

MOreover, ☞ word of ☞ LORD
came unto me, saying,
2 Now thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city? yea, thou shalt shew her all her abominations.
3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD, The city sheddeth blood in ☞ midst of it, ☞ her time may come, and maketh idols against her self to defile her self.
4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood ☞ thou hast shed, and hast defiled thy self in thine idols which thou hast made, and ☞ hast caused thy dayes to draw neer, and art come even unto thy yeers; therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countreys.
5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art infamous and much vexed.
6 Behold the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.
7 In thee they have set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.
8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths.
9 In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood: and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they commit lewdnesse.
10 In thee have they discovered their fathers nakednesse:
in thee have they humbled her that was set apart for pollution.
11 And one hath committed abomination with his neighbours wife, and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter in law, and another in thee hath humbled his sisters, his fathers daughter.
12 In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood: thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord GOD.
13 ¶ Behold therefore, I have smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.
14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong in the dayes that I shall deal with thee? I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it.
15 And I will scatter thee among the heathen and disperse thee in the countreys, & will consume thy filthines out of thee.

16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thy self in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

17 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become drosse: all they are brasse, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace: they are even the drosse of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because ye are all become drosse, behold therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem

20 As they gather silver, and brasse, & iron, & lead, & tin into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger, and in my fury; and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; & ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls: they have taken the treasure & precious things: they have made her many widows in the midst thereof

26 Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and prophane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey to shed blood, and to destroy souls to get dishonest gain.

28 And her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the LORD hath not spoken.

29 The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.

30 And I sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.

31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XXIII.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother:

3 And they committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and they were mine, and they bare sons & daughters. Thus were their names: Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine, and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbours.

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled her self.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians upon whom she doted.

10 Thefe discovered her na-kednesse: they took her sons, and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became famous among women; for they had executed judgement upon her.

11 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was more corrupt in her inordinate love then she, and in her whoredoms more then her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw ‖ she was defiled, that they took both one way;

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men portrayed upon the wall, the images of ‖ Caldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loines, exceeding in died attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after ‖ manner of the Babylonians of Caldea, the land of their nativity:

16 And assoon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Caldea.

17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her ‖ with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her minde was alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakednesse: then my minde was alienated from her, like as my minde was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the dayes of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 And she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh ‖ is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue ‖ is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdnesse of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 ¶ Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith ‖ Lord GOD. Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy minde is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side,

23 The Babylonians, and all the Caldeans, Pekod, and Shoah, and Koa, all the Assyrians with them, all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords, and renowned all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with charets, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield, and helmet round about: and I will set judgement before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgements.

25 And I will set my jealousie against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose, & thine ears, and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons, and thy daughters, and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

27 Thus will I make thy lewdnesse to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus saith ‖ Lord God; Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them whom thou hatest: into the hand of them from whom thy minde is alienated.

29 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shal leave thee naked and bare; and the nakednesse of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdnesse, and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen; and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in ‖ way of thy sister, therefore will I give her cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Thou shalt drink of thy sisters cup deep, and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn, and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be filled ‖ drunkennes & sorrow, ‖ ‖ cup of astonishment & desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt even drink it, and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, & pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behinde thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdnesse, and thy whoredoms.

36 ¶ The LORD said moreover unto me, Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, & blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, & have also caused their sons whom they bare unto me, to passe for them, to devour them.

38 Moreover this they have done unto me; they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it, and lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent, and lo, they came: for whom thou didst wash thy self, paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thy self with ornaments,

41 And satest upon a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: & with the men of the common sort were brought Sabeans from wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautifull crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah, and unto Aholibah the lewd women.

45 ¶ And the righteous men they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, & blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord GOD, I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and spoiled.

47 And the company shall stone them with stones, & dispatch them with their swords: they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus will I cause lewdnesse to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdnesse upon you: and ye shall bear the sins of your idols, and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXIV.

AGain in the ninth yeere, in the tenth moneth, in the tenth day of the moneth, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, write thee the name of this day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day.

3 And utter a parable unto this rebellious house, and say unto them; Thus saith the Lord GOD, Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let him seeth the bones of it therein.

6 ¶ Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock, she poured it not upon the ground to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord

CHAP. XXIV.

15 ¶ Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee § desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn, nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down.
17 Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, & put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men.
18 So I spake unto the people in the morning, and at even my wife died, and I did in the morning as I was commanded.
19 ¶ And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so?
20 Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
21 Speak unto the house of Israel; Thus saith the Lord GOD, behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters, whom ye have left, shall fall by the sword.
22 And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.
23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, & your shooes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn, nor weep, but ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one towards another.
24 Thus Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done, shall ye do: and when this commeth, ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.
25 Also thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minde, their sons and their daughters,
26 That he that escapeth in that day, shall come unto thee to cause thee to hear it with thine ears?
27 In § day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb, and thou shalt be a sign unto them, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXV.

THe word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, set thy face against the Ammonites, and prophesie against them,
3 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity:
4 Behold therefore, I will deliver thee to the men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee; they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk.
5 And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, & the Ammonites a couching place for flocks; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
6 For thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou hast clapped thine thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoyced in heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel:

7 Behold therefore, I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for a spoil to the heathen, and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countreys: I will destroy thee, & thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

8 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because that Moab and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the heathen:

9 Therefore behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontires, the glory of the country Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim,

10 Unto the men of the east with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations.

11 And I will execute judgements upon Moab, and they shal know that I am the LORD.

12 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them:

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it, and I will make it desolate from Teman, and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger, and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord GOD

15 ¶ Thus saith ¶ Lord GOD, Because ¶ Philistines have dealt by revenge, & have taken vengeance with a despitefull heart, to destroy it for the old hatred;

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I wil stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea-coast.

17 And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; & they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shal lay my vengeance upon them.

CHAP. XXVI.

AND it came to passe in the eleventh yeer, in ¶ first day of the moneth, that ¶ word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people, she is turned unto me; I shall be replenished now she is laid waste:

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause many nations to come up against thee; as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

4 And they shall destroy the walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.

5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD, and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her daughters which are in the field, shall be slain by the sword, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 ¶ For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field, & he shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 He shall set engines of war against thy walls, & with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses, their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets; he shal slay thy people by 21 I will make thee a terrour, & thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXVII.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Now thou son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyrus:

3 And say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at the entrie of the sea, which art a merchant of the people for many iles: Thus saith ¶ Lord GOD. O Tyrus, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty.

4 Thy borders are in the midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beautie.

5 They have made all thy ship-boards of fir-trees of Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon, to make masts for thee.

6 Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars: the company of ¶ Asshurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the iles of Chittim.

7 Fine linen with broidered work from Egypt, was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail; blue and purple from the iles of Elishah, was that which covered thee.

8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee, were thy pilots.

9 The ancients of Gebal, & the wise men thereof were in thee thy calkers, all ¶ ships of ¶ sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise.

10 They of Persia, and of Lud, and of Phut were in thine army thy men of warr: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee: they set forth thy comelinesse.

11 The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gammadims were in thy towers, they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about: they have made thy beauty perfect.

12 Tarshish was thy merchant, by reason of the multitude of all kinde of riches: with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

13 Javan, Tubal and Meshech: they were thy merchants: they traded traded the persons of men, and vessels of brasse in thy market.

14 They of the house of Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsmen, and mules.

15 The men of Dedan were thy merchants, many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony.

16 Syria was thy merchant, by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeraulds, purple, and broidered work, and fine linen, and corall, and agate.

17 Iudah and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market wheat of Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm.

18 Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches: in the wine of Helbon, & white woull.

19 Dan also and Javan going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, casse, and calamus were in thy market.

20 Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for charets.

21 Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants.

22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, & with all precious stones, & gold.

23 Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad were thy merchants.

24 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, & broidered work, & in chests of rich apparell bound with cords, and made of cedar among thy merchandise.

25 The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market, and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

26 ¶ Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east-winde hath broken thee in the midst of the seas.

27 Thy riches, & thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of warre, that are in thee, and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas, in the day of thy ruine.

28 The suburbs shall shake at the sound of ℣ cry of thy pilots.

29 And all that handle the oar; the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea shall come down from their shippes, they shall stand upon the land;

30 And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, & shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes:

31 And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth: & they shal weep for thee with bitterness of heart, and bitter wailing.

32 And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, What city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea?

33 When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people, thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches, and of thy merchandise.

34 In the time when thou shalt be broken by ℣ seas in ℣ depths of the waters, thy merchandise and all thy company in ℣ midst of thee shall fall.

35 All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shal be sore afrad, they shal be troubled in their countenance.

36 The merchants among the people shal hisse at thee, thou shalt be a terrour, and never shalt be any more.

CHAP. XXVIII.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of ℣ seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though

In the sight of the heathen, then shal they dwel in their land, that I have given to my servant Jacob.

26 And they shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards: yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgements upon all those that despise them round about them: and they shall know that I am the Lord their GOD.

CHAP. XXIX.

IN the tenth yeer, in the tenth moneth, in the twelfth day of the moneth, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesie against him, and against all Egypt.

3 Speak and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, behold, I am against thee Pharaoh, king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for my self.

4 But I will put hooks in thy chaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee, and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field, and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rent all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD; because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold therefore, I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene, even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited fourty yeers.

12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate, in the midst of the countreys that are desolate; and her cities among the cities that are laid waste, shall be desolate fourty yeers: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countreys.

13 ¶ Yet thus saith the Lord GOD, At the end of fourty yeers will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered.

14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, & will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation, and they shall be there a base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of kingdoms; neither shall it exalt it self any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven & twentieth yeer, in the first moneth, in the first day of the moneth, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, & every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, & take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land for his labour where-he served against it, bethey wrought for me, saith

the Lord GOD.

10 ¶ In that day will I cause men of the house of Israel to cease, and I will give the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, 2 Son of man, prophesie and say, thus saith the Lord GOD, Howl ye, Wo worth the day.
3 For the day is near, even the day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.
4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down.
5 Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.
6 Thus saith the LORD,
they also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord GOD.
7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countreys that are desolate; and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.
8 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed.
9 In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships, to make the careless Ethiopia afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for lo, it cometh.
10 Thus saith the Lord GOD,
I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.
11 He & his people with him, the terrible of the nations shall be brought to destroy the land, and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.
12 And I will make the rivers dry, & sell the land into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers:
I the LORD have spoken it.
13 Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will also destroy the idols, & I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; & there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: & I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.
14 And I will make Pathros desolate, & will set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgements in No.
15 And I will pour my fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt, and I will cut off the multitude of No.
16 And I will set fire in Egypt:
Sin shall have great pain, & No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily.
17 The young men of Aven, and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.
18 At Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: & the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shal go into captivity.
19 Thus will I execute judgements in Egypt, and they shall know that I am the LORD.
20 ¶ And it came to passe in the eleventh yeer, in the first moneth, in the seventh day of the moneth, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
21 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt, & lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to binde it, to make it strong to hold the sword.
22 Therefore thus saith the Lord
GOD, Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, & will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken: and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.
23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them thorow
the countreys;
24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put

put my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaohs arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly-wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down: and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countreys, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXXI.

AND it came to passe in the eleventh yeer, in the third moneth, in the first day of the moneth, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatnesse?

3 ¶ Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shrowd, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high, with her rivers running round about his plants, & sent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long, because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.

6 All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatnesse, in the length of his branches; for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir-trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut-trees were not like his branches: nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by multitude of his branches: that all the trees of Eden in the garden of God envied him.

10 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou hast lifted up thy self in height, & he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen: he shall surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, the terrible of the nations have cut him off, & have left him upon the mountains, and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, & his boughs are broken by the rivers of all the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 Upon his ruine shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and the beasts of all the field shall be upon his branches.

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD, In the day when he went down to the grave, I caused a mourning, I covered the deep for him, & I restrained the floods thereof, & the great waters were stayed, and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him, unto them that be slain with the sword, and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

of To whom art thou thus in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto ‖ nether parts:
thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with them that be slain by the sword.
This is Pharaoh, and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXXII.

Now it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, & troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers.
3 Thus saith the Lord GOD;
I will therefore spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall take thee up in my net.
4 Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.
5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.
6 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to ‖ mountains;
and the rivers shall be full of thee.
7 And when I shall put thee out,
I will cover the heaven, & make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, & ‖ moon shall not give her light.
8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land,
saith the Lord GOD.
9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.
10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them, and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.
11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord
GOD, The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.
12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations all of them: and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, & all ‖ multitude thereof shall be destroyed.
13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall ‖ foot of man trouble them any more, nor ‖ hoofs of beasts trouble them.
14 Then will I make their waters deep, & cause their rivers to run like oil, saith ‖ Lord GOD.
15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be desolate of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD.
16 This ‖ is lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: ‖ daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord GOD.
17 ¶ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, & cast them down, even her, & the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth; with them that go down into the pit.
19 Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.
20 They shall fall in the midst of them ‖ that are slain by ‖ sword:
she is delivered to the sword;
draw her and all her multitudes.
21 The strong among ‖ mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them ‖ that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by ‖ sword.
22 Asshur is there, and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword.
23 Whose graves are set in the sides

sides of the pit. & her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terrour in the land of the living.

24 There is Elam, and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terrour in the land of the living; yet have they born their shame with them that go down to the pit.

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain, with all her multitude: her graves are round about him, all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terrour was caused in the land of the living, yet have they born their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

26 There is Meshech, Tubal, & all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terrour in the land of the living.

27 And they shall not lie with the mighty, that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hel with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquity shall be upon their bones, though they were the terrour of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

29 There is Edom, her kings & all her princes, which with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, & with them that go down to the pit.

30 There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Zidonians which are gone down with the slain, with their terrour they are ashamed of their might, and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.

31 Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord God.

32 For I have caused my terrour in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised, with them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XXXIII.

AGain the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman:

3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people:

4 Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him: but he that taketh warning, shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchmans hand.

7 ¶ So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, & warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die: if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it: if he do not turn from his way, he shal die in his iniquity, but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we in them, how should we live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of ℣ wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: and as for wickedness of ℣ wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered: but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawfull and right;

15 If the wicked restore ℣ pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in ℣ statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 None of his sins that he hath committed, shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawfull and right; he shall surely live.

17 Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equall.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawfull and right, he shall live thereby.

20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal: O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

21 And it came to pass in the twelfth yeer of our captivity, in ℣ tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one ℣ had escaped ont of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 Now the hand of ℣ LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came, and had opened my mouth until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel, speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood; and shall ye possess the land?

26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbours wife; & shal ye possess the land?

27 Say ℣ thus unto them, Thus saith ℣ Lord GOD, As I live, surely they ℣ are in ℣ wastes shal fal by ℣ sword, & him ℣ is in ℣ open field wil I give to ℣ beasts to be devoured: & they that be in the forts, and in the caves shall die of the pestilence.

28 For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, ℣ none shall pass throuw.

29 Then shall they know that I am the LORD when I have laid the land most desolate, because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 ℣ Also ℣ son of man, ℣ children of thy people stil are talking against thee by ℣ walls, & in ℣ doors of ℣ houses, & speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, & hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

31 And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

32 And lo, thou art unto them them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not.

33 And when this cometh to passe (lo, it will come) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesie against the shepherds of Israel, prophesie & say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds, Wo be to the shepherds of Israel, that do feed themselves: should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 Ye eat ȳ fat, & ye clothe you with the woolye kill them that are fed, but ye feed not ȳ flock.

4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that ẅ was sick, neither have ye bound up that ẅ was broken, neither have ye brought again that ẅ was driven away, neither have ye sought ȳ which was lost: but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered thorow all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 ¶ Therefore ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD.

8 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but ȳ shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock:

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD.

10 Thus saith ȳ Lord GOD, Behold, I am against ȳ shepherds; & I will require my flock at their hand, & cause them to cease fro feeding the flock, neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more: for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 ¶ For thus saith ȳ Lord GOD, Behold, I, even I will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in ȳ day that he is among his sheep that are scattered: so will I seek out my sheep, & will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy & dark day.

13 And I will bring them out fro ȳ people, & gather them out of the countreys, & will bring them to their own land, & feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, & in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, & upon the high mountains of Israel shal their fold be: there shal they lie in a good fold, & in a fat pasture shal they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD.

16 I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that ȳ was driven away, & will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong, I will feed them with judgement.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I judge between cattel and cattel, between the rams and the he-goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you, to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down ẅ your feet ȳ residue of your pastures? & to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul ȳ residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden ẅ your feet: and they drink that ẅ ye have fouled ẅ your feet.

20 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD unto them, Behold, I, even I will judge between ȳ fat cattel & between the lean cattel.

21 Because ye have thrust with side & with shoulder, & pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad

22 Therefore will I save

...ock, and they shall no more be ...prey, and I will judge between ...cattell and cattell.

23 And I will set up one ...herd over them, and he ...feed them, even my servant ...id: he shall feed them, and he ...be their shepherd.

24 And I the LORD will be ...God, and my servant Da... a prince among them; I the ...have spoken it.

25 And I will make with them ...ovenant of peace, and will ...the evil beasts, to cease out ...the land: and they shall dwell ...in the wildernesse, and ...in the woods.

26 And I will make them and ...places round about my hill; ...and I will cause ✠ showre ...downe in his season: there ...be showres of blessing.

28 And they shall no more be ...prey to the heathen, neither ...the beasts of ✠ land devour ...but they shall dwell safely, ...none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise up for them ...plant of renown, and they shall ...more be consumed with hun... in the land, neither bear ...shame of the heathen anymore.

30 Thus shall they know that ...LORD their God am with ...and that they, even the ...of Israel, are my people, ...the Lord GOD.

31 And ye my flock, the flock of ...pasture, are men, and I am ...God, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXXV.

1 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, ...

2 Son of man, set thy face ...mount Seir, and prophe... against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, O mount ...I am against thee, and I will ...out mine hand against ...and will make thee most ...

4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

5 Because thou hast had a perpetuall hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end;

6 Therefore as I live, saith the Lord GOD; I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: sith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out, and him that returneth.

8 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 I will make thee perpetuall desolations, and thy cities shall not return, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations, and these two countreys shall be mine, and we will possesse it, whereas the LORD was there:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envie, which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them: and I will make my self known amongst them, when I have judged thee.

12 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord GOD; When the whole earth rejoyceth, I will make thee desolate:

15 As thou didst rejoyce at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXXVI.

ALso thou son of man, prophesie unto ¶ mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear ¶ word of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because the enemie had said against you, Aha, even the ancient high places are ours in possession:

3 Therefore prophesie and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 Therefore ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD, Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Surely in the fire of my jealousie have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession, with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophesie therefore concerning the land of Israel, & say unto the mountains, and to ¶ hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith ¶ Lord GOD, Behold, I have spoken in my jealousie, and in my fury, because ye have born the shame of the heathen,

7 Therefore, thus saith the Lord GOD, I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

8 ¶ But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yeeld your fruit to my people of Israel, for they are at hand to come.

9 For behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sowen.

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded.

11 And I will multiple upon you man and beast, and they shall increase, and bring fruit, & I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel, & they shall possesse thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, & thou shalt no more bereave forth bereave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because they say unto you, Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nation;

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD.

15 Neither will I cause people to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause the nations to fall more, saith the Lord GOD.

16 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their land, they defiled it by their own way & by their doings: their way was before me as ¶ uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them, for the blood that they had shed upon the land, for their idols wherewith they had polluted it.

19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way & according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned my holy Name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 ¶ But I had pity for mine holy Name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD, I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy Name's sake, which ye have profaned

among the heathen whither ye went.
23 And I will sanctifie my great Name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes:
24 For I will take you from among the heathen, & gather you out of all countreys, and will bring you into your own land.
25 Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness and from all your idols will I cleanse you.
26 A new heart also will I give you, & a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.
27 And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgements, & do them.
28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers, and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.
29 I will also save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you.
30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.
31 Then shal ye remember your own evil wayes, and your doings that were not good, and shall loath your selves in your own sight, for your iniquities, and for your abominations.
32 Not for your sakes do I work, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own wayes,
O house of Israel.
33 Thus saith the Lord GOD,
In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your infilthiness, I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.
34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.
35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate, is become like the garden of Eden; & the waste and desolate, & ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.
36 Then the heathen that are left round about you, shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.
37 Thus saith the Lord GOD,
I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock.
38 As the holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; & they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXXVII.

THE hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley, which was full of bones.
2 And caused me to passe by them round about, & behold, there were very many in y open valley, and lo, they were very dry.
3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest.
4 Again, he said unto me, Prophesie upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear
the word of the LORD.
5 Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones, Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you,
and ye shall live.
6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
7 So I prophesied, as I was commanded; and as I prophesied there was a noise, and behold, a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.
8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews, and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them.
9 Then said he unto me, Prophesie unto the winde, prophe-sie son of man, & say to y winde

Thus saith the Lord GOD Come from the four windes, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied, as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 ¶ Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost, we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophesie, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, & cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into ỹ land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

15 ¶ The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, & write upon it, For Joseph the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:

17 And joyn them one to another into one stick, and they shal become one in thine hand.

18 ¶ And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these?

19 Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and ỹ tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with ỹ stick of Judah, & make them one stick, & they shal be one in mine hand.

20 ¶ And the sticks whereon thou writest, shall be in thine hand before their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will take the children of Israel from amongst the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land.

22 And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel, and one king shall be a king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all.

23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions, but I will save them out of all their dwelling places wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, & I will be their God.

24 And David my servant shall be king over them, & they all have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgements, and observe my statutes & do them.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt, and they shall dwell therein, even they & their children, & their children's children for ever: & my servant David shall be their prince for ever.

26 Moreover, I will make a covenant of peace with them, it shall be an everlasting covenant with them, and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

27 My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

28 And ỹ heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctifie Israel, when my sanctuary shal be in the midst of them for evermore.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, ỹ chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesie against him,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

4 And I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy chaws, and I will bring thee forth, & all thine army, horses and horsemen, of them clothed with all sort of armour, even a great company with bucklers & shields, all of them handling swords.

5 Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them all of them with shield and helmet:
6 Gomer and all his bands, the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands, and many people with thee.
7 Be thou prepared, and prepare thy self, thou and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.
8 After many dayes thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, & they shall dwell safely all of them.
9 Thou shalt ascend & come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou & all thy bands, & many people with thee.
10 Thus saith the Lord GOD,
It shall also come to passe, that at the same time shall things come into thy minde, and thou shalt think an evil thought:
11 And thou shalt say, I will go to the land of unwalled villages: I will go to them that are at rest, that dwel safely, all of them dwelling without walls, having neither bars nor gates;
12 To take a spoil, and to take a prey, to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited: & upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwel in the midst of the land.
13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattel and goods, to take a great spoil?
14 Therefore son of man, prophesie & say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD, In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely shalt thou not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou & many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, & a mighty army.
16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: it shall be in the latter dayes, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O
Gog, before their eyes.
17 Thus saith the Lord GOD,
Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, & & prophesied in those dayes, many years; that I would bring thee against them?
18 And it shall come to passe at the same time, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face.
19 For in my jealousie, and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken:
surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel:
20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth shall shake at my presence, & the mountains shall be thrown down, & the steep places shall fall & every wal shal fal to the ground.
21 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD:
every mans sword shall be against his brother.
22 And I will plead against him with pestilence, & with blood, and I will rain upon him, & upon his bands, & upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.
23 Thus will I magnifie my self, and sanctifie my self, and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXXIX.

THerefore son of man, prophesie against Gog, and say,
Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold,
I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech & Tubal,

2 And I will turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, & will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy bowe out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon the open field, for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

6 And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelesly in the iles, and they shal know ỹ I am ỹ LORD.

7 So will I make my holy Name known in ỹ midst of my people Israel, and I will not let them pollute my holy Name any more, and ỹ heathen shal know ỹ I am the LORD, ỹ holy One in Israel.

8 ¶ Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith ỹ Lord GOD, this is ỹ day whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire, and burn the weapons, both ỹ shields, and the bucklers, the bows & the arrowes, and the hand-staves, and the speare; and they shall burn them with fire seven yeers.

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of ỹ forests, for they shal burn ỹ weapons with fire, and they shal spoil those ỹ spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD.

11 ¶ And it shal come to passe at that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea, and it shal stop ỹ noses of ỹ passengers, & there shall they bury Gog, and all his multitudes, and they shal call it, The valley of Hamon-Gog

12 And seven moneths shall the house of Israel be burying of them, ỹ they may cleanse ỹ land

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them, and it shall be to them a renown, the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD.

14 And they shall sever out men of continuall employment, passing thorow the land, to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven moneths shall they search.

15 And the passengers that passe thorow the land, when any seeth a mans bone, then shall he set up a signe by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-Gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah: thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 ¶ And ỹ ton of man, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Speak unto every feathered fowl, & to every beast of the field, Assemble your selves, and come, gather your selves on every side to my sacrifice, that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall ye be filled at my table with horses and charets, with mighty men, & with all men of warre, saith ỹ Lord GOD.

21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgement ỹ I have executed, and my hand ỹ I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Israel shall know ỹ that I am the LORD their God, from ỹ day and forward.

23 ¶ And ỹ heathen shall know ỹ the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleannesse, & according to their transtransgressions have I done unto him, and hid my face from them.

39 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name:
40 After that they have born their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid?
41 When I have brought them again from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations:
42 Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, & caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.
43 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XL.

In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the self same day was the hand of the LORD upon me, & brought me thither.
2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the south.
3 And he brought me thither, and behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brasse, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed: and he stood in the gate.
4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee: for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee, art thou brought hither:
declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.
5 And behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about:
and in the mans hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit, and an hand breadth:
so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed, and the height, one reed.
6 Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the staires thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad, and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.
7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad, and between the little chambers were five cubits, & the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.
8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.
9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits, and the posts thereof, two cubits, and the porch of the gate was inward.
10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side;
they three were of one measure, and the posts had one measure on this side, and on that side.
11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits, and the length of the gate thirteen cubits.
12 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side, and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.
13 He measured then the gate from the roof of the one little chamber, to the roof of another; the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.
14 He made also posts of three score cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.
15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate, were fifty cubits.
16 And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward, & upon each post were palm-trees.
17 Then brought he me into the outward court, and lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured § breadth from the fore front of § lower gate, unto the fore-front of the inner court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 ¶ And the gate of the outward court that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side, and three on that side, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees were after the measure of the gate that looketh towards the east, and they went up unto it by seven steps, and the arches were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east, and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 ¶ After he brought me toward the south, & behold a gate toward the south, & he measured § posts thereof, & § arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it, and in § arches thereof round about, like those windows, the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them, and it had palm-trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward § south, and he measured frō gate to gate toward § south, an hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south-gate, and he measured the south-gate according to these measures,

29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward § utter court, & palm trees were upon § posts thereof, & the going up to it had eight steps.

32 ¶ And he brought me into the inner court toward the east, and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures, and there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court, and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures.

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the utter court, & palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers, and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on the one side, and two tables on the other side, to slay thereon the burnt offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespasse-offering.

40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north-gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which

...ple, and ...ame two tables.

...four tables were on this ...de by four tables on ☩ side by ☩ ...es of fourteeight tables, where...on they slew their sacrifices.

...And the four tables were ...ers stone for the burnt of...ngs of a cubit & an half long, ...e cubit and a half broad, and ...bit high: whereupon also ...id the instruments, where...ey slew the burnt offer...and the sacrifice.

...And within were hooks ...d broad, fastened round a...nd upon the tables were the ...h of the offering.

...And without the inner ...ate were the chambers of the ...gers in the inner court, which ...e by the side of the north...te: and their prospect was to...e the south: one at the side of ...ard gate, having the pro...ct toward the north.

...And he said unto me, This ...mber, whose prospect is to...d the south is for the priests, ...keepers of ☩ charge of ☩ house. ...And the chamber whose ...ect is toward the north is ...the priests the keepers of the ...ge of the altar: these are the ...of Zadok among the sons ...hi, which come near to the ...d to minister unto him.

...So he measured ☩ court: an...ard cubits long, & an hun...d cubits broad, four square, & ...ar that was before ☩ house.

...And he brought me to the ...ch of ☩ house, and measured ...h of the porch: five cu...on this side, and five cu...on that side: and ☩ breadth ...e gate was three cubits on ...side, and three cubits on ...side.

...The length of the porch was ...y cubits, and the breadth e...n cubits: and he brought me ...by steps whereby they went ...p: and there were pillars ...e posts: one on this side, ...another on that side.

CHAP. XLI.

...Afterward he brought me to ...e temple, and measured ...posts: six cubits broad on the ...side, and six cubits broad on ...other side, which was the ...dth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of ☩ door was ten cubits: and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, fourty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward and measured ☩ post of ☩ door: two cubits: & ☩ door: six cubits: & the breadth of ☩ door, seven cubits.

4 So he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits: and the breadth twenty cubits before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits: and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits round about ☩ house on every side.

6 And the side chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order: and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might have hold: but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward: & so increased from the lowest chamber to ☩ highest by ☩ midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickneſſe of the wall which was for the side chambers without, was five cubits: & that which was left, was the place of the side chambers ☩ were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideneſſe of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north: and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left, was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west, was seventy cubits broad: & the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house an hundred cubits long, and the separate place, and the building with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long.

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place, which was behinde it: and the galleries thereof on the one side, and on the other side an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court.

16 The door posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories over against the door ceiled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered.

17 To above the door, even unto the inner house, & without, and by all the wall round about within and without by measure.

18 And it was made with cherubims, and palm trees, so that a palm-tree was between a cherub and a cherub, and every cherub had two faces.

19 So that the face of a man was toward the palm-tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm-tree on the other side: it was made thorow all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door, were cherubims and palm-trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary, the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof were of wood: & he said unto me, This is the table that is before the LORD.

23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves, two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made upon them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims, and palm-trees, like as were made upon the walls, and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were narrow windows, and palm-trees on the one side, and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side-chambers of the house, and thick planks.

CHAP. XLII.

THen he brought me forth into the utter court, the way toward the north, and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against twenty cubits, which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was gallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit, and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were higher than these, then the lowermost, and then the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitned more than the lowermost, and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers toward the utter court, on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: & lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And from under these chambers was the entery on the east side, as one goeth into them from the utter court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them

Ezek. glory

was like the appearance of the chambers: & were toward the north was long as they: & as broad ...ers, and all their goings out were both according to their fashions: & according to their doors. 21 And according to ¶ doors of chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

22 Then said he unto me, The north chambers: & ¶ south chambers, are before the separate ...: they be holy chambers, where the priests ¶ approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay ¶ most holy things, & ¶ meat-offering, & ¶ sin-offering, and ¶ trespass-offering: for the place is holy.

14 When ¶ priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into ¶ utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they ministered; for they are holy, and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for ¶ people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring ¶ inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate, whose prospect is toward ¶ east, & measured it round about.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

17 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with a measuring reed round about.

18 He measured the south-side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

19 ¶ He turned about to the west side, & measured five hundred reeds, with ¶ measuring reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary, and the profane place.

CHAP. XLIII.

AFterward he brought me to ¶ the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east.

2 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw, when I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar: and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court: and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house, and the man stood by me.

7 ¶ And he said unto me Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of ¶ children of Israel for ever, & my holy Name shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

8 In their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their post by my posts, & the wall between me and them: they have even defiled my holy Name by their abominations ¶ they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, & ¶ carcases of their kings far from me, and I will dwel in ¶ midst of them for ever.

10 ¶ Thou son of man shew the house to ¶ house of Israel, ¶ they may be ashamed of their iniquities: & let them measure ¶ pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all ¶ they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and ¶ comings in thereof, & all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: & write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, & do them.

12 This is ¶ law of ¶ house, upon ¶ top of ¶ mountain: ¶ whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. behold, this is the law of ¶ house.

13 ¶ And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: the cubit is a cubit and an handbreadth even the bottom shall be a cubit, and ℣ breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span. and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground, even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long, and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof: and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about: and his stairs shall look toward ℣ east.

18 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD, These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites, that be of the seed of Zadok which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord GOD, a young bullock for a sin-offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin-offering, & he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, without ℣ sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of ℣ goats without blemish for a sin offering, & they shall cleanse ℣ altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, & they shall offer them up for a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

25 Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering; they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves.

27 And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt-offerings upon the altar, and your peace-offerings; and I will accept you, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XLIV.

THen he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary, which looketh toward the east, and it was shut.

2 Then said the LORD unto me, This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD ℣ God of Israel hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the prince; ℣ prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD: he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 ¶ Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD, and I fell upon my face.

5 And ℣ LORD said unto me, Son of man, mark well, & behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all ℣ I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house with every going forth of ℣ sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O ye house of Israel, Let it suffice you of all your abominations,

7 In ℣ ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary to pollute it, even my house,

when

...offer my bread, the fat, ...blood; and they have ...my covenant, because of ...abominations.

...and ye have not kept the ...of mine holy things: but ...set keepers of my charge ...industry for your selves.

...Thus saith the Lord GOD, ...stranger uncircumcised in ...nor uncircumcised in flesh, ...enter into my sanctuary, of ...stranger that is among the ...children of Israel.

...and the Levites that are gone ...far from me, when Israel ...astray, which went astray ...from me after their idols; ...shall even bear their iniquity.

...yet they shall be ministers ...in my sanctuary, having charge at ...gates of the house, and ministering to the house; they shall ...the burnt-offering, and the ...sacrifice for the people, & they ...stand before them to minister unto them.

...because they ministered unto ...them before their idols, and ...caused the house of Israel to ...into iniquity: therefore ...have lift up mine hand against ...saith the Lord GOD, and ...they shall bear their iniquity.

...that they shall not come ...unto me to do the office of a priest unto me, nor ...come near to any of my holy ...things in the most holy places: ...but they shall bear their shame, ...and their abominations which ...they have committed.

...but I will make them keepers of the charge of the house ...for all the service thereof, & for ...all that shall be done therein.

...But the priests & Levites, ...sons of Zadok that kept the ...charge of my sanctuary, when the ...children of Israel went astray ...from me, they shall come near ...to me to minister unto me, and ...they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat & the blood, ...saith the Lord GOD.

...They shall enter into my ...sanctuary, and they shall come ...near to my table to minister unto me, & they shall keep my charge.

...And it shall come to pass ...when they enter in at the ...gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments, and no wool shall come upon them, whilest they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loines; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat.

19 And when they go forth into the utter court, even into the utter court to the people, they shal put off their garments wherein they ministred, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shal put on other garments, and they shall not sanctifie the people with their garments.

20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long, they shall onely poll their heads.

21 Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, or her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before.

23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane; and cause men to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And in controversie they shall stand in judgement, and they shall judge it according to my judgements: and they shall keep my laws, and my statutes, in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven dayes.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court to minister in the sanctuary, he shal offer his sin-offering, saith the Lord GOD.

28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: I am their in-inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession.

29 They shall eat the meat-offering, and the sin offering, and the trespasse-offering; and every dedicate thing in Israel shall be theirs.

30 And the first of all the first-fruits of all things, and every oblation of all of every sort of your oblations shall be the priests: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of it self, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

CHAP. XLV.

MOreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the Lord, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand: this shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about, and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, and the most holy place.

4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come neer to minister unto the LORD; and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers.

6 ¶ And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 ¶ And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side, and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward, and the length shall be over against one of the portions from the west-border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppresse my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute judgement and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord GOD.

10 Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah a tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels shall be your maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer, the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley.

14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths, for ten baths are an homer.

15 And one lamb out of the flocks, out of two hundred out of the fat pastures of Israel, for a meat-offering, and for a burnt-offering, and for peace-offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord GOD.

16 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Israel.

17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and drink-offer-

2 Thus saith the Lord GOD, ...e first month, in the first ...day of the month, thou shalt ...e a young bullock without ...ish, & cleanse the sanctuary.

CHAP. XLVI.

1 Thus saith the Lord GOD; The gate of the inner court ...at looketh toward the east ...all be shut six working dayes; ...t on the sabbath it shall be ...ened, and in the day of the ...oon it shall be opened.

2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priest shall prepare his burnt-offering, and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth, but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD, in the sabbaths, and in the new moons.

4 And the burnt-offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD in the sabbath-day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 And the meat-offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat-offering for the lambs, as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat-offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs, according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, & he shall go forth by ſ way thereof.

9 ¶ But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship, shall go out by the way of the south gate: and he that entereth by the way of the south gate, shall go forth by the way of ſ north-gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

10 And the prince in ſ midst of them, when they go in, shall go in, and when they go forth shall go forth.

11 And in the feasts, & in the solemnities, the meat-offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, & an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

12 Now

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt-offering, or peace-offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then open him the gate ℣ looketh toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt-offering, and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath-day: then he shall go forth, and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

13 Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt-offering unto the LORD of a lamb of the first yeer without blemish: thou shalt prepare it every morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat-offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with ℣ fine flour: a meat-offering continually by a perpetuall ordinance unto the LORD.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat-offering, and the oil every morning for a continuall burnt-offering.

16 ¶ Thus saith ℣ Lord GOD; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons: it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the yeer of liberty; after, it shall return to the prince, but his inheritance shall be his sons for them.

18 Moreover the prince shall not take of the peoples inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession: but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession, that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

19 ¶ After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the northward: behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespasse-offering, and the sin-offering, where they shall bake the meat-offering: that they bear them not out into the utter court to sanctifie the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts joyned of fourty cubits long, and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.

23 And there was a new building round about in them, round about them four: and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about.

24 Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

CHAP. XLVII.

AFterward he brought me again unto the door of the house; and behold waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate north-ward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate, by the way that looketh eastward; and behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when the man that had the line in his hand, went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ancles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees: again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to ℣ loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand, and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river.

17 Now

Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on ¶ one and on the other.

Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live, and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed, & everything shall live whither ¶ river cometh.

And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from Engedi, even unto Eneglaim, they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many.

But the miry places thereof, and the marishes thereof, shall not be healed, they shall be given to salt.

And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side, & on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary, & the fruit thereof shall be for meat, & the leaf thereof for medicine.

¶ Thus saith the Lord God; This shall be the border whereby ye shall inherit ¶ land, according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions.

And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers, and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

And this shall be ¶ border of the land; on the north side, from the great sea, the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad;

Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus, and the border of Hamath; Hazar Hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the sea shall be Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath: and this is ¶ north side.

18 And the east side ye shall measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side.

19 And the south-side southward from Tamar, even to the waters of strife in Kadesh, the river to the great sea; and this is ¶ south side southward.

20 The west-side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath, this is the west side.

21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel.

22 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers ¶ sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XLVIII.

NOw these are the names of the tribes, from the north end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus northward, to the coast of Hamath; (for these are his sides east and west) a portion for Dan.

2 And by the border of Dan, from the east side unto ¶ west, a portion for Asher.

3 And by the border of Asher, from ¶ east-side even unto the west side, a portion for Naphtali.

4 And by ¶ border of Naphtali, from the east side unto ¶ west-side, a portion for Manasseh.

5 And by the border of Manasseh, from the east-side unto ¶ west side, a portion for Ephraim.

6 ¶ And

6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west-side, a portion for Reuben.

7 And by the border of Reuben from the east side, unto the west side, a portion for Iudah.

8 ¶ And by the border of Iudah, from the east side, and to the west side, shall be the offering which they shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west-side, and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.

9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the LORD, shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth.

10 And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation, toward the north, five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five & twenty thousand in length, and the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst thereof.

11 It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, which have kept my charge, which went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.

12 And this oblation of the land that is offered, shall be unto them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites.

13 And over against the border of the priests, the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the first-fruits of the land: for it is holy unto the LORD.

15 ¶ And the five thousand that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs: and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

16 And these shall be the measures thereof, the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east-side four thousand & five hundred, & the west side four thousand and five hundred.

17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty.

18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion, and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that serve the city.

19 And they that serve the city, shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel.

20 All the oblation shall be five & twenty thousand by five & twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation four square, with the possession of the city.

21 ¶ And the residue shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, & of the possession of the city, over against the five & twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and west-ward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west-border over against the portions for the prince, and it shall be the holy oblation; & the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof.

22 Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is for the princes, between the border of Iudah, and the border of Benjamin shall be for the prince.

23 As for the rest of the tribes, from the east-side unto the west side, Benjamin shall have a portion.

24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side unto the west side, Simeon shall have a portion.

25 And by the border of Issachar, from the east-side unto the west side, Issachar a portion.

25 And

and by the border of Issachar from the east side unto the west side, Zebulun a portion.

27 And by the border of Zebulun from the east-side unto the sea-side a portion.

And by the border of Gad, at the south-side southward, the coast shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of strife in Kadesh, and to the river to the great sea.

This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, saith the Lord GOD.

¶ And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, four thousand & five hundred measures.

And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates northward, one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi, 32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred, and three gates, and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan.

33 And at the south-side four thousand and five hundred measures, and three gates: one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun.

34 At the west side four thousand & five hundred, with their three gates, one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali.

35 It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, The LORD is there

THE BOOK OF DANIEL.

CHAP. I.

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, came Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it:

2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar, to the house of his god, and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god.

3 ¶ And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

4 Children in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, & cunning in knowledge, & understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, & whom they might teach the learning, and the tongue of the Caldeans.

5 ¶ And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, & of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar, & to Hananiah of Shadrach, & to Mishael of Meshech, & to Azariah of Abednego.

8 ¶ But Daniel purposed in his heart, that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs, that he might not defile himself.

9 Now God had brought Daniel into favour & tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my Lord the king, who hath appointed your meat, & your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

11 Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days, and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, & the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten dayes.

15 And at the end of ten dayes, their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh, then all the children which did eat § portion of § kings meat.

16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse.

17 ¶ As for these four children, God gave them knowledge, and skill in all learning and wisdom; & Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the dayes that the king had said he should bring them in then the prince of the eunuches brought them in before Nebuchad-nezzar.

19 And the king communed with them: and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, & Azariah: therefore stood they before the king.

20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better then all the magicians, and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 And Daniel continued even unto § first year of king Cyrus.

CHAP. II.

AND in the second yeer of the reign of Nebuchad-nezzar, Nebuchad-nezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Caldeans, for to shew the king his dreams: so they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Caldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Caldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me § dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, & your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts, and rewards, and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that you would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 ¶ The Caldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the kings matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such thing at any magician, or astrologer, or Caldean.

11 And it was a rare thing that the thing required, and there is none other that can shew it before the kings, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and was very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men might be slain: and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 ¶ Then Daniel answered with counsell and wisdom to Arioch the captain of § king guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon.

15 He answered and said to Arioch the kings captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house

19 ¶ Then was the secret re... ...unto Daniel in a night ...n: then Daniel blessed the ...of heaven.
20 Daniel answered and said, ...ld be the Name of God for ...and ever: for wisdom and ...are his.

26 The king answered and ...said to Daniel, whose name was ...Belteshazzar, Art thou able to ...make known unto me the dream ...which I have seen, & the in... ...terpretation thereof?
27 Daniel answered in the ...presence of ☿ king, and said, The ...secret which the king hath de... ...manded cannot ☿ wise men, the ...astrologers, the magicians, the ...soothsayers shew unto the king:
28 But there is a God in hea... ...ven that revealeth secrets, & maketh ...known unto king Nebuchadnez... ...zar what shall be in ☿ latter days. Thy dream, & the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these.
29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets, maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.
30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom ☿ I have more than any living, but for their sakes ☿ shall make known ☿ interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.
31 ¶ Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image: this great image whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee, and the form thereof was terrible:
32 This images head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass;
33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron, and part of clay.
34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote ☿ image upon his feet that were of iron & clay, and brake them to pieces.
35 Then was ☿ iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors, and the winde carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.
36 ¶ This is the dream, and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.
37 Thou, O king, art a king of kings; for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.
38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, & ☿ fowls of ☿ heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all: art thou head of gold.
39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferiour to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.
40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces, and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces, and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters clay, and part of iron: the kingdom shall be divided, but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest ¶ iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay; so ¶ kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay; they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the dayes of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces & consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, & the gold: the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter, and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 ¶ Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, & commanded that they should offer an oblation, & sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Daniel, & said, Of a truth it is that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a reveiler of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, & gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, & chief of ¶ governours over all ¶ wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

CHAP. III.

NEbuchad-nezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in ¶ province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchad-nezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governours, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellours, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchad-nezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the princes, the governours, and captains, ¶ judges, the treasurers, the counsellours, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchad-nezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchad-nezzar had set up.

4 Then an herald cryed aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages,

5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, Dulcimer, and all kindes of musick, ye fall down & worship the golden image that Nebuchad-nezzar the king hath set up:

6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, & all kindes of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchad-nezzar the king had set up.

8 ¶ Wherefore at that time certain Caldeans came neer, and accused the Jews.

9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchad-nezzar, O king, live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kindes of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

11 And

and whoso falleth not and worshippeth, that he ame cast into the midst of burning fiery furnace.
There are certain Jews, ou hast set over ☩ affairs of vince of Babylon, Sha-Meshach, and Abednego:
man, O king, have not reded thee, they serve not thy nor worship the golden i-which thou hast set up.
Then Nebuchad-nezzar
nge and fury command-
ring Shadrach, Meshach, Abednego then they brought men before the king.
Nebuchad-nezzar spake and to them, Is it true, O Sha-Meshach, and Abednego?
ye serve my gods, nor the golden image which ve up?
Now if ye be ready, that at time ye hear the sound cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, ulcimer, and all of musick, ye fall down and up the image which I ade: well: but if ye wor-ge ye shall be cast the same ur into the midst of a burning rnace: and who is that God that shall deliver you out my hands?
Shadrach, Meshach, and Ago answered and said to g, O Nebuchad-nezzar, e not careful to answer
e in this matter.
If it be so, our God whom serve is able to deliver us
m the burning fiery furnace, he will deliver us out of hand, O king.
But if not, Be it known un-thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship thy golden image which thou hast set up.
Then was Nebuchad-nezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, & Abednego:
therefore he spake, & commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heat.
And he commanded ☩ most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, & their hats, and their other garments, & were cast into ☩ midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

23 And these three men, Sha-drach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchad-nezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of ☩ fire? They answered & said unto the king, True, O king.

25 And he answered and said,
Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt, and the form of ☩ fourth is like ☩ son of God.

26 ¶ Then Nebuchad-nezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake & said, Shadrach, Meshach, & Abednego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither: Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the princes, gover-nours, and captains, and the kings counsellours, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nebuchad-nezzar spake and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who hath sent his angel and delivered his servants ☩ trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yeelded their bodies that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

29 Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Sha-drach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill, because because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort.

30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, in the province of Babylon.

CHAP. IIII.

NEbuchad-nezzar ℸ kinguess all people, nations & languages ℸ dwel in all the earth, Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 I thought it good to shew ℸ signes & wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me.

3 How great are his signes? & how mighty are his wonders? his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 ¶ I Nebuchad-nezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace.

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed, and the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Caldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me ℸ interpretation thereof.

8 ¶ But at ℸ last Daniel came in before me, (whose name was Belteshazzar, according to ℸ name of my god, & in whom is ℸ spirit of ℸ holy gods) & before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were ℸ visions of mine head in my bed: I saw, and behold, a tree in ℸ midst of ℸ earth, and ℸ height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, & was strong and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to ℸ end of all ℸ earth.

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, & in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, & all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and behold, a watcher, and an holy one came down from heaven.

14 He cried aloud, and said thus; Hew down the tree, & cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, & the fowls from his branches.

15 Nevertheless, leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron & brasse, in the tender grasse of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grasse of the earth.

16 Let his heart be changed from mans, & let a beasts heart be given unto him, and let seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, & the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know, that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchad-nezzar have seen: now thou O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able, for the spirit of the holy Gods is in thee.

19 ¶ Then Daniel (whose name was Belteshazzar) was astonied for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream or the interpretation thereof trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 The tree ℸ ℸ saw, which grew & was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven & the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, & the fruit thereof much, & in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, & upon whose branches the

...heaven had their habitation:
...it is thou, O king, that art
...and become strong: for ...greatnesse is growne, and
...reacheth unto heaven, and thy
...minion to the end of the earth.
...king, whereas the king saw a ...watcher & an holy one coming
...from heaven, & saying, Hew
...the tree down, and destroy it; yet
...leave the stumpe of the roots thereof
...in the earth, even with a band of ...iron & brasse, in the tender grasse
...of the field, & let it be wet with
...the dew of heaven, & let his portion
...be with the beasts of the field,
...till seven times passe over him:
...This is the interpretation,
...O king, and this is the decree of ...the most High, which is come upon
...my lord the king:
...That they shall drive thee
...from men, and thy dwelling shall
...be with the beasts of the field,
...and they shall make thee to eat
...grasse as oxen, and they shal wet
...thee with the dew of heaven, and
...seven times shal passe over thee,
...till thou know that the most High
...ruleth in the kingdom of men, and
...giveth it to whomsoever he will.
...And whereas they commanded to leave the stumpe of the ...roots, thy kingdom shall be
...sure unto thee, after that thou
...shalt have known that the heavens do rule.
...Wherefore, O king, let my ...counsell be acceptable unto
...thee, and break off thy sins by
...righteousnesse, and thine iniquities
...by shewing mercy to the
...poore; if it may be a lengthening
...of thy tranquility.
...All this came upon the
...king Nebuchad-nezzar.
...At the end of twelve moneths
...he walked in the palace of the ...kingdom of Babylon.
...The king spake and said, Is ...not this great Babylon, that I ...have built for the house of the ...kingdom, by the might of my ...power, and for the honour of my ...majesty?
...While the word was in the ...king's mouth, there fell a voice
...from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken:
...The kingdom is departed
...from thee;
...and they shall drive thee

from men: and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; they shall make thee to eat grasse as oxen, and seven times shall passe over thee, untill thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar, and he was driven from men, and did eat grasse as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles feathers, and his nails like birds clawes.

34 And at the end of the dayes, I Nebuchad-nezzar lift up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, & I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation.

35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing, and he doth according to his will in the army of heaven, & among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me, and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightnesse returned unto me, and my counsellours, and my lords sought unto me, and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchad-nezzar, praise and extoll, and honour the king of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his wayes judgement: and those that walk in pride, he is able to abase.

CHAP. V.

BElshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden & silver vessels, which his father Nebuchad-nezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem, that the king and his princes, his wives & his concubines might drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God, which was at Jerusalem, and the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines drank in them.

4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brasse, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 ¶ In the same hour came forth fingers of a mans hand, and wrote over against the candlestick, upon the plaister of the wall of the kings palace, and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the kings countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joynts of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

7 The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Caldeans, and the soothsayers: and the king spake and said to the wise men of Babylon, whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the kings wise men, but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonished.

10 ¶ Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house, and the queen spake and said, O king live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed.

11 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods, and in the dayes of thy father, light and understanding, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him: whom the king Nebuchad-nezzar thy father, the king, I say thy father made master of the magicians, astrologers, Caldeans, and soothsayers.

12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king: and the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jury?

14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding, and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, astrologers have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing.

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 ¶ Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thy self, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchad-nezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour.

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages trembled & feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive, and whom he would he set up, and whom he would, he put down.

20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him.

21 And he was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was

...And over these three presi... of whom Daniel was first) ...these princes might give ac... counts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents & princes, because an excellent spirit was in him, & the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 ¶ Then the presidents & princes sought to finde occasion against Daniel concerning § kingdom, but they could finde none occasion, nor fault: forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any errour or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall not finde any occasion against this Daniel, except we finde it against him concerning the law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governours, and the princes, the counsellours, and the captains have consulted together to establish a royall statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty dayes, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into § den of lions.

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and signe the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing, and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house, and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, & prayed, & gave thanks before his God, as he did afore time.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying, and making supplication before his God.

12 Then they came neer, and spake before the king concerning the kings decree; hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty dayes, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel which is of the captivity of the children of Judah regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, that no decree nor statute, which the king establisheth, may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God, whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords, that purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting, neither were instruments of musick brought before him, and his sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den: so Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 ¶ Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 I make a decree, that in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom, that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven, and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

CHAP. VII.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream & visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, divers one from another.

4 The first was like a lion, and had eagles wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 And behold, another beast, a second, like to a bear: and it raised up it self on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it, between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this, I beheld, and lo another like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four

...I Daniel was grieved in ...and the viſions of my head

...troubled me.
...I came neer unto one of them that ſtood by, and aſked him the truth of all this: ſo he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 Theſe great beaſts which are four, are four kings, which ſhall ariſe out of the earth.

18 But the ſaints of the moſt high ſhall take the kingdom, and poſſeſſe the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beaſt, which was divers from all the others, exceeding dreadfull, whoſe teeth were of iron, and his nails of braſſe, which devoured, brake in pieces, and ſtamped the reſidue with his feet.

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell, even of the horn that had eyes, and a mouth ſpake very great things, whoſe look was more ſtout then his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the ſame horn made war with the ſaints, and prevailed againſt them;

22 Untill the Ancient of dayes came, and judgement was given to the ſaints of the moſt high, and the time came that the ſaints poſſeſſed the kingdom.

23 Thus he ſaid, The fourth beaſt ſhal be the fourth kingdom upon the earth, which ſhall be divers from all kingdoms, and ſhall devour the whole earth, and ſhall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that ſhall ariſe; and another ſhall riſe after them; and he ſhall be divers from the firſt, and he ſhal ſubdue three kings.

25 And he ſhal ſpeak great words againſt the moſt High, and ſhall wear out the ſaints of the moſt High, and think to change times, and lawes: and they ſhall be given into his hand, until a time, & times, and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgement ſhal ſit, and they ſhall take away his dominion, to conſume and to deſtroy it unto the end.

27 And the kingdom, and dominion, and the greatneſſe of the kingdom under the whole heaven, ſhall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

CHAP. VIII.

IN the third yeer of the reign of king Belshazzar, a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; (and it came to passe when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam) and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram, which had two horns, and the two horns were high: but one was higher then the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward: so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand, but he did according to his will, & became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold an he-goat came from the west, on the face of the whole earth & touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to ŷ ram ŷ had two horns, ẅ I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, & smote ŷ the ram, and brake his two horns, and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him, and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great, and when he was strong, the great horn was broken: and for it came up four notable ones toward the four windes of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven, and it cast down some of the host, and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea he magnified himself even to ŷ prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice, by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to ŷ ground, and it practised, and prospered.

13 ¶ Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint ŷ spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred dayes: then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

15 ¶ And it came to passe, when I, even I Daniel had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a mans voice between the banks of Ulai, which called and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand ŷ vision.

17 So he came neer where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be ŷ vision.

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 The ram which thou sawest, having two horns, are the kings of Media and Persia.

21 And

and the rough goat is the of Grecia, and the great that is between his eyes, is first king.

Now that being broken,
four stood up for it, kingdoms shal stand up out nation, but not in his power.
in the latter time of their dom, when the transgresare come to the full, a of fierce countenance, and standing darke sentences hall stand up.

and his power shall be
, but not by his own
: and he shall destroy fully, and shal prosper, and rable, and shall destroy the
, and the holy people.

and through his policy also hall cause craft to prosper hand, and he shall magni-himself in his heart, and by shall destroy many: he also stand up against the of princes, but he shall broken without hand.

and the vision of the even-and the morning, which said, is true: wherefore close up the vision, for it for many dayes.

and I Daniel fainted, and sick certain dayes: after-I rose up, and did the of the king, and I was asto-at the vision, but none understood it.

CHAP. IX.

In the first yeer of Darius the
, which was made over the realm of the Caldeans
the first yeer of his reign, Daniel understood by books number of the yeers, whereof word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy yeers in the desolations of Jerusalem.
3 And I set my face unto the Lord God to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting and sackcloth, and ashes.
4 And I prayed unto the LORD
my God, and made confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments:

5 We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, & have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts, and from thy judgements.

6 Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy Name to our kings, our princes, & our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousnesse belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day, to the men of Iudah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel that are neer, and that are far off thorow all the countreys whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespasse that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, & to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To the Lord our God belong mercies & forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him.

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us, by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice, therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath confirmed his words which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done, as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As it is written in the law of Moses, All this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, & understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evill, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works, which he doth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶ O Lord, according to all thy righteousnesse, I beseech thee, let thine anger, and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sinnes, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem & thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lords sake.

18 O my God, incline thine eare, and hear: open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy Name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord hear, O Lord forgive, O Lord hearken and do: defer not for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city, and thy people are called by thy Name.

20 ¶ And whiles I was speaking and praying, and confessing my sin, and the sin of my people Israel, & presenting my supplication before § LORD my God, for § holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill & understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee: for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, & consider § vision.

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people, and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousnesse, and to seal up the vision & prophesie, and to anoint the most Holy.

25 Know therefore, and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the prince, shall be seven weeks; and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall even in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come, shall destroy the city and the sanctuary, and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the warre desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations, he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

CHAP. X.

IN § third yeer of Cyrus king of Persia, a thing was revealed unto Daniel, (whose name was called Belteshazzar,) and § thing was true, but the time appointed was long, and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those dayes, I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first moneth, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel;

5 Then I lift up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz.

6 His body also was like the berryl, and his face as the appearance of lightening, & his eyes as lamps of fire, and his armes and his feet like in colour to polished brasse, and the voice his words like the voice of a thunder.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men § were with me saw not § vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard § voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 And behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O
Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand § words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent: and when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thy self before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but lo, Michael one of the chief princes came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter dayes:
for the vision is for many dayes.

15 ¶ And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, & I became dumb.

16 And behold, one like the similitude of § sons of men touched my lips; then I opened my mouth and spake, and said unto him that stood before me; O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me.

19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee:
be strong, yea, be strong: & when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, & said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

CHAP. XI.

ALso I in § first yeer of Darius the Mede, even I stood to confirm & to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shal stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shal be far richer then they all: and by his strength through his riches he shal stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

3 And a mighty king shall stand up, that shal rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shal stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four windes of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucket up, even for others besides those.

5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes, and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion:
his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of yeers they shall joyn themselves together: for the kings daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north, to make an agreement, but she shall not retain the power of the arm, neither shall she stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, & they that brought her her: & he ‡ begat her: and he that ſtrengthened her in theſe times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots ſhall one ſtand up in his eſtate: which ſhall come with an army: and ſhal enter into the fortreſſe of the king of the north: and ſhal deal againſt them: and ſhall prevail:

8 And ſhall alſo carry captives into Egypt their gods: with their princes: and with their precious veſſels of ſilver & of gold: and he ſhall continue moe yeers then the king of the north.

9 So the king of the ſouth ſhal come into his kingdom: and ſhal return into his own land.

10 But his ſons ſhal be ſtirred up: and ſhall aſſemble a multitude of great forces: and one ſhall certainly come: and overflowe: and paſſe thorow: then ſhall he return: & be ſtirred up even to his fortreſſe.

11 And ‡ king of ‡ ſouth ſhall be moved with choler: and ſhall come forth: and fight with him: even with ‡ king of ‡ north: and he ſhall ſet forth a great multitude: but the multitude ſhall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude: his heart ſhal be lifted up: & he ſhall caſt down many ten thouſands: but he ſhall not be ſtrengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north ſhal return: and ſhall ſet forth a multitude greater then ‡ former: & ſhal certainly come (after certain yeers) with a great army: and with much riches.

14 And in thoſe times: there ſhal many ſtand up againſt ‡ king of ‡ ſouth: alſo ‡ robbers of thy people: ſhal exalt themſelves to eſtabliſh ‡ viſion: but they ſhall fall.

15 So the king of the north ſhall come: and caſt up a mount: and take the moſt fenced cirles: and the arms of the ſouth ſhall not withſtand: neither his choſen people: neither ſhall there be any ſtrength to withſtand.

16 But he that cometh againſt him: ſhall do according to his own will: and none ſhal ſtand before him: and he ſhall ſtand in a glorious land: which by his hand ſhall be conſumed.

17 He ſhall alſo ſet his face to enter with the ſtrength of his whole kingdom: & upright ons with him: thus ſhall he do: and ſhall give him the daughter women corrupting her: but ſhall not ſtand on his ſide: they be for him.

18 After this ſhall he turn his face unto the Iles: and ſhall many: but a prince for his own behalf ſhall cauſe the reproach offered by him to ceaſe: without his own reproach: he ſhall cauſe it to turn upon him.

19 Then he ſhall turn his face towards ‡ fort of his own land: but he ſhall ſtumble: and fall: and not be found.

20 Then ſhall ſtand up in his eſtate a raiſer of taxes in ‡ glory of the kingdom: but within few dayes he ſhall be deſtroyed: neither in anger: nor in battell.

21 And in his eſtate ſhal ſtand up a vile perſon: to whom they ſhall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he ſhall come in peaceably: and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with ‡ arms of a flood ſhal they be overflown from before him: & ſhal be broken: yea alſo the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him: he ſhall work deceitfully: for he ſhall come up: and ſhal become ſtrong with a few people.

24 He ſhall enter peaceably even upon the fatteſt places of the province: & he ſhall do that which his fathers have not done: nor his fathers fathers: he ſhall ſcatter among them the prey: and ſpoil: & riches: yea: and he ſhall forecaſt his devices againſt the ſtrong holds: even for a time.

25 And he ſhal ſtir up his power and his courage againſt the king of the ſouth: with a great army: and the king of the ſouth ſhall be ſtirred up to battell with a very great and mighty army: but he ſhall not ſtand: for they ſhall forecaſt devices againſt him.

26 Yea: they that feed of the portion of his meat ſhal deſtroy him: and his army ſhal overflow: and many ſhall fall down ſlain.

27 And both theſe kings hearts ſhall be to do miſchief: and they ſhal ſpeak lies at one table: but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at ☞ time appointed.

30 Then shall he return into his land ☞ great riches, and his heart shall be against the holy covenant, and he shal do exploits, and return to his own land.
31 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south: but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.
32 For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, & have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.
And arms shal stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.
And such as do wickedly against the covenant shal he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God, shall be strong, and do exploits.
And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil many dayes.
Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.
And some of them of understanding shal fall: to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.
And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnifie himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, & shal prosper, till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.
Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnifie himself above all.
But in his estate shal he honour the god of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not, shall he honour with gold, and with silver, & with precious stones, and pleasant things.
39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holdes, with a strange god: whom he shal acknowledge, and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many,
and shal divide the land for gain.
40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwinde, with charets & with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the coun-treys; and shall overflow and passe over.
41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many coun-treys shall be overthrown: but these shal escape out of his hand; even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.
42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countreys, &
the land of Egypt shal not escape.
43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold, and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: & the Lybians & Ethiopians shall be at his steps.
44 But tidings out of the east, and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury, to destroy, and utterly to make away many.
45 And he shall plant the tabernacle of his palace between the seas, in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

CHAP. XII.

AND at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people, and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation, even to that same time:
and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.
2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth, shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame, and everlasting contempt.
3 And they that be wise, shall shine as the brightness of the fir-mament; & they that turn many to righteouſneſſe, as the ſtars for ever and ever.

4 But thou O Daniel, ſhut up the words & ſeal the booke even to the time of the end: many ſhall run to and fro, and knowledge ſhall be increaſed.

5 ¶ Then I Daniel looked, & behold, there ſtood other two, the one on this ſide of the bank of the river, and the other on that ſide of the bank of ſ river.

6 And one ſaid to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of ſ river, How long ſhal it be to ſ end of theſe wonders?

7 And I heard ſ man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand, and his left hand unto heaven, and ſware by him that liveth for ever and ever: that it ſhall be for a time, times, and an half: and when he ſhall have accompliſhed to ſcatter ſ power of the holy people, all theſe things ſhall be finiſhed.

8 And I heard, but I underſtood not: then ſaid I, O my Lord what ſhal be ſ end of theſe things?

9 And he ſaid, Go thy way, Daniel: for ſ words are cloſed up, and ſealed till the time of ſ end.

10 Many ſhal be purified, and made white, and tried: but the wicked ſhall do wickedly: and none of the wicked ſhall underſtand, but ſ wiſe ſhal underſtand.

11 And from the time that the daily ſacrifice ſhal be taken away, and the abomination that maketh deſolate ſet up, there ſhal be a thouſand two hundred and ninety dayes.

12 Bleſſed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thouſand three hundred and five and thirty dayes.

13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou ſhalt reſt, and ſtand in the lot at the end of the dayes.

¶ HOSEA.

CHAP. I.

THE word of the LORD that came unto Hoſea the ſon of Beeri, in the dayes of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the dayes of Jeroboam ſ ſon of Joaſh king of Iſrael.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hoſea: & the LORD ſaid to Hoſea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms, and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, which conceived, and bare him a ſon.

4 And ſ LORD ſaid unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, & I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon ſ houſe of Jehu, and will cauſe to ceaſe the kingdom of the houſe of Iſrael.

5 And it ſhal come to paſſe at that day, ſ I will break ſ bowe of Iſrael in the valley of Jezreel.

6 ¶ And ſhe conceived again, and bare a daughter, & God ſaid unto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the houſe of Iſrael: but I will utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the houſe of Judah, and will ſave them by the LORD their God, and will not ſave them by bowe, nor by ſword, nor by battell, by horſes, nor by horſemen.

8 ¶ Now when ſhe had weaned Lo-ruhamah ſhe conceived, and bare a ſon.

9 Then ſaid God, Call his name Loammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 ¶ Yet the number of the children of Iſrael ſhall be as the ſand of the ſea, which cannot be meaſured nor numbered: and it ſhall come to paſſe that in the place where it was ſaid unto them, Ye are not my people, there it ſhal be ſaid unto them, Ye are the ſons of the living God.

11 Then ſhall the children of Judah, and the children of Iſrael be gathered together, and appoint themſelves one head, and they ſhall come up out of the land: for great ſhal be ſ day of Jezreel.

CHAP. II.

SAy ye unto your brethren, Ammi, and to your ſiſters, Ruhamah:

2 Plead with your mother, plead: for ſhe is not my wife, neither

Her whoredom.

from me I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, & her adulteries from between her breasts, 3 Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, & make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.
4 And I will not have mercy upon her children, for they be the children of whoredoms.
5 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully:
for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my waters, my wooll & my flax, mine oil and my drink.
6 ¶ Therefore behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall: that she shall not finde her paths.
7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; & she shall seek them, but shall not finde them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband, for then was it better with me then now.
8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, & wine & oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal.
9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wooll and my flax, given to cover her nakedness.
10 And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.
11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast daves, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.
12 And I will destroy her vines, and her fig-trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards, that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.
13 And I will visit upon her the dayes of Baalim, wherein she did burn incense to them, and she decked her self with her earrings and her jewels, & she went after her lovers, and forgat me,
saith the LORD.

14 ¶ Therefore behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.
15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope, and she shall sing there as in the dayes of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.
16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi: and shalt call me no more Baali:
17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.
18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bowe, and the sword, and the battell out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely.
19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, & in judgement, & in loving kindeness, and in mercies.
20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness, & thou shalt know the LORD.
21 And it shall come to passe in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth.
22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil, and they shall hear Jezreel.
23 And I will sowe her unto me in the earth, and I will have mercy upon her, & had not obtained mercy, and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people, & they shall say, Thou art my God.

CHAP. III.

THen said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman, (beloved of her friend, yet an adulteresse) according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, & love flagons of wine.
2 So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an half homer of barley.

3 And

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many dayes, thou shalt not play the harlot, & thou shalt not be for another man, so will I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Israel shall abide many dayes without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without Teraphim.

5 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, & seek § LORD their God, & David their king, and shall fear the LORD, & his goodnesse, in the latter dayes.

CHAP. IIII.

HEar the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversie with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore shall § land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, § fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for this people are as they that strive with § priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, & the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glorie into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquitie.

9 And there shall be like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their wayes, and reward them for their doings.

10 For they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase, because they have left off to take heed to § LORD.

11 Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the heart.

12 ¶ My people ask counsel at their stocke, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to erre, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars, & elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adulterie.

14 I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

15 ¶ Though thou Israel play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend, and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Bethaven, nor sweare, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ephraim is joyned to idols, let him alone.

18 Their drink is sowre: they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

19 The winde hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAP. V.

HEar ye this, O priests, and hearken, ye house of Israel, and give ye ear, O house of the king: for judgement is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolters are profound to make slaughter, though I have been a rebuker of them all.

3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoreand Israel is defiled.

They will not frame their
to return unto their God, the spirit of whoredoms is the midst of them, and they not known the LORD.
and the pride of Israel doth fy to his face: therefore Israel and Ephraim fall in iniquity: Judah also shall with them.
They shall go with their
, and with their herds to the LORD: but they shall find him; he hath with-himself from them.
They have dealt treacherously the LORD: for they begotten strange children, shall a moneth devour them their portions.
Blow ye the cornet in Gi-
, and the trumpet in Ra-cry aloud at Beth-aven:
thee, O Benjamin.
Ephraim shall be desolate in day of rebuke: among the es of Israel have I made n that which shall surely be The princes of Judah were them that remove § bounds:
fore I will pour out my upon them like water.
Ephraim is oppressed and en in judgement: because willingly walked after the andment.
Therefore will I be unto raim as a moth: and to the e of Judah as rottenness.
When Ephraim saw his sick-
, and Judah saw his wound:
went Ephraim to the Assy-
, and sent to king Jareb, yet he not heal you, nor cure ur wound.
For I will be unto Ephraim ion, & as a young lion to § e of Judah; I, even I will and go away: I will take
, and none shall rescue

¶ I will go and return to place, till they acknowtheir offence, and seek my e: in their affliction they will me early.

CHAP. VI.

Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath n, and he will heal us: he hath smitten, and he will binde us up.

2 After two dayes will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD:
his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶ O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodnesse is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth, & thy judgements are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired mercie, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God, more then burnt-offerings.

7 But they like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity: and is polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdnesse.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel:
there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

11 Also O Judah, he hath set an harvest for thee, when I returned § captivity of my people

CHAP. VII.

When I would have healed
Israel, then § iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, & the wickednes of Samaria: for they commit falshood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without.

2 And they consider not in their hearts, that I remember all their wickednes: now their own doings have beset them about, they are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickednesse, and the princes with their lies.

4 They

4 They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker: who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king, the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all ¶ night, in ¶ morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges: all their kings are fallen, there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not,

10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face, and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 ¶ Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt; they go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven: I will chastise them as their congregation hath heard.

13 Wo unto them, for they have fled from me: destruction unto them, because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assembled themselves for corn and wine: and they rebell against me.

15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword, for ¶ rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

CHAP. VIII.

SEt the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver, and their gold, have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 ¶ Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off: mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocence?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they have sown ¶ wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud yeeld no meal: if so be it yeeld, the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles, as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For they are gone up to Assyria, a wilde asse alone by himself; Ephraim hath hired lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes.

11 ¶ Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it, but the LORD accepteth them not. Now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Egypt.

14 For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multi-fenced cities: but I will fire upon his cities, & it devour the palaces thereof.

CHAP. IX.

Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, like other people: for thou gone a whoring from thy thou hast loved a reward every corn floor.
The floor and the winepress not feed them, and the wine shall fail in her.
They shall not dwell in LORDS land: but Ephraim return into Egypt, and they unclean things in Assyria.
They shall not offer wineings to the LORD, neither they be pleasing unto him:
sacrifices shall be unto them
the bread of mourners: all eat thereof shall be pollufor their bread for their shall not come into the
of the LORD.
What will ye do in the so-day, and in the day of the
of the LORD?
For lo, they are gone, be-of destruction; Egypt shal them up, Memphis shall them: the pleasant places their silver, nettles shal pol-them; thorns shall be in tabernacles.
The dayes of visitation are the dayes of recompence come, Israel shal know it:
prophet is a fool, the spiri-man is mad, for the mul-de of thine iniquity, and great hatred.
The watchman of Ephraim with my God: but the pro-is a snare of a fowler in all ways, and hatred in the house his God.
They have deeply corruptthemselves, as in the dayes Gibeah; therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.
I found Israel like grapes
the wilderness: I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the figtree at her first time: but they went to Baal-Peor, and separated themselves unto that shame, and their abominations were according as they loved.
As for Ephraim, their gloshall flee away like a bird:
from the birth, and from the womb, & from the conception.
12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, wo also to them, when I depart from them.
13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.
14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb, & dry breasts.
15 All their wickedness is in Gilgal: for there I hated them:
for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolters.
16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shal bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.
17 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

CHAP. X.

Israel is an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit, he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land, they have made goodly images.
2 Their heart is divided:
now shall they be found faulty:
he shal break down their altars:
he shall spoil their images.
3 For now they shal say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD, what then should a king do to us?
4 They have spoken words, swearing falsly in making a covenant; thus judgement springeeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.
5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear, because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, & the priests thereof that rejoyced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.
6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria, for a present to king Jareb; Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed ashamed of his own counsell.

7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the fome upon ¶ water.

8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us, and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the dayes of Gibeah: there they stood: the battell in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastile them, and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall binde themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn, but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride: Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 Sowe to your selves in righteousnesse, reap in mercy: break up your fallow ground, for it is time to seek the LORD; till he come and rain righteousnesse upon you.

13 Ye have plowed wickednes, ye have reaped iniquity, ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men,

14 Therefore shal a tumult arise among thy people, & all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in ¶ day of battel: ¶ mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Beth-el do unto you, because of your great wickednesse: in a morning shal ¶ king of Israel be utterly cut off.

CHAP. XI.

WHen Israel was a childe, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burnt incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms: but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love, & I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and laid meat unto them.

5 ¶ He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to back-sliding from me: though they called them to ¶ most high, none at all would exalt him.

8 How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fiercenesse of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim, for I am God, and not man, the holy One in the midst of thee, and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk after the LORD: he shal roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then ¶ children shall tremble from ¶ west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithfull with the saints.

CHAP. XII.

EPhraim feedeth on winde, and followeth after the east winde: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt.

2 The LORD hath also a controversie with Judah, & will punish Jacob, according to his wayes, according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 ¶ He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God.

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in Bethel, and my glory.

ame he spake with us.
the LORD God of hosts,
LORD is his memorial.

Therefore turn thou to thy keep mercy & judgment, and on thy God continually.
It is a merchant, the ba-of deceit are in his hand:
ved to oppresse.
And Ephraim said, Yet I come rich, I have found substance; in all my la-they shall finde none inime that were sin.
And I that am the LORD
God from the land of Egypt, et make thee to dwell in tacles, as in the dayes of solemne feast.
I have also spoken by the ets, and have multiplied vi-and used similitudes, by the inistery of the prophets.
Is there iniquity in Gilead?
surely are vanity; they fabullocks in Gilgal, yea, altars are as heaps in the rows of the fields.
And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.
And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.
Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

CHAP. XIII.

When Ephraim spake, trembling, he exalted himself in Israel: but when he offended in Baal, he died.
And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kisse the calves.
Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew it passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with a whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke of the chimney.
Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt,
and thou shalt know no god but me; for there is no saviour beside me.
5 I did know thee in the wildernesse, in the land of great drought.
6 According to their pasture, so were they filled: they were filled, and their heart was exalted, therefore have they forgotten me.
7 Therefore I will be unto them as a lion, as a leopard by the way will I observe them.
8 I will meet them as a beat that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rent the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wilde beast shall teir them.
9 O Israel, thou hast destroyed thy self, but in me is thine help.
10 I will be thy king: where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges, of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes?
11 I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.
12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up: his sin is hid.
13 The sorrows of a travelling woman shall come upon him, he is an unwise son, for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children.
14 I will ransom them from the power of the grave: I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues: O grave, I will be thy destruction:
repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.
15 Though he be fruitfull among his brethren, an east-winde shall come, the winde of the LORD shall come up from the wildernesse, and his spring shall become dry, & his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels.
16 Samaria shall become desolate, for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with childe shall be ript up.

CHAP XIIII.

O Israel, return unto the LORD thy God: for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2 Take

2 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.

3 Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses, neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherlesse findeth mercy.

4 ¶ I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

5 I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall grow as the lilies, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon.

6 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon.

7 They that dwell under his shadow, shall return: they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine, the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.

8 Ephraim shall say: What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir-tree. From me is thy fruit found.

9 Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them: for the wayes of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressours shall fall therein.

¶ JOEL.

CHAP. I.

THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give eare, all ye inhabitants of the land: hath this been in your dayes, or even in the dayes of your fathers?

3 Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4 That which the palmer-worm hath left, hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left, hath the canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left, hath the caterpillar eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine, for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek-teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid my vine waste: and barked my fig-tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8 ¶ Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9 The meat-offering, and the drink-offering is cut off from the house of the LORD, the priests, the LORDS ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen: howl, ye vine-dressers, for the wheat, and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth; the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 Gird your selves, and lament, ye priests; howl ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat-offering, and the drink-offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14 ¶ Sanctifie ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD:

15 Alas for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

16 Is not the meat cut off before your eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The seed is rotten under their judgment.

...ods the garners are laid ...e: the barns are broken ...ause the corn is withered.
...t how do ☩ beasts groan! the ...ds of cattel are perplexed, be...use they have no pasture; yea, ☩ ...cks of sheep are made desolate.
...O LORD, to thee will I cry: ...e fire hath devoured the pa...ures of ☩ wilderness, & ☩ flame ...th burnt all ☩ trees of ☩ field.
...The beasts of the field cry ...also thee: for the rivers ...ters are dried up, and the ...e hath devoured the pastures ...e wilderness.

CHAP. II.

...Low ye the trumpet in Zi...on, and sound an alarm in ...y mountain; let all the ...habitants of the land tremble: ...e day of the LORD com...eth, it is nigh at hand.
...A day of darkness & of gloo...miness, a day of clouds and of ...k darkness, as the morning ...read upon the mountains: a ...great people and a strong, there ...hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the yeers of many generations.
...A fire devoureth before them, ...and behinde them a flame burn...eth: the land is as ☩ garden of Eden before them, & behinde them a ...desolate wilderness, yea, and nothing shall escape them.
...The appearance of them, is ...like the appearance of horses; and ...like horsemen so shall they run.
...Like the noise of chariets on ...the tops of mountains shall they ...leap, like the noise of ☩ flame of ...fire devoureth the stubble, as a ...strong people set in battle array.
...Before their face the people ...shall be much pained: all faces ...shall gather blackness.
...They shall run like mighty ...men, they shall climbe the wall ...like men of war, and they shall ...march every one on his wayes, & ...they shall not break their ranks.
...Neither shall one thrust a...nother, they shall walk every one ...in his path: and when they ...fall upon the sword, they shall ...not be wounded.
...They shall run to and fro ...in the city: they shall run upon the ...wall, they shall climbe up upon the houses: they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them, the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army, for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great, and very terrible, and who can abide it?

12 ¶ Therefore also now, saith the LORD, Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning.

13 And rent your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious & merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 Who knoweth if he will return, and repent, & leave a blessing behinde him, even a meat-offering, and a drink-offering unto the LORD your God?

15 ¶ Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctifie a fast, call a solemn assembly.

16 Gather the people, sanctifie the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, & let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 ¶ Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people.

19 Yea, the LORD will answer, and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen.

20 But I will remove far off from you ☩ northen army, & will drive him into a land barren and desolate desolate, with his face towards the east sea, and his hinder part towards the utmost sea; and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

21 ¶ Fear not, O land, be glad and rejoyce: for the LORD will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yeeld their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoyce in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shal overflow with wine and oil.

25 And I will restore to you the yeers that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the Name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wonderously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 ¶ And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; & your sons, and your daughters shall prophesie; your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions.

29 And also upon the servants, & upon the handmaids, in those dayes will I pour out my spirit.

30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens, and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the Name of the LORD, shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

CHAP. III.

FOr behold in those dayes, & in ¶ time when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people, and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have cast lots for my people, and have given a child for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompence me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head.

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things.

6 The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head.

8 And I will sell your sons & your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shal sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ Proclaime ye this among the Gentiles: prepare ye war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw neer, let them come up.

10 Beat your plow-shares into swords, & your pruning-hooks into spears; let the weak say, I am strong.

11 Assemble your selves and come all ye heathen, and gather

...blow together round a-
...children cause thy mighty
...to come down, O LORD.
...Let the heathen be waken-
...come up to the valley of ...shaphat; for there will I
...to judge all the heathen
...about.
...Put ye in the sickle, for the ...harvest is ripe, come, get you ...down, for the press is full, the ...fats overflow, for the wickedness
...is great.
...Multitudes, multitudes, in the ...valley of decision: for the ...day of the LORD is near in the ...valley of decision.
...The sun and the moon shall ...be darkened, and the stars shall
...withdraw their shining.
...The LORD also shall roar
...out of Zion, and utter his voice
...from Jerusalem, and the heavens
...and the earth shall shake, but the ...LORD will be the hope of his ...people, and the strength of the ...children of Israel.

17 So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God, dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shal no strangers pass thorrow her any more.

18 ¶ And it shal come to pass
In that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, & all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters; and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim.

19 Egypt shal be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Judah shall dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

21 For I will cleanse their blood, that I have not cleansed, for the LORD dwelleth in Zion

AMOS.

CHAP. I.

THE words of Amos,
who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the dayes of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the dayes of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two yeers before the earthquake.

2 And he said, the LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shal mourn, and the top of Carmel wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron.

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Benhadad.

5 I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, & him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden, & the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD,
For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom.

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, & him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, & I will turn mine hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish,
saith the Lord GOD.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembred not the brotherly covenant.

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast

cast off all pity, and his anger did rear perpetually, and kept his wrath for ever.

12 But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

13 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, for three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because they have ript up the women with childe of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border.

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battell, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwinde.

15 And their king shall go into captivity, he, and his princes together, saith the LORD.

CHAP. II.

THus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because he burnt the bones of the king of Edom into lime.

2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kerioth, and Moab shal die with tumult, with shouting, and with ℣ sound of ℣ trumpet:

3 And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus saith ℣ LORD, For three transgressions of Judah, & for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to erre, after the which their fathers have walked

5 But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes:

7 That pant after the dust of the earth, on the head of the poor; and turn aside the way of the meeke, & a man & his father wil go in unto the same maid, profane my holy Name.

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge by every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

9 ¶ Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks, yet I destroyed his fruit above, & his roots from beneath.

10 Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and led you fourty yeers thorow the wilderneſſe, to possesse the land of the Amorite.

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites: Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel, saith the LORD?

12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophesie not.

13 Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself:

15 Neither shal he stand that handleth the bowe, and he that is swift of foot shal not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.

16 And he that is courageous among the mighty, shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

CHAP. III.

HEar this word that the LORD hath spoken against you children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,

2 You onely have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together except they be agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare

...re the earth, where no gin is
...e for him? shall one take up a
...e from the earth, and have
...e nothing at all?
...shall a trumpet be blown in
...city, & people not be afraid?
...shall there be evil in a city, and
...LORD hath not done it?
...Surely the Lord GOD will
...nothing, but he revealeth
...ecret unto his servants the
...phets.
...The lion hath roared, who will
...ear? The Lord GOD hath
...ken, who can but prophesie?
...Publish in the palaces at ...dod: and in the palaces in
...nd of Egypt, and say, Af-
...ble your selves upon the ...ountains of Samaria: and be-
...old the great tumults in the
...dst thereof, and the oppressed
...the midst thereof.
10 For they know not to do
...ght, saith the LORD, who
...ore violence and robbery in
...eir palaces.
11 Therefore thus saith the
...rd GOD, An adversary there
...ll even round about the ...land; and he shall bring down thy
...rength from thee, and thy pala-
...ces shall be spoiled.
12 Thus saith the LORD, As ...e shepherd taketh out of the ...uth of the lion two legs, or ...piece of an ear: so shall the
...ildren of Israel be taken out
...that dwell in Samaria, In the
...rner of a bed, and in Damas-
...us in a couch.
13 Hear ye, and testifie in the ...use of Jacob, saith the Lord
...D God of hosts;
14 That in the day that I shall
...sit the transgressions of Israel
...pon him I will also visit the ...altars of Bethel: and the horns of
...the altar shall be cut off, and fall
...to the ground.
15 And I will smite the win...ter house with the summer-
...house; and the houses of ivory
...shall perish, and the great houses
...shall have an end, saith the LORD.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hear this word, ye kine of Ba-
...shan, that are in the mount...ains of Samaria, which oppresse
...the poor, which crush the needy,
...which say to their masters,
...Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his holinesse, that lo, the dayes shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fish-hooks.
3 And ye shall go out at the breaches: every cow at that which is before her, and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.
4 ¶ Come to Bethel and transgresse, at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years.
5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclame and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.
6 ¶ And I also have given you cleanneſſe of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith ¶ LORD.
7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three moneths to ¶ harvest, & I caused it to rain upon one city: & caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece where upon it rained not, withered.
8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew, when your gardens, and your vineyards, & your fig-trees, and your olive-trees increased, the palmer-worm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
10 I have sent among you the pestilence, after the manner of Egypt; your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses, and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrow Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a fire brand pluckt out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel, and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the winde, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkneſſe, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth: the LORD, the God of hoſts is his Name.

CHAP. V.

HEar ye this word which I take up againſt you, even a lamentation, O houſe of Iſrael.

2 The virgin of Iſrael is fallen, ſhe ſhall no more riſe: ſhe is forſaken upon her land, there is none to raiſe her up.

3 For thus ſaith the Lord GOD, The city that went out by a thouſand, ſhall leave an hundred: & that which went forth by an hundred, ſhall leave ten to the houſe of Iſrael.

4 ¶ For thus ſaith the LORD unto the houſe of Iſrael, Seek ye me, and ye ſhall live.

5 But ſeek not Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, and paſſe not to Beerſheba: for Gilgal ſhall ſurely go into captivity, and Bethel ſhall come to nought.

6 Seek the LORD, and ye ſhall live, leſt he break out like fire in the houſe of Joſeph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Bethel.

7 Ye who turn judgement to worm-wood, and leave off righteouſneſſe in the earth:

8 Seek him that maketh the ſeven ſtars and Orion, and turneth the ſhadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night; that calleth for the waters of the ſea, and powreth them out upon the face of the earth: the LORD is his Name.

9 That ſtrengtheneth the ſpoiled againſt the ſtrong: ſo that the ſpoiled ſhall come againſt the fortreſſe.

10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate: and they abhor him that ſpeaketh uprightly.

11 Foraſmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat, ye have built houſes of hewen ſtone, but ye ſhall not dwell in them: ye have planted pleaſant vineyards, but ye ſhall not drink wine of them:

12 For I know your manifold tranſgreſſions, and your mighty ſins: they afflict the juſt, they take a bribe, and they turn aſide the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent ſhall keep ſilence in that time, for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and ſo the LORD, the God of hoſts ſhall be with you, as ye have ſpoken.

15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and eſtabliſh judgement in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hoſts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joſeph.

16 Therefore the LORD the God of hoſts, the LORD ſaith thus, Wailling ſhall be in all ſtreets, and they ſhall ſay in all the high wayes, Alas, alas! and they ſhall call the husbandman to mourning, and ſuch as are skilfull of lamentation, to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards ſhall be wailling: for I will paſſe through thee, ſaith the LORD.

18 Wo unto you that deſire the day of the LORD: to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkneſſe, and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the houſe, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a ſerpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkneſſe, and not light? even very dark, and no brightneſſe in it?

21 ¶ I hate, I deſpiſe your feaſt dayes: and I will not ſmell in your ſolemn aſſemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings, and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beaſts.

23 Take thou away from me the noiſe of thy ſongs: for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgement run down as waters, and righteouſneſſe as a mighty ſtream.

25 Have ye offered unto me ſacrifices and offerings in the wilderneſſe fourty yeers, O houſe of Iſrael?

26 But ye have born the tabernacle of your Moloch, & Chiun your images, the ſtar of your god which ve made to your selves.

13 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.

CHAP. VI.

WO to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came.
2 Pass ye unto Calneh, and behold, and from thence go ye to Hemath the great: then go down unto Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms?
or their border greater than your border?
3 Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;
4 That lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;
5 That chant to the sound of the viol, invent to themselves instruments of musick, like David;
6 That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.
7 Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves, shall be removed.
8 The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces:
therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein.
9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.
10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? And he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.
11 For behold, the LORD com-mandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.
12 ¶ Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ye have turned judgement into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock.
13 Ye which rejoyce in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?
14 But behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts, and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hemath, unto the river of the wilderness.

CHAP. VII.

THus hath the Lord GOD
shewed unto me, and behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth: and lo, it was the latter growth after the kings mowings.
2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee, by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.
3 The LORD repented for this.
It shall not be, saith the LORD.
4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord GOD
shewed unto me; and behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.
5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee, by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.
6 The LORD repented for this. This also shall not be, saith
the Lord GOD.
7 ¶ Thus he shewed me; and behold, a plumb-line with a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand.
8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumb-line. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel, I will not again pass by them any more.
9 And the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.
10 ¶ Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of § house of Israel: § land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go flee thee away into § land of Judah, & there eat bread, and prophesie there.

13 But prophesie not again any more at Bethel: for it is the kings chappell, and it is the kings court.

14 ¶ Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophets son, but I was an herdman, and a gatherer of sycamore fruit.

15 And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go prophesie unto my people Israel.

16 ¶ Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesie not against Israel, and drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD, thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, & thy sons & thy daughters shall fall by § sword, and thy land shal be divided by line, & thou shalt die in a polluted land, & Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

CHAP. VIII.

THus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me, and behold, a basket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, Amos what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again passe by them any more.

3 And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place, they shall cast them forth with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fall.

5 Saying, When will the new moon be gon, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, & § shekel great, and falsifying § balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood, and it shall be cast out, & drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation, and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldnesse upon every head: and I will make it as the mourning of an onely son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 ¶ Behold, the dayes come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD.

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east: they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair virgins & young men faint for thirst.

14 They that sweare by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy God, O Dan, liveth, and the manner of Beersheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

CHAP. IX.

I Saw the Lord standing upon the altar, and he said, Smite the lintell of the door, that the posts may shake, and cut them in the head all of them, & I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them, shall not be delivered.

2 Though they dig into hell, thence shal mine hand take them; though they climbe up to heaven, thence will I bring them down.

3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, will search and take them out thence: and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them.

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 And the LORD GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwelleth therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood, and shall be drowned as by the flood of Egypt.

6 It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth, he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: the LORD is his Name.

7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel, saith the LORD? have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?

8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth, saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.

9 For lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

11 ¶ In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David, that is fallen, and close up § breaches thereof, and I will raise up his ruines, and I will build it as in the dayes of old:

12 That they may possesse the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my Name, saith the LORD, that doth this.

13 Behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed, and § mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

14 And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel: and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof: they shall also make gardens, and eat § fruit of them.

15 And I will plant them upon their land, and they shal no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

§ OBADIAH.

THe vision of Obadiah: Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom, We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an embassage is sent among the heathen; Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battell.

2 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

3 ¶ The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high, that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thy self as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

5 If theeves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stollen till they had enough? if the grape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave some grapes?

6 How are the things of Esau searched out? how are his hid things sought up?

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee: they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

9 And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

10 ¶ For thy violence against thy brother Jacob, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and forreiners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother, in the day that he became a stranger: neither shouldest thou have rejoyced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction: neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distresse.

13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity: yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity.

14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crosse way, to cut off those of his that did escape, neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distresse.

15 For the day of the LORD is neer upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee, thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

16 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually: yea they shall drink, they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

17 ¶ But upon mount Sion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holinesse: and the house of Jacob shall possesse their possessions.

18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them: and there shall be any remaining of the house of Esau, for the LORD hath spoken it.

19 And they of the south shall possesse the mount of Esau, and they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possesse the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria, and Benjamin shall possesse Gilead.

20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possesse that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possesse the cities of the south.

21 And saviours shall come up on mount Sion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORDS.

¶ JONAH.

CHAP. I.

NOw the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh that great city, and cry against it: for their wickednesse is come up before me.

3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish, from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa, and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he payed the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish, from the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶ But the LORD sent out a great winde into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afra and cried every man unto his god: and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them: but Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship, and he lay and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us: what is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew, and I fear the LORD the God of heaven, which hath made the sea, and the dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? (for the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.)

11 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? (for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous)

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah and cast him forth into the sea, and the sea ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

17 ¶ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three dayes and three nights.

CHAP. II.

THen Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fishes belly,

2 And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me: out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast me into the deep in the midst of the seas, and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight: yet I will look again toward thy holy temple.

5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about: the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains: the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the LORD, and my prayer came in unto thee into thy holy temple.

8 They that observe lying vanities, forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving, I will pay that that I have vowed: salvation is of the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dryland.

CHAP. III.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nineveh that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I did thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD: now Nineveh was an exceeding great city, of three dayes journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a dayes journey, and he cried, and said, Yet fourty dayes, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So the people of Nineveh beleeved God, and proclamed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them:

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes,

7 And he caused it to be proclamed and published thorow Nineveh, (by the decree of the king and his nobles) saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock taste any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water.

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackloth; and cry mightily unto God; yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hand.

9 Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way, and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them, and he did it not.

CHAP. IIII.

But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my countrey? therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindnesse, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die then to live.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd, that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind, and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die then to live.

9 And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? and he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow, which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

11 And should not I spare Nineveh that great city, wherein are more then six score thousand persons, that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand, and also much cattel?

MICAH.

CHAP. I.

The word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite, in the dayes of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, all ye peoples; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witnesse against you, even ng from his holy temple.

For behold, the LORD co-th forth out of his place, and come down, and tread up-the high places of the earth.
And the mountains shall be lten under him, and the valys shall be cleft, as wax before e fire, and as the waters that e poured down a steep place.
For the transgression of Jab is all this, and for the sins the house of Israel: what is e transgression of Jacob? is it Samaria? and what are the gh places of Judah? are they Jerusalem?
Therefore I will make Sa-ria as an heap of the field, d plantings of a vineyard:
d I will pour down the stones reof into the valley, and I discover the foundations reof.
And all the graven images
reof shall be beaten to pieces, d all the hires thereof shall be rned with the fire, and all the I ols thereof will I lay desolate:
r she gathered it of the hire of harlot, and they shall return the hire of an harlot.
Therefore I will wail, and ul, I will go stript and naked:
will make a wailing like ☽ draons, and mourning as the owls.
For her wound is incurable;
it is come unto Judah: he is me unto the gate of my peo-
, even to Jerusalem.
¶ Declare ye it not at th, weep ye not at all in the use of Aphrah; roll thy self wn the dust.
Passe ye away, thou inhab-nt of Saphir, having thy me naked; the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the urning of Beth-ezel, he shall ve of you his standing.
For the inhabitant of Maoth waited carefully for good, t evil came down from the rd unto ☽ gate of Jerusalem.
O thou inhabitant of Lash, bind the chariot to the ift beast: she is the beginning the sin to the daughter of Zin: for the transgressions of Isel were found in thee.
Therefore shalt thou give esents to Moresheth Gath: the houses of Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.
15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Mare-shah: he shall come unto Adul-lam the glory of Israel.
16 Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children:
enlarge thy baldness as the eagle, for they are gone into captivity
from thee.

CHAP. II.

WO to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds: when ☽ morning is light they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.
2 And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppresse a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.
3 Therefore thus saith ☽ LORD, Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks, neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.
4 ¶ In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a dolefull lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me? turning away, he hath divided our fields.
5 Therefore thou shalt have none ☽ shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.
6 Prophesie ye not, say they,
to them that prophesie: they shall not prophesie to them, that they shall not take shame.
7 ¶ O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him ☽ walketh uprightly?
8 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that passe by securely, as men averse from war.
9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses, from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.
10 Arise ye, and depart, for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man walking in the spirit and falshood do lie saying, I will prophesie unto thee of wine, and of strong drink; he shall even be ¶ prophet of this people.

12 ¶ I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee: I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker up is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed thorow the gate, and are gone out by it, and their king shal passe before them, and §LORD on § head of them.

CHAP. III.

AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of § house of Israel: is it not for you to know judgement?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones.

3 Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them, and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the cauldron.

4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith § LORD concerning § prophets § make my people erre, § bite § their teeth, and cry, Peace: and he § putteth not into their mouthes, they even prepare war against him:

6 Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision, and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine, and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and §diviners confounded: yea, they shal all cover their lips, for there is no answer of God.

8 ¶ But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgement, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, abhor judgement, and pervert all equity.

10 They build up Zion with blood, & Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon § LORD, and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.

12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shal become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

CHAP. IIII.

BUT in the last dayes it shall come to passe, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills, and people shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall come and say, Come and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his waves, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall proceed out of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off, and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shal they learn war any more.

4 But they shall sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree, and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our god for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted.

7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast off, a strong nation:

LORD shall reign over them mount Zion from henceforth on for ever.

4 ¶ And thou, O tower of the ock, the strong hold of the ughter of Zion, unto thee shall e, even the first dominion;
e kingdom shall come to the ughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why doest thou cry
d? is there no king in e? is thy counsellour perish-for pangs have taken thee, as woman in travell.

10 Be in pain, and labour to p forth, O daughter of Zion, e woman in travell: for now u go forth out of the
, and thou shalt dwell in the
, and thou shalt go even to ylon; there shalt ꝯ be deliver-there ꝯ LORD shall redeem ee from ꝯ hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ Now also many nations
e gathered against thee, that Let her be defiled, and let eye look upon Zion.

12 But they know not the oughts of the LORD, neither derstand they his counsell: for shall gather them as ꝯ sheaves to the floor.

13 Arise, and thresh, O daugher of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brasse, and thou shalt beat in pieces many people, and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of ꝯ whole earth.

CHAP. V.

NOw gather thy self in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon ꝯ cheek.

2 But thou, Bethleem-Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me, that is to be ruler in Israel:
whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time ꝯ she which travelleth hath brought forth:
then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And he shall stand & feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the Name of the LORD his God, and they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, & eight principal men.

6 And they shall waste ꝯ land of Assyria with the sword, & the land of Nimrod in ꝯ entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people, as a dew from ꝯ LORD, as the showers upon the grasse, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles, in the midst of many people, as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who if he go thorrow, both treadeth down, & teareth in pieces, & none can deliver.

9 Thine hand shall be lift up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And it shall come to passe
in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy charets.

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds.

12 And I will cut off witch-crafts out of thine hand, & thou shalt have no more sooth-sayers.

13 Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee:
and thou shalt no more worship
the work of thine hands.

14 And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee:
so will I destroy thy cities.

15 And I will execute vengeance in anger, and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

CHAP. VI.

HEar ye now what the LORD saith, Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 Hear ye, O mountains, the LORDS controversie, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversie with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, what have I done unto thee, & wherein have I wearied thee? testifie against me.

4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants, and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal, that ye may know the righteousnesse of the LORD.

6 ¶ Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow my self before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt-offerings, with calves of a yeer old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

9 The LORDS voice crieth unto the city, and ¶ man of wisdom shall see thy Name: hearye the rod, & who hath appointed it.

10 ¶ Are there yet the treasures of wickednesse in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitfull weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitfull in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate, because of thy sins.

14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; & thy casting down shall be in thy midst of thee: and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest, will I give up to the sword.

15 Thou shalt sow, but shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and make wine, but shalt not drink.

16 ¶ For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels, that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

CHAP. VII.

WO is me: for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grapegleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the first ripe fruit.

2 The good man is perished out of the earth, and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood: they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 ¶ That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen, and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

5 ¶ Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide, keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6 For the son dishonoureth the father: the daughter riseth up against her mother: the daughter in law against her mother in law; a mans enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD: I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

8 ¶ Rejoyce not against me, mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkenesse, the LORD shall be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, & execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousnesse.

10 Then

Then he that is mine eneshall see it, and shame shall over her, which said unto me ;
here is the LORD thy God ?
eyes shall behold her: now all be trodden down as the e of the streets.
In the day that thy walls to be built, in that day shall decree be far removed.
In that day also he shall e even to thee from Assyria, from the fortified cities, and m the fortresse, even to the
, and from sea to sea, and mountain to mountain.
Notwithstanding, the land
be desolate, because of them dwell therein, for the fruit their doings.
¶ Feed thy people with thy
, the flock of thine heritage, ch dwell solitarily in the od, in the midst of Carmel :
them feed in Bashan and ilead, as in the dayes of old.
According to the dayes
thy coming out of the land Egypt will I shew unto him marvellous things.

16 ¶ The nations shall see, and be confounded at all their might : they shall lay their hand upon their mouth : their ears shall be deaf.

17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent : they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth : they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shal fear because of thee.

18 Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage?
he retaineth not his anger for ever : because he delighteth in mercy.

19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us: he will subdue our iniquities ; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

20 Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the dayes of old.

¶ NAHUM.

CHAP. I.

THE burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

God is jealous, & the LORD
venger: the LORD reven-
, and is furious ; the LORD ll take vengeance on his adsaries, and he reserveth ge for his enemies.
The LORD is slow to anger, great in power, & will not at olve the wicked : the LORD s his way in the whirlwinde d in the storm, & the clouds
e the dust of his feet.
He rebuketh the sea, and eth it dry, and drieth up all e rivers: Bashan languisheth, Carmel ; and the flower of banon languisheth.
The mountains quake at
, and the hills melt, and the th is burnt at his presence,
, the world ; and all that ell therein.
Who can stand before his dignation? and who can a-de in the fierceness of his ger? his fury is poured out like fire, & the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble, and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and dark-nesse shall pursue his enemies.

9 What do ye imagine against the LORD ? he will make an utter end : affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellour.

12 Thus saith the LORD, Though they be quiet, & likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down,
when he shall passe thorow :
though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst the bonds in sunder.

14 And

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image, & the molten image: I will make thy grave, for thou art vile.

15 Behold, upon ꝯ mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace: O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows for the wicked shal no more passe through thee, he is utterly cut off.

CHAP. II.

HE that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition: watch the way: make thy loins strong: fortifie thy power mightily.

2 For the LORD hath turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine-branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the charets shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir-trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The charets shall rage in ꝯ streets, they shall justle one against another in ꝯ broad wayes: they shall seem like torches, they shal run like the lightenings.

5 He shall recount his worthies: they shal stumble in their walk: they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened: and the palace shall be dissolved.

7 And Huzzab shall be led away captive, she shal be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabring upon their brests.

8 But Nineveh is of old like a pool of waters: yet they shal flee away. Stand, stand, shal they cry; but none shal look back.

9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: for there is none end of the store, and glory out of all the pleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, & waste, and the heart melteth, and the knees smite togethers, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions? where the lion, even the old lion walked, and the lions whelp, and none made them afraid.

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravine.

13 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her charets in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions, and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAP. III.

WO to bloody city, it is all full of lies and robbery: the prey departeth not,

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of ꝯ wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping charets.

3 The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword, and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases: and there is none end of their corpses, they stumble upon their corpses.

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the well favoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazing stock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste, who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

Art thou better then populous No, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, & it was infinite, Put & Lubim were thy helpers.

10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets: & they cast lots for her honourable men, & all her great men were bound in chains.

11 Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid; thou shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like fig-trees with the first ripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide unto thine enemies, the fire shall devour thy bars.

14 Draw thee water for the siege: fortifie thy strong holds: go into clay, & tread the mortar: make strong the brick kiln.

15 There shal the fire devour thee; the sword shal cut thee off: it shal eat thee up like the canker-worm: make thy self many as the canker-worm: make thy self many as the locust.

16 Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the canker-worm spoileth, and fleeth away.

17 Thy crowned are as the locusts, and thy captains as great grasshoppers which camp in the hedges in the cold day: but when the sun ariseth, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

18 Thy shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria: thy nobles shal dwel in the dust: thy people is scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathereth them.

19 There is no healing of thy bruise: thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee, shal clap the hands over thee; for upon whō hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

HABAKKUK.

CHAP. I.

1 The burden which Habbakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long shal I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, & thou wilt not save!

3 Why doest thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me; and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgement doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compasse about the righteous: therefore wrong judgement proceedeth.

5 Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your dayes, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shal march thorow the breadth of the lands, to possesse the dwelling places that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgement and their dignity shal proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter then the leopards, and are more fierce then the evening wolves: and their horsmen shal spread themselves, and their horsmen shal come from far, they shal flie as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shal come all for violence; their faces shall sup up as the east-winde, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold, for they shall heap up dust and take it.

11 Then shall his minde change, and he shall passe over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

12 Art thou not from everlasting, lasting, O LORD my God, mine holy One, we shal not die: O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgement, and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes then to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity; wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous then he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things that have no ruler over them.

15 They take up all of them with the angle: they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoyce and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag: because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plenteous.

17 Shal they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAP. II.

I Wil stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, & wil watch to see what he wil say unto me, & what I shal answer when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shal speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it, because it wil surely come, it wil not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up, is not upright in him: but the just shal live by his faith.

5 ¶ Yea also because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hel, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shal not all these take up a parable against him, & a taunting proverb against him, & say, Wo to him that increaseth that which is not his: how long? & to him that loadeth himself with thick clay.

7 Shal they not rise up suddenly that shal bite thee? and awake that shal vex thee? and thou shalt be for booties unto them.

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shal spoil thee: because of mens bloods, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwel therein.

9 ¶ Wo to him that covets an evil covetousnesse to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil.

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house, by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shal cry out of the wal, and the beam out of the timber shal answer it.

12 ¶ Wo to him that buildeth a town with bloods, and stablisheth a city by iniquity.

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts, that the people shal labour in the very fire, and the people shal weary themselves for very vanity?

14 For the earth shal be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 ¶ Wo unto him that giveth his neighbour drink: that puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakednesse.

16 Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORDS right hand shal be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shal be on thy glory.

17 For the violence of Lebanon shal cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of mens bloods, and for the violence of the land of the city, and of all that dwel therein.

18 ¶ What profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it? the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, maker to make dumb idols?

19 Wo unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach: behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.
20 But the LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

CHAP. III.

1 A Prayer of Habakkuk the prophet upon Sigionoth.
2 O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.
3 God came from Teman, and the holy one from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens: and the earth was full of his praise.
4 And his brightness was as the light; he had horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.
5 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.
6 He stood and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.
7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.
8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and thy chariots of salvation?
9 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.
10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lift up his hands on high.
11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.
12 Thou didst march thorow the land in indignation; thou didst thresh the heathen in anger.
13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.
14 Thou didst strike thorow with his staves the head of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoycing was as to devour the poor secretly.
15 Thou didst walk thorow the sea with thine horses, thorow the heap of great waters.
16 When I heard, my belly trembled: my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in my self, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.
17 ¶ Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yeeld no meat, the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:
18 Yet I will rejoyce in the LORD: I will joy in the God of my salvation.
19 The LORD God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

¶ ZEPHANIAH.

CHAP. I.

1 The word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah, the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the dayes of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah.
2 I will utterly consume all things from off the land, saith the LORD.
3 I will consume man and beast: I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumbling-blocks with the wicked, and I will will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, & upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarims with the priests.

5 And them that worship the host of heaven upon the house tops, and them that worship, and that sweare by § LORD, and that sweare by Malcham:

6 And them that are turned back from the LORD, and those that have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.

7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD, for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests

8 And it shall come to passe in the day of the LORDS sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the kings children, & all such as are clothed with strange apparell.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fil their masters house, with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to passe in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

11 Howl ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down: all they that bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to passe at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are setled on their lees, that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shal become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them, and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

14 The great day of § LORD is neer, it is neer, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 That day is the day of wrath, a day of trouble and distresse, a day of wastenesse & desolation, a day of darknesse and gloominesse, a day of cloudes and thick darknesse,

16 A day of the trumpet & alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distresse upon men, that they shall walk like blinde men, because they have sinned against § LORD: their blood shal be poured out like dust, and their flesh as the dung.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORDS wrath; but § whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousie: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

CHAP. II.

GAther your selves together, yea, gather together, O nation not desired.

2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day passe as the chaff: before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORDS anger come upon you.

3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgement; seek righteousnesse, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORDS anger.

4 ¶ For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Wo unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you: O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea-coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity.

children of Ammon, whereby have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even ‖ breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possesse them.

10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached, & magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth, and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

12 ¶ Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all † beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it: their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar work.

15 This is the rejoycing city that dwelt carelesly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none else: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her, shall hisse, and wag his hand.

CHAP. III.

WO to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city.

2 She obeyed not the voice: she received not correction: she trusted not in the LORD: she drew not neer to her God.

3 Her princes within her are roaring lions: her judges are evening wolves, they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

4 Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

5 The just LORD is in the midst thereof: he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgement to light, he faileth not: but the unjust knoweth no shame.

6 I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolate, I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant.

7 I said, Surely thou wilt fear me: thou wilt receive instruction: so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings.

8 ¶ Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousie.

9 For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the Name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent.

10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed shall bring mine offering.

11 In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoyce in thy pride, & ‖ shalt no more be haughty, because of mine holy mountain.

12 I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted & poor people: and they shal trust in the Name of the LORD.

13 The remnant of Israel shal not do iniquity, nor speak lies: neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed & lie down, & none shall make them afraid.

14 ¶ Sing, O daughter of Zion: shout, O Israel: be glad and rejoyce with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.

15 The

15 The LORD hath taken away thy judgements; he hath cast out thine enemie; the king of Israel, even the LORD is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more.

16 In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not: and to Zion, Let not thine hands be slack.

17 The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty: he will save, he will rejoyce over thee with joy: he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.

18 I will gather them that are sorrowfull for ℸ solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden.

19 Behold, at that time I will undo all ℸ afflict thee: and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land, where they have been put to shame.

20 At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name, and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

HAGGAI.

CHAP. I.

IN the second yeer of Darius the king, in the sixth moneth, in the first day of the moneth, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet unto Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governour of Judah, and to Jehoshuah the son of Josedech the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORDS house should be built.

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

4 Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houses, and this house lie waste?

5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider your ways.

6 Ye have sowen much, and bring in little: ye eat, but ye have not enough: ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink: ye clothe you, but there is none warm: and he that earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house, and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little: and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it: Why, saith the LORD of hosts? because of mine house that is waste, and ye every man unto his own house.

10 Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, & the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11 ¶ And I called for a drought upon ℸ land, & upon the mountains, & upon ℸ corn, & upon ℸ new wine, & upon ℸ oil, & upon that ℸ ground bringeth forth, and upon men, & upon cattle, and upon all ℸ labour of the hands.

12 ¶ Then Zerubbabel ℸ son of Shealtiel, & Jehoshuah ℸ son of Josedech ℸ high priest, with all the remnant of ℸ people obeyed the voice of ℸ LORD their God, & the words of Haggai ℸ prophet, (as ℸ LORD their God had sent him) & ℸ people did fear before the LORD.

13 Then spake Haggai ℸ LORDS messenger in ℸ LORDS message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governour of Judah, and the spirit of Jehoshuah the son of Josedech the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came, & did work in the house of the LORD of hosts their God, 15 In the four and twentieth day of the sixth moneth, in the second yeer of Darius the king.

CHAP. II.

IN the seventh moneth, in the one and twentieth day of the moneth, came the word of the LORD said by the prophet Haggai

Speak now to Zerubbabel ha of Shealtiel, governor of dah, and to Joshua the son of dech the high priest, and to residue of the people, saying,
Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory?
how do ye see it now? is it not even in your eyes, in comparison of it as nothing?

Yet now be strong, O Zerub-bel, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: (for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts.)

According to the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, so my spirit remaineth among you:
fear ye not.

For thus saith the LORD of hosts, Yet once it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land.

And I will shake all nations; and the desire of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.

The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

The glory of this latter house shall be greater than the former, saith the LORD of hosts:
and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai,
the prophet, saying,

Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,

If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered, and said, No.

Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body, touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD, and so is every work of their hands, and that which they offer there, is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD.

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the pres-fat, for to draw out fifty vessels, out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 I smote you with blasting, and with mildew, and with hail in all the labours of your hands:
yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

18 Consider now from this day and upward, from the four & twentieth day of the ninth moneth, even from the day that the foundation of the LORDS temple was laid, consider it.

19 Is the seed yet in the barn?
yea, as yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

20 ¶ And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai, in the four and twentieth day of the moneth, saying,

21 Speak to Zerubbabel governour of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth.

22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen, and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses, & their riders shall come down every one by the sword of his brother.

23 In that day saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet:
for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

¶ ZECHARIAH

¶ ZECHARIAH.

CHAP. I.

IN the eighth moneth, in the second yeer of Darius came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

2 The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, & I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Turn ye now from your evil wayes, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But my words, and my statutes which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold on your fathers? and they returned, and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our wayes, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh moneth, which is the moneth Sebat, in the second yeer of Darius came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, & behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees, that were in the bottom, and behinde him were there red horses, speckled and white.

9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? and the angel that talked with me, said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees, answered & said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro thorow the earth.

11 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle-trees, and said, We have walked to and fro thorow the earth: and behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem, and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten yeers?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me, with good words, and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me, said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I am jealous for Jerusalem, and for Zion with great jealousie.

15 And I am sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD, I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, My cities through prosperity, shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet chuse Jerusalem.

18 ¶ Then lift I up mine eyes, and sawyard behold, four horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, & Jerusalem.

20 And the LORD shewed me four carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles which lift up their horn over the land of Judah, to scatter it.

CHAP. II.

I Lift up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold, a man & a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither go est thou? and he said unto me,

Jerusalem, to see what breadth thereof, and what length thereof.

And behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

And said unto him, Run,
speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls, for the multitude of men and cattel therein.

For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four windes of the heaven, saith the LORD.

Deliver thy self, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

For behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

Sing and rejoyce, O daughter of Sion: for lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee,
saith the LORD.

And many nations shall be joyned to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: & I will dwell in the midst of thee, & thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

And the LORD shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall chuse Jerusalem again.

Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

CHAP. III.

And he shewed me Joshua the high priest, standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.

And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan, even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem, rebuke thee:
is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?

Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to passe from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments; and the angel of the LORD stood by.

And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, If thou wilt walk in my wayes, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, & I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by.

Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at: for behold, I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH.

For behold, the stone that I have laid before Joshua: upon one stone shall be seven eyes; behold, I will ingrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine, and under the fig-tree.

CHAP. IIII.

And the angel that talked with me, came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep:

And said unto me, What seest thou? & I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, & his seven lamps thereon, & seven pipes to the seven lamps, which were upon the top thereof:

And two olive-trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

So I answered & spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

Then

5 Then the angel that talked with me, answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the head stone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

8 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house: his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoyce, & shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with these seven: they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro thorow the whole earth.

11 ¶ Then answered I and said unto him, What are these two olive-trees upon the right side of the candlestick, and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive-branches, which thorow the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me, and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

14 Then said he, These are the two anointed ones that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAP. V.

THen I turned and lift up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, a flying roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? and I answered, I see a flying roll, the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side, according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as that side, according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsly by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and the stones thereof.

5 ¶ Then the angel that talked with me, went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance thorow all the earth.

7 And behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is wickedness, and he cast it into the midst of the ephah, and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lift I up mine eyes, and looked, & behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; (for they had wings like the wings of a stork) and they lift up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

11 And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar, & it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

CHAP. VI.

AND I turned, and lift up mine eyes, and looked, & behold, there came four chariots from between two mountains, and the mountains were mountains of brasse.

2 In the first chariot were red horses, and in the second chariot black horses,

3 And in the third chariot white horses, and in the fourth chariot grizled and bay horses.

4 Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four [spirits] ons of the heavens, which go h from standing before the d of all the earth.

7 The black horses which therein, go forth into e north country; and the e go forth after them, and trolled go forth toward the south country.
7 And the bay went forth, ht sought to go, that they ight walk to and fro thorow earth: and he said, Get ye e, walk to and fro thorow earth. So they walked to nd fro thorow the earth.
8 Then cried he upon me, and ke unto me, saying, Behold, m that go toward the north ntry have quieted my spi-
in the north country.
9 And the word of the LORD
ame unto me, saying,
10 Take of them of the cap-ity, even of Heldai, of To-ah, and of Jedaiah, which e come from Babylon, and o thou the same day, and o into the house of Josiah the n of Zephaniah.
11 Then take silver and d, and make crowns, and set m upon the head of Joshua on of Josedech the high est:
12 And speak unto him, saying, us speaketh the LORD of sts, saying, Behold the man
ose Name is the BRANCH;
d he shall grow up out of his ces, and he shall build the teme of the LORD:
13 Even he shall build the teme of the LORD, and he shall bear e glory, and shall sit and rule on his throne, and he shall be priest upon his throne, and the unsel of peace shall be beween them both.
14 And the crown shall be to elem, and to Tobijah, and to dajah, and to Hen the son of phaniah, for a memorial in e temple of the LORD.
15 And they that are far off all come and build in the mple of the LORD, and ou shall know that the LORD ath sent me unto you.
is shall come to passe, if ou will diligently obey the voice the LORD your God.

CHAP. VII.

AND it came to passe in the fourth yeer of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth moneth, even in Chisleu:

2 When they had sent unto the house of God, Sherezer, and Regem-melech, and their men, to pray before the LORD,

3 And to speak unto the priests, which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth moneth, separating my self, as I have done these so many yeers?

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh moneth, even those seventy yeers, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for your selves, and drink for your selves.

7 Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited, and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south of the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true judgement, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother.

10 And oppresse not the widow, nor the fatherlesse, the stranger, nor the poor, and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 But I scattered them with a whirl-winde among all the nations, whom they knew not: thus the landwas desolate after them, that no man passed thorow, nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

CHAP. VIII.

AGain the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I was jealous for Zion with great jealousie, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, the holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boyes and girles, playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these dayes, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes, saith the LORD of hosts?

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the east-country, and from the west-country;

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: & they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousnesse.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these dayes these words by the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these dayes there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast, neither was there any peace to him that went out or come in, because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people, as in the former dayes, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew, and I will cause the remnant of this people to possesse all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts: As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these dayes to do well unto Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 ¶ These are the things that ye shall do: Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgement of truth and peace in your gates.

17 And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour, and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,

19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladnesse, and cheerfull feasts: therefore love the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities.

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, & to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also.

22 Yea, many people, and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; In those dayes it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you.

CHAP. IX.

1 The burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.

2 And Hamath also shall bor der thereby; Tyrus and Zidon, though it be very wise.

3 And Tyrus did build her self a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea, and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron: for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governour in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

8 And I will encamp about mine house, because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no oppressour shall passe through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

9 Rejoyce greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy king cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an asse, and upon a colt the foale of an asse.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem: and the battell-bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant, I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 ¶ Turn ye to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that I will render double unto thee:

13 When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Grecee, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightening: and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwindes of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them, & they shall devour, and subdue with sling-stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar.

16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people, for they shall be as the stones of a crown lifted up, as an ensigne upon his land.

17 For how great is his goodnesse, and how great is his beauty? corn shall make the young men cheerfull, and new wine the maids.

CHAP. X.

1 Ask ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain, so the LORD shall make bright clouds, & give them showres of rain, to every one grasse in the field.

2 For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreames; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock, the house of Judah, & hath made them as his goodly horse in ¶ battell.

4 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battell-bowe, out of him every oppressour together.

5 ¶ And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of ¶ streets in the battell: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.

7 And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoyce as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad, their heart shall rejoyce in the LORD.

8 I will hisse for them, and gather them, for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased.

9 And I will sowe them among the people, and they shall remember me in far countreys, and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

10 I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria, and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, and place shall not found for them.

11 And he shall passe thorow the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up: and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and ¶ scepter of Egypt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD, and they shall walk up and down in his Name, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XI.

OPen thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

2 Howl, fir tree, for the cedar is fallen, because all the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan, for the forest of the vintage is come down.

3 ¶ There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds, for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions: for ¶ pride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God, Feed the flock of the slaughter.

5 Whose possessours slay them, and hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them, say, Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbours hand, and into the hand of his king, and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock: and I took unto me two staves, the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands, and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off in one moneth, and my soul loathed them, and their soul was also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die, and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off: and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.

10 ¶ And I took my staff, even beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me, knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price: and if not, forbeare: so they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

13 And ¶ LORD said unto me, Cast it unto ¶ potter: a goodly price that I was prized at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to ¶ potter, in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood betwixt Judah and Israel.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

16 For lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shal seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 Woe to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

CHAP. XII.

THE burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him:

2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege, both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensom stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith § LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madnesse, and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindenesse.

5 And the governours of Judah shal say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 ¶ In that day will I make the governours of Judah like a hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shal devour all § people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David, and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnifie themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and he that is feeble among them at that day, shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of § LORD before them.

9 ¶ And it shal come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications, and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitternesse for him, as one that is in bitternesse for his first-born.

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

13 And the land shal mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart: the family of § house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart:

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart: the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart.

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

CHAP. XIII.

IN that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin, and for uncleanesse.

2 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off § names of the idols out of the land: and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets, & the unclean spirit to passe out of the land.

2 And it shall come to passe, that when any shall yet prophesie, then his father and his mother that begat him, shall say vnto him, Thou shalt not live: for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him, shall thrust him thorow when he prophesieth.

3 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied: neither shall they weare a rough garment to deceive.

5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman: for man taught me to keep cattell from my youth.

6 And one shall say vnto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 ¶ Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand vpon the little ones.

8 And it shall come to passe, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off, and die: but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part thorow the fire, and will refine them as siluer is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my Name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

CHAP. XIIII.

BEhold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be diuided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will gather all nations against Ierusalem to battell, and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women rauished, and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the LORD go forth and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battell.

4 ¶ And his feet shall stand in that day vpon the mount of olives, which is before Ierusalem on the east, and the mount of olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley, and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains: for the valley of the mountains shall reach vnto Azal: yea, ye shall flee like as ye fled from before the earth-quake in the dayes of Vzziah king of Iudah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the light shall not be cleare, nor dark.

7 But it shall be one day, which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to passe, that at euening time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that liuing waters shall go out from Ierusalem: half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall be king ouer all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his Name one.

10 All the land shall be turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon; south of Ierusalem: and it shall be lifted vp, and inhabited in her place: from Benjamins gate, vnto the place of the first gate, vnto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel, vnto the kings wine-presses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more vtter destruction: but Ierusalem shall be safely inhabited.

12 ¶ And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that haue fought against Ierusalem: their flesh shall consume away, while

13 And it shall come to passe in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them, and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem, and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparell in great abundance.

15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camell, and of the asse, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 ¶ And it shall come to passe, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem, shall even go up from yeer to yeer, to worship the King, the LORD of Hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

17 And it shall be, that whoso will not of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem, to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no raine.

18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no raine, there shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

20 ¶ In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESSE UNTO THE LORD, and the pots in the LORDS house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem, and in Judah, shall be holinesse unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice, shall come and take of them, and seeth therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

¶ MALACHI.

CHAP. I.

THE burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

2 I have loved you, saith the LORD: yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? was not Esau Jacobs brother, saith the LORD: yet I loved Jacob;

3 And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wildernesse.

4 Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished: but we will return, and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickednesse, and the people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel.

6 ¶ A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master. if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear, saith the LORD of hosts, unto you, O priests that despise my Name? and ye say, Wherein have we despised thy Name?

7 Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, wherein have we polluted thee? in that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 And if ye offer the blinde for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sicke, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governour: will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person, saith the LORD of hosts?

9 And now I pray you, beseech God, that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons, saith the LORD of hosts?

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought; I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my Name shall be great among the Gentiles, and in every place incense shall be offered unto my Name, and a pure offering: for my Name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 ¶ But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted, and the fruit thereof even his meat is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold what a wearinesse is it, and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts, and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand, saith the LORD?

14 But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth and sacrificeth unto the LORD a corrupt thing; for I am a great king, saith the LORD of hosts, and my Name is dreadful among the heathen.

CHAP. II.

AND now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my Name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and will curse your blessings: yea I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts, and one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My covenant was with him of life and peace, and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my Name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.

7 For the priests lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way: ye have caused many to stumble at the law: ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partiall in the law.

10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel, and in Jerusalem: for Judah hath profaned the holinesse of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doth this: the master, and the scholar out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 ¶ Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witnesse between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And did not he make one? yet had he the residue of the spirits: and wherefore one? that he might ight seek a godly seed: there-re take heed to your spirit, d let none deal treacherously ainst the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD the God of rael saith, that he hateth put-ng away: for one coveteth vioce with his garment, saith the RD of hosts: therefore take ed to your spirit, that ye deal t treacherously.
17 ¶ Ye have wearied the RD with your words: yet ye y, Wherein have we wearied m, when ye say, Every one that eth evil is good in the sight of the RD, and he delighteth in em; or, where is the God of dgment?

CHAP. III.

1 Behold, I will send my mes-enger, and he shall prepare e way before me: and the RD, whom ye seek, shall sudnly come to his temple: even e messenger of the covenant, om ye delight in: behold, he all come, saith the LORD of sts.
2 But who may abide the day his coming? and who shall and when he appeareth? for he like a refiner's fire, and like llers sope.
3 And he shall sit as a refiner d purifier of silver: and he all purifie the sons of Levi, d purge them as gold and silr, that they may offer unto the RD an offering in righte-usness.
4 Then shall the offerings of dah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the dayes of old, and as in former years.
5 And I will come neer to you to judgement; and I will be a ift witnesse against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, d against false swearers, and gainst those that oppresse the ireling in his wages, the widow d the fatherlesse, and that turn side the stranger from his right, d feare not me, saith the LORD
of hosts.
6 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.
7 ¶ Even from the dayes of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them: return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts: but ye said, Wherein shall we return?
8 ¶ Will a man rob God?
yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.
9 Ye are cursed with a curse;
for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.
10 Bring ye all the tithes into the store-house, that there may be meat in mine house; and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, If I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.
11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes: and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground, neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD
of hosts.
12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsom land, saith the LORD
of hosts.
13 ¶ Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD:
yet ye say, What have we spoken
so much against thee?
14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?
15 And now we call the proud happy: yea, they that work wickednesse are set up, yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.
16 ¶ Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another, and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him, for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his Name.
17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that ser-veth him.
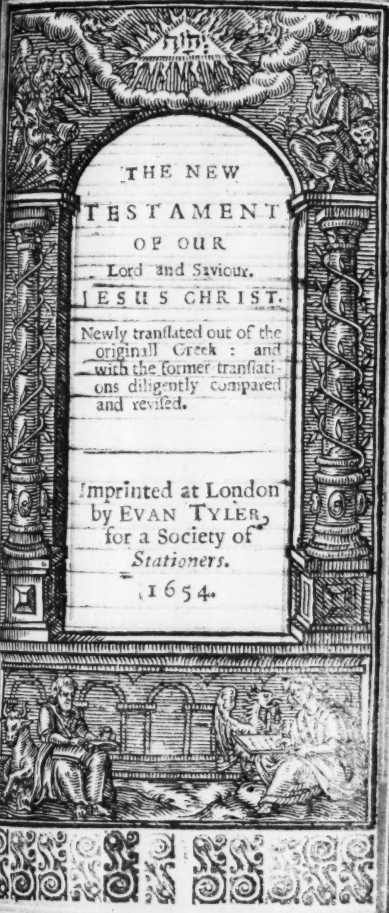
18 Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, betwixt him that serveth God, and him that serveth him not.

CHAP. IIII.

FOr behold the day cometh that shall burn as an oven, and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

2 ¶ But unto you that fear my Name, shall the sun of righteousnesse arise with healing in his wings, and ye shall go forth and grow up as calves of the stall.



3 And ye shall tread down the wicked: For they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet, in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgements.

5 ¶ Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet, before the coming of the great and dreadfull day of the LORD.

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

¶ The end of the prophets.

CHAP. I.

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac, and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren.

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar, and Phares begat Esrom, and Esrom begat Aram.

4 And Aram begat Aminadab, and Aminadab begat Naasson, and Naasson begat Salmon.

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab, and Booz begat Obed of Ruth, and Obed begat Jesse.

6 And Jesse begat David the king, and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias.

7 And Solomon begat Roboam, and Roboam begat Abia, and Abia begat Asa.

8 And Asa begat Josaphat, and Josaphat begat Joram, and Joram begat Ozias.

9 And Ozias begat Joatham, and Joatham begat Achaz, and Achaz begat Ezechias.

10 And Ezechias begat Manasses, and Manasses begat Amon, and Amon begat Josias.

11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon.

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel, and Salathiel begat Zorobabel.

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud, and Abiud begat Eliakim, and Eliakim begat Azor.

14 And Azor begat Sadoc, and Sadoc begat Achim, and Achim begat Eliud.

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar, and Eleazar begat Matthan, and Matthan begat Jacob.

16 And Jacob begat Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David, are fourteen generations: and from David until the carrying away into Babylon, are fourteen generations: and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ, are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, (before they came together) she was found with childe of the holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publike example, was minded to put her away privately.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife, for that which is conceived in her, is of the holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, & thou shalt call his Name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 (Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shalbe with childe, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted, is, God with us)

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not, till she had brought forth her first-born son; and he called his name Jesus.

CHAP. II.

NOw when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the dayes of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born king of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, & all Jerusalem with him.

4 And

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea; for thus it is written by the prophet;

6 And thou Bethlehem in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a governour that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared:

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go, and search diligently for the young childe, and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and lo, the star which they saw in the east went before them, till it came, and stood over where the young childe was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoyced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young childe with Mary his mother, and fell down, & worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrhe.

12 And being warned of God in a dream, that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young childe and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young childe to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young childe and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there untill the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my Son.

16 ¶ Then Herod when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremie the prophet, saying,

18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young childe, and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young childes life.

21 And he arose, and took the young childe and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

CHAP. III.

IN those dayes came John the baptist, preaching in the wildernesse of Judea,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wildernesse, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the Phārisees and Sadducees come to his baptisme, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance.

9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen down and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me, is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear, he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost and with fire.

12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner: but will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him:

14 But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfill all righteousnesse. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him,

17 And lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wildernesse, to be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted fourty dayes, and fourty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shal not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thy self down: for it is written, he shall give his angels charge concerning thee, and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them:

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil leaveth him, and behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

12 ¶ Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee:

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea-coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthali:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

15 The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthali, by the way of the sea beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles:

16 The people which sat in darknesse, saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and and shadow of death, light is sprung up.

17 ¶ From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 ¶ And Jesus walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishers.)

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they straitway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship, and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people, that were taken with divers diseases, and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsie, and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people, from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAP. V.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him.

2 And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsly for my sake.

12 Rejoyce and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world: A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushell, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorifie your father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth passe, one jot, or one tittle shall in no wise passe from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye

27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill: and whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgement.

28 But I say unto you: that whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause, shall be in danger of the judgement: and whosoever shall say unto his brother, Racha, shall be in danger of the councell: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

29 Therefore, if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there re-membrest that thy brother hath ought against thee:

30 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

31 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him: lest at any time thine adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison:

32 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

33 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time,
Thou shalt not commit adultery.

34 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already, in his heart.

35 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, & cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

36 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee
that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

37 It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of di-vorcement.

38 But I say unto you, that whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced, com-mitteth adultery.

39 ¶ Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thy self, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths.

40 But I say unto you, Swear not at all, neither by heaven,
for it is God's throne:

41 Nor by the earth, for it is his foot-stool: neither by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great king.

42 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

43 But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay; for whatsoever is more than these, cometh of evil.

44 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.

45 But I say unto you, that ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

46 And if any man will sue thee at the law, & take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also.

47 And whosoever shall com-pell thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

48 Give to him that asketh thee:
& from him that would borrow of thee, turn not thou away.

49 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, & hate thine enemy:

50 But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you:

51 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil, and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just, and on the unjust.

52 For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicanes the same?

53 And if ye salute your brethren onely, what do you more than others? do not even the publicanes so?

54 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAP.

CHAP. VI.

TAke heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore, when thou doest thine alms, do not found a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do, in the synagogues, and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right doth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret, himself shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues, and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward.

6 But thou when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret, & thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think ¶ they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtours.

13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever, Amen.

14 For, if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover, when ye fast, be not as the hypocrites of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, ¶ they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face.

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal.

20 But lay up for your selves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness: if therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other: or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more then meat, and the body then raiment?

26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better then they?

27 Which of you by taking thought, can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin.

...ed yet I say unto you, that
...Solomon in all his glory,
...arrayed like one of these.
...Wherefore if God so clothe ...ass of the field, which to ...day is, and to morrow is cast into
...the oven, shall he not much more
...clothe you, O ye of little faith?
...Therefore take no thought,
...saying, What shall we eat? or ...What shall we drink? or where...withal shall we be clothed?
...(For after all these things
...do the Gentiles seek) for your ...heavenly Father knoweth that
...ye have need of all these things.
...But seek ye first the kingdom
...of God, and his righteousness,
...and all these things shall be
...added unto you.
...Take therefore no thought
...for the morrow: for the morrow
...shall take thought for the things
...of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAP. VII.

...Judge not, that ye be not judged.
...For with what judgement ye judge, ye shall be judged: and
...with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.
...And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considereth not the beam that is in thine own eye.
...Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and behold a beam is in thine own eye.
...Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.
...Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine: lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again & rent you.
...Ask, and it shall be given you: seek, & ye shall finde: knock, and it shall be opened unto you.
...For every one that asketh, receiveth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.
...Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?
...Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

...If ye then being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven, give good things to them that ask him?
...Therefore all things, whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.
...Enter ye in at the strait gate, for wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:
...Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life, and few there be that finde it.
...Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheeps clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.
...Ye shal know them by their fruits: Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?
...Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.
...A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.
...Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen down, and cast into the fire.
...Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.
...Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that doth the will of my Father which is in heaven.
...Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy Name? and in thy Name have cast out devils? and in thy Name done many wonderfull works?
...And then will I professe unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.
...Therefore, whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:
...And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the windes blew, blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand;

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the windes blew, and beat upon that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to passe when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine.

29 For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAP. VIII.

WHen he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 And behold, there came a leper, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, be thou clean. And immediately his leprosie was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man, but go thy way, shew thy self to the priest, and offer ☧ gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsie, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The Centurion answered & said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word onely, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having souldiers under me; & I say to this man, Go, and he goeth: & to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my servant, Do this, and he doth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, & said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, that many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven:

12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping, and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way, and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self-same hour.

14 ¶ And when Jesus was come into Peters house, he saw his wives mother laid, and sick of a feaver:

15 And he touched her hand, and ☧ feaver left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ When ☧ even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick.

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests: but the son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me, and let the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us, we perish.

26 And he saith unto them,

11 And I say unto you, that many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven:

12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping, and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way, and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self-same hour.

CHAP. IX.

1 AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.
2 And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsie, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsie, Son be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee.
3 And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves,
This man blasphemeth.
4 And Jesus knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?
5 For whether is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?
6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsie) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.
7 And he arose, and departed to his house.
8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men. b
9 ¶ And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receit of custom; and he saith unto him, Follow me, and he arose and followed him.
10 ¶ And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.
11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?
12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.
13 But go ye, and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.
14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?
15 And Jesus said unto them,
Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the dayes will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.
16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up, taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.
17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottels: else the bottels break, and the wine runeth out, and the bottels perish: but they put new wine into new bottels, and both are preserved.
18 ¶ While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, & worshiped him, saying, My daughter is even

even now dead; but come, and lay thy hands upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, & followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 (¶ And behold, a woman which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve yeers, came behinde him, and touched the hem of his garment.

21 For she said within her self, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole:

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.)

23 And when Jesus came into the rulers house, and saw the minstrels, and the people making a noise,

24 He said unto them, Give place, for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in & took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 ¶ And when Jesus departed thence, two blinde men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou Son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blinde men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? they said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith, be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened: and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out the devils through the prince of the devils.

35 And Jesus went about the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, & healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 ¶ But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, & were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few.

38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

CHAP. X.

AND when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, & to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, who is called Peter, & Andrew his brother, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother,

3 Philip and Bartholomew, Thomas, and Matthew the Publican, James the son of Alphæus, and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus:

4 Simon the Cananite, & Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, & commanded them saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritanes enter ye not:

6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand:

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.

9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses:

10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: (for the workman is worthy of his meat.)

11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy: and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

13 And

and if the house be worthy,
your peace come upon it:
it be not worthy, let your e return to you.
And whosoever shall not ive you, nor hear your words:
ye depart out of that se or city, shake off the dust your feet.
Verily I say unto you, it be more tolerable for the d of Sodom and Gomorrha the day of judgement then that city.
Behold, I send you forth
ep in the midst of wolves, erefore wise as serpents,
harmless as doves.
But beware of men; for will deliver you up to the uncils, and they will scourge in their synagogues.
And ye shall be brought re governours and kings for sake, for a testimony against and the Gentiles.
But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or at ye shall speak: for it shall given you in that same hour at ye shall speak.
For it is not ye that speak, but the spirit of your Father at speaketh in you.
And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, & the father the childe: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.
And ye shall be hated of all men for my Names sake: but he that endureth to the end, shall be saved.
But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.
The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.
It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord: if they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?
Fear them not therefore:
for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed, and hid,

that shall not be known.
What I tell you in darknes, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house tops.
And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.
Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fal on the ground without your Father.
But the very hairs of your head are all numbred.
Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value then many sparrows.
Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.
But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.
Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.
For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.
And a mans foes shall be they of his own household.
He that loveth father or mother more then me, is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more then me, is not worthy of me.
And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.
He that findeth his life shal lose it: & he that loseth his life for my sake, shall finde it.
He that receiveth you, receiveth me: & he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.
He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet, shall receive a prophets reward: and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man, shall receive a righteous mans reward.
And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones, a cup of cold water onely in the name of a disciple, verily

vetily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

CHAP. XI.

AND it came to passe, when Iesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now when John had heard in the prison ¶ works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should come? or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go, and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 The blinde receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have ¶ gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in me.

7 ¶ And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wildernes to see? A reed shaken with the winde?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they ¶ wear soft clothing, are in kings houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more then a prophet.

10 For this is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, ¶ shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Amongst them that are born of women, there hath not risen a greater then John the Baptist: notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater then he.

12 And from the dayes of John ¶ Baptist until now, ¶ kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, & the violent take it by force.

13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is Elias which was for to come.

15 He that hath eares to hear, let him hear.

16 ¶ But whereunto shal I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets & calling unto their fellows

17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners: but wisdom is justified of her children.

20 ¶ Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not.

21 Wo unto thee, Chorazin, wo unto thee, Bethsaida: for if the mighty works which were done in you, had been done in Tyre & Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sack-cloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgement, then for you.

23 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgement, then for thee.

25 ¶ At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven & earth, because ¶ hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 All things are delivered unto me of my Father: & no man knoweth ¶ Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man ¶ Father, save ¶ Son, & he to whomsoever the son will reveal him.

28 ¶ Come unto me all ye that labour, and are heavie laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall finde rest unto your soules.

30 For my yoke is easie, and my burden is light.

CHAP. XII.

AT that time Jesus went on the sabbath day thorow the corn, and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath-day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungered, and they that were with him,

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shew bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, that in this place is one greater then the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath-day.

9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue.

10 ¶ And behold, there was a man which had his hand withered, and they asked him, saying, Is it lawfull to heal on the sabbath dayes? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath-day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better then a sheep? wherefore it is lawfull to do well on the sabbath-dayes.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand: and he stretched it forth, and it was restored whole like as the other.

14 ¶ Then the Pharisees went out, and held a counsell against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all,

16 And charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

18 Behold, my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgement to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry, neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgement unto victory.

21 And in his Name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blinde and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blinde and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed and said, Is this the son of David?

24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of devils.

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against it self, is brought to desolation: and every city or house divided against it self, shall not stand.

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else, how can one enter into a strong mans house, and spoil his goods, except he first binde the strong man? and then he will spoil his house?

30 He that is not with me, is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth abroad.

31 ¶ Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good: or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O generation of vipers, how can ye being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgement.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ Then certain of the Scribes and of the Pharises answered, saying, Master we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said to them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a signe: and there shall no signe be given to it, but the signe of the prophet Jonas.

40 For as Jonas was three dayes and three nights in the whales belly: so shall the Son of man be three dayes and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 The men of Nineve shall rise in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemne it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas: & behold, more then Jonas is here.

42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemne it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon: and behold, a greater then Solomon is here.

43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

44 Then he saith, I will return into mine house from whence I came out: and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirites more wicked then himself, and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse then the first: even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

46 ¶ While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren.

50 For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

CHAP. XIII.

THE same day went Iesus out of the house, and sat by the sea side.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat, and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow.

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the wayes side, and the fowls came, and devoured them up.

5 Some fell upon stony ground, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepnesse of earth.

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched: and because they had no roote, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thornes, and the thornes grew up, and choked them.

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundred fold, some sixtie fold, some thirtie fold.

9 Who hath eares to heare, let him heare.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? Because to you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdome of heaven, but to them it is not given.

11 For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

12 And therefore speake I unto them in parables, because they seeing see not, and hearing they heare not, neither do they understand.

6 And when ¶ sun was up, they were scorched: & because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns and the thorns sprung up, and choked them.

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit: some an hundred fold, some sixty fold, some thirty fold.

9 Who hath eares to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know ¶ mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables, because they seeing see not: and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand: and seeing, ye shall see, and shall not perceive.

15 For this people's heart is waxed grosse, and their eares are dull of hearing, & their eyes have they closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their eares, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your eares, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them: and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not: then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sowen in his heart: this is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it:

21 Yet hath ye not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word, and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becometh unfruitfull.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it: which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundred fold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when ¶ blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came, and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sowe good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt ¶ then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay: lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: & in the time of harvest, I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and binde them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard-seed which a man took and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest amongst herbs, and becometh a tree: so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ Another parable spake he unto them: The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables, and without a parable spake he not unto them;

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, he that soweth the good seed, is the Son of man.

38 The field is the world. The good seed are the children of the kingdom: but the tares are the children of the wicked one.

39 The enemy that sowed them, is the devil. The harvest is the end of the world: and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burnt in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity:

42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing, and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun, in the kingdom of their father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field: the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof, goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who when he had found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, & bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kinde;

48 Which when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world; the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire; there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And he did not many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

CHAP. XIIII.

AT that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,

2 And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist, he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

3 ¶ For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias sake his brother Philips wife.

(For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herods birth-day was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptists head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless, for the oaths sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it; and went and told Jesus.

13 ¶ When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send away the multitude, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart, give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained, twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten, were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 ¶ And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone:

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit: & they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer: it is I, be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him, & said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the winde boisterous, he was afraid: and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the winde ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship, came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

34 ¶ And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Genesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased.

35 And beſought him that they might onely touch the hem of his garment; and as many as touched, were made perfectly whole.

CHAP. XV.

THen came to Jeſus ſcribes and Phariſees which were of Jeruſalem, ſaying,

2 Why do thy diſciples tranſgreſſe the tradition of the elders? for they waſh not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he anſwered and ſaid unto them, Why do you alſo tranſgreſſe the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, ſaying, Honour thy father and mother: and he that curſeth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye ſay, Whoſoever ſhall ſay to his father, or his mother, It is a gift, by what thou mighteſt be profited by me,

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he ſhall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye hypocrites, well did Eſaias propheſie of you, ſaying,

8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips: but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain do they worſhip me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 ¶ And he called the multitude, and ſaid unto them, Hear and underſtand.

11 Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man: but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his diſciples, and ſaid unto him, Knoweſt thou that the Phariſees were offended, after they heard this ſaying?

13 But he anſwered and ſaid, Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted, ſhall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: they be blinde leaders of the blinde. And if the blinde lead the blinde, both ſhall fall into the ditch.

15 Then anſwered Peter and ſaid unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jeſus ſaid, Are ye alſo yet without underſtanding?

17 Do not ye yet underſtand, that whatſoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is caſt out into a draught?

18 But thoſe things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart, and they defile the man.

19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, theſts, falſe witneſſe, blaſphemies.

20 Theſe are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwaſhen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ Then Jeſus went thence, and departed into the coaſts of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the ſame coaſts, and cried unto him, ſaying, Have mercy upon me, O Lord, thou Son of David: my daughter is grievouſly vexed with a devil.

23 But he anſwered her not a word. And his diſciples came and beſought him, ſaying, Send her away, for ſhe crieth after us.

24 But he anſwered and ſaid, I am not ſent, but unto the loſt ſheep of the houſe of Iſrael.

25 Then came he, and worſhipped him, ſaying, Lord, help me.

26 But he anſwered and ſaid, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to caſt it to dogs.

27 And ſhe ſaid, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their maſters table.

28 Then Jeſus anſwered and ſaid unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 And Jeſus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the ſea of Galilee, and went up into a mountain, and ſat down there.

30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them thoſe that were lame, blinde, dumb, maimed, and many others, and caſt them down at Jeſus feet, and he healed them:

31 Inſomuch that the multitude wondered, when they ſaw the dumb to ſpeak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blinde to ſee: and they glorified the God of Iſrael.

32 ¶ Then Jeſus called his diſciples unto him, and ſaid fore compassion on the multitude,because they continue with me now three dayes, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his disciples say unto him,Whence should we have so much bread in the wildernesse, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye?and they said,Seven,and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded ¶ multitude to sit down on ¶ ground.

36 And he took the seven loaves,and the fishes, and gave thanks,and brake them,and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat,were four thousand men,beside women and children.

39 And he sent away the multitude,and took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Pharisees also with the Sadducees, come and tempt him,desired him that he would shew them a signe from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say,It will be fair weather: for the skie is red.

3 And in the morning,It will be foul weather to day: for the skie is red and lowring.O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the skie, but can ye not discern the signes of the times?

4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a signe, and there shall no signe be given unto it, but the signe of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

5 And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 ¶ Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed, and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees,and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves,saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them,O ye of little faith, why reason ye among your selves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 Do ye not understand,neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand, that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leven of the Pharisees,and of ¶ Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leven of bread: but of the doctrine of the Pharisees,and of the Sadducees.

13 ¶ When Jesus came into the coasts of Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say, that I the Son of man am?

14 And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist, some Elias,and others Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Simon Peter answered and said,Thou art Christ the Son of the living God.

17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee,but my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church: and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt binde on earth,shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus ¶ Christ.

21 ¶ From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem,and suffer many things of ¶ elders,& chief priests,& scribes,& be killed,& be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behinde me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his crosse, and follow me.

25 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake, shall finde it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shal gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father, with his angels, and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verely I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

CHAP. XVII.

AND after six dayes Jesus taketh Peter, James, & John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,

2 And was transfigured before them, and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias, talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 While he yet spake, behold a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lift up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes, that Elias must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, & restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, that Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed: likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 ¶ And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him & saying,

15 Lord have mercy on my son, for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oft times he falleth into a the fire, & oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithlesse and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil, and he departed out of him: and the childe was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verely I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place: and it shall remove, and nothing shall be unpossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kinde goeth not out but by prayer & fasting.

22 ¶ And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, the Son of man shalbe betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.
24 ¶ And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute-money, came to Peter, and said, Doth not your Master pay tribute?
25 He saith, Yea. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?
26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.
27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and me.

CHAP. XVIII.

AT the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?
2 And Jesus called a little childe unto him, and set him in the midst of them;
3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.
4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little childe, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.
5 And whoso shall receive one such little childe in my Name, receiveth me.
6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.
7 ¶ Wo unto the world, because of offences: for it must needs be that offences come: but wo to that man by whom the offence cometh.
8 Wherefore if thine hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather then having two hands or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire.
9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather then having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.
10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones: for I say unto you, In heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.
11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.
12 How think ye? If a man have an hundred sheep, & one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?
13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoyceth more of the sheep, then of the ninety & nine which went not astray.
14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.
15 ¶ Moreover, if thy brother shall trespasse against thee, go and tell him his fault, between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.
16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.
17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man, and a publicane.
18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall binde on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.
19 Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.
20 For where two or three are gathered together in my Name, there am I in the midst of them.
21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, & I forgive him? till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which ought him ten thousand talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, & loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him an hundred pence, and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came, and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me.

33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

CHAP. XIX.

AND it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, & came into the coasts of Judea beyond Jordan.

2 And great multitudes followed him, & he healed them there.

3 ¶ And the Pharisees came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered & said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning, made them male & female?

5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh.

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away, doth commit adultery.

10 ¶ His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mothers womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heavens sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶ And behold, one came and said told unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternall life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou will enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 Honour thy father and thy mother, and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou will be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard ☞ saying, he went away sorrowfull: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, that a rich man shall hardly enter into ☞ kingdom of heaven.

24 And again, I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.

27 ¶ Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee, what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, ☞ ye which have followed me in ☞ regeneration, when ☞ Son of man shall sit in ☞ throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging ☞ twelve tribes of Israel.

29 And every one ☞ hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my Names sake, shall receive an hundred fold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

30 But many ☞ are first shall be last, and ☞ last shall be first.

CHAP. XX.

FOr the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, & saw others standing idle in the market place,

4 And said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, I will give you, And they went their way.

5 Again, he went out about the sixth and ninth hours, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last, unto the first.

9 And when they came ☞ were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a peny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more, and they like wise received every man a peny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the good man of the house,

12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, & thou hast made them equall unto us, which have born the burden & heat of ☞ day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a peny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way, I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawfull for me to do what I will with mine own? is thine eye evil, because I am good?

16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

17 ¶ And Jesus going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death:

19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucifie him: and the third day he shall rise again.

20 ¶ Then came to him the mother of Zebedees children, with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant, that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great, exercise authority upon them:

26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister.

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant.

28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

29 And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 ¶ And behold, two blinde men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cryed out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cryed the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, O Son of David.

32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?

33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes, and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAP. XXI.

AND when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall finde an asse tyed, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them, and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy king cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an asse, and a colt, the foale of an asse.

6 And the disciples went and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the asse, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, & strawed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David: blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest.

10 And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 ¶ And

12 ¶ And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold & bought in the temple, & overthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of theeves.

14 And the blinde and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderfull things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to ✝ son of David: they were sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? and Jesus saith unto them, Yea, have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 ¶ And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethania, and he lodged there.

18 Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw a fig-tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, & said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig-tree withered away?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this, which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea, it shall be done.

22 And all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 ¶ And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests & the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, & said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jesus answered & said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I by like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptisme of John, Whence was it? from heaven or of men? and they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say from heaven, he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shal say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus & said, We cannot tel. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 ¶ But what think you? A certain man had two sons, and he came to the first & said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir, and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did ✝ will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ✝ publicanes and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For John came unto you in the way of righteousnes, and ye believed him not: but the publicanes and the harlots believed him. And ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 ¶ Hear another parable. There was a certain housholder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-presse in it, and built a tower, & let it out to husbandmen, & went into a far country.

34 And when the time of the fruit drew neer, he sent his servants to ✝ husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And ✝ husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants, more then the first, & they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir, come, let us kill him, and let us seiz on his inheritance:

39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husband-men, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner? This is the Lords doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits therof.

44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone, shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them:

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

CHAP. XXII.

AND Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son;

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding, and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, & went their waies, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and intreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, & burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highwayes, & as many as ye shall finde, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the high wayes, and gathered together all, as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding garment? and he was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Binde him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness: there shall be weeping & gnashing of teeth.

14 For many are called, but few are chosen.

15 ¶ Then went the Pharisees and took counsell how they might intangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, what thinkest thou? Is it lawfull to give tribute unto Cesar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickednesse, & said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a peny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

21 They say unto him, Cesars. Then saith he unto them,

Render

Render therefore unto Cesar § things which are Cesars: & unto God the things that are Gods.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection: and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shal marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and having no issue, left his wife unto his brother.

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all, the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do erre, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage: but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 I am the God of Abraham, and § God of Isaac, & the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

40 On these two commandments hang all § law and the prophets.

41 ¶ While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The Son of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying,

44 The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy foot-stool?

45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man (from § day forth) ask him any more questions.

CHAP. XXIII

THen spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, the scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, § observe and do: but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

4 For they binde heavie burdens, and grievous to be born, and lay them on mens shoulders: but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the marketes, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your master, even Christ: and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But he that is greatest among you, shal be your servant.

12 And whosoever shall exalt him self, shall be abased: and he that that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 ¶ But wo unto you scribes & Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in your selves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye devour widows houses, and for a pretence make long prayer; therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Wo unto you scribes & Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye compasse sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the childe of hell then your selves.

16 Wo unto you, ye blinde guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing: but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtour.

17 Ye fools and blinde: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing: but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

19 Ye fools & blinde: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, & by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye pay tithe of mint and anise, and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgement, mercy & faith: these ought ye to have done, & not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blinde guides, & strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excesse.

26 Thou blinde Pharisee, cleanse first within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead mens bones, & of all uncleanesse.

28 Even so ye outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisie and iniquity.

29 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had been in the dayes of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto your selves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

34 ¶ Wherefore behold, I send unto you prophets & wise men and scribes: & some of them ye shall kill & crucifie, and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

35 That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel, unto the blood of Zacharias, son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, all these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

CHAP.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 Ne Jesus went out and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon ¶ mount of olives, ¶ disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be ¶ signe of thy coming and of ¶ end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you;

5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled; for all these things must come to passe: but the end is not yet.

7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, & earthquakes in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my Names sake.

10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false prophets shall arise & shal deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of ¶ kingdom shall be preached in all the world, for a witnesse unto all nations: & then shall ¶ end come.

15 When ye therefore shal see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel ¶ prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand.)

16 Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains.

17 Let him which is on the house top, not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field, return back to take his clothes.

19 And woe unto them that are with childe, and to them that give suck in those dayes.

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day.

21 For then shal be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those daies should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elects sake those dayes shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there: beleeve it not.

24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signes and wonders, insomuch that (if it were possible) they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore, if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert, go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers, beleeve it not:

27 For as the lightning commeth out of the east, and shineth even unto the west, so shall also the coming of ¶ Son of man be.

28 For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ Immediately after the tribulation of those dayes, shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light: and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.

30 And then shall appear the signe of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory.

31 And he shall send his angels ¶ with a great sound of a trumpet, & they shall gather together his elect from ¶ four windes, fro one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now

32 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree, When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So like wise ye, when ye shal see all these things, know that it is neer, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, this generation shall not passe, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 Heaven and earth shall passe away, but my words shall not passe away.

36 ¶ But of that day & hour knoweth no man, no, nor ℣ angels of heaven, but my Father onely.

37 But as the dayes of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the dayes ℣ were before the flood they were eating & drinking, marrying & giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark:

39 And knew not, until the flood came and took them all away: so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field: the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill: the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ¶ Watch therefore, for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, & would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as you think not, the Son of man cometh.

45 Who then is a faithfull and wise servant, whom his Lord hath made ruler over his houshold, to give them meat in due season.

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall finde so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, that he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But & if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming,

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken:

50 The lord of that ℣ shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of:

51 And shall cut him asunder, & appoint him his portion with ℣ hypocrites, there shall be weeping & gnashing of teeth.

CHAP. XXV.

THen shal ℣ kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, & went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oyle with them:

4 But the wise took oyle in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While ℣ bridegroom tarried, they all slumbred and slept.

6 And at mid night there was a cry made, Behold, ℣ bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oyle, for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so, lest there be not enough for us and you: but go rather to them that sell, and buy for your selves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and they that were ready, went in with him to the marriage, and the door was shut.

11 Afterward also came the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily, I say unto you, I know you not.

13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither ℣ day, nor ℣ hour wherein ℣ Son of man comes.

14 ¶ For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods:

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to every man according to his severall ability, and straightway took his journey.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one, went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents, came & brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents, behold, I have gained besides them, five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithfull over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents, came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithfull servant, thou hast been faithfull over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into ✠ joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent, came & said, Lord, I knew thee, that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sowen, and gathering where thou hast not strawed,

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked & slothfull servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed.

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not, shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into utter darkenesse, there shall be weeping & gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ When the Son of man shall come in his glory, & all ✠ holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon ✠ throne of his glory.

32 And before him shal be gathered all nations, and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats.

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the king say unto them on his right hand, Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit ✠ kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of ✠ world.

35 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, & ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, & give thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink?

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 The

45 Then shall he answer them saying, Verily I say unto you I not much as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

46 And these shal go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternall.

CHAP. XXVI.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 Ye know that after two dayes is the feast of the passeover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And consulted ☩ they might take Jesus by subtilty, & kil him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in ☩ house of Simon ☩ leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head as he sat at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble you the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For ye have the poor always with you, but me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my buriall.

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shal be preached in the whole world, there shall also this that this woman hath done, be told for a memoriall of her.

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? and they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from ☩ time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ Now ☩ first day of ☩ feast of unleavened bread, ☩ disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat ☩ passover?

18 And he said, Go into ☩ city to such a man, & say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand, I will keep ☩ passeover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; & they made ready the passeover.

20 Now when even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowfull, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered & said, He ☩ dippeth his hand ☩ me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but wo unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed: it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, Is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, & gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many, for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of ☩ fruit of ☩ vine, untill that day when I drink it new with you in my Fathers kingdom.

30 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite ☩ shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But

32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.
33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.
34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this night before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.
35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.
36 ¶ Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.
37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavie.
38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.
39 And he went a little farther and fell on his face, & prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.
40 And he cometh unto his disciples, & findeth them asleep, & saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?
41 Watch & pray, ye enter not into temptation: ¶ the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.
42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.
43 And he came, and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavie.
44 And he left them and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.
45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners:
46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.
47 ¶ And while he yet spake, lo, Judas one of the twelve came, & with him a great multitude with swords & staves from the chief priests and elders of the people.
48 Now he that betrayed him, gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he, hold him fast.
49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master, and kissed him.
50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.
51 And behold, one of them which were with Jesus, stretched out his hand, & drew his sword, and stroke a servant of the high priests, and smote off his ear.
52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place, for all they that take the sword, shall perish with the sword.
53 Think'st thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, & he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?
54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?
55 In that same hour said Jesus, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.
56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him and fled.
57 ¶ And they & had laid hold on Jesus, led him away to Caiaphas & high priest, where & scribes and the elders were assembled.
58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priests palace, and went in, and sat with the servants to see the end.
59 Now the chief priests and elders, & all the counsel, sought false witnesse against Jesus to put him to death;
60 But found none; yea though many false witnesses came, yet found they none: At the last came two false witnesses,
61 And said, this fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three dayes.
62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witnesses against thee?

63 But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered & said unto him, I adiure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the cloudes of heaven.

65 Then § high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy: what further need have we of witnesse? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, he is guilty of death.

67 Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him, and others smote him with the palms of their hands,

68 Saying, Prophesie unto us, Christ, who is he § smote thee?

69 ¶ Now Peter sat without in the palace, and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou art one of them, for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to sweare, saying, I know not the man. And immediatly the cock crew.

75 And Peter remembred the words of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out and wept bitterly.

CHAP. XXVII.

When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death.

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away & delivered him to Pontius Pilate § governour.

3 ¶ Then Judas which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed § innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces and said, It is not lawfull to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potters field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore § field was called, The field of blood unto this day.

9 (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for § potters field, as the Lord appointed me.)

11 And Jesus stood before the governour: and the governour asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Iewes? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witnesse against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word: insomuch that the governour marvelled greatly.

15 Now at that feast the governour was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered togeather, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus, which is called Christ?

18 For

for he knew that for en-they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set on the judgement seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream, because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders perswaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governour answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate said unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all said unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governour said,
Why, what evil hath he done?
But they cried out ℣ more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all ℣ people, and said, His blood be on us and on our children.

26 ¶ Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then ℣ souldiers of ℣ governour took Jesus into ℣ common hall, & gathered unto him the whole band of souldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 ¶ And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, & a reed in his right hand: & they bowed the knee before him, & mocked him, saying, Hail, king of the Jews.

30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucifie him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his crosse.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, ℣ is to say, a place of a scull,

34 ¶ They gave him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by ℣ prophet,
They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down, they watched him there:

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two theeves crucified with him: one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And they ℣ passed by, reviled him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, Thou that de-stroyest the temple, and buildest it in three dayes, save thy self:
if thou be the Son of God, come down from the crosse.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said,

42 He saved others, himself he cannot save: if he be the king of Israel, let him now come down from the crosse, and we will believe him.

43 He trusted in God, let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The theeves also which were crucified with him cast the same in his teeth.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkenesse over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour
Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lamasa bichthani, that is to say, My God, my God,
why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said,
This man calleth for Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, & put it on a reed, & gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let him to see whether Elias will come to save him.

50 ¶ Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And behold, the vail of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom, and the earth did quake, & ¶ rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened, and many bodies of saints which slept arose,

53 And came out of ¶ graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there (beholding afar off) which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministring unto him.

56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedees children.

57 When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus disciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus: then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewen out in the rock; and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember, that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch, go your way, make it as sure as you can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAP. XXVIII.

IN the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, to see the sepulchre.

2 And behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His countenance was like lightening, & his raiment white as snow:

4 And for fear of him ¶ keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here, for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples ¶ he is risen from the dead. And behold, he goeth before you into Galilee, there shall ye see him: lo I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre, with fear and great joy: and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came, and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: Go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the souldiers,

13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governours ears, we will perswade him, and secure you.
15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught. And this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.
16 ¶ Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.
17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.
18 And Jesus came, and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.
19 ¶ Go ye therefore, & teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Ghost:
20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.]

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. MARK.

CHAP. I.

1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God,
2 As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shal prepare thy way before thee.
3 The voice of one crying in the wildernesse, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.
4 John did baptize in the wildernesse, and preach the baptisme of repentance, for the remission of sins.
5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.
6 And John was clothed with camels hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins, and he did eat locusts, and wilde honey,
7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier then I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.
8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost.
9 And it came to passe in those dayes, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.
10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him.
11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
12 And immediately the spirit driveth him into the wildernesse.
13 And he was there in the wildernesse fourty dayes, tempted of Satan, and was with the wilde beasts: and the angels ministered unto him.
14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, 15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and beleeve the gospel.
16 Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, (for they were fishers.)
17 And Jesus said unto them Come ye after me, & I will make you to become fishers of men.
18 And straightway they forsook their nets, & followed him.
19 And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.
20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in a ship with the hired servants, & went after him.
21 And they went into Capernaum, and straightway on the sabbath-day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.
22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.
23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, 24 Saying, Let us alone, what

...we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the holy One of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this; what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 And forthwith when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simons wives mother lay sick of a feverand anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lift her up, and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils:

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils, and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon, & they y were with him, followed after him:

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also, for therefore came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

40 And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

41 And Jesus moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will, be thou clean.

42 And assoon as he had spoken, immediately § leprosie departed from him, & he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away,

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man, but go thy way, shew thy self to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded for a testimony unto them.

45 But he went out, & began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAP. II.

AND again he entered into Capernaum after some dayes; and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsie, which was born of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for preasse, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsie lay.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsie, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins, but God only?

8 And immediately, when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsie)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 And he went forth again by the sea side, and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alpheus sitting at the receit of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

15 And it came to passe, that as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicanes and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicanes and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicanes and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the Physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

18 And the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bride groom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the dayes will come, when the bridegrom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those dayes.

21 No man also sewerh a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up, taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 And it came to passe, that he went thorow the corn fields on the sabbath-day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath-day that which is not lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God, in the dayes of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shew-bread, which is not lawfull to eat, but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him.

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath.

28 Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

CHAP. III.

AND he entered again into the synagogue, and there was a man there which had a withered hand:

2 And they watched him whether he would heal him on the sabbath-day, that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawfull to do good on the sabbath-dayes, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? but they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardnesse of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsell with the Herodians, against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great a multitude from Galilee followed him,and from Judea, 8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond Jordan, and they about Tyre and Sidon,a great multitude, when they had heardwhat great things he did,came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples,that a small ship should wait on him,because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.
10 For he had healed many, insomuch that they pressed upon him for to touch him,as many as had plagues.
11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him,and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.
12 And he straightly charged them,that they should not make him known.
13 And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would : and they came unto him.
14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach ;
15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils.
16 And Simon he surnamed Peter.
17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James (and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder.)
18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew,and Matthew, and Thomas, and James, the son of Alphæus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Cananite, 19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him:and they went into an house, 20 And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.
21 And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him, for they said, He is beside himself.
22 ¶ And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said,He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.
23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?
24 And if a kingdom be divided against it self, that kingdom cannot stand.
25 And if an house be divided against it self, that house cannot stand.
26 And if Satan rise up against himself,and be divided, he cannot stand,but hath an end.
27 No man can enter into strong mans house,and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man, and then he will spoil his house.
28 Verily I say unto you, all sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme :
29 But he that shall blaspheme against the holy Ghost,hath never forgiveness,but is in danger of eternall damnation :
30 Because they said,He hath an unclean spirit.
31 ¶ There came then his brethren, and his mother, and standing without,sent unto him, calling him.
32 And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him,Behold,thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.
33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren ?
34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother,and my brethren.
35 For whosoever shall do the will of God,the same is my brother, and my sister,and mother.

CHAP. IIII.

AND he began again to teach by the sea side : and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea ; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.
2 And he taught them many things by parables,and said unto them in his doctrine,
3 Hearken,Behold,there went out a sower to sowe :
4 And it came to passe as he sowed,some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.
5 And some fell on stony ground, ground, where it had not much earth: and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth.

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fel among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it: and it yeelded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yeeld fruit, that sprang up & increased, & brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He ℣ hath eares to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with ℣ twelve, asked of him ℣ parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive, and hearing they may hear, and not understand, lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will you know all parables?

14 ¶ The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sowen, but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away ℣ word that was sowen in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sowen on stony grounds, who when they have heard, immediately receive it with gladnesse;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward when affliction or persecution ariseth for the words sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sowen among thorns, such as hear the word.

19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulnesse of riches, and the lusts of other things, entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitfull.

20 And these are they which are sowen on good ground, such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty fold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? & not to be set on a candlestick?

22 For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested: neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have eares to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, Take heed what you hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you ℣ hear, shall more be given.

25 For he that hath, to him shall be given; and he that hath not, from him shall be taken, even that which he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into ℣ ground

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how:

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of her self, first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sicle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which when it is sowen in the earth, is lesse then all the seeds that be in the earth.

32 But when it is sowen, it groweth up & becometh greater then all herbs, and shooteth out great branches, so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And ẅ many such parables spake he ℣ word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: & when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

S[illegible] 35 And 35 And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us passe over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship, and there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of winde, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the winde, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still: and the winde ceased: and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearfull? how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the winde & the sea obey him?

CHAP. V.

AND they came over unto the other side of ¶ sea into the countrey of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among ¶ tombs, & no man could binde him, no not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters & chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces, neither could any man tame him.

5 And alwayes night and day he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 (For he said unto him, Come out of ¶ man, ¶ unclean spirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? & he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much, that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine, feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And ¶ unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine, and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand) & were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine, fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting and clothed, & in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it, told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he ¶ had been possessed with the devil, prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvell.

21 And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him, and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 And behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogues, Jairus by name, and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death, I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on on her, that she may be healed, and she shall live.

24 And Jesus went with him, and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman & had an issue of blood twelve yeers,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse;

27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the presse behinde, and touched his garment.

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straitway the fountain of her blood was dried up: and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jesus immediately knowing in himself that vertue had gone out of him, turned him about in the presse, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her y had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came, and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole, go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he yet spake, there came from ȳ ruler of the synagogues house, certain, which said, thy daughter is dead, why troublest thou ȳ master any further?

36 Assoon as Jesus heard the word ỳ was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of ȳ synagogue, Be not afraid, onely beleeve.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter & James, and John the brother of James.

38 And he cometh, to ȳ house of the ruler of ȳ synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he said unto them, Why make ye this ado & weep? the damsell is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorn: but when he had put them all out, he taketh the father & the mother of the damsell, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsell was lying,

41 And he took the damsell by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi, which is being interpreted, Damsell, (I say unto thee) Arise.

42 And straitway the damsel arose, and walked, for she was of the age of twelve yeers: and they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And he charged them straitly, that no man should know it: & commanded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAP. VI.

AND he went out from thence, and came into his own country, and his disciples followed him.

2 And when the sabbath-day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him, were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James & Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us: And they were offended at him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And he could there do no mighty works, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages teaching.

7 ¶ And he calleth unto him ȳ twelve, & began to send them forth by two and two, and gave them power over unclean spirits:

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff onely, no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse:

9 But be shod with sandals: and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, in what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet, for a testimony against them: Verily I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgement, than for that city.

12 And they went out and preached, that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 And king Herod heard of him (for his Name was spread abroad) and he said, that John the Baptist was risen from the dead, & therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John whom I beheaded, he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth, and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife; for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawfull for thee to have thy brothers wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrell against him, and would have killed him, but she could not

20 For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man, and an holy, and observed him: and when he heard him, he did many things, & heard him gladly

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birth-day made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee:

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, & danced, and pleased Herod, and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsell, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee to the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straitway with haste unto the king, & asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger, the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry, yet for his oaths sake & for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went, and beheaded him in the prison,

28 And brought his head in a charger, & gave it to the damsell, and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came & took up his corps, & laid it in a tomb.

30 And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said unto them, Come ye your selves apart into a desert place, and rest a while. For there were many comings & goings, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, & ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed.

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about & into the villages, & buy them selves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred penyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grasse.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves, and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, & were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves, were about five thousand men.

45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing (for the winde was contrary unto them:) and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out;

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer, it is I, be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship, and the winde ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves, for their heart was hardened.

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Genesareth, & drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him,

55 And ran thorow that whole region round about, & began to carry about in beds those ✝ were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered into villages, or cities, or countreys, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him, that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him, were made whole.

CHAP. VII.

THen came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled (that is to say, with unwashen) hands, they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold: as the washing of cups, and pots, brazen vessels, and of tables.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit, in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots, and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, For well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother: and whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me: he shall be free.

11 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 ¶ And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand.

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him.

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it, but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet,

26 (The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation) and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord, yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crums.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying, go thy way, the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ And again departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech, and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAP. VIII.

IN those dayes the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three dayes, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfie these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? and they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them: and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten, were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a signe from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a signe? Verily I say unto you, There shall no signe be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more then one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bethsaida, and they bring a blinde man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blinde man by the hand, and led him out of the town, and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ And Jesus went out, and his disciples into the towns of Cesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elias: and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three dayes rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly.

openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about, and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behinde me, Satan: for thou favourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called ℣ people unto him, with his disciples also; he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his crosse, and follow me.

35 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospels, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, in this adulterous and sinfull generation, of him also shal the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father, with ℣ holy angels.

CHAP. IX.

AND he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that there be some of them ℣ stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ And after six dayes Jesus taketh with him Peter, & James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves; and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow: so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses, & they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered & said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here, and let us make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what to say, for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them; and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus onely with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead:

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another, what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes, that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things, and how it is written of the Son of man that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, that Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all ℣ people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him, saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit:

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him, and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples, that they should cast him out, and they could not.

19 He answereth him, & saith, O faithlesse generation, how long shall I be with you: how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him, and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him, and he fell on the ground, wallowed, foming.

21 And

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a childe.

22 And oft times it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the childe cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe, help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jesus saw ¶ the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, to come out of him, & enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, & came out of him & he was as one dead, insomuch ¶ many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up, and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them; This kinde can come forth by nothing, but by prayer & fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed thorow Galilee, and he would not that any should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him, & after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, & were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among your selves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And he took a childe, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my Name, receiveth me: and whosoever shal receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy Name, & he follow eth not us, and we forbad him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not; for there is no man which shal do a miracle in my Name, & can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For he that is not against us, is on our part.

41 For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my Name, because ye belong to Christ; verily I say unto you, He shall not lose his reward.

42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, then having two hands, to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

44 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, then having two feet, to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into ¶ kingdom of God with one eye, then having two eyes, to be cast into hel fire

48 Where their worm dieth not, & the fire is not quenched.

49 For every one shal be salted with fire: and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 Salt is good, but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will you season it? have salt in your selves, and have peace one with another.

CHAP. X.

AND he rose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judea, by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again, and as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawfull for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them; What did Moses command you?

4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardnesse of your hearts he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation, God made them male and female.

7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife,

8 And they twain shal be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joyned together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ¶ And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shal not enter therein.

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do, that I may inherit eternall life?

18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is no man good, but one, that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witnesse, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus beholding him, loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God?

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God?

25 It is easier for a camel to go thorow the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus looking upon them, saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my sake, and the gospels,

30 But he shall receive an hundred hundred-fold now in this time, houses and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternall life:

31 But many that are first shall be last, and the last, first.

32 ¶ And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them, and they were amazed: & as they followed, they were afraid: & he took again the twelve, & began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and § Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, & unto the scribes, & they shall condemn him to death, & shall deliver him to § Gentiles.

34 And they shall mock him, & shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him; and the third day he shall rise again.

35 ¶ And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou should'st do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of, and with the baptism that I am baptized withall, shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they § are accounted to rule over the Gentiles, exercise lordship over them, and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all:

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministred unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples, and a great number of people, blinde Bartimeus the son of Timeus sat by the high-way side, begging:

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out & say, Jesus thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace; but he cried the more a great deal, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called: and they call the blinde man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise, he calleth thee.

50 And he casting away his garment, rose & came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blinde man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole: and immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

CHAP. XI.

AND when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage, and Bethany, at the mount of olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you, & assoon as ye be entered into it, ye shall finde a colt tied, whereon never man sat, loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? Say ye that the Lord hath need of him: and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found found the colt tied by the doot without, in a place where two wayes met: and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there, said unto them, What do ye loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them, even as Jesus had commanded, and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him, and he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches of the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they ℣ went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna, blessed is he that cometh in the Name of ℣ Lord.

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the Name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest.

11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple; and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany ℣ the twelve.

12 ¶ And on the morrow when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry.

13 And seeing a fig tree afar off, having leaves, he came, if haply he might finde any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ And they come to Jerusalem, & Jesus went into ℣ temple, and began to cast out them that sold & bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves,

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel thorow the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of theeves.

18 And the scribes & the chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all ℣ people was astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 ¶ And in the morning as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Peter calling to remembrance, saith unto him, Master, behold ℣ fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Jesus answering, saith unto them, Have faith in God:

23 For verily I say unto you, that whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed and be thou cast into the sea, and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe ℣ those things ℣ he saith shall come to passe, he shal have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, & ye shal have them.

25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven, may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father ℣ is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 ¶ And they come again to Jerusalem, and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

28 And say unto him, By what authority doest ℣ these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me; and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptisme of John, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven, he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shal say, Of men, they feared the people: for all men counted Iohn, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered & said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering, saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAP. XII.

AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, & digged a place for the wine-fat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, & beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant, and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another, and him they killed, and many others, beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his welbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir, come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the Lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture? The stone which the builders rejected, is become the head of the corner?

11 This was the Lords doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared ¶ people: for they knew ¶ he had spoken ¶ parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees, and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know ¶ thou art true, & carest for no man: for ¶ regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth. Is it lawfull to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he knowing their hypocrisie, said unto them, why tempt ye me? bring me a peny that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? and they said unto him, Cesars.

17 And Jesus answering, said unto them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesars: and to God the things that are Gods. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection: and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a mans brother dies, and leave his wife behinde him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying, left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed, and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering, said unto them, Do ye not therefore erre, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage: but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly erre.

28 And one of the scribes came, & having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that that he had answered them wel, asked him, which is the first commandment of all ?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord :

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy minde, and with all thy strength : this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self : there is none other commandment greater then these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well Master, thou hast said the truth : for there is one God, and there is none other but he.

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more then all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 ¶ And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes, that Christ is the son of David ?

36 For David himself said, by the holy Ghost, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord, and whence is he then his son ? and the common people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the market places,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts :

40 Which devour widows houses, and for a pretence make long prayers : these shall receive greater damnation.

41 ¶ And Jesus sat over against ϒ treasury, & beheld how ϒ people cast money into ϒ treasury, & many ϒ were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast more in then all they which have cast into the treasury.

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance ; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

CHAP. XIII.

AND as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones, and what buildings are here.

2 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings ? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon ϒ mount of olives over against ϒ temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew asked him privately,

4 Tell us, when shall these things be ? and what shall be the signe when all these things shall be fulfilled ?

5 And Jesus answering them, began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you.

6 For many shall come in my Name, saying ¶ I am Christ ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled : for such things must needs be, but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom : and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines, and troubles : these are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 ¶ But take heed to your selves : for they shall deliver you up to councels : and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten, & ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my take, for a testimony against them.

10 But the Gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 And when they shall lead you,

vand deliver you up, take no thought before hand what ye shall speak; neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak but the holy Ghost.

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son: and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shal be hated of all men for my Names sake: but he that shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶ But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand) then let them that be in Iudea, flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the house top not go down into the house, neither enter therein to take any thing out of his house.

16 And let him that is in the field, not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But wo to them that are with childe, and to them that give suck in those dayes.

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those dayes shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created, unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved; but for the elects sake whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the dayes.

21 And then if any man shal say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or lo, he is there: believe him not.

22 For false Christs, and false prophets shall rise, & shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 ¶ But in those dayes, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light.

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in ỹ cloudes, with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four windes, from the uttermost part of the earth, to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree. When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is neer:

29 So ye in like manner: when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh even at the doors.

30 Verily, I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shal not pass away.

32 ¶ But of ỹ day, & that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels, which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 Take heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when ỹ time is.

34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch:

35 Watch ye therefore, (for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning)

36 Lest coming suddenly, he finde you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you, I say unto all, Watch.

CHAP. XIIII.

After two dayes was the feast of the passeover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priestes and the scribes fought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproare of the people.

3 ¶ And being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman, having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard, very precious, and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more then three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor: and they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone, Why trouble you her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you alwayes, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not alwayes.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come afore hand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done, shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ And Judas Iscariot one of the twelve went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passeover, his disciples said unto him, Where will thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passeover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into ✠ city, & there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water; follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the good man of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passeover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room, furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, & found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passeover.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, one of you which eateth with me, shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowfull, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but wo to that man by whom ✠ Son of man is betrayed: good were it for that man, if he had never been born.

22 ¶ And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new Testament, ✠ is shed for many.

25 Verely I say unto you I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of olives.

27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen I will go before you into Galilee.

29 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemani, and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavie:

34 And saith unto them, My soul soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, & watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.
36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee, take away this cup from me: nevertheless, not that I will, but what thou wilt.
37 And he cometh and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not ¶ watch one hour?
38 Watch ye, and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready; but the flesh is weak.
39 And again, he went away, & prayed, and spake ¶ same words.
40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy) neither wist they what to answer him.
41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come, behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
42 Rise up, let us go, lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.
43 ¶ And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords & staves, from the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders.
44 And he that betrayed him, had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he, take him, and lead him away safely.
45 And assoon as he was come, he goeth straitway to him, and saith, Master, master, and kissed him.
46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.
47 And one of them that stood by, drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords, and with staves to take me?
49 I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, and ye took me not, but the Scriptures must be fulfilled.
50 And they all forsook him, and fled.
51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body, and the young men laid hold on him.
52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.
53 ¶ And they led Jesus away to the high priest, and with him were assembled all the chief priests, & the elders, and ¶ scribes.
54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.
55 And the chief priests, and all the counsel, sought for witnesse against Jesus, to put him to death, and found none.
56 For many bare false witnesse against him, but their witnesse agreed not together.
57 And there arose certain, and bare false witnesse against him, saying,
58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three dayes I will build another made without hands.
59 But neither so did their witnesse agree together.
60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witnesse against thee?
61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the blessed?
62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see ¶ Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in ¶ clouds of heaven.
63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesse?
64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? and they all condemned him to be guilty of death.
65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesie: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ And

65 ¶ And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest: And he went out into ℣ porch, ℣ cock crew.

69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. And a little after they that stood by, said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time ℣ cock crew. And Peter called to minde the word ℣ Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

CHAP. XV.

AND straightway in ℣ morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes, & the whole councell, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, & delivered him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answering, said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.

4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? Behold, how many things they witnesse against thee.

5 But Jesus yet answered nothing, so that Pilate marvelled.

6 Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in ℣ insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the king of the Jews?

10 (For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envie.)

11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the king of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucifie him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evill hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucifie him.

15 ¶ And so Pilate willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the souldiers led him away into the hall called Prætorium, and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head,

18 And began to salute him, Hail, king of the Jews.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees, worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

21 And they compell one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, comming out of the countrey, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his crosse.

22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is being interpreted, the place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrhe: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over,

THE KING OF THE IEWS.

27 And with him they crucifie two theeves, the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.
28 And the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressours.
29 And they that passed by, reviled him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and build-est it in three dayes, 30 Save thy self, and come down from the crosse.
31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking, said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others, himself he cannot save.
32 Let Christ the king of Israel descend now from the crosse, that we may see, and beleeve:
and they that were crucified with him, reviled him.
33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkenesse over the whole land, untill the ninth hour.
34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?
35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.
36 And one ran, and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone, let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.
37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.
38 And the vail of the temple was rent in twain, from the top to the bottom.
39 ¶ And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, & gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
40 There were also women looking on afar off, among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the lesse, and of Joses, and Salome:
41 Who also when he was in Galilee, followed him, and mi-nistred unto him, and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.
42 ¶ And now when the even was come, (because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath)
43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable counsellour, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, & went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.
44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead; and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.
45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.
46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre, which was hewen out of a rock, & rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.
47 And Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

CHAP. XVI.

AND when the sabbath was past,
Mary Magdalene, & Mary
the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come & anoint him.
2 And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.
3 And they said among themselves, Who shal roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?
4 (And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away) for it was very great.
5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment, and they were affrighted.
6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted, ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, the which was crucified: he is risen, he is not here, behold the place where they laid him.
7 But go your way, tell his disciples, and Peter, that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shal ye see him, as he said unto you.
8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre, for they trembled, & were amazed:
neither said they any thing to any man, for they were afraid.
9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early

early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven divels.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 ¶ After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the countrey.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue, neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward he appeared unto the eleven, as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief, and hardnesse of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature.

16 He that believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved, but he that believeth not, shal be damned.

17 And these signes shall follow them that believe: in my Name shall they cast out divels, they shall speak with new tongues,

18 They shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them, they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 ¶ So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signes following. Amen.

¶ THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. LUKE.

CHAP. I.

FOrasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word:

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 ¶ THere was in the days of Herod the king of Judea a certain priest, named Zacharias, of the course of Abia, and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no childe, because that Elizabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in yeers.

8 And it came to passe, that while he executed the priests office before God in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priests office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias, for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a son, & thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladnesse, and many shall rejoyce at his birth.

15 For he shal be great in the sight of the Lord, and shal drink neither wine nor strong drink, & he shall be filled with the holy Ghost even from his mothers womb.

16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people ple prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.
19 And the angel answering, said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God, and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.
20 And behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believedst not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.
21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.
22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.
23 And it came to pass, that as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.
24 And after those days his wife Elizabeth conceived, & hid herself five months, saying,
25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.
26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God, unto a city of Galilee named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin espoused to a man, whose name was Joseph, of the house of David: and the virgin's name was Mary.
28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.
29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.
30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not Mary, for thou hast found favour with God.
31 And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, & bring forth a son, & shalt call his name Jesus.
32 He shall be great, & shall be called the Son of the highest, and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:
33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever, & of his kingdom there shall be no end.
34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?
35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The holy Ghost shall come upon thee, & ℣ power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Son of God.
36 And behold, Thy cosin Elizabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren.
37 For with God nothing shall be impossible.
38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy word: and the angel departed from her.
39 And Mary arose in those dayes, & went into ℣ hil countrey with haste, into a city of Juda, 40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elizabeth.
41 And it came to pass that when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the holy Ghost.
42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.
43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
44 For lo, assoon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.
45 And blessed is she that believed, for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.
46 And Mary said, My soul doth magnifie the Lord,
47 And my spirit hath rejoyced in God my Saviour.
48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things, and holy is his Name.

57 And his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation.

51 He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy;

55 As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elizabeths full time came that she should be delivered, and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cosins, heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her, and they rejoyced with her.

59 And it came to passe, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the childe, and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so, but he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kinred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signes to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying, His name is John; and they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill-country of Judea.

66 And all they that had heard them, laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of childe shall this be? And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us, in the house of his servant David,

70 As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant;

73 The oath which he sware to our father Abraham;

74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear,

75 In holiness and righteousness before him, all the dayes of our life.

76 And thou childe, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord, to prepare his wayes;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people, by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us;

79 To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the childe grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts, till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

CHAP. II.

AND it came to passe in those dayes, that there went out a decree from Cesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house and lineage of David)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And

6 And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished, that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swadling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inne.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a signe unto you: ye shall finde the babe wrapped in swadling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

15 And it came to passe, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now goe even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to passe, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this childe.

18 And all they that heard it, wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying & praising God, for all the things they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 And when eight dayes were accomplished for the circumcising of the childe, his name was called Jesus, which was so named of the angel, before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the dayes of her purification, according to the law of Moses, were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord.

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, every male that openeth the womb, shall be called holy to the Lord,)

24 And to offer a sacrifice, according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons.

25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon, and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: & the holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lords Christ.

27 And he came by the spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the childe Jesus, to do for him after the custome of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, & blessed God, and said

29 Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph, and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this childe is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel: and for a signe which shall be spoken against.

35 (Yea, a sword shall pierce thorow thine own soul also) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser, she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven yeers from her virginity.

37 And she was a widow of about four score and four yeers, which departed not from § temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.

38 And she coming in at that instant, gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to § law of § Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40 And the childe grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem every yeer, at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve yeers old, they went up to Jerusalem, after § custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the dayes, as they returned, the childe Jesus tarried behinde in Jerusalem, and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they supposing him to have been in the company, went a dayes journey, and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to passe, that after three dayes they found him in the temple, sitting in § midst of § doctours, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee, sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Fathers businesse?

50 And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

CHAP. III.

NOw in the fifteenth yeer of the reign of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governour of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea, and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,

2 Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wildernesse.

3 And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptisme of repentance for the remission of sins.

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wildernesse, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth.

6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within your selves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 He answereth, and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none: and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto

Exact no more then that which is appointed you.

14 And the souldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsly, & be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not,

16 John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water, but one mightier then I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose, he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire:

17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner, but the chaffe he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19 But Herod, the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philips wife, and for all the evills which Herod had done, 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 Now when all the people were baptized, it came to passe, that Jesus also being baptized, & praying, the heaven was opened:

22 And the holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased.

23 And Jesus himself began to be about thirty yeers of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, which was the son of Heli,

24 Which was the son of Matthat, which was the son of Levi, which was the son of Melchi, which was the son of Janna, which was the son of Joseph,

37 Which was the son of Mathusala, which was the son of Enoch, which was the son of Jared, which was the son of Maleleel, & was the son of Cainan, 38 Which was the son of Enos, which was the son of Seth, which was the son of Adam, which was the son of God.

CHAP. IIII.

AND Jesus being full of the holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being fourty dayes tempted of the devil, and in those dayes he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, that man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me, and to whomsoever I will, I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the son of God, cast thy self down from hence:

10 For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee to keep thee:

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering, said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 ¶ And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 ¶ And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias, and when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor, he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,

19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down: and the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue, were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thy self, whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the dayes of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land:

26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill, (whereon the city was built) that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he passing through the midst of them, went his way,

31 And came down to Caper-um, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabboth-dayes.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

33 ¶ And in the synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the holy one of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, & come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ And he arose out of the synagogue, and entred into Simons house: and Simons wives mother was taken with a great fever, and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever, and it left her: and immediately she arose, and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases, brought them unto him: and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed, and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAP. V.

AND it came to passe, that as the people presst upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by ‖lake of Genesereth,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simons, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, & let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering, said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes, & their net brake.

7 And they beckened unto their partners which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinfull man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken.

10 And so was also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, ‖were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not, from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ And it came to passe, when he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosie: who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, be thou clean. And immediately the leprosie departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go and shew thy self to the priest, and offer for thy cleansings, according as Moses commanded for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much ¶ more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wildernesse, and prayed.

17 And it came to passe on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctours of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, & Iudea, & Ierusalem: and ¶ power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ And behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsie: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not finde by what way they might bring him in, because of the multitudes, they went upon the house top, & let him down through ¶ tiling with his couch into the midst before Iesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees begin to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Iesus perceived their thoughts, he answering, said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee: or to say, Rise up, and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsie) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that wherein he lay, & departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ And after these things he went forth, and saw a publicane, named Levi, sitting at the receit of custom: and he said unto him, follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicanes, and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat & drink with publicanes & sinners?

31 And Iesus answering, said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, Why do ¶ disciples of Iohn fast often, and make prayers, & likewise the disciples of the Pharisees, but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make ¶ children of the bride chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the dayes will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those dayes.

36 ¶ And he spake also a parable unto them, No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old: if otherwise, then both ¶ new maketh a rent, and ¶ piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles, and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine, straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

CHAP. VI.

AND it came to passe on the second sabbath after the first, that he went thorow ¶ corn fields: and his disciples plucked the eares of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawfull to do on the sabbath dayes?

3 And Jesus answering them, said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him:

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shew-bread, and gave also to them that were with him, which is not lawfull to eat, but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, that the Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath.

6 And it came to passe also on another Sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue, and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the Scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the Sabbath-day: that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose, and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawfull on the Sabbath-dayes to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madnesse, and communed one with another, what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to passe in those dayes, that he went out into a mountain to pray, & continued all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named Apostles:

14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,

15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alpheus, and Simon called Zelotes,

16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea, and Jerusalem, and from the sea-coast of Tyre & Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases.

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went vertue out of him, & healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of mans sake.

23 Rejoyce ye in that day, and leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 But wo unto you that are rich: for ye have received your consolation.

25 Wo unto you that are full, for ye shall hunger. Wo unto you that laugh now: for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 Wo unto you, when all men shall speak well of you: for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you,

28 Blesse them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek, offer also the other: and him that taketh away thy cloak, forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods, ask them not again.

31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again: and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the highest: for he is kinde unto the unthankfull, and to the evil.

36 Be ye therefore mercifull, as your Father also is mercifull.

37 Judge not, and ye shall not not be judged: condemn not, & ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven.

38 Give, and it shall be given unto you, good measure prested down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom: for with the same measure that ye mete withall, it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them, Can the blinde lead the blinde? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect, shall be as his master.

41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brothers eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye; when thou thy self beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.

43 For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit: neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every tree is known by his own fruit: for of thorns men do not gather figs; nor of a bramble-bush gather they grapes.

45 A good man, out of the good treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is good: and an evil man, out of the evil treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart, his mouth speaketh.

46 ¶ And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not § things which I say?

47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doth them, I will shew you to whom he is like.

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, & doth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth: against which § stream did beat vehemently: and immediately it fell, and the ruine of that house was great.

CHAP. VII.

NOw when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurions servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to dy.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him § elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come & heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, that he was worthy for whom he should do this.

5 For he loveth our nation, & he hath built us a Synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from § house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thy self: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof.

7 Wherefore neither thought I my self worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man under authority, having under me me souldiers: and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my servant, Do this, and he doth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Naim: and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier, (and they that bare him, stood still) and he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead, sat up, and began to speak: and he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, that a great prophet is risen up among us, and that God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judea, & throughout all the region round about.

18 And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And John calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities, and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blinde he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answering, said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard: how that the blinde see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John; What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the winde?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before my face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God, is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptisme of John.

30 But the pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came, neither eating bread, nor drinking wine, and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking, and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners.

35 But wisdom is justified of all her children.

John messengers.

35 ¶ And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisees house, and sat down to meat.

37 And behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisees house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behinde him, weeping, & began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, & kissed his feet, & anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him, saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who, and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditour, which had two debtours: the one ought five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kisse: but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feet.

46 Mine head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him, began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee, go in peace.

CHAP. VIII.

AND it came to passe afterward, that he went throughout every city & village, preaching, & shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God; and the twelve were with him.

2 And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits, and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils,

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herods steward, and Susanna, and many others which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ And when much people were gathered together, & were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed, and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock, and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit, an hundred fold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath eare to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables, that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way sides are they that hear: then cometh the devell, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe, and be saved.

13 They

13 They on the rock are they, which when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns, are they, which when they have heard, go forth, and are choaked with cares, and riches, and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground, are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ No man when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessell, or putteth it under a bed: but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest: neither any thing hid, that shall not be known, and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

19 ¶ Then came to him his mother, & his brethren, & could not come at him for the presse.

20 And it was told him by certain, which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ Now it came to passe on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake: and they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the winde, and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calme.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? and they being afraid, wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this? for he commandeth even the winde, and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And they arrived at the countrey of the Gadareens, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, & fell down before him, & with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man: for often times it had caught him: & he was kept bound with chains, & in fetters: and he brake the bands, & was driven of the devil into the wildernesse.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? and he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: & they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them: & he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choaked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city, and in the countrey.

35 Then they went out to see what was done, and came to Jesus, and found the man out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: & they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devill was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the countrey of the Gadareens

Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them, for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom ℣ devils were departed, besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city, how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that when Jesus was returned, ℣ people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ And behold, There came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus feet, and besought him that he would come unto his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. (But as he went, ℣ people thronged him.

43 ¶ And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment, and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter, and they that were with him, said, Master, ℣ multitude throng thee, and presse thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Some body hath touched me: for I perceive that vertue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee whole, go in peace.

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogues house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead, trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Feare not, believe onely, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father, and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not, she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing ℣ she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them ℣ they should tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX.

THen he called the twelve disciples together, and gave them power & authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money, neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet, for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, & went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: & he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead,

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared: and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ And

18 ¶ And the Apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves, and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled. And there was taken up of fragments that remained to them, twelve baskets.

18 ¶ And it came to pass, as he was alone, praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people, that I am?

19 They answering, said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering, said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing,

22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ And he said unto them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter, and John, and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease, which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter, and they that were with him, were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared, as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son, hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone: and they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ And

37 ¶ And it came to passe, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son, for he is mine onely childe.

39 And lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out, and it teareth him, that he foameth again, and bruising him, hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out, and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering, said, O faithlesse and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him: and Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the childe, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God: but while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples,

44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus perceiving the thought of their heart, took a childe, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this childe in my Name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ And John answered, and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy Name, and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us, is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to passe, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: & they went & entered into a village of the Samaritanes, to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, & consume them, even as Elias did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner spirit ye are of.

56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy mens lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ And it came to passe, that as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me: but he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee: but let me first go bid them farewel which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAP. X.

AFter these things, the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, The harvest is truely great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your wayes, behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes, and salute no man by the way.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye shall enter, & they receive you not, go your wayes into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 Woe unto thee, Chorazin, woe unto thee, Bethsaida: for if the mighty works which have been done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been long since repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgement, than for you.

15 And thou Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 He that heareth you, heareth me; & he that despiseth you, despiseth me: and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy Name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding, in this rejoyce not, that the spirits are subject unto you: but rather rejoyce, because your names are written in heaven.

21 ¶ In that hour Jesus rejoyced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven & earth, that thou hast hid these things from & wise and prudent, & hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father, and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes that see the things that ye see.

24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, & have not seen them: and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him,

26 What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, & with all thy soul, & with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbour as thy self.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he willing to justifie himself, said unto Jesus, and who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering, said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among theeves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, & departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way, and and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritane, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inne, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence & gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him, & what soever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three think ye thou was neighbour unto him that fell among theeves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go and do thou like wise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: & a certain woman named Martha, received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus feet, and heard his word:

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful, and troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAP. XI.

AND it came to pass, that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, as in heaven so in earth.

3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins, for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us: And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight and say unto him, Friend lend me three loaves:

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, & I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not, the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed, I cannot rise, and give thee?

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise, and give him, because he is his friend; yet because of his importunity, he will rise, and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you: seek, and ye shall finde: knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egge, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then being evil know how to give good gifts unto your children; how much more shall your heavenly Father give the holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 ¶ And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to passe, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake, and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

16 And other tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 But he knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against it selfe is brought to desolation;

and an house divided against an house falleth.
18 ¶ If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? Because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.
19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.
20 But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.
21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:
22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.
23 He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.
24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest:
and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.
25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.
26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.
27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lift up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, & the paps which thou hast sucked.
28 But he said, Yea, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.
29 ¶ And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign, and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.
30 For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.
31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon: and behold, a greater than Solomon is here.
32 The men of Nineve shall rise up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas: and behold, a greater than Jonas is here.
33 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushell;
but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.
34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light: but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.
35 Take heed therefore, that the light which is in thee, be not darkness.
36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.
37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.
38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.
39 And the Lord said unto him,
Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter: but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.
40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without, make that which is within also?
41 But rather give alms of such things as you have: & behold, all things are clean unto you.
42 But wo unto you, Pharisees:
for ye tithe mint, and rue, and all manner of herbs, and passe over judgement, and the love of God:
these ought ye to have done,
and not to leave the other undone.
43 Wo unto you, Pharisees:
for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.
44 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees,

Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them, are not aware of them.

44 ¶ Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying, thou reproachest us also.

45 And he said, Wo unto you also, ye lawyers: for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be born, and ye your selves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Wo unto you: for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, & some of them they shall slay & persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation,

51 From the blood of Abel, unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: Verily I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation.

52 Wo unto you, lawyers, for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in your selves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

54 Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

CHAP. XII

IN the mean time, when there were gathered an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisie.

2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness, shall be heard in the light: and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets, shall be proclaimed upon the house tops.

4 And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom you shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore, ye are of more value then many sparrows.

8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confesse before the angels of God.

9 But he that denieth me before men, shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven.

11 And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour, what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge, or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed and beware of covetousnesse: for a mans life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully.

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And

18 And he said, This will I do, I will pull down my barns, and build greater, and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years, take thine ease, eat, drink, & be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God.

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens, for they neither sow, nor reap, which neither have storehouse, nor barn, and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies, how they grow, they toil not, they spin not, and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven: how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful minde.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth ye have need of these things.

31 ¶ But rather seek ye the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not little flock, for it is your Fathers good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 Sell that ye have, and give alms: provide your selves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning,

36 And ye your selves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding, that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord, when he cometh, shall finde watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth, and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in third watch, and finde them so, blessed are those servants.

39 And this know, that if the good man of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken thorow.

40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour, when ye think not.

41 ¶ Then Peter said unto him, Lord speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his houshold, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall finde to doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming, and shall begin to beat the men-servants, and maidens, and to eat, and drink, and to be drunken:

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunders, & will appoint him his portion ✠ the unbelievers.

47 And

47 And that servant which knew his lords will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 ¶ I am come to send fire on the earth: and what will I, if it be already kindled?

50 But I have a baptisme to be baptized with, and how am I straitened, till it be accomplished?

51 Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay: but rather division.

52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in law against her daughter in law, & daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 ¶ And he said also to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower, and so it is.

55 And when ye see the south winde blow, ye say, There will be heat, and it cometh to passe.

56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the skie, and of the earth: but how is it, that ye do not discern this time?

57 Yea, and why even of your selves judge ye not what is right?

58 ¶ When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way give diligence, that thou mayest be delivered from him, lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

CHAP. XIII.

THere were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering, said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloe fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay; but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable: A certain man had a figtree planted in his vineyard, and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this figtree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this yeer also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on ♄ sabbath.

11 ¶ And behold, there was a woman, which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen yeers, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up her self.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on ♄ sabbath day, & said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come & be healed, and not on the sabbath day.

15 The

6 The Lord then answered, and said, Thou hypocrite; doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his oxe or his asse from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoyced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 Then said he unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and cast into his garden, and it grew and waxed a great tree: and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying towards Jerusalem.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us, and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence you are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence you are, depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you your selves thrust out.

29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 And behold, there are last, which shall be first; and there are first, which shall be last.

31 ¶ The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.

33 Nevertheless, I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be, that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not?

35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. And verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come, when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

CHAP. XIIII.

AND it came to passe, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath-day, that they watched him.

2 And behold, there was a certain man before him, which had the dropsie.

3 And Jesus answering, spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawfull to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go.

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an asse, or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straitway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 ¶ And

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms, saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room: lest a more honourable man then thou be bidden of him.

9 And he that bade thee and him, come and say to thee, Give this man place: and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room, that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For whosoever exalteth himself, shall be abased: and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, or thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours: lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sate at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And sent his servant at supper-time, to say to them that were bidden, Come, for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse: the first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife: and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blinde.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them,

26 If any man come to me, and hate not his father, & mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And whosoever doth not bear his crosse, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For which of you intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

29 Lest haply after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it, begin to mock him,

30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand, to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an embassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you, that forsaketh not all that he hath he cannot be my diſciple.

34 ¶ Salt is good: but if the ſalt have loſt his ſavour, where-with ſhall it be ſeaſoned?

35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill: but men caſt it out. He that hath eares to heare, let him hear.

CHAP. XV.

THen drew neer unto him all the publicanes and ſinners for to hear him.

2 And the Phariſees and ſcribes murmured, ſaying, This man receiveth ſinners, and eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he ſpake this parable unto them, ſaying,

4 What man of you, having an hundred ſheep, if he loſe one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderneſſe, and go after that which is loſt, until he finde it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his ſhoulders, rejoycing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends & neighbours, ſaying unto them, Reioyce with me: for I have found my ſheep which was loſt.

7 I ſay unto you, that likewiſe ioy ſhall be in heaven over one ſinner that repenteth, more then over ninety & nine juſt perſons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman having ten pieces of ſilver, if ſhe loſe one piece, doth not light a candle, and ſweep the houſe, & ſeek diligently, till ſhe finde it?

9 And when ſhe hath found it, ſhe calleth her friends, and her neighbours together, ſaying, Reioyce with me, for I have found the piece which I had loſt.

10 Likewiſe, I ſay unto you, there is joy in the preſence of the angels of God over one ſinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he ſaid, A certain man had two ſons:

12 And the younger of them ſaid to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many dayes after, the younger ſon gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there waſted his ſubſtance with riotous living.

14 And when he had ſpent all, there aroſe a mighty famine in that land, & he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joyned himſelf to a citizen of that country, and he ſent him into his fields, to feed ſwine:

16 And he would faln have filled his belly with the huſks that the ſwine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himſelf, he ſaid, How many hired ſervants of my father have bread enough, and to ſpare, and I periſh with hunger?

18 I will ariſe, and go to my father, and will ſay unto him, Father, I have ſinned againſt heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy ſon: make me as one of thy hired ſervants.

20 And he aroſe and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father ſaw him, and had compaſſion, and ran and fell on his neck, and kiſſed him.

21 And the ſon ſaid unto him, Father, I have ſinned againſt heaven, & in thy ſight, & am no more worthy to be called thy ſon.

22 But the father ſaid to his ſervants, Bring forth the beſt robe, and put it on him, & put a ring on his hand, & ſhoes on his feet:

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, and be merry:

24 For this my ſon was dead, and is alive again; he was loſt, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder ſon was in the field, and as he came, and drew nigh to the houſe, he heard muſick, and dancing.

26 And he called one of the ſervants, and aſked what theſe things meant?

27 And he ſaid unto him, Thy brother is come, & thy father hath killed the fatted calf, becauſe he hath received him ſafe & ſound.

28 And he was angry, & would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he anſwering, ſaid to his father, Lo, theſe many yeers do I ſerve thee, neither tranſgreſſed I at any time thy commandment, and yet thou never gaveſt me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends.

30 But aſſoon as this thy ſon was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou haſt killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he ſaid unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we ſhould make merry, & be glad: for this thy brother was dead, & is alive againand was loſt, and is found.

CHAP. XVI.

AND he ſaid alſo unto his diſciples, there was a certain rich man which had a ſteward, and ſame was accuſed unto him, ỹ he had waſted his goods.

2 And he called him, and ſaid unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy ſtewardſhip: for thoumayeſt be no longer ſteward.

3 Then the ſteward ſaid within himſelf, What ſhall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the ſtewardſhip: I cannot dig, to beg I am aſhamed.

4 I am reſolved what to do, that when I am put out of my ſtewardſhip, they may receive me into their houſes.

5 So he called every one of his lords debtours unto him, and ſaid unto the firſt, How much oweſt thou unto my lord?

6 And he ſaid, An hundred meaſures of oil. And he ſaid unto him, Take thy bills and ſit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then ſaid he to another, And how much oweſt thou? And he ſaid, An hundred meaſures of wheat. And he ſaid unto him, Take thy bill, & write fourſcore.

8 And the lord commended the unjuſt ſteward, becauſe he had done wiſely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiſer then ỹ children of light.

9 And I ſay unto you, Make to your ſelves friends of the mammon of unrighteouſneſſe, that when ye fail, they may receive you into everlaſting habitations.

10 He that is faithfull in that which is leaſt, is faithfull alſo in much: and he that is unjuſt in ỹ leaſt, is unjuſt alſo in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithfull in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your truſt the true riches?

12 And if you have not been faithfull in that which is another mans, who ſhall give you that which is your own?

13 ¶ No ſervant can ſerve two maſters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other: or elſe he will hold to the one, and deſpiſe the other: ye cannot ſerve God and mammon.

14 And the Phariſees alſo, who were covetous, heard all theſe things: and they derided him.

15 And he ſaid unto them, Ye are they which juſtifie your ſelves before men, but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly eſteemed amongſt men, is abomination in the ſight of God.

16 The law and the prophets were untill John: ſince that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man preſſeth into it.

17 And it is eaſier for heaven and earth to paſſe, then one title of the law to fail.

18 Whoſoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another committeth adultery: and whoſoever marrieth her that is put away from her huſband, committeth adultery.

19 ¶ There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared ſumptuouſly every day.

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate full of ſores, 21 And deſiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich mans table: moreover, dogs came and licked his ſores.

22 And it came to paſſe that the begger died, and was carried by the angels into Abrahams boſome: the rich man alſo died, and was buried.

23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments: and ſeeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his boſom:

24 And he cried, and ſaid, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and ſend Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue, for am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy life time receivedst thy good things and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.
26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that they which would passe from hence to you cannot: neither can they passe to us that would come from thence.
27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore father, that thou wouldest send him to my fathers house:
28 For I have five brethren, that he may testifie unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.
29 Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets: let them hear them.
30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.
31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be perswaded, though one rose from dead.

CHAP. XVII.

THen said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but offences will come: but woe unto him through whom they come.
2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, then that he should offend one of these little ones.
3 ¶ Take heed to your selves: if thy brother trespasse against thee, rebuke him, and if he repent, forgive him.
4 And if he trespasse against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent: thou shalt forgive him.
5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.
6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea, and it should obey you.
7 But which of you having a servant plowing, or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?
8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thy self, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken: and afterward thou shalt eat and drink.
9 Doth he thank that servant, because he did the things ȳ were commanded him? I trow not.
10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.
11 ¶ And it came to passe as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the mids of Samaria and Galilee.
12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers which stood afar off.
13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.
14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go, shew your selves unto the priests. And it came to passe that as they went, they were cleansed.
15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, 16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritane.
17 And Jesus answering, said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?
18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.
19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.
20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation.
21 Neither shall they say, Lo here, or, lo there: for behold, the kingdom of God is within you.
22 And he said unto the disciples, The dayes will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the dayes of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.
23 And they shall say to you

See here, or see there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightening that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven: so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

25 But first must he suffer many things, and be reiected of this generation.

26 And as it was in the dayes of Noe: so shall it be also in the dayes of the Son of man:

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the arke: and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was in the dayes of Lot, they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded:

29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is reuealed.

31 In that day, he which shall be upon the house top, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Remember Lots wife.

33 Whosoeuer shall seek to saue his life, shall lose it: and whosoeuer shall lose his life, shall preserue it.

34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed, the one shall be taken, and other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together, the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Where soeuer the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

CHAP. XVIII.

AND he spake a parable unto them, to this end, that men ought alwayes to pray, and not to faint,

2 Saying, There was in a city a iudge, which feared not God, neither regarded man.

3 And there was a widow in that city, and she came unto him, saying, Auenge me of mine aduersary.

4 And he would not for a while: But afterward he said within himself, Though I feare not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will auenge her least by her continuall coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Heare what the uniust iudge saith.

7 And shall not God auenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you, that he will auenge them speedily. Neuertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he finde faith on ẏ earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselues, that they were righteous, and despised other:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, and the other a publicane.

11 The Pharisee stood & prayed thus with himself, God I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, vniust, adulterers, or even as this publicane.

12 I fast twice in the week, I giue tithes of all that I possesse.

13 And the publicane standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven: but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house iustified rather then the other: for euery one that exalteth himself, shall be abased: and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

15 And they brought unto him also infants, that he should touch them, but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoeuer shall not receiue the kingdom kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

18 And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father & thy mother.

21 And he said, all these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowfull, for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw ¶ he was very sorrowfull, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into ¶ kingdom of God?

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needles eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it, said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, there is no man ¶ hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of Gods sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come, life everlasting.

31 ¶ Then he took unto him the twelve, & said unto them, Behold we go up to Jerusalem, and all things ¶ are written by the prophets, concerning the Son of man, shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spit on:

33 And they shall scourge him, & put him to death, & the third day he shall rise again.

34 And they understood none of these things, & this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blinde man sat by the way side begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come neer, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight, thy faith hath saved thee.

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: & all ¶ people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

CHAP. XIX.

AND ¶ Jesus entered, and passed through Jericho.

2 And behold, there was a man named Zacheus, which was the chief among the publicanes, and he was rich:

3 And he sought to see Jesus, who he was: & could not for the presse, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, & climbed up into a sycamore tree, to see him, for he was to passe that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, & saw him, & said unto him, Zacheus, make haste & come down, for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, & came down, and received him joyfully.

6 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, that he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zacheus stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor: and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him four-fold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is the son of Abraham.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 He said therefore, A certain noble man went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupie till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to passe, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well thou good servant; because thou hast been faithfull in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept, laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sowe.

22 And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.

26 For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given, & from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to passe, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you, in the which at your entering ye shall finde a colt tied, whereon yet never man sate: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent, went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoyce, and praise God with a loud voice, for all the mighty mighty works ye they had seen, 38 Saying, Blessed be the king that cometh in the Name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharises from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.
40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you, ye if these should hold their peace, ye stones would immediately cry out.
41 ¶ And when he was come neere, he beheld the city, and wept over it, 42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.
43 For the dayes shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compasse thee round, and keep thee in on every side.
44 And shall lay thee even with the ground, & thy children within thee: and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another, because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.
45 And he went into ye temple, & began to cast out them ye sold therein, and them that bought,
46 Saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of theeves.
47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests, and the scribes, and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not finde what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

CHAP. XX.

AND it came to passe, that on one of those dayes, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and ye scribes came upon him, with the elders,
2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?
3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing, and answer me.
4 The baptisme of John, was it from heaven, or of men?
5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven, he will say, Why then believed ye him not?
6 But and if we say, Of men, all the people will stone us, for they be perswaded that John was a prophet.
7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.
8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.
9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable: A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.
10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.
11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.
12 And again he sent the third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.
13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him, when they see him.
14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.
15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?
16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, & shal give ye vineyard to others. & when they heard it, they said, God forbid.
17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written: The stone which the builders refected, the same is become the head of the corner?
18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone, shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.
19 ¶ And the chief priests, and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governour.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou ¶ person of any, but teachest ¶ way of God truly.

22 Is it lawfull for us to give tribute unto Cesar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftinesse, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a peny: whose image and superscription hath it? they answered & said, Cesars.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar the things which be Cesars, & unto God the things which be Gods.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people, and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, (which deny that there is any resurrection) and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any mans brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren, and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childlesse.

31 And the third took her, and in like manner the seven also. And they left no children, & died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering, said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shalbe accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.

36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equall unto the angels, and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord, The God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live to him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering, said, Master, Thou hast well said.

40 And after that, they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said unto them, How say they ¶ Christ is David's son?

42 And David himself saith in the book of psalms, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶ Then in ¶ audience of all ¶ people, he said to his disciples,

46 Beware of ¶ scribes, ¶ desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in ¶ markets, and ¶ highest seats in ¶ synagogues, and the chief rome at feasts:

47 Which devour widows houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

CHAP. XXI.

AND he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasurie.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more then they all:

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto ¶ offrings of God, but she of her penurie hath cast in all ¶ living ¶ she had.

5 ¶ And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned ¶ goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things ¶ ye behold, the dayes will come, in the which which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be throwen down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what signe will there be, when these things shall come to passe?

8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and the time draweth neer; go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of warrs and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to passe, but the end is not by and by.

10 Then said he unto them; Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earth-quakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences, and fearfull sights, and great signes shall there be from heaven.

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers, for my Names sake.

13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer.

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gain-say nor resist.

16 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my Names sake.

18 But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possesse ye your souls.

20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countreys enter thereinto.

22 For these be the dayes of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But wo unto them that are with childe, and to them that give suck in those days: for there shall be great distresse in the land, & wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations, and Jerusalem shall be troden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 ¶ And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars, and upon the earth distresse of nations, with perplexity, ye seas & the waves roaring;

26 Mens hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth; for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to passe, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable, Behold the figtree, and all the trees.

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves, that summer is now nigh at hand:

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to passe, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not passe away, till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall passe away, but my words shall not passe away.

34 ¶ And take heed to your selves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkennesse, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to passe, and to stand before the Son of man.

37 And in the day time he was teaching in the temple, and at night he went out and abode in the mount that is called ¶ mount of olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

CHAP. XXII.

NOw the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the passeover.

2 And ¶ chief priests & scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 ¶ Then entered Satan into Judas, surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, & sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passe over must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go, and prepare us the passeover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou ¶ we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water, follow him into ¶ house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good man of ¶ house, The master saith unto thee, Where is ¶ guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passeover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished, there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passeover.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and ¶ twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passeover with you before I suffer.

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, & gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among your selves.

18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of ¶ vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, & gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me on the table.

22 And truly the son of man goeth, as it was determined: but wo unto that man by whom he is betrayed.

23 And they began to inquire among themselves, ¶ of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ And there was also a strife amongst them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and they that exercise authority upon them, are called benefactours.

26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as ¶ younger, & he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they ¶ have continued with me in my temptations.

29 And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me.

30 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones, judging ¶ twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:

32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not; and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And

33 And he said unto him, Lord I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, & shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now he that hath a purse, let him take it, & likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me; And he was reckoned among the transgressours: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of olives, and his disciples also followed him.

40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray, that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, & kneeled down, and prayed,

42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? Rise, and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him, saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, Shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered & said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while, another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him, for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter; and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 ¶ And the men that held Jesus, mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, & asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ¶ And assoon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests, and the scribes came together, and led him into their councils, saying,

67 Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, you will not believe.

68 And if I also ask you, you will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then § Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witnesse? for we our selves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting § nation, forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, that he himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews; and he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to § chief priests, and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jury, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And assoon as he knew that he belonged unto Herods jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself was also at Jerusalem at that time.

8 ¶ And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad, for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him, and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words, but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood, and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together, for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers, and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people, and behold, I having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man, touching those things whereof ye accuse him.

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

19 Who for a certain sedition made in the city, & for murder was cast in prison.

20 Pilate therfore willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him, I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the crosse, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 ¶ And

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for your selves & for your children.

29 For behold, the dayes are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us, and to the hills, Cover us.

31 For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 And there were also two other malefactours led with him to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactours, one on the right hand, & the other on the left.

34 ¶ Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them, derided him, saying, He saved others, let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the souldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the King of the Jews, save thy self.

38 And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, & Latine, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ¶ And one of the malefactours which were hanged, railed on him; saying, If thou be Christ, save thy self and us.

40 But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Doest not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily, I say unto thee, to day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth, until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and the vail of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellour and he was a good man & a just.

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel & deed of them) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews, (who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.)

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewen in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also which came with him from Galilee, followed after, & beheld the sepulchre, & how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, & prepared spices and ointments, & rested the sabbath day, according to the commandement.

CHAP. XXIIII.

NOw upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And

3 And they entered in,& found not the body of the Lord Iesus.
4 And it came to passe,as they were much perplexed thereabout,behold, two men stood by them in shining garments.
5 And as they were afraid,and bowed down their faces to the earth,they said unto them, Why seek ye ℣ living among ℣ dead?
6 He is not here,but is risen: remember how he spake unto you,when he was yet in Galilee,
7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into ℣ hands of sinfull men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.
8 And they remembred his words
9 And returned from the sepulchre,& told all these things unto ℣ eleven,and to all ℣ rest.
10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna,& Mary the mother of Iames,and other women that were with them,which told these things unto the Apostles.
11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales,and they beleeved them not.
12 Then arose Peter,and ran unto the sepulchre,and stooping down,he beheld ℣ linen clothes laid by themselves,and departed,wondring in himself at that which was come to passe.
13 ¶ And behold, two of them went that same day to a village, called Emmaus, ℣ was from Ierusalem about threescore furlongs.
14 And they talked together of all these things ℣ had happened.
15 And it came to passe,that while they communed together, and reasoned, Iesus himself drew neer, and went with them.
16 But their eyes were held, that they should not know him.
17 And he said unto them, What manner of cõmunications are these, that ye have one to another,as ye walk, and are sad?
18 And the one of them,whose name was Cleophas, answering, said unto him, Art thou onely a stranger in Ierusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these dayes?
19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him,Concerning Iesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet, mighty in deed and word,before God, and all the people:
20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.
21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this,to day is the third day since these things were done.
22 Yea,and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre:
23 And when they found not his body, they came,saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels,which said ℣ he was alive.
24 And certain of them ℣ were with us, went to ℣ sepulchre,and found it even so as the women had said, but him they saw not.
25 Then he said unto them, O fooles,& slow of heart to beleeve all that ℣ prophets have spoken:
26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?
27 And beginning at Moses, and all ℣ prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures,℣ things concerning himself.
28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went, and he made as though he would have gone further.
29 But they constrained him, saying abide with us: for it is towards evening, and the day is far spent: and he went in to tarry with them.
30 And it came to passe as he sat at meat with them, he took bread,and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.
31 And their eyes were opened,and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.
32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us,while he talked with us by the way,and while he opened to us the scriptures?
33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Ierusalem, and found the Eleven gathered together,and them that were with them.
34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed,& hath appeared to Simon.
35 And they told what things were done in the way, & how he was known of them,in breaking of bread.
36 And

35 ¶ And as they thus spake, Iesus himself was in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

36 But they were terrified, and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I my self: handle me and see, for a spirit hath not flesh & bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honey comb.

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms concerning me.

45 Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the Scriptures,

46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

47 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his Name among all nations, beginning at Ierusalem.

48 And ye are witnesses of these things.

49 ¶ And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Ierusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50 ¶ And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lift up his hands, and blessed them.

51 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, & carried up into heaven.

52 And they worshipped him, & returned to Ierusalem with great joy

53 And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

¶ THE GOSPEL ACCORDING to saint JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God,

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in darkenesse, and the darkenesse comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was Iohn:

7 The same came for a witnesse, to bear witnesse of the light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that light, but was sent to bear witnesse of that light.

9 That was the true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, & the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his Name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory, as of the onely begotten of the Father) full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ Iohn bare witnesse of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me, is preferred before me, for he was before me.

16 And of his fulnesse have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Iesus Christ.

18 No man hath seen God at any time, the onely begotten Son, which which is in the bosom of § Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem, to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not: but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? art thou Elias? and he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? and he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou, that we may give an answer to them that sent us? what sayest thou of thy self?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said § prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, & said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water, but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not,

27 He it is, who coming after me, is preferred before me, whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me, for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not, but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, § same is he which baptizeth with the holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again, the next day after, John stood, and two of his disciples.

36 ¶ And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God.

37 And § two disciples heard him speak, & they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, & saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master) Where dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two § heard John speak, & followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peters brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found § Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona, thou shalt be called Cephas, § is, by interpretation, a stone.

43 ¶ The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, & saith unto him, We have found him of whom Moses in the law & § prophets did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile.

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the figtree I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God, thou art the King of Israel.

CHAP. II.

1 And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governour of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, & knew not whence it was, (but the servants which drew the water knew) the governour of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine, and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse; but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, & manifested forth his glory, & his disciples believed on him.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples; and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ And the Jews passeover was at hand, & Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the changers of money, sitting.

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen, & poured out the changers money, and overthrew the tables:

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence, make not my Fathers house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What signe shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered & said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three dayes I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Fourty and six yeers was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three dayes?

21 But he spake of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them: and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passeover, in the feast day many believed in his Name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men,

25 And needed not that any should testifie of man: for he knew what was in man.

CHAP. III.

1 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God,

4 Nico-

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mothers womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit, is spirit.

7 Marvell not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 The winde bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testifie that we have seen, & ye receive not our witnesse.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not: how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up, 15 That whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have eternall life.

16 ¶ For God so loved ℣ world, that he gave his onely begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that ℣ world through him might be saved.

18 ¶ He that believeth on him, is not condemned: but he that believeth not, is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the Name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather then light: because their deeds were evill.

20 For every one that doth evill, hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

21 But he that doth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus, and his disciples into the land of Judea, and there he tarried with them, and baptized.

23 ¶ And John also was baptizing in Aenon neer to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou bare'st witnesse, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered & said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye your selves bear me witnesse, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride, is the bridegroom: but the friend of ℣ bridegroom, ℣ standeth and heareth him, rejoyceth greatly because of ℣ bridegrooms voice: this my joy therfore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from above, is above all: he that is of the earth, is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven, is above all;

32 And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth, and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony, hath set to his seal that God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the ℣ spirit by measure unto him.

35 The

35 The Father loveth the Son, & hath given all things into his hand.

36 He that beleeveth on the Son hath everlasting life; and he that beleeveth not the Son, shall not see life: but the wrath of God abideth on him.

CHAP. IIII.

WHen therefore ỹ Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made & baptized more disciples then John.

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples.)

3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go through Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, nye to ỹ parcel of ground, that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacobs well was there. Jesus therefore being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixt hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 For his disciples were gone away unto the city, to buy meat.

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it, that ỹ being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? For the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritanes.

10 Jesus answered & said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink: thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water?

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater then our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattel?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water, shall thirst again:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst: but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him a well of water, springing up into everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, ỹ I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go call thy husband and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands, and he whom thou now hast, is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain, and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, beleeve me, the hour cometh, when ye shal neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem worship the Father.

22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit & in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 God is a spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit, and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee, am he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water-pot and went her way into the city, & saith to the men,

29 Come see a man which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

32 ¶ In ỹ mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master eat.

31 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat, that ye know not of

33 There-

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do ☧ will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four moneths, and then cometh harvest? Behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields: for they are white already to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth, receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth may rejoyce together.

37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap ☧ whereon you bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ And many of the Samaritanes of ☧ city beleeved on him, for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when ☧ Samaritanes were come unto him, they besought him ☧ he would tarry with them: and he abode there two dayes.

41 And many moe beleeved, because of his own word:

42 And said unto the woman, Now we beleeve, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him our selves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after two dayes, he departed thence, and went into Galilee:

44 For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain noble man, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye will not beleeve.

49 The noble man saith unto him, Sir, Come down ere my childe die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way, thy son liveth. And the man beleeved the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then inquired he of them the hour when he began to amend: and they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself beleeved, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle ☧ Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAP. V.

AFter this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep-market, a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue, Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folks, of blinde, of halt, of withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there which had an infirmity thirty and eight yeers.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew ☧ he had been now a long time in ☧ case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus

Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

10 The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is ¶ sabbath day, it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed and walk?

13 And he that was healed, wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews, that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, not only because he had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doth the Son likewise.

20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them: even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man: but hath committed all judgment unto the Son;

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father, which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation: but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they which hear, shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself: so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgement also, because he is ¶ Son of man.

28 Marvell not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge, and my judgement is just, because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ There is another that beareth witness of me, and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoyce in his light.

36 ¶ But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, ¶ the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself which hath sent me, hath born witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at ary time, not seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye beleeve not.
39 ¶ Search the Scriptures, for in them ye think to have eternal life, and they are they which testifie of me.
40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.
41 I receive not honour from men.
42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.
43 I am come in my Fathers Name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.
44 How can ye beleeve, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God onely?
45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses in whom ye trust.
46 For had ye beleeved Moses, ye would have beleeved me: for he wrote of me.
47 But if ye beleeve not his writings, how shall ye beleeve my words?

CHAP. VI.

AFter these things, Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.
2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.
3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.
4 And the passeover, a feast of the Iews, was nigh.
5 ¶ When Jesus then lift up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?
6 (And this he said to prove him, for he himself knew what he would do)
7 Philip answered him, Two hundred penyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, ℣ every one of them may take a little.
8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?
10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grasse in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.
11 And Jesus took the loves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down, and likewise of the ℣ fishes, as much as they would.
12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.
13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.
14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world.
15 ¶ When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.
16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea towards Capernaum: and it was now dark, & Jesus was not come to them.
18 And the sea arose, by reason of a great winde that blew.
19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty, or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.
20 But he saith unto them, It is I, be not afraid.
21 Then they willingly received him into the ship, and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.
22 ¶ The day following, when the people, which stood on the other side of the sea, saw that there was none other boat there, save that one where into his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone.

23 Howbeit, there came other boats from Tiberias, nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, What signe shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me, shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me, shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, that ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me, shall come to me, and him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, & believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmure not among your selves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father ✠ hath sent me, draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written in the prophets, and they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread, which came down from heaven. If any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give, is my flesh, which I will give for ✠ life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove amongst themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternall life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread, shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying, who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself, that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, doth this offend you?

62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 It is the spirit that quickeneth, the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are Spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternall life.

69 And we believe, and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a divell?

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon: for he was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

AFter these things, Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jury, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now the Jews feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly: if thou do these things, shew thy self to the world.

5 For neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 The world cannot hate you, but me it hateth, because I testifie of it, that the works thereof are evill.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast, for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay, but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit, no man spake openly of him, for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.
17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of my self.
18 He that speaketh of himself, seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousnesse is in him.
19 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law: why go ye about to kill me?
20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?
21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.
22 Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers) and ye on the sabbath-day circumcise a man.
23 If a man on the sabbath-day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath-day?
24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgement.
25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he whom they seek to kill?
26 But lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him: Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?
27 Howbeit, we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.
28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of my self, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.
29 But I know him, for I am from him, and he hath sent me.
30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.
31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?
32 ¶ The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him: and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.
33 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.
34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not finde me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.
35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not finde him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?
36 What manner of saying is this, that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not finde me? & where I am, thither ye cannot come?
37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood, and cried, saying: If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.
38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.
39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him, should receive: for the holy Ghost was not yet given, because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)
40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the prophet.
41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?
42 Hath not the scripture said, that Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?
43 So there was a division among the people because of him.
44 And some of them would have taken him, but no man laid hands on him.
45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests, and Pharisees, and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?
46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.
47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers, or of the Pharisees believed on him?
49 But this people, who knoweth not the law, are cursed.
50 Nicodemus saith unto them (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them)
51 Doth our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doth?
52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.
53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAP. VIII.

JEsus went unto the mount of olives:
2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all § people came unto him, and he sat down and taught them.
3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,
4 They said unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.
5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?
6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.
7 So when they continued asking him, he lift up himself, and said unto them: He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.
8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.
9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.
10 When Jesus had lift up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?
11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.
13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thy self, thy record is not true.
14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of my self, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go: but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.
15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.
16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and § Father that sent me.
17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.
18 I am one that bear witness of my self, and the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me.
19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.
20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple, and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.
21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, & shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.
22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.
23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath, I am from above: ye are of this world, I am not of this world:
24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.
25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? & Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.
26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me, is true, and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lift up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of my self: but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do alwayes those things that please him.

30 As he spake those words, many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him; If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed.

32 And ye shall know the truth, and ¶ truth shall make you free.

33 ¶ They answered him, We be Abrahams seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin, is the servant of sin.

35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 If ¶ Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abrahams seed: but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abrahams children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication, we have one father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth, and came from God: neither came I of my self, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning, & abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say ¶ truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 He that is of God, heareth Gods words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews and said unto him, Say we not well, that thou art a Samaritane, and hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil: but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets: and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy self?

54 Jesus answered, If I honour my self, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me, of whom ye say, that he is your God

55 Yet ye have not known him: but I know him: & if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Abraham rejoyced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty yeers old, & hast thou seen Abraham?

58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going thorow the midſt of them, and ſo paſſed by.

CHAP. IX.

AND as Jeſus paſſed by, he ſaw a man which was blinde from his birth.

2 And his diſciples aſked him, ſaying, Maſter, who did ſin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blinde?

3 Jeſus anſwered, Neither hath this man ſinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God ſhould be made manifeſt in him.

4 I muſt work the works of him that ſent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus ſpoken, he ſpat on the ground, and made clay of the ſpittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blinde man with the clay,

7 And ſaid unto him, Go, waſh in the pool of Siloam, (which is by Interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and waſhed, and came ſeeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had ſeen him, that he was blinde, ſaid, Is not this he that ſat and begged?

9 Some ſaid, This is he: others ſaid, He is like him: but he ſaid, I am he.

10 Therefore ſaid they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He anſwered and ſaid, A man that is called Jeſus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and ſaid unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, & waſh: & I went and waſhed, and I received ſight.

12 Then ſaid they unto him, Where is he? He ſaid, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Phariſees him that afore time was blinde.

14 And it was the ſabbath-day when Jeſus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Phariſees alſo aſked him how he had received his ſight. He ſaid unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I waſhed, and do ſee.

16 Therefore ſaid ſome of the phariſees, This man is not of God, becauſe he keepeth not the ſabbath-day. Others ſaid, How can a man that is a ſinner, do ſuch miracles? and there was a diviſion among them.

17 They ſaid unto the blinde man again, What ſayeſt thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He ſaid, He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blinde, and received his ſight, untill they called the parents of him that had received his ſight.

19 And they aſked them, ſaying, Is this your ſon, who ye ſay was born blinde? how then doth he now ſee?

20 His parents anſwered them and ſaid, We know that this is our ſon, and that he was born blinde:

21 But by what means he now ſeeth, we know not, or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age, aſk him, he ſhall ſpeak for himſelf.

22 Theſe words ſpake his parents, becauſe they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confeſſe that he was Chriſt, he ſhould be put out of the ſynagogue.

23 Therefore ſaid his parents, He is of age, aſk him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blinde, & ſaid unto him, Give God the praiſe: we know that this man is a ſinner.

25 He anſwered and ſaid, Whether he be a ſinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that whereas I was blinde, now I ſee.

26 Then ſaid they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He anſwered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would you hear it again? will ye alſo be his diſciples?

28 Then they reviled him and ſaid, Thou art his diſciple, but we are Moſes diſciples.

29 We know that God ſpake unto Moſes: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man anſwered and ſaid unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not ſinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, & doth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began, was it not heard, that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blinde:

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sinne, and dost thou teach us? and they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard & they had cast him out: and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, & it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe: and he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jesus said, For judgement I am come into this world, that they which see not, might see: and that they which see, might be made blinde.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him, heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blinde also?

41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blinde, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see: therefore your sin remaineth.

CHAP. X.

VErily, verily I say unto you, He y entereth not in by § door into § sheep-fold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by § door, is § shepherd of § sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheep hear his voice and he calleth his own sheep by names, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me, are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and finde pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, & scatereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice, & there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of my self: I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again: This commandement have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, & is mad, why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blinde?

22 ¶ And it was at Jerusalem, the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple, in Solomons porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long doest thou make us to doubt? if thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Fathers Name, they bear witnesse of me.

26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, & I know them, and they follow me.

28 And I give unto them eternall life, and they shall never perish, neither shall any man plucke them out of my hand.

29 My Father which gave them me, is greater then all: and no man is able to pluck them out of my Fathers hand.

30 I and my Father are one.

31 Then the Iews took up stones again to stone him.

32 Iesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy, and because that thou being a man, makest thy self God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken:

36 Say ye of him whom the Father hath sanctified and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?

37 If I do not the works of my Father, beleeve me not.

38 But if I do, though ye beleeve not me, beleeve the works: that ye may know and beleeve that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand:

40 And went away again beyond Jordan, into the place where John at first baptized: and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man, were true.

42 And many beleeved on him there.

CHAP. XI.

NOw a certain man was sick, named Lazarus of Bethany, the town of Mary, and her sister Martha.

2 (It was that Mary, which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee, and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve houres in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he, and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth, but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit, Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead:

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, (to the intent ye may believe:) nevertheless, let us go unto him.

16 Then

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lien in the grave four dayes already.

18 (Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off)

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, assoon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord, I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 Assoon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town: but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose up hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping, which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold, how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man which opened the eyes of the blinde, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone, Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh, for he hath been dead four dayes.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest beleeve, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lift up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me alwayes: but because of the people which stand by, I said it, that they may beleeve that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead, came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, beleeved on him.

46 But some of them went their wayes to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 ¶ Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a councell, and said, What do we? for this man doth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him, and the Romans shall come, and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same yeer, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, & that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he, not of himselfe: but being high priest that yeer he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation:

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsell together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews: but went thence unto a country neer to the wildernesse, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Jews passeover was nigh at hand, and many went out of the country to Jerusalem before the passeover, to purifie themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAP. XII.

THen Jesus, six dayes before the passeover, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simons son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor: but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let him alone, against the day of my burying hath he kept this.

8 For the poor always ye have with you: but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests consulted, that they might put Lazarus also to death:

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palmtrees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna, blessed is the King of Israel, that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young asse, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 Feare not daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an asses colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him, when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves: Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? Behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground, and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He that loveth his life, shall lose it: and he that hateth his life in this world, shall keep it unto life eternall.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me: and where I am, there shall also my servant be: If any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soul troubled, and what shal I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, & will glorifie it again.

29 The people therefore that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered & said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgement of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

33 (This he said, signifying what death he should die.)

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law, that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lift up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you: walk while ye have the light, lest darknesse come upon you: for he that walketh in darknesse, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, beleeve in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they beleeved not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath beleeved our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not beleeve, because that Esaias said again,

40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, & spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also many beleeved on him; but because of the Pharisees, they did not confesse him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For they loved the praise of men, more then the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jesus cried & said, He that beleeveth on me, beleeveth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever beleeveth on me, should not abide in darknesse.

47 And if any man hear my words, and beleeve not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that refuseth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken of my self; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting; whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAP. XIII.

NOw before the feast of the passeover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come, that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, (the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simons son, to betray him)

3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God;

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments, and took a towell and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towell wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: & Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet onely, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed, needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him, therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye call me Master & Lord, and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If I then your Lord and Master have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one anothers feet.

15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily I say unto you, The servant is not greater then his lord: neither he that is sent greater then he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speak not of you all, I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me, hath lift up his heel against me.

19 Now I tell you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye may believe that I am he.

20 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me: and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus bosom, one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckened to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is to whom I shal give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the the sop, went immediately out: and it was night.

31 ¶ Therefore when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himself, and shall straightway glorifie him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me, and as I said unto the Jews, whither I go, ye cannot come: so now I say to you.

34 A new commandement I give unto you, That ye love one another: as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know, that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now: but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily I say unto thee, the cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAP. XIIII.

LEt not your hearts be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you; I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, & receive you unto my self, that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go, ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest: and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? He § hath seen me, hath seen § Father: & how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak unto you, I speak not of my self: but § Father that dwelleth in me, he doth the works.

11 Believe me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works sake.

12 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do, shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do, because I go unto my Father.

13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my Name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my Name, I will do it.

15 ¶ If ye love me, keep my commandements.

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever.

17 Even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him, for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more, but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know, that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me, shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest my self to him.

22 Judas saith unto him (not Iscariot) Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thy self unto me, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He ℣ loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings: and the word which you hear, is not mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But the Comforter which is ℣ holy Ghost, whom ℣ Father will send in my Name, he shall teach you all things, & bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you: let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoyce, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater then I.

29 And now I have told you before it come to passe, that when it is come to passe, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father: and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do: arise, let us go hence.

CHAP. XV.

I Am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman:

2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh away: and every branch ℣ beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of it self, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered, & men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit, so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love, even as I have kept my Fathers commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 This is my commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man then this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants, for the servant knoweth not what his lord doth, but I have called you friends: for all things that I have heard of my Father, I have made known unto you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that you should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my Name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me, before it hated you.

19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I unto you. The servant is not greater than the lord: if they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you for my Names sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me & my Father.

25 But this cometh to passe, that the word might be fulfilled that is writ en in their law. They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter is come whom I will send unto you from the Father, even § Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testifie of me.

27 And ye also shall bear witnesse, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

THese things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you, will think that he doth God service.

3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at § beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless, I tell you the truth, it is expedient for you, that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you: but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sinne, and of righteousnesse, and of judgement.

9 Of sin, because they believe not on me.

10 Of righteousnesse, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more,

11 Of judgement, because the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit, when he the Spirit of truth is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself: but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak, and he will shew you things to come.

14 He shall glorifie me, for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, A little while, and ye shall see me: because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, A little while, and ye shall see me: and, because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? We cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye inquire among your selves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, A little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ye shal weep & lament, but the world shal rejoyce: and ye shall be sorrowfull, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman, when she is in travel, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but assoon as she is delivered of the childe, she remembereth no more § anguish,

for

for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoyce, and your joy no man taketh frō you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing: Verily, verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my Name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my Name: ask and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: ¶ time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shal shew you plainly of ¶ Father

26 At that day ye shall ask in my Name, and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have beleeved that I came out from God.

28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into ¶ world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, & speakest no proverb.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee, by this we beleeve that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now beleeve?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.

CHAP. XVII.

THese words spake Jesus, and lift up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come, glorifie thy Son, that thy Son also may glorifie thee.

2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternall life to many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternall, that they might know thee to be onely true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth, I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorifie thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I have manifested thy Name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me, and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me, are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me, and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have beleeved that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them; I pray not for the world; but for them which thou hast given me, for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine: and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own Name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy Name: those ¶ thou gavest me, I have kept, & none of them is lost, but ¶ son of perdition: that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of ¶ world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of ¶ world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanc-

17 Sanctifie them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I sanctifie my self, ¶ they also might be sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word.

21 That they all may be one, as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me, I have given them: that they may be one, even as we are one,

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

24 Father, I will that they also whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am, that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before ¶ foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And I have declared unto them thy Name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me, may be in them, and I in them.

CHAP. XVIII.

WHen Iesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entred, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also which betrayed him, knew the place: for Iesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Judas then having received a band of men, and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanthorns and torches, and weapons.

4 Iesus therefore knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazareth. Iesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also ẏ betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to ẏ ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Iesus of Nazareth.

8 Iesus answered, I have told you that I am he; If therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me, have I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter having a sword, drew it, and smote the high priests servant, and cut off his right ear: the servants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Iesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup ẏ my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band, and the captain, and officers of the Jews, took Iesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to Annas first, (for he was father in law to Caiaphas) which was the high priest that same year.

14 Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ And Simon Peter followed Iesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Iesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsell that kept ẏ door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals, (for it was cold) and they warmed themselves, and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ¶ The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to ℣ world: I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort, and in secret have I said nothing:

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by, stroke Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou ℣ high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witnesse of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood & warmed himself: they said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest (being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off) saith, Did not I see thee in ℣ garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again, and immediately ℣ cock crew.

28 ¶ Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgement, and it was early, and they themselves went not into the judgement hall, lest they should be defiled: but that they might eat the passeover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring you against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactour, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawfull for us to put any man to death.

32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the judgement hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the king of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thy self, or did others tel it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? thine own nation, and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into ℣ world, that I should bear witnes unto ℣ truth: every one that is of ℣ truth, heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, & saith unto them, I finde in him no fault at all.

39 But ye have a custom that I should release unto you one at the passeover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the king of the Jews?

40 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAP. XIX.

THen Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.

2 And the souldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, king of the Jews: and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you that ye may know that I finde no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe: and Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man.

6 When ℣ chief priests therefore, & officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

7 The

7 The Iews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was more afraid;

9 And went again into the Iudgment hall, and said unto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gave him no answer.

10 Then said Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not, that I have power to crucifie thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee, hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Iews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cesars friend: whosoever maketh himself a king, speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Iesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat, in a place that is called the pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the passeover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Iews, Behold your King.

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cesar.

16 Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified: and they took Iesus and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross, went forth into a place called the place of a scull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, & two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross: and the writing was, IESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE IEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Iews, for the place where Iesus was crucified, was nigh to the city, and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latine.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Iews to Pilate, Write not, the king of the Iews: but that he said, I am king of the Iews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

23 ¶ Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, took his garments, (and made four parts, to every souldier a part) and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let not us rent it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the souldiers did.

25 ¶ Now there stood by the crosse of Iesus, his mother, and his mothers sister, Mary, the wife of Cleophas, & Mary Magdalene.

26 When Iesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, woman, behold thy son.

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother. And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Iesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, & put it to his mouth.

30 When Iesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

31 The Iews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the crosse on the sabbath-day, (for that sabbath-day was an high day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the souldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Iesus, sur, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true, and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shal not be broken.

37 And again, another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they have pierced.

38 ¶ And after this, Joseph of Arimathea (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews) besought Pilate, that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him leave: he came therefore and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh, and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes, with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury:

41 Now in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore, because of the Jews preparation day, for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAP. XX.

THe first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto § sepulchre, and seeth § stone taken away from § sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together, and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying, yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

7 And the napkin that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it self.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶ But Mary stood without at the sepulchre, weeping: and as she wept she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,

12 And seeth two angels in white, sitting the one at § head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lien.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? she saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And when she had thus said, she turned her self back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? she supposing him to be the gardiner, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have born him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned her self, and saith unto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not, for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, & your Father, & to my God, & your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ Then § same day at evening, being § first day of § week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jewes, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands, and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord.
21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.
22 And when he had said this,
he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the holy Ghost.
23 Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them,
and whose soever sins ye retain,
they are retained.
24 ¶ But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.
25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, & put my finger into the print of ȳ nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.
26 ¶ And after eight dayes again his disciples were within, and Thomas ẅ them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said,
Peace be unto you.
27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands, and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side, and be not faithlesse, but believing.
28 And Thomas answered & said unto him, My Lord, & my God!
29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.
30 ¶ And many other signes truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:
31 But these are written, that ye might beleeve that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that beleeving, ye might have life through his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

AFter these things, Jesus shewed himself again to ȳ disciples at ȳ sea of Tiberias, and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, called Didy-mus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and ȳ sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.
3 Simon Peter said unto them,
I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately, & that night they caught nothing.
4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.
5 Then Jesus saith unto them,
Children, have ye any meat?
They answered him, No.
6 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall finde. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it, for the multitude of fishes.
7 Therefore ȳ disciple whom Jesus loved, saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was ȳ Lord,
he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked) and did cast himself into the sea.
8 And the other disciples came in a little ship, (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits) dragging the net with fishes.
9 Assoon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.
10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of ȳ fish ẅ ye have now caught.
11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not ȳ net broken.
12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing ȳ it was ȳ Lord.
13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.
14 This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.
15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, loves ȳ me more then these? He saith unto him,

him, Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved, because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things, thou knowest that I love thee: Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 Verily, verily I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thy self, and walkedst whither thou wouldest, but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thine hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter turning sees the disciple whom Jesus loved, following, which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Peter seeing him, saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die: but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world it self could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

¶ THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAP. I.

THE former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until the day in which he was taken up, after he through the holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles, whom he had chosen.

3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion, by many infallible proofs, being seen of them fourty dayes, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 For John truly baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost, not many dayes hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive power, after that the holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 While they looked stedfastly toward heaven, as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparell.

11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath-dayes journey.

13 And

1 And when they were come, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those dayes, Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together, were about an hundred and twenty)

16 Men and brethren, this Scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministery.

18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity, and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem, insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

22 Beginning from the baptisme of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witnesse with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take part of this ministery and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots, and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAP. II.

AND when ¶ day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty winde, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because ¶ every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed, and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak, Galilæans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, & Medes, and Elamites, and ¶ dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,

10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya, about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and Proselytes, 11 Cretes, and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others mocking, said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter standing up with ¶ eleven, lift up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words.

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel:
17 And it shall come to passe in ℣ last dayes, (saith God) I will powr out of my Spirit upon all flesh: & your sons & your daughters shal prophesie, & your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:
18 And on my servants, and on my hand maidens, I will powr out in those dayes of my Spirit, and they shall prophesie:
19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signes in the earth beneath: blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke.
20 The sun shall be turned into darknesse, and the moon into blood, before that great & notable day of ℣ Lord come.
21 And it shall come to passe, that whosoever shall call on the Name of ℣ Lord, shal be saved.
22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words, Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you, by miracles, wonders, and signes, which God did by him in ℣ mids of you, as ye your selves also know:
23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsell and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:
24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible ℣ he should be holden of it.
25 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord alwayes before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved.
26 Therefore did my heart rejoyce, and my tongue was glad: moreover also, my flesh shall rest in hope, 27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine holy One to see corruption.
28 Thou hast made known to me the wayes of life, thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.
29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, ℣ he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day:
30 Therefore being a prophet, & knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loines, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne:
31 He seeing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.
32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.
33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which now ye see and hear.
34 For David is not ascended into the heavens, but he saith himself, The Lord said unto my Lord, sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.
36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.
37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter, and to the rest of ℣ apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?
38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the Name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the holy Ghost.
39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all ℣ are afar off, even as many as ℣ Lord our God shal call.
40 And with many other words did he testifie, and exhort, saying, Save your selves from this untoward generation.
41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word, were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.
42 And they continued stedfastly in the apostles doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.
43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signes were done by ℣ apostles.
44 And all ℣believed were together, & had all things common,

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.
46 And they continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness & singleness of heart.
47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

CHAP. III.

NOw Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.
2 And a certain man lame from his mothers womb, was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple, which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple.
3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked an alms.
4 And Peter fastning his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on us.
5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.
6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have give I thee: in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.
7 And he took him by the right hand, and lift him up, and immediately his feet and ancle bones received strength.
8 And he leaping up, stood and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.
9 And all the people saw him walking, and praising God.
10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.
11 And as the lame man which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomons, greatly wondring.
12 ¶ And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvell ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?
13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers hath glorified his Son Jesus, whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.
14 But ye denied the holy One, & the just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;
15 And killed the prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.
16 And his Name, through faith in his Name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him, hath given him this perfect soundnes in the presence of you all.
17 And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your Rulers.
18 But those things which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.
19 ¶ Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.
20 And he shal send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you
21 Whom the heaven must receive untill the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets, since the world began.
22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things, whatsoever he shall say unto you.
23 And it shall come to passe, that every soul which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.
24 Yea, & all the prophets from Samuel, & those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these dayes.
25 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 Unto you first, God having raised up his Son Iesus, sent him to blesse you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

CHAP. IIII.

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came upon them,

2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Iesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the word, believed, and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to passe on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and Iohn, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kinred of the high priest, were gathered together at Ierusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name have ye done this?

8 Then Peter filled with the holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there salvation in any other, for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and perceived that they were unlearned, and ignorant men, they marvelled, and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Iesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the councell, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them, is manifest to all them that dwell in Ierusalem, and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach in the Name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to hearken unto you more then unto God, iudge ye.

20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen & heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.

22 For the man was above fourty yeers old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lift up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For of a truth, against thy holy child Iesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, & Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, & the people of Israel were gathered together,

28 For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsell determined to be done.
29 And now, Lord, behold their threatnings, and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldnesse they may speak thy word, 30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal: and that signes and wonders may be done by the Name of thy holy childe Jesus.
31 ¶ And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldnesse.
32 And the multitude of them that beleeved, were of one heart, and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had all things common.
33 And with great power gave the apostles witnesse of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.
34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessours of lands or houses, sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,
35 And laid them down at the apostles feet: and distribution was made unto every man, according as he had need.
36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles feet.

CHAP. V.

BUt a certain man, named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession;
2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privie to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles feet.
3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, to lie to the holy Ghost, & to keep back part of the price of the land?
4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thy heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.
5 And Ananias hearing these words, fell down and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.
6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.
7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.
8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me, whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.
9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband, are at the door, and shall carry thee out.
10 Then fell she down straitway at his feet, and yeelded up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.
11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.
12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were many signes and wonders wrought among the people. (And they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.
13 And of the rest durst no man ioyn himself to them: but the people magnified them.
14 And beleevers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women)
15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds & couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by, might overshadow some of them.
16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.
17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees) and were filled with indignation,
18 And

18 And laid their hands on the apostles,and put them in the common prison.

19 But the angel of ℣ Lord by night opened ỹ prison doors,and brought them forth,and said,

20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people, all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard ℣,they entered into the temple early in the morning,and taught: but the high priest came,&they that were with him,& called ỹ councel together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, & sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in ỹ prison, they returned,and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety,and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened,we found no man within 24 Now when ỹ high priest,and the captain of the temple,& the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one& told them, saying, Behold, ỹ men whom ye put in prison,are standing in the temple,and teaching the people

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence:(for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the councell, and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you, that you should not teach in this Name? and behold,ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this mans blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather then men.

30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath ☩God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour,for to give repentance to Israel,and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses of these things, and so is also the holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶When they heard that,they were cut to the heart, and took counsell to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the councell, a Phariſee, named Gamaliel, a doctour of law, held in reputation among all people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space:

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves, what ye intend to do touching these men:

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be some body;to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joyned themselves: who was slain:and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee, in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished;and all,even as many as obeyed him,were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men,and let them alone: for if this counsell, or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it, lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the Name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the councell, rejoycing ☩they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his Name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house they ceased not to teach &preach Jesus Christ.

CHAP. VI.

AND in those dayes,when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widdows were neglected in the daily ministration.

CHAP. VII.

THen said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken: The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

3 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kinred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the Caldeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no childe.

6 And God spake on this wise, that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage, will I judge, said God, and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.

8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begate Isaac, and circumcised him the eight day: and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 And the patriarchs moved with envie, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt: and he made him governour over Egypt, and all his house.

11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt, and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first:

13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren, and Joseph's kinred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Joseph and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kinred, threescore and fifteen soule.

15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers,

16 And were carried over into Sichem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emor, the father of Sichem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, ¶ people grew and multiplied in Egypt;

18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kinred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children to the end they might not live.

20 In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his fathers house three moneths:

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaohs daughter took him up, & nourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words, and in deeds.

23 And when he was full fourty yeers old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood, how that God by his hand would deliver them; but they understood not.

26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren, why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler, and a Judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.

30 And when fourty yeers were expired, there appeared unto him in the wilderness of mount Sina, an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight, and as he drew neer to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest, is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them: and now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses, whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler, and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler, and a deliverer, by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signes in the land of Egypt, and in the Red-sea, and in the wilderness, fourty yeers.

37 ¶ This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall ¶ Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me: him shall ye hear.

38 This is he that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel, which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles, to give unto us.

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,

40 Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those dayes, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoyced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven, as it is written book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered me slain beasts, and sacrifices the space of fourty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made, to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed;
speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen:

45 Which also our fathers that came after, brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the dayes of David,

46 Who found favour before God, and desired to finde a tabernacle for the God of Jacob:

47 But Solomon built him an house.

48 Howbeit, the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands, as saith the prophet,

49 Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me, saith the Lord?
or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

51 ¶ Ye stiff-necked, and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do alwayes resist the holy Ghost:
as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the just One, of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

53 Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

54 ¶ When they heard these things, they were cut to the hearts, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he being full of the holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God,

56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, & the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,

58 And cast him out of the city, & stoned him: & the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young mans feet, whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying,
Lord Jesus, receive my Spirit.

60 And he kneeled down, & cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

CHAP. VIII.

AND Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem: and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, & made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, & haling men & women, committed them to prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went every where preaching the word.

5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For unclean spirits crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: & many taken with palsies and lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy
in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which before time in the same city used sorcery, & bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries

12 But when they beleeved Philip, preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the Name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself beleeved also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, & wondred, beholding the miracles & signes ℣ were done.

14 Now when ℣ apostles which were at Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John.

15 Who when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the holy Ghost.

16 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: onely they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus.)

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of ℣ apostles hands, the holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands he may receive the holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter, for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, ℣ none of these things ℣ ye have spoken, come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospell in many villages of the Samaritanes.

26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south, unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose, and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his charet, read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then the spirit said unto Philip, Go neer, and joyn thy self to this charet.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? and he desired Philip that he would come up, & sit by him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read, was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter, and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth.

33 In his humiliation his judgement was taken away: and who shal declare his generation? for his life is taken frō ℣ earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh ℣ prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See here is water, what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If thou beleevest with all thine heart, thou may'st. And he answered and said, I beleeve that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the charet to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that

CHAP. IX.

AND Saul yet breathing out threatening, and ſlaughter againſt the diſciples of the Lord, went unto the high prieſt,

2 And deſired of him letters to Damaſcus, to the ſynagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jeruſalem.

3 And as he journeyed, he came neer Damaſcus, and ſuddenly there ſhined round about him a light from heaven.

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice, ſaying unto him, Saul, Saul, why perſecuteſt thou me?

5 And he ſaid, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord ſaid, I am Jeſus whom thou perſecuteſt: it is hard for thee to kick againſt the pricks.

6 And he trembling and aſtoniſhed ſaid, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord ſaid unto him, Ariſe, and go into the city, and it ſhall be told thee what thou muſt do.

7 And the men ſ journeyed with him, ſtood ſpeechleſs, hearing a voice, but ſeeing no man.

8 And Saul aroſe from the earth, and when his eyes were opened, he ſaw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damaſcus.

9 And he was three dayes without ſight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain diſciple at Damaſcus, named Ananias; and to him ſaid the Lord in a viſion, Ananias. And he ſaid, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord ſaid unto him, Ariſe, and go into ſ ſtreet, which is called Straight, and inquire in the houſe of Judas, for one called Saul of Tarſus: for behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath ſeen in a viſion a man, named Ananias, coming in, & putting his hand on him, that he might receive his ſight.

13 Then Ananias anſwered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy ſaints at Jeruſalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief prieſts, to binde all ſ call on thy Name.

15 But the Lord ſaid unto him, Go thy way, for he is a choſen veſſell unto me, to bear my Name before the Gentiles, and kings, and ſ children of Iſrael.

16 For I will ſhew him how great things he muſt ſuffer for my Names ſake.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the houſe, and putting his hands on him, ſaid, Brother Saul, the Lord, (even Jeſus that appeared unto thee in the way as thou cameſt) hath ſent me, that thou mighteſt receive thy ſight, and be filled with the holy Ghoſt.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been ſcales, and he received ſight forthwith, and aroſe, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was ſtrenghthened. Then was Saul certain dayes with the diſciples ſ were at Damaſcus.

20 And ſtraightway he preached Chriſt in the ſynagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and ſaid, Is not this he that deſtroyed them which called on this Name in Jeruſalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto ſ chief prieſts?

22 But Saul increaſed the more in ſtrength and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damaſcus, proving that this is very Chriſt.

23 ¶ And after that many dayes were fulfilled, the Jews took counſell to kill him.

24 But their laying await was known of Saul: and they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the diſciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a baſket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to joyn himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not ỹ he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the Name of Iesus.

28 And he was ỹ them coming in and going out at Jerusalem

29 And he spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Iesus: & disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the churches rest thorowout all Iudea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified, and walking in the feare of the Lord, and in the comfort of the holy Ghost, were multiplied

32 ¶ And it came to passe, as Peter passed thorowout al quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda:

33 And there he found a certain man, named Aeneas: which had kept his bed eight yeers, and was sick of the palsie.

34 And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediatly.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron, saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Ioppa a certain disciple, named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works, and alms-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes that she was sick, and dyed: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Ioppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose, and went with them: when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him, weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed, and turning him to the body, said, Tabitha, Arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lift her up: and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known thorowout all Ioppa, and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe, that he tarried many dayes in Ioppa with one Simon a tanner.

CHAP. X.

THere was a certain man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,

2 A devout man, & one ỹ feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway:

3 He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of ỹ day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, & said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, ỹ prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Ioppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel ỹ spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his houshold servants, and a devout souldier of them ỹ waited on him continually

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Ioppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto ỹ city, Peter went up upon ỹ house to pray, about ỹ sixt hour.

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance, vision : Chap. x. He preacheth.

11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessell descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet, knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth :

12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter : kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord: for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessell was received again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself, what this vision which he had seen should mean : behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had made inquiry for Simons house, & stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Peter thought on ℌ vision, the spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, & go with them, doubting nothing : for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to ℌ men, & were sent unto him from Cornelius, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek : what is the cause wherefore ye are come ?

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, & of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel, to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them : and on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cesarea : and Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up ; I my self also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawfull thing for a man that is a Jew, to keep company, or come unto one of another nation : but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gain-saying, assoon as I was sent for : I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me.

30 And Cornelius said, Four dayes ago I was fasting untill this hour, and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold a man stood before me in bright clothing,

31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter ; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side, who when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee, and thou hast well done ℌ thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons ;

35 But in every nation, he that feareth him, & worketh righteousnesse, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ, (he is Lord of all)

37 That word (I say) you know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galile, after the baptism which John preached ;

38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with ℌ holy Ghost, and with power, who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly:

41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him, after he rose from the dead.

42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testifie that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

43 To him give all the prophets witness, that through his Name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized which have received the holy Ghost, as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

CHAP. XI.

AND the apostles & brethren that were in Judea, heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Joppa, praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners, and it came even to me:

6 Upon which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, & saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter, slay & eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me.

12 And the spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover, these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee words whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen, travelled as far as Phenice, & Cyprus, & Antioch, preaching the word to none, but unto the Jews only.

20 And

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch:

23 Who when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to passe, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people, and the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 And in these dayes came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the spirit, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to passe in the dayes of Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea.

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAP. XII.

NOw about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also: (then were the dayes of unleavened bread.)

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of souldiers, to keep him, intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison, but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two souldiers, bound with two chains, and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thy self, and binde on thy sandals: and so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him, and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel, but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city, which opened to them of his own accord, and they went out, and passed on through one street, and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose sir-name was Mark, where many were gathered together, praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsell came to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peters voice, she opened not the gate for gladnesse, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the doore, and saw him, they were astonished.

27 But he beckening unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, & to ỹ brethren. And he departed, & went into another place.

28 Now assoon as it was day, there was no small stir among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

29 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded ỹ they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, & there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and having made Blastus the kings chamberlain their friend, desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by ỹ kings countrey.

21 And upon a set day, Herod arayed in royall apparell, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory, and he was eaten of wormes, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministery, and took with them John, whose firname was Mark.

CHAP. XIII.

NOw there were in ỹ church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers: as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the work whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone thorow the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the countrey, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man, who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer, (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul (who also is called Paul) filled with the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty, & all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousnesse, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blinde, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darknesse: and he went about, seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia, and John departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And after the reading of ỹ law & the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then

Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand, said,
Men of Israel, and ye that fear
God, give audience.
17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people, when they dwelt as strangers in the land of E gypt, and with an high arm brought them out of it.
18 And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderneſſe.
19 And when he had deſtroy-

Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot:
20 And after that he gave unto them Iudges, about the ſpace of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.
21 And afterward they deſired a king, and God gave unto them Saul, the ſon of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin by the ſpace of fourty years.
22 And when he had removed him, he raiſed up unto them Da-alſo he gave teſtimony, & ſaid,

I have found David the ſon of heart, which ſhall fulfil all my will.

23 Of this man's ſeed hath God, according to his promiſe, raiſed unto Iſrael a Saviour, Jeſus:
24 When John had firſt preach-people of Iſrael.

25 And as John fulfilled his courſe, he ſaid, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But be-me, whoſe ſhoes of his feet I am not worthy to looſe.

26 Men and brethren, child-whoſoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this ſalvation ſent.

27 For they that dwell at Je-cauſe they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every ſabbathday, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cauſe of death in him: yet deſired they Pilate that he ſhould be ſlain.
29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree,
and laid him in a ſepulchre.
30 But God raiſed him from the dead:
31 And he was ſeen many dayes of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jeru-ſalem, who are his witneſſes unto the people.
32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promiſe which was made unto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled the ſame unto us their children, in that he hath raiſed up Jeſus again, as it is alſo written in the ſecond pſalm, Thou art my ſon, this day have I begotten thee.
34 And as concerning that he raiſed him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he ſaid on this wiſe, I will give you the ſure mercies of David.
35 Wherefore he ſaith alſo in another pſalm, Thou ſhalt

36 For David after he had ſerved his own generation by the will of God, fell on ſleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and ſaw corruption 37 But he whom God raiſed
again, ſaw no corruption.
38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men, and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveneſſe of ſins: 39 And by him all that be-leeve, are juſtified from all things, from which ye could not be juſtified by the law of Moſes.
40 Beware therefore, leſt that of in the prophets, 41 Behold, ye deſpiſers, and wonder, and periſh: for I work a work in your dayes, a work which you ſhall in no wiſe be-leeve, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the ſynagogue, the Gentiles beſought that theſe words might be preached to them the next ſabbath.
43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews & religious proſelytes followed

lowed Paul and Barnabas, who speaking to them, perswaded them to continue in the grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes they were filled with envie, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul & Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that ✝ word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge your selves unworthy of everlasting life; lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath ✝ Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternall life, beleeved.

49 And the word of the Lord was published thorowout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

52 And ✝ disciples were filled with joy, and with ✝ holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIIII.

AND it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude, both of the Jews, and also of the Greeks, beleeved.

2 But ✝ unbeleeving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their mindes evill affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they, speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signes and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of ✝ was divided: and part held the Jews, & part with ✝ apostles.

5 And when there was assault made, both of the Gentiles and also of the Jews, with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, & fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a creeple from his mothers womb, who never had walked.

9 The same heard Paul speak, who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lift up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likenesse of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein.

16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own wayes.

17 Nevertheless, he left not himself without witnesse, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitfull seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladnesse.

18 And with these sayings scarce determined they the people that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

39 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who perswaded the people, and having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch,

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, & that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

CHAP. XV.

1 And certain men which came down from Judea, taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul & Barnabas had no small dissension, & disputation with them, they determined that Paul & Barnabas, & certain other of them should go up to Jerusalem, unto the Apostles & elders about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed thorow Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees, which believed, saying, that it was needfull to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together, for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up and said unto them, Men & brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witnesse, giving them the holy Ghost, even as he did unto us:

9 And put no difference betweene us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore, why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we shall be saved even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and give audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me.

14 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his Name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets, as it is written:

16 After

16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down: and I will build again the ruines thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles upon whom my Name is called, saith the Lord, who doth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works, from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God:

20 But ℣ we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in ℣ synagogues every sabbath-day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with ℣ whole church, to send chosen men of their own company, to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas: namely, Judas, surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren;

23 And wrote letters by them, after this manner. The apostles, and elders, and brethren, send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia.

24 Forasmuch as we have heard that certain ℣ went out from us, have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law, to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul:

26 Men that have hazarded their lives for the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shal also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden then these necessary things, 29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep your selves, ye do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle.

31 Which when they had read, they rejoyced for ℣ consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren, with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a ℣ space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding, it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some dayes after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again, and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus:

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went thorow Syria, and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

CHAP. XVI.

THen came he to Derbe, and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and beleeved: but his father was a Greek:

2 Which was wel reported of

by brethren that were at and Iconium. him would Paul have to with him, and took and him, because of the

which were in those quarfor they knew all that his was a Greek.
and as they went thorow cities they delivered them decrees for to keep, that ordained of the apostles elders, who were at Jerusalem.
so were the churches stablished in the faith, and in-ased in number daily.
Now when they had gone
throout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, and were for-den of the holy Ghost to reach the word in Asia, 6 after they were come to sia, they assayed to go into ithynia: but the spirit suffered them not.
7 And they passing by Mysia, came down to Troas.
8 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There stood a man of Macedonia, and pray-him, saying, Come over into Macedonia and help us.
9 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering, that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel unto them.
10 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis:
11 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain dayes.
12 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made: and we sat down and spake unto the women which resorted thither.
13 ¶ And a certain woman named Lydia a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.
14 And when she was baptized, and her houshold, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithfull to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.
15 ¶ And it came to passe, as we went to prayer, a certain damsell, possessed with a spirit of divination, met us: which brought her masters much gain by sooth-saying.
16 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.
17 And this did she many dayes; but Paul being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the Name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.
And he came out the same hour.
18 ¶ And when her masters saw that § hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market place unto the rulers, 19 And brought them to the Magistrates, saying, these men being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, 20 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Ro-manes.
21 And the multitude rose up together against them: & § magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them.
22 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jaylour to keep them safely:
23 Who having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.
24 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.
25 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every ones bands were loosed.
26 And the keeper of § prison awaking out of his sleep, & seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled
27 But

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying; Do thy self no harm, for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, & said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, Beleeve on the Lord Iesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was baptized he, and all his straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoyced, beleeving in God ẅ all his house

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The Magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romanes, and have cast us into prison, and now do they thrust us out privily, nay verily, but let them come themselves & fetch us out.

38 And the sergeants told these words unto the magistrates: & they feared, when they heard that they were Romanes.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of Lydia, and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

NOw when they had passed thorow Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagouge of the Jews.

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath dayes reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alledging, that Christ must needs have suffered, & risen again from the dead, and that this Iesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas: and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, and took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason, and certain brethren, unto the rulers of the city, crying, These men that have turned the world upside down, are come hither also,

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying, that there is another king, one Iesus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither, went into the synagouge of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of minde, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleeved, also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they ẅ conducted Paul, brought him unto Athens: & receiving a cõmandment unto Silas and Timotheus, for to come to him ẅ all speed, they departed.

15 ¶ Now

Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicures, & of the Stoicks, encountered him, and said, What will this babler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we desire therefore to know what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there, spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, & beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands:

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation:

27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, & find him, though he be not far from every one of us.

28 For in him we live, & move, & have our being, as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his off spring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the off-spring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone graven by art, and man's device.

30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at, but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of dead, some mocked: & others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit, certain men clave unto him and believed: among which was Dionysius Areopagite, & a woman named Damaris, & others with them.

CHAP. XVIII.

AFter these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth,

2 And found a certain Jew, named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought (for by occupation they were tentmakers.)

4 And he reasoned in the synagogues every sabbath, & persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And when Silas & Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in spirit, & testified to the Jews, that Jesus was Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads, I am clean: from hence forth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 ¶ And he departed thence, & entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joyned hard to the synagogue.

8 And

8 And Crispus the chief ruler of the synagogue, beleeved on the Lord with all his house: and many of the Corinthians hearing, beleeved, and were baptized.

9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For I am with thee, & no man shall set on thee, to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he continued there a yeer & six moneths, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgement seat, 13 Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong, or wicked lewdnesse, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you.

15 But if it be a question of words, and names, and of your law, look ye to it: for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgement seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes the chief ruler of the synagogue, & beat him before the judgement seat: and Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this, tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, & with him Priscilla and Aquila: having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entred into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not:

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh, in Jerusalem, but I will return again unto you, if God will: and he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Cesarea, & gone up, & saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, a man eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord, and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, ✝ brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who when he was come, helped them much which had beleeved through grace.

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews & ✝ publikely, shewing by the scriptures, that Jesus was Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

AND it came to pass, that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts, came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the holy Ghost since ye beleeved? & they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? and they said, Unto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should beleeve on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And

...d he went into the syna-
...fidence, and spake boldly for the ...space of three moneths, disputing
...and perswading the things
...concerning the kingdom of God.
...But when divers were har...dened and believed not, but
...spake evill of that way before
...the multitude, he departed from
...them, and separated the disci...ples, disputing daily in the ...school of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of two yeers, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought speciall miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick, handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evill spirits went out of them.

13 Then certain of the vagrant Jewes exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evill spirits, the Name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evill spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, &
Paul I know, but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evill spirit was, leapt on them, and mastered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked & wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jewes and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus, and fear fell on them all, and the Name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came and confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many also of them which used curious arts, brought their bookes together, & burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed thorow Macedonia & Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus, and Erastus, but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small stir about the way.

24 For a certain man, named Demetrius, a silver-smith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen:

25 Whom he called together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost thorowout all Asia, this Paul hath perswaded, and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods which are made with hands.

27 So that not onely this our craft is in danger to be set at nought: but also that the temple of the great goddesse Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia, and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion, and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Pauls companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckened with the hand, & would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But

34 But when they knew that he was a Iew, all with one voice, about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said: Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddesse Diana, and of the image which fell down from Iupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddesse:

38 Wherefore if Demetrius and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies, let them implead one another.

39 But if ye inquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawfull assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this dayes uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAP. XX.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece:

3 And there abode three moneths: and when the Iews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return thorow Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea: and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus, and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These going before, tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi, after the dayes of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five dayes, where we abode seven dayes.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them ready to depart on the morrow, and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man, named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep; and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not your selves, for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios, and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium, and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have 33 I have coveted no mans silver or gold or apparell.

34 Yea you your selves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give then to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, & fell on Pauls neck, and kissed him,

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAP. XXI.

AND it came to passe, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came wch a straight course unto Choos, & ꝧ day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara.

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven dayes: who said to Paul, through ꝧ spirit, ꝧ he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those dayes, we departed, and went our way, and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on ꝧ shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship, and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren & abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, we that were of Pauls company, departed, and came unto Cesarea, and we entered into ꝧ house of Philip the Evangelist, (wch was one of ꝧ seven) and abode with him.

9 And

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as we tarried there many dayes, there came down from Judea, a certain prophet named Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Pauls girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem binde ỹ man that owneth this girdle, and shal deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep, and to break mine heart? for I am ready, not to be bound onely, but also to die at Jerusalem, for the Name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those dayes we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went ỹ us also certain of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought ỹ them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James, and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly, what things God had wrought among ỹ Gentiles by his ministery.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, & said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe, and they are all zealous of the law,

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, saying, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purifie thy self with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know, that those things whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy self also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded, ỹ they observe no such thing, save onely that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them, entered into the temple, to signifie the accomplishment of ỹ dayes of purification, until ỹ an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven dayes were almost ended, ỹ Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in ỹ temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: this is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, & the law, and this place: & farther, brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city, Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

32 Who immediately took souldiers, and centurions, and ran down unto them: & when they saw the chief captain and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then ỹ chief captain came neer, & took him, & commanded him to be bound ỹ two chains; demanded who he was, and for he had done.

And some cried one thing,
one another, among the multi-cause when he could not know certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried the castle.
And when he came upon stairs, so it was, that he was of the souldiers, for the vio-of the people.
For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, A-with him.
And as Paul was to be led the castle, he said unto the captain, May I speak unto
? Who said, Canst thou Greek?
Art not thou that Egyptian, before these dayes madest
, and leddest out into wilderness four thousand that were murderers?
But Paul said, I am a man am a Jew of Tarsus, a ci-Cilicia, a citizen of no city: and I beseech thee me to speak to the people.
And when he had given him
Paul stood on the stairs, beckoned with the hand unto people: and when there was great silence, he spake them in the Hebrew
, saying,

CHAP. XXII.

Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence, which now unto you.
(And when they heard that spake in the Hebrew tongue
, they kept the more si-
: and he saith.)
I am verily a man which Jew, born in Tarsus, a city Cilicia, yet brought up in this
, at the feet of Gamaliel, and ught according to the perfect of the law of the fathers, was zealous toward God, as ye are this day.
And I persecuted this way
the death, binding and deliing into prisons both men women.
As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the eof the elders: from whom I received letters unto the thren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.
6 And it came to passe, that as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.
7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me,
Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?
8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.
9 And they that were with me, saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.
10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.
11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.
12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood,
and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.
14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.
15 For thou shalt be his wit-nesse unto all men, of what thou hast seen and heard.
16 And now why tarriest thou?
Arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the Name of the Lord.
17 And it came to passe, that when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance; 18 And saw him, saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.
19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned, and beat in every synagogue them that

that beleeve on thee.

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lift up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging: that he might know wherefore they cryed so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Romane, & uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest; for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Romane? he said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Romane, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their councell to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND Paul earnestly beholding the councell, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him, to smite him on his mouth.

3 Then saith Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by, said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the councell, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissention between the Pharisees, and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confesse both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees part arose, and strove, saying, We finde no evil in this man: but if a spirit, or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissention, the chief captain feared lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, and commanded the souldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying, That they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound our selves under a great curse, that we will eat no thing untill we have slain Paul.

15 Now

15 Now therefore ye with the councell, signifie to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him:
and or ever he come neer, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Pauls sisters son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, & brought him to ỹ chief captain, and said, Paul ỹ prisoner called me unto him, & prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then ỹ chief captain took him by ỹ hand, & went with him aside privately, and asked him,
What is ỹ thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the councell, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yeeld unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them moe then fourty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink til they have killed him, and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So ỹ chief captain then let the young man depart, & charged him, See thou tell no man, ỹ thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers to go to Cesarea, and horsmen three-score and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night.

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix ỹ governour

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governour Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Romane.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their councell:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me, how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also, to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the souldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsmen to go with him, and returned to the castle.

33 Who when they came to Cesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governour, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when ỹ governour had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia;

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herods judgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

AND after five dayes, Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, & with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed ỹ governour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth,
Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietnesse, & that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence:

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfullnesse.

4 Notwithstanding that I be not farther tedious unto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest hear me of thy clemencie a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout ỹ world, & a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarens.

6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But ¶ chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands:

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee, by examining of whom thy self mayest take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying, that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governour had beckened unto him to speak, answered, Forsmuch as I know that thou hast been of many yeers a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for my self.

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve dayes since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove ¶ things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse unto thee, that after the way which they call heresie, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and the prophets,

15 And have hope towards God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise my self, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many yeers, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings:

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult:

19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the councell

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, & to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his aquaintance to minister, or come unto him.

24 And after certain dayes, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewesse, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousnes, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time, when I have a convenient season, I will cal for thee.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftner, & communed with him.

27 But after two yeers, Porcius Festus came into Felix room: and Felix willing to shew ¶ Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAP. XXV.

NOw when Festus was come into the province, after three dayes he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest, and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, come down ẅ me, & accuse this man, if there be any wickednesse in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more then ten days, he went down unto Cesarea, & the next day sitting in the judgment seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem, stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove,

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesars judgement seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the councell, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain dayes, king Agrippa, and Bernice, came unto Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many dayes, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests, and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romanes to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused, have the accusers face to face, and have license to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without any delay, on the morrow I sat on the judgement seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, & of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man my self. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, & Bernice, with great pompand was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, & principal men of the city, at Festus commandement Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, & all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Iews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem and also here, crying, that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, & that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord: wherefore I have brought him forth before you, & specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that after examination had, I might have some what to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable, to send a prisoner, and not withall to signifie the crimes laid against him.

CHAP XXVI.

THen Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thy self. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself;

2 I think my self happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for my self this day before thee, touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially, because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jewes: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews,

5 Which knew me from the beginning, (if they would testifie) that after the most straitest sect of our religion, I lived a pharisee.

6 And now I stand & am judged for § hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day & night, hope to come: for ŵ hopes sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with my self, that I ought to do many things contrary to the Name of Jesus of Nazareth:

10 Which thing I also did at Jerusalem, & many of § saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests, & when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme: & being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and cõmission from the chief priests:

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightnesse of the sun, shining round about me, and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest:

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet, for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witnesse, both of these things ŵ thou hast seen, & of those things in the ŵ I will appear unto thee.

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darknesse to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgivenesse of sins, & inheritance among them ŵ are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and thorowout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small & great, saying none other things then those ŵ the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said ŵ a loud voice, Paul, § art beside thy self, much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad most noble Festus, but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, § not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governour, and Bernice, and they that sat with them.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul, and certain other prisoners, unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus band.
2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.
3 And the next day we touched in Sidon: and Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.
4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.
5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.
6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sailing into Italy, & he put us therein.
7 And when we had sailed slowly many dayes, and scarce were come over against Gnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone; 8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called,
The fair havens, nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.
9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,
10 And said unto them, Sirs,
I perceive that this voiage will be with hurt, and much damage not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.
11 Nevertheless, the centurion believed the Master and the owner of the ship, more then those things which were spoken by Paul.
12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter, which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south-west, and north-west.
13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence they sailed close by Crete.
14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind called Euroclydon.
15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.
16 And running under a certain island, which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:
17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and fearing lest they should fall into the quick-sands strake sail, and so were driven.
18 And being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightned the ship:
19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.
20 And when neither sun, nor stars in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved, was then taken away.
21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, & to have gained this harm & losse.
22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no losse of any mans life among you, but of the ship.
23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, 24 Saying, Fear not Paul, thou must be brought before Cæsar, and lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.
25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shalbe even as it was told me.
26 Howbeit, we must be cast upon a certain island.
27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight, the shipmen deemed that they drew neer to some country:

28 And sounded, & found it twenty fathoms: & when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, & found it fifteen fathoms,

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the forepart of the ship,

31 Paul said to the centurion, & to the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, & let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried, & continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore, I pray you to take some meat; for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship, two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightned the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder-bands, and hoised up the main sail to the winde, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the souldiers counsell was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they which could swim, should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship: and so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that the iland was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, & because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, & fastned on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venemous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom though he hath escaped the sea, yet Vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit, they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the iland, whose name was Publius, who received us, and lodged us three dayes courteously.

8 And it came to passe, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever, and of a bloody flux: whom Paul entered in, & prayed, and laid his hands on him, & healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the iland, came, & were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alex-

...s, left any ...ny of ꝧ brethren that came, neither spake any harm of thee.

...outs, and ...e signe was Castor & Pollux. 12 And landing at Syracuse, ...tarried there three dayes.

13 And from thence we fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium: ...after one day ꝧ south winde blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, ...were desired to tarry with them seven dayes: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii-forum, and the three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the ...guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself, with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to passe, ꝧ after three dayes, Paul called ꝧ chief of the Iewes together. And when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customes of our fathers, yet was I ...delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into ꝧ hands of ꝧ Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iews spake against it, I was constrained to appeale unto Cesar, not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am compassed with this chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came, shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know ꝧ every where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging, to whom he expounded, & testified ꝧ kingdom of God, perswading them concerning Iesus, both out of the law of Moses, & out of the prophets, from morning til evening.

24 And some believed ꝧ things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word: Well spake the holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet, unto our fathers,

26 Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, & shall not understand, and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive.

27 For ꝧ heart of this people is waxed grosse, & their ears are dul of hearing, & their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole yeers in his own hired house, and received al ꝧ came in unto him, 31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

¶ The end of the acts of the apostl.s.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE apostle to the ROMANES.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God.

2 Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scrip-

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who was made of the seed of David, according to the flesh,

4 And declared to be ꝧ Son of God ✠ power, according to ꝧ spirit of holines, by ꝧ resurrection of ꝧ dead,

5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations for his Name;

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ,

7 To al ȝ be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, & the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throwout the whole world.

9 For God is my witnesse, whom I serve with my spirit, in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers,

10 Making request (if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God) to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spirituall gift, to the end you may be established.

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you: by the mutuall faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, ȝ oftentimes I purposed to come unto you (but was let hitherto) ȝ I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 I am debtour, both to the Greeks, & to the Barbarians, both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of ȝ gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that beleeveth, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein is the righteousnesse of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodlinesse, and unrighteousnesse of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousnesse.

19 Because that which may be known of God, is manifest in them, for God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For ȝ invisible things of him from ȝ creation of ȝ world are clearly seen, being understood by ȝ things ȝ are made, even his eternal power & Godhead, so they are without excuse:

21 Because ȝ when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened;

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools:

23 And changed ȝ glory of uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things:

24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleannesse, through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more then the Creatour: who is blessed for ever, Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the naturall use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also ȝ men, leaving ȝ natural use of ȝ woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working ȝ ȝ & receiving in themselves that recompence of their errour which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate minde, to do those things which are not convenient:

29 Being filled with all unrighteousnesse, fornication, wickednesse, covetousnes, maliciousnes, full of envie, murder, debate, deceit, malignity, whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despitefull, proud, boasters, inventers of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, without naturall affection, implacable, unmercifull;

32 Who knowing ȝ judgement of God, (that they which commit such things are worthy of death) not onely do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAP. II.

Wherefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thy self; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgement of God is according to truth, against them which commit such things:

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgement of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodnesse, & forbearance, & long suffering; not knowing that the goodnesse of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardnesse and impenitent heart, treasurest up unto thy self wrath against the day of wrath, and revelation of the righteous judgement of God,

6 Who will render to every man according to his deeds,

7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing, seek for glory, and honour, & immortality; eternall life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, & do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousnesse, indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation & anguish upon every soul of man that doth evil, of the Jew first, & also of the Gentile:

10 But glory, honour, & peace, to every man that worketh good to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

11 For there is no respect of persons with God,

12 For as many as have sinned without law, shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law, shall be judged by the law.

13 For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles which have not the law, do by nature those things contained in the law: these having not the law, are a law unto themselves.

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witnesse, & their thoughts the mean while accusing, or else excusing one another;

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God;

18 And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law,

19 And art confident that thou thy self art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darknesse:

20 An instructer of the foolish, a teacher of babes: which hast the form of knowledge, and of the truth in the law:

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy self? thou that preachest a man should not steal, doest thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest, a man should not commit adultery, doest thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law, dishonourest thou God?

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles, through you, as it is written:

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law; but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore, if the uncircumcision keep the righteousnes of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfill the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgresse the law?

28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if some did not beleeve? shal their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar, as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art iudged.

5 But if our unrighteousnesse commend the righteousnesse of God, what shall we say? is God unrighteous, who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)

6 God forbid: for then how shall God iudge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also iudged as a sinner?

8 And not rather as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say, Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? No in no wise, for we have before proved both Jews & Gentiles, that they are all under sin.

10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable, there is none that doth good, no, not one.

13 Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues they have used deceit: the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitternesse:

15 Their feet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their wayes:

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore by the deeds of the law, there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin?

21 But now the righteousnesse of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets.

22 Even ℈ righteousnes of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all, & upon all them ℈ believe: for there is no difference:

23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ:

25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousnesse for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God:

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousnesse: that he might be just, and the iustifier of him which beleeveth in Jesus.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing it is one God which shall iustifie ℈ circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAP. IIII.

WHat shal we say then, that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God.

3 For what saith ℈ scripture? Abraham beleeved God, and it was counted unto him for righteousnesse.

4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but beleeveth on him that iustifieth the ungodly; his faith is counted for righteousnesse.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessednesse of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousnesse without works:

7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed

Exposition of Reckoned is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessednes then vpon the circumcision onely, or vpon vncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousnesse.
10 How was it then reckoned?
when he was in circumcision, or in vncircumcision? not in circumcision: but in vncircumcision 11 And he received the signe of circumcision, a seal of the righte-ousnesse of the faith, which he had yet being vncircumcised, that he might be the father of them that beleeve, though they be not circumcised, that righteousnesse might be imputed vnto them also:
12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but also walke in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had yet being vncircumcised.
13 For the promise that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed through the law, but through the righteousnesse of faith.
14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:
15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.
16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, 17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not, as though they were;
18 Who against hope, believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.
19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred yeer old, neither yet the deadnesse of Sarae womb:
20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief:
but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;
21 And being fully perswaded, that what he had promised,
he was able also to perform.
22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.
23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;
24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we beleeve on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

CHAP. V.

THerefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ:
2 By whom also we have accesse by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and reioyce in hope of the glory of God.
3 And not onely so, but we glory in tribulation also, knowing that tribulation worketh patience; 4 And patience, experience:
and experience, hope:
5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts, by the holy Ghost, which is given unto us.
6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.
7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.
8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.
10 For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God, by the death of his Son: much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.
11 And not onely so, but we also ioy in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.
12 Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin: and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned 13 For (until the law) sin was

In the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adams transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come:

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgement was by one to condemnation: but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if by one mans offence death reigned by one, much more they which receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousnesse, shall reign in life, by one Jesus Christ.

18 Therefore as by the offence of one, judgement came upon all men to condemnation: even so by the righteousnesse of one, the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many be made righteous,

20 Moreover, the law entered, that the offence might abound: but where sin abounded, grace did much more abound.

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousnesse unto eternall life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

WHat shall we say then? shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ, were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptisme into death, that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father: even so we also should walk in newnesse of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeneſſe of death: we shall be also in likeneſſe of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead, is freed from sin.

8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him.

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sin reign therefore in your mortall body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yeeld ye your members as instruments of unrighteousnesse unto sin: but yeeld yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousnesse, unto God.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you, for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yeeld your selves servants to obey, his servants ye are whom ye obey, whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousnesse?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered to you.

18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousnesse.

19 I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yeelded your members servants to uncleanneſſe, and to iniquity unto iniquity: even so now yeeld your members servants to righteousnesse, unto holinesse.

20 For when ye were the sin ye were free from ousnesse.

What fruit had ye then in e things whereof ye are now amed? for the end of those gs is death.
But now being made free frō
d become servants to God, ave your fruit unto holinesse,
d the end everlasting life.
For ꝑ wages of sin is death,
t ꝑ gift of God is eternall life,
ough Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

Now ye not, brethren, (for I eak to them ꝙ know ꝓ law) at ꝓ law hath dominion er a man as long as he liveth?
For the woman ꝟ hath an sband, is bound by the law to r husband, so long as he liveth:
t if ꝓ husband be dead, she is ose from ꝓ law of ꝓ husband.
So then, if while her husband eth she be married to another an, she shall be called an adul-ess: but if her husband be ad, she is free from that law, so at she is no adulteresse, though e be married to another man.
Wherefore, my brethren, ye so are become dead to ꝓ law, ꝓ body of Christ, that ye uld be married to another, en to him who is raised from e dead, that we should bring rth fruit unto God.
For when we were in ꝓ flesh, e motions of sins, which were by e law, did work in our members, bring forth fruit unto death.
But now we are delivered om ꝓ law, ꝓ being dead, wherein we were held, that we should rve in newnesse of spirit, & not the oldnesse of the letter.
What shall we say then? is the w ꝓ God forbid. Nay, I had t known sinne but by ꝓ law: for I uld not have known lust, except ꝓ law
d said, Thou shalt not covet.
But sin taking occasion by the mmandement, wrought in me all anner of concupiscence. For thout the law sin was dead.
For I was alive without the w once: but when ꝓ commandment me, sin revived, and I died.
And the commandment ich was ordained to life, I und to be unto death.
For sin taking occasion by e commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.
Wherefore the law is holy,
and the commandment holy,
and just, and good.
Was then ꝟ which is good, made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, ꝓ it might appear sin, working death in me by ꝓ ꝟ which is good;
that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinfull.
For we know that the law is spirituall: but I am carnall, sold under sin.
For that which I do, I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.
If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law, that it is good.
Now then it is no more I ꝙ do it: but sin ꝓ dwelleth in me.
For I know that in me, (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing. For to will is present with me: but how to perform that which is good, I finde not.
For the good that I would,
I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.
Now, if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.
I finde then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me.
For I delight in the law of God, after the inward man.
But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my minde, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.
O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?
I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with minde I my self serve ꝓ law of God: but ꝟ the flesh ꝓ law of sin

CHAP. VIII.

There is therefore now no condemnatiō to them ꝟ are in Christ Jesus, ꝟ who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
For ꝓ law of ꝓ Spirit of life, in Christ Jesus hath made me free from ꝓ law of sin & death.
For what ꝓ law could not do,
in ꝓ it was weak through ꝓ flesh, God sending his own Son in the likenesse of sinfull flesh, and for sin condemned sin in ꝓ flesh:
That

4 That the righteousnesse of the law might be fulfilled in us who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they ỹ are after ỹ flesh, do minde ỹ things of the flesh: but they ỹ are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded, is death: but to be spiritually minded, is life and peace:

7 Because the carnall minde is enmity against God: for it is not subiect to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then, they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead, because of sin, but the Spirit is life, because of righteousnesse.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Iesus from the dead, dwell in you: he that raised up Iesus from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodies, by his Spirit ỹ dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, we are debtours, not to the flesh, to liue after the flesh.

13 For if ye liue after ỹ flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortifie the deeds of the body, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ye have not receiued the spirit of bondage again to feare: but ye haue receiued the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit it self beareth witnesse with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and ioynt heirs with Christ: if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with ỹ glory ỹ shall be reuealed in us

19 For the earnest expectation of ỹ creature waiteth for the manifestation of ỹ sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subiect to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subiected the same in hope.

21 Because the creature it self also shall be deliuered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of ỹ children of God.

22 For we know ỹ the whole creation groaneth, and trauelleth in pain together vntill now.

23 And not onely they, but ourselues also, ỹ haue ỹ first fruits of the Spirit, euen we our selues groan within our selues, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saued by hope: but hope that is seen is no hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise ỹ spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not ỹ we should pray for as we ought: but ỹ spirit it self maketh intercession for us, with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is ỹ minde of the spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints, according to the will of God.

28 And we know ỹ all things work together for good to them that ỹ loue God, to them who are called according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

30 Moreouer, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also iustified: and whom he iustified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but deliuered him up for us all: how shall he not with him also freely giue us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods elect? It is God that iustifieth:

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea, rather that is risen again, right hand of God, who maketh intercession for us.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?
As it is written, For thy sake are we killed all the day long: we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.)
Nay, in all these things we are more then conquerors, through him that loved us.
For I am perswaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAP. IX.

I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the holy Ghost,
That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.
For I could wish that my self were accursed from Christ, for my brethren, my kinsmen
according to the flesh:
Who are Israelites: to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises:
Whose are the fathers, and of whom concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is over all,
God blessed for ever. Amen.
Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:
Neither because they are the seed of Abraham are they all children; but in Isaac shall thy seed be called.
That is, they which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.
For this is the word of promise,
At this time will I come,
and Sara shall have a son.
And not only this, but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac.
For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth) 12 It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.

13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.
14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God?
God forbid.
15 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.
16 So then, it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.
17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.
18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.
19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? for who hath resisted his will?
20 Nay, but O man, who art thou that replieſt against God?
Shall the thing formed, say to him that formed it, why hast thou made me thus?
21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?
22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction: 23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory?
24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles.
25 As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.
26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people: there shall they be called the children of the living God.
27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel,

Israel, Though ℣ number of the children of Israel be as ℣ sand of ℣ sea, a remnant shal be saved

28 For he will finish the work, & cut it short in righteousnes: becasse a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esaias said before, Except ℣ Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had bin as Sodoma, & been made like unto Gomorrha

30 What shall we say then? That ℣ Gentiles which followed not after righteousnes, have attained to righteousnes, even the righteousnes which is of faith?

31 But Israel which followed after the law of righteousnes, hath not attained to the law of righteousnes.

32 Wherefore? because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by ℣ works of ℣ law: for they stumbled at that stumbling stone,

33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling stone, & rock of offence: & whosoever beleeveth on him shall not be ashamed.

CHAP. X.

BRethren, my hearts desire & prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record, that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of Gods righteousnes, & going about to establish their own righteousnes, have not submitted themselves unto ℣ righteousnes of God

4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousnes to every one that beleeveth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousnes which is of the law, that the man which doth those things, shall live by them.

6 But the righteousnes which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shal ascend into heaven (that is, to bring Christ down from above)

7 Or who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead)

8 But what saith he? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: ℣ is the word of faith which we preach.

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt beleeve in thine heart, that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man beleeveth unto righteousnes, & with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever beleeveth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all, is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For whosoever shal call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not beleeved? and how shall they beleeve in him, of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear, without a preacher?

15 And how shal they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautifull are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel: for Esaias saith, Lord, who hath beleeved our report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, & hearing by ℣ word of God.

18 But I say, have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, & their words unto the ends of ℣ world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First, Moses saith: I will provoke you to jealousie by them that are no people, & by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, & saith, I was found of them that sought me not: I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAP. XI.

I Say then, hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of ℣ seed of Abraham, of ℣ tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people, whe foreknew. Wot ye not what ℣ scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

Lord, they have killed thy ets and digged down thine
, and I am left alone, and ek my life?
4 But what saith the answer
d to him? I have reserved
e to myself seven thousand men, have not bowed the knee to ge of Baal.
5 Even so then at this present
e is there is a remnant ac-ng to the election of grace.
6 And if by grace, then is it no e of works: otherwise grace more grace. But if it be of s, then is it nomore grace: o-wise work is no more work.
7 What then? Israel hath not ned that which he seeketh
; but the election hath obtained
, and the rest were blinded.
8 (According as it is written,
d hath given them the spirit slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear,) unto this day.
9 And David saith, Let their e be made a snare, & a trap, d a stumbling block, and a re-ence unto them.
10 Let their eyes be darkened, they may not see, and bow
n their back alway.
11 I say then, Have they stumd that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to emulation.
12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the minishing of them the riches the Gentiles: how much more their fulness?
13 For I speak to you Gens, in as much as I am the postle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:
14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.
15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?
16 For if the first fruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.
17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wild olive tree wert grafted in amongst them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree:
18 Boast not against the branches: but if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.
19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.
20 Well: because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear.
21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.
22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity, but towards thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.
23 And they also, if they bide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graff them in again.
24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive-tree, which is wilde by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive-tree: how much more shall these which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive-tree
25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, (lest ye should be wise in your own conceits) that blindeness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.
26 And so all Israel shall be saved, as it is written, There shal come out of Sion the deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.
27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shal take away their sins.
28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers sakes
29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.
30 For as ye in times past have not beleeved God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:
31 Even so have these also now not beleeved, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For

32 For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgements, and his wayes past finding out!

34 For who hath known the minde of the Lord, or who hath been his counsellour?

35 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For of him, and through him, & to him are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAP. XII.

I Beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by ỹ renewing of your minde, ỹ ye may prove what is ỹ good, ỹ acceptable & perfect will of God

3 For I say, through ỹ grace given unto me, to every man ỹ is among you, not to think of himselfmore highly then he ought to think, but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So we being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesie according to the proportion of faith:

7 Or ministery, let us wait on our ministering: or he ‖ that teacheth, on teaching.

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity: he that ruleth, with diligence: he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation: abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good

10 Be kindly affectioned one to another ẅ brotherly love, in honour preferring one another.

11 Not slothfull in businesse: fervent in spirit, serving ỹ L

12 Rejoycing in hope, pa in tribulation, continuing stant in prayer.

14 Bless them which per you: bless and curse not.

15 Rejoyce with them ỹ joyce, & weep with them ỹ

16 Be of the same minde towards another, Minde high things, but condescen men of low estate. Be not in your own conceits.

17 Recompense to no man for evil. Provide things h in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as muc lieth in you, live peaceably all men.

19 Dearly beloved, avenge your selves, but rather give unto wrath: for it is writ Vengeance is mine, I will re saith the Lord.

20 Therefore, if thine e hunger, feed him: if he thirst him drink. For in so doing heap coals of fire on his hea

21 Be not overcome of but overcome evil with good

CHAP. XIII.

Let every soul be subject ỹ higher powers: for there no power, but of God. The pow that be, are ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resi eth the power, resisteth the or nance of God: and they that sist, shall receive to themsel damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terr to good works, but to the e Wilt thou then not be afraid the power? do that ỹ is good thou shalt have praise of ỹ s

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord: and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore or die,
we are the Lords.
9 For to this end Chriſt both died, and roſe, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.
10 But why doeſt thou judge thy brother? or why doeſt thou ſet at nought thy brother? we ſhall all ſtand before the judgement ſeat of Chriſt.
11 For it is written, As I live, ſaith the Lord, every knee ſhall

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink: but righteouſneſſe, and peace, and joy in the holy Ghoſt.
18 For he that in theſe things ſerveth Chriſt, is acceptable to God, and approved of men.
19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edifie another.
20 For meat deſtroy not ſ work of God: all things indeed are pure; but it is evill for that man who eateth with offence.

CHAP. XV.

WE then that are strong, ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please our selves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself, but as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of ℌ scriptures might have hope.

5 Now the God of consolation grant you to be like minded one towards another, according to Christ Jesus:

6 That ye may with one minde, & one mouth glorifie God even ℌ Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

8 Now I say, ℌ Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for ℌ truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto ℌ fathers:

9 And that the Gentiles might glorifie God for his mercy, as it is written, For this cause I will confesse to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy Name.

10 And again he saith, Rejoyce, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, Praise the Lord all ye Gentiles, and laud him all ye people.

12 And again Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now ℌ God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, ℌ ye may abound in hope through ℌ power of ℌ holy Ghost.

14 And I my self also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodnesse, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Never the lesse, brethren, I have written ℌ more boldly unto you, in some sort, as putting you in minde, because of the grace that is given to me of God

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to Gentiles, ministring the Gospel of God, that ℌ offering up of Gentiles might be accepted, being sanctified by ℌ holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore where I may glory through Christ in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient by word and deed,

19 Through mighty signes and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach ℌ gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another mans foundation:

21 But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard, shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you:

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you:

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia & Achaia to make a certain contribution for ℌ poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily, and their debtours they are. For if the Gentiles have made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure that when ake unto you, I shall come by sakeffe of the blessing of gospel of Christ.

20 Now I beseech you, breen for the Lord Jesus Christs ke, & for the love of ℣ Spirit, t ye strive together with me in r prayers to God for me, 31 That I may be delivered
m them that do not beleeve Judea, & my service which I have for Jerusalem, may be epted of the saints:
32 That I may come unto you joy by the will of God,
d may with you be refreshed.
33 Now the God of peace be h you all. Amen.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences, contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned, and avoid them.
18 For they that are such, serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly: and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.
19 For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evill.
20 And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.
21 Timotheus my work-fellow, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater my kinsmen, salute you.
22 I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.
23 Gaius mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus ℣ chamberlain of ℣ city sa-luteth you, and Quartus a brother.
24 The grace of our Lord Jesus
Christ be with you all. Amen.
25 Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, & the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery which was kept secret since the world began,
26 But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of ℣ prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith, 27 To God only wise be glory through Jesus Christ for ever.
Amen.

1 THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL the Apostle to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAul called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ, through the will of God and Sosthenes our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:

3 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ,

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge:

6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you.

7 So that ye come behinde in no gift, waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ,

8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you brethren, by the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you: but that ye be perfectly joyned together in the same mind, and in the same judgement.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul, and I of Apollo, and I of Cephas, and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius.

15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the houshold of Stephanas, besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the crosse, is to them that perish foolishnesse: but unto us which are saved, it is the power of God.

19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased the God by the foolishnesse of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Christ crucified unto the Jews a stumbling block, and unto the Greeks foolishnesse:

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishnesse of God is wiser than men: and the weakenesse of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world, to confound the wise: and God hath chosen the weak things of the world, to confound things which are mighty:

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are.

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

31 That according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

AND I brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency ney of speech, or of wisdom aring unto you the testiy of God.

I determined, not to know thing among you, save Jesus
d him crucified.
And I was with you in mities, and in fear, and in trembling.
And my speech & my preach-was not with enticing words man wisdom, but in demonration of ♀ Spirit, & of power.
That your faith should not d in the wisdom of men, but the power of God.
Howbeit, we speak wisdom
mong them that are perfect: yet wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world,
come to nought.
But we speak the wisdom of d in a mystery, even the hid-wisdom which God ordained fore the world unto our glory.
Which none of the princes this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
But as it is written, Eye hath seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them ♀ love him.
But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.
For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? Even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.
Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.
Which things also we speak, not in the words which mans wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual.
But the naturall man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them; because they are spiritually discerned.
But he that is spirituall, judgeth all things, yet himself is judged of no man.

16 For who hath known ♀ minde of ♀ Lord, ♀ he may instruct him?
But we have ♀ minde of Christ.

CHAP. III.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spirituall, but as unto carnall, even as unto babes in Christ.
2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.
3 For ye are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you envying & strife, & divisions, are ye not carnall, and walk as men?
4 For while one saith, I am of Paul, another, I am of Apollo, are ye not carnall?
5 Who then is Paul? and who is Apollo, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man.
6 I have planted, Apollo watered: but God gave the increase.
7 So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth: but God that giveth the increase.
8 Now he that planteth, & he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.
9 For we are labourers together with God: ye are Gods husbandry, ye are Gods building.
10 According to ♀ grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master builder I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.
11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.
12 Now if any man build on this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; 13 Every mans work shall be made manifest: for ♀ day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire, & ♀ fire shall try every mans work of what sort it is.
14 If any mans work abide which he hath built thereupon,
he shall receive a reward.
15 If any mans work shall be burnt, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved, yet so as by fire.
16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself: if any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness:

20 And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men, for all things are yours.

22 Whether Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come, all are yours;

23 And ye are Christs, and Christ is Gods.

CHAP. IIII.

LEt a man so account of us, as of ministers of Christ, and stewards of mysteries of God.

2 Moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithfull.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of mans judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by my self, yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, & will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to my self, & to Apollo for your sakes: that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? Now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich; ye have reigned as kings without us, and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were men appointed to death: For we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christs sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong: ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, & are buffeted, & have no certain dwelling place;

12 And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the off-scouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons, I warn you.

15 For though you have ten thousand instructers in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithfull in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAP. V.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged spoken already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath done this deed,

4 In the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ;

5 To deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 Your glorying is not good: know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore your old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice & wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle, not to company with fornicators.

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters: for then must ye needs go out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such an one no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among your selves that wicked person.

CHAP. VI.

1 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? And if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgements of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man amongst you? no not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers?

7 Now therefore, there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer your selves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, you do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived, neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankinde,

10 Nor thevers, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawfull unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawfull for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord: and the Lord for the body.

14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, & make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What, know ye not that he which is joyned to an harlot, is one body? for two (saith he) shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is joyned unto the Lord, is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication: every sin that a man doth, is without the body: but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his own body.

19 What, know ye not that your body is ‡ temple of ‡ holy Ghost, which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorifie God in your body, and in your spirit, which are Gods.

CHAP. VII.

NOw concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: it is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence; & likewise also ‡ wife unto ‡ husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud you not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give your selves to fasting and prayer, and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your Incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

7 For I would that all men were even as I my self: but every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to ‡ unmarried and widows, It is good for them, if they abide even as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry then to burn.

10 And unto ‡ married I command, yet not I, but ‡ Lord. Let not ‡ wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I not the Lord. If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean, but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbeleeving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether ‡ shalt save thy husband? or how knowest ‡, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man as ‡ Lord hath called every one, so let him walk: and so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called, being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised: is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is ‡ Lord's free-man: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christs servant.

23 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgement, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithfull.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for ‡ present distress, I say, it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned: and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned: nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short. It remaineth, that both they that have wives, be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoyce, as though they rejoyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:
33 But he that is married, careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin: the unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit:
but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that you may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she passe the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless, he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keep his virgin, doth well.

38 So then, he that giveth her in marriage doth well: but he that giveth her not in marriage, doth better.

39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth:
but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will, only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier, if she so abide, after my judgement: and I think also that I have the spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

NOw as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge.
Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And if any man think he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God,
the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, & that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many and lords many.)

6 But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit, there is not in every man that knowledge; for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour, eat it as a thing offered unto an idol, and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither if we eat, are we the better: neither if we eat not, are we the worse.

9 But take heed, lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at meat in the idols temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak, be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols?

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish for whom Christ died?

12 But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAP. IX.

AM I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not you my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you:
for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me, is this:

4 Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I only & Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not § law § same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn: doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? for our sakes no doubt this is written: § he that ploweth, should plow in hope: and § he § threshe[th] in hope: should be partaker of his hope.

11 If we have sowen unto you spiritual[l] things, is it a great thing, if we shall reap your carnall things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless, we have not used this power: but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things, live of the things of the temple? and they § wait at the altar, are partakers § the altar?

14 Even so hath the Lord ordained, that they § preach the gospel, should live of § gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things. Neither have I written these things, § it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, then § any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me, yea, wo is unto me, if I preach not the gospel.

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the Gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily, that when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in § gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made my self servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 And unto § Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews: to them that are under the law, as under the law, § I might gain them § are under the law.

21 To them that are without law, (being not without law to God, but under § law to Christ) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 To the weak became I weak, that I might gain § weak: I am made all things to all men, § I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race, run all, but one receiveth the prize? so run that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that striveth for the mastery, is temperate in all things: now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any meanes, when I have preached to others, I my self should be a cast-away.

CHAP. X.

MOreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed thorow the sea:

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in § cloud, and in § sea:

3 And did all eat the same spiritual meat:

4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: (for they drank of that spiritual Rock § followed them: and § Rock was Christ.)

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in § wilderness.

6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye Idolaters, as were some of them, as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, ℣ some of them also tempted, ℣ were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmure ye as some of them also murmured, ℣ were destroyed of ℣ destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: ℣ they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends ℣ of the world are come.

12 Wherfore let him ℣ thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fal.

13 There hath no temptation taken you, but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that you are able: but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, ℣ ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men, ℣ judge ye what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not ℣ communion of ℣ blood of Christ? ℣ bread which we break, is it not ℣ communion of the body of Christ?

17 For we being many, are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold Israel after ℣ flesh: are not they ℣ eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing? or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that ℣ things ℣ the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, & the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of ℣ Lords table and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jelousie? are we stronger then he?

23 All things are lawfull for me but all things are not expedient; all things are lawful for me, but all things edifie not.

24 Let no man seek his own: but every one another's wealth.

25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

26 For the earth is the Lords, and the fulnesse thereof.

27 If any of them ℣ beleeve not, bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go, whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake ℣ shewed it, & for conscience sake. The earth is the Lords, and the fulnesse thereof.

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the others: for why is my liberty judged of another mans conscience?

30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for ℣ I give thanks?

31 Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to ℣ Gentiles, nor to the church of God:

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAP XI.

BE ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, that you remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know ℣ the head of every man is Christ, & ℣ head of ℣ woman is ℣ man; and ℣ head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But every woman ℣ prayeth or prophesieth ℣ her head uncovered, dishonoureth her head: ℣ for that it is even all one, as if she were shaven.

6 For if ℣ woman be not covered, let her also be shorn; but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For ℣ man is not of ℣ woman: but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman: but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought ℣ woman woman to have power on her head, because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man: even so is the man also by the woman, but all things of God.

13 Judge in your selves, is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature it self teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.

16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you, I praise you not, that you come together, not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you, and I partly believe it.

19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lords supper.

21 For in eating, every one taketh before other his own supper, and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? what shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I have received of the Lord, that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat, this is my body which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye shew the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home, that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

NOw concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say, that Jesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withall.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit:

9 To another faith by the same Spirit, to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit:

10 To another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spi-

to another divers kindes of gifts: to another the interpretation of tongues.

10 But all these worketh ‡ one and self-same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

12 For as ‡ body is one, and hath many members, & all ‡ members of ‡ one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.

13 For by one spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free, and have been all made to drink into one spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were ‡ hearing? if the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of ‡ body, ‡ seem to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schisme in the body: but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all ‡ members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoyce with it.

27 Now ye are ‡ body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues?
do all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly ‡ best gifts. And yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

THough I speak with ‡ tongues of men & of angels, & have not charity, I am become as sounding brasse, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have ‡ gift of prophecie, & understand all mysteries, and all knowledge: and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, & have no charity, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, & though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kinde: charity envieth not:
charity vaunteth not it self, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave it self unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked: thinketh
no evil,

6 Rejoyceth not in iniquity,
but rejoyceth in the truth:

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesie in part.

10 But when that ‡ is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I understood as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glass darkly, but then face to face: now I know in part, but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three, but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAP. XIIII.

FOllow after charity, & desire spirituall gifts, but rather that ye may prophesie.

2 For he ℣ speaketh in an unknown tongue, speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh unto men to edification and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He ℣ speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself: but he ℣ prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather ℣ ye prophesied: for greater is he ℣ prophesieth, then he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, ℣ ℣ church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you, speaking ẅ tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life, giving sound, whether pipe, or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battell?

9 So likewise you, except ye utter by the tongue words easie to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kindes of voices in the world, and none of them are without signification.

11 Therefore, if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a Barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a Barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spirituall gifts, seek that ye may excell to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him ℣ speaketh in an unknown tongue, pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitfull.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and will pray with understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, & I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned, say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well: but ℣ other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more then you all.

19 Yet in ℣ church I had rather speak five words ẅ my understanding, ℣ by my voice I might teach others also, then ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

21 In ℣ law it is written, ẅ men of other tongues, and other lips will I speak unto this people: and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a signe, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore ℣ whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned: he is convinced of all, he is judged of all.

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation: let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.
29 Let ☩ prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.
30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.
31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.
32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to ☩ prophets.
33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.
34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted to them to speak: but they are commanded to be under obedience; as also saith the law.
35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in ☩ church.
36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?
37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write unto you, are the commandments of the Lord.
38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.
39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesie, and forbid not to speak with tongues.
40 Let all things be done decently, and in order.

CHAP. XV.

MOreover, brethren, I declare unto you ☩ gospel, which I preached unto you, ☩ also you have received, & wherein ye stand
2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
3 For I delivered unto you first of all, that ☩ I also received, how ☩ Christ died for our sins, according to ☩ scriptures:
4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day, according to the scriptures.
5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve.
6 After that he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once: of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.
7 After that he was seen of James: then of all the apostles.
8 And last of all, he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.
9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.
10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace ☩ was bestowed upon me, was not in vain: but I laboured more abundantly than they all, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
11 Therefore, whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.
12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?
13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.
14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.
15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God, because we have testified of God, ☩ he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.
16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised.
17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.
18 Then they also ☩ are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.
19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.
20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept.
21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.
22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
23 But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits, afterward they that are Christ's, at his coming.
24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have deliuered ☧ kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall haue put down all rule, and all authority & power.

25 For he must reigne till he hath put all enemies vnder his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed, is death.

27 For he hath put all things vnder his feet: but when he saith, all things are put vnder him: it is manifest, ☧ he is excepted ☧ did put all things vnder him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, then shall the Sonne also himself be subiect vnto him that put all things vnder him: that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shal they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in ieopardy euery houre?

31 I protest by your reioycing, which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men I haue fought with beasts at Ephesus: what aduantageth it me, if ☧ dead rise not? let us eat & drink, for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceiued: euill communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake to righteousnesse, and sin not: for some haue not the knowledge of God; I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say: How are the dead raised vp? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou foole, ☧ & thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare graine, it may chance of wheat, or of some other graine.

38 But God giueth it a body, as it hath pleased him: and to euery seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kinde of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestiall bodies, and bodies terrestriall: but the glory of the celestiall is one, and the glory of the terrestriall is another.

41 There is one glory of ☧ sun, another of the moon, & another glory of ☧ starres: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is ☧ resurrection of ☧ dead; it is sowen in corruption, it is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sowen in dishonour, it is raised in glory: it is sowen in weaknesse, it is raised in power.

44 It is sowen a naturall body, it is raised a spirituall body. There is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a liuing soule, the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit, that was not first which is spirituall, but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man ☧ of ☧ earth, earthy: the second man ☧ Lord from heauen.

48 As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.

49 And as we haue borne the image of the earthy, we shall also beare the image of the heauenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit ☧ kingdom of God: neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery: we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

52 In a moment, in ☧ twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpe (for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed:)

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, & this mortall must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall haue put on incorruption, & this mortall shall haue put on immortality, then shall be brought to passe the saying that is written, Death is swallowed vp in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O graue, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sinne, & the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giueth vs the victory through our Lord Iesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloued brebe ye stedfast, unmovable, abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as you know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAP. XVI.

NOw concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever you shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass thorow Macedonia: for I do pass thorow Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide with you, yea and winter with you, that you may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way, but I trust to tarry a while with you if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me. And there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren, but his will was not at all to come at this time, but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, & that they have addicted themselves to the ministery of the saints:)

16 That ye submit your selves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part, they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit & yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila & Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you: greet ye one another with an holy kisse.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

¶ The first epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, by Stephanas and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL
The apostle to the CORINTHIANS

CHAP. I.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, & Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we our selves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectuall in the enduring of the same sufferings

which

which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life.

9 But we had the sentence of death in our selves, that we should not trust in our selves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us:

11 You also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoycing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity & godly sincerity, not in fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-wards.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what you read or acknowledge; & I trust you shal acknowledge even to the end.

14 As also you have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoycing, even as ye also are ours, in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that you might have a second benefit:

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightnesse? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea, yea, and nay, nay?

18 But as God is true, our word toward you, was not yea and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me, and Sylvanus, and Timotheus, was not yea & nay, but in him was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God, 22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover, I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

CHAP. II.

BUt I determined this with my self, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same that is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoyce: having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction & anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many.

7 So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that you would confirm your love towards him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it, in the person of Christ.

11 Lest Satan should get an message of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

2 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christs gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,
3 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.
4 Now thanks be unto God, which alwayes causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.
5 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, & in them that perish.
6 To the one we are the savour of death unto death: and to the other, the savour of life unto life: and who is sufficient for these things?
7 For we are not as many, ‖ corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

CHAP. III.

DO we begin again to commend our selves? or need we (as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?
2 Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, known and read of all men.
3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministred by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshie tables of the heart.
4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:
5 Not that we are sufficient of our selves to think any thing as of our selves, but our sufficiency is of God.
6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.
7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not ste-dfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance;
which glory was to be done away.
8 How shal not § ministration of § Spirit be rather glorious?
9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousnesse exceed in glory.
10 For even that which was made glorious, had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.
11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.
12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plain-nesse of speech.
13 And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:
14 But their mindes were blinded: for untill this day, remaineth the same vail untaken away in § reading of § old testament:
‖ vail is done away in Christ.
15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.
16 Nevertheless, when it shal turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.
17 Now the Lord is that Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glasse the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

THerefore seeing we have this ministery, as we have received mercy, we faint not:
2 But have renounced § hidden things of dishonestly, not walking in craftinesse, nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of § truth, commending our selves to every mans conscience in § sight of God.
3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost.
4 In whom the God of this world hath blinded the mindes of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.
5 For we preach not our selves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, & our selves

selves your servants for Jesus sake.

6 For God who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair.

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken, cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live, are alway delivered unto death for Jesus sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, & therefore have I spoken: We also believe, and therefore speak:

14 Knowing, that he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, & shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternall weight of glory.

18 While we look not at the things which are seen: but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporall, but the things which are not seen, are eternall.

CHAP. V.

FOr we know, that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternall in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan earnestly, desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven.

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the self-same thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are alway confident, knowing that whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight.)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, & to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgement seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terrour of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God: & I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that you may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, & not in heart.

13 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us, because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live, should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are past away, behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given unto us the ministery of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them, and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are embassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us; we pray you in Christs stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin, that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

WE then as workers together with him, beseech you also, that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time: behold, now is the day of salvation)

3 Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministery be not blamed:

4 But in all things approving ourselves as ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings,

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindness, by the holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand, and on the left;

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report, as deceivers and yet true;

9 As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold we live; as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers; for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God, as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; & I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore come out from among them, & be ye separate, saith the Lord, & touch not the unclean thing; & I will receive you,

18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAP. VII.

HAving therefore these promises, (dearly beloved) let us cleanse our selves from all filthiness of flesh & spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus.

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me, so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I per-perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoyce, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold, this self-same thing that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness is wrought in you, yea, what clearing of your selves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge? in all things ye have approved your selves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed: but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilest he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him.

16 I rejoyce therefore, that I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

MOreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia.

2 How that in a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy, and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their power, (I bear record) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves.

4 Praying us with much intreaty, that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministring to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burdened:

14 But by an equality that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance may be also a supply for your want, that there may be equality;

15 As it is written, He that had gathered much, had nothing over, and he that had gathered little, had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel, throughout all the churches.

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us, with this grace which is administred by us to the glory of the same Lord, and duration of your ready minde.

4 Avoiding this that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administred by us 5 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord in the sight of men.
6 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent upon the great confidence which I have in you.
Whether any do inquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you: or our brethren be inquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.
24 Wherefore, shew ye to them, and before the churches your love, and of our boasting of you behalf.

CHAP. IX.

1 For as touching the minis-tring to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you 2 For I know the forwardness of your minde, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a yeer ago: and your zeal hath provoked very many.
3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf, that, as I said, Ye may be ready.
4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and finde you unprepared, we (that we say not, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.
5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up before hand your boun-tie, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be readie as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.
6 But this I say, He which soweth sparingly, shall reap sparingly:
and he which soweth bountifully, shall reap bountifully.
7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give, not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.
8 And God is able to make all grace abound towards you, that ye always having all sufficiency in all things may abound to every good work.
9 (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad, he hath given to the poor, his righteousness remaineth for ever.
10 Now he that ministreth seed to the sower, both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sowen, & increase the fruits of your righteousness)
11 Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.
12 For the administration of this service, not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God.
13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorifie God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men:
14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you, for the exceeding grace of God in you.
15 Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

CHAP. X.

NOw I Paul my self beseech you by the meekness, & gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold towards you:
2 But I beseech you that I may not be bold when I am present, with that confidence wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.
3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:
4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds) 5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth it self against the knowledg of God, & bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ:
6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? if any man trust to himself that he is Christs, let him of himself think this again, that as he is Christs, even so are we Christs.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority (& ℣ Lord hath given us for edification,and not for your destruction)I should not be ashamed.

9 That I may not seem,as if I would terrifie you by letters.

10 For his letters, (say they) are weighty and powerfull, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such a one think this,that such as we are in word by letters when we are absent,such will we be also indeed,when we are present

12 For we dare not make our selves of the number,or compare our selves with some that commend themselves:but they measuring themselves by themselves, & comparing themselves amongst themselves,are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure,but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not our selves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you:for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ.

15 Not boasting of things without our measure,that is,of other mens labours, but having hope, when your faith is increased, ℣ we shall be enlarged by you, according to our rule abundantly;

16 To preach ℣ gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another mans line of things made ready to our hand.

17 But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAP. XI.

WOuld to God you could bear with me a little in my folly,and indeed bear with me.

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousie: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chast virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear,lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, ℣ your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh,preacheth another Jesus,whom we have not preached,or if ye receive another spirit,which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 For I suppose,I was not a whit behinde ℣ very chiefest apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech,yet not in knowledge:but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing my self, ℣ you might be exalted,because I have preached to you ℣ gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you,& wanted, I was chargeable to no man:for that ℣ was lacking to me,℣ brethren which came from Macedonia supplied:& in all things I have kept my self from being burdensom to you, and so will I keep my self.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me,no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion:that wherein they glory,they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitfull workers,transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel;for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as ℣ ministers of righteousness: whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool: if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast my self a little.

17 That which I speak,I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly,in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seing that many glory after the flesh,I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye your selves are wise.

20 For

For ye suffer, if a man bring into bondage, if a man de-you, if a man take of you, if ns exalt himself, if a man you on the face.
I speak as concerning re-
, as though we had been ak: howbeit, wherein soever ny is bold, I speak foolishly, I bold also.
Are they Hebrews? so am
they Israelites? so am I:
they the seed of Abraham?
they ministers of Christ?
speak as a fool) I am more: in ours more abundant: in ours above measure: in prisons re frequent: in deaths oft.
Of the Jews five times re-ved I fourty stripes save one.
Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned: thrice I ffered shipwrack: a night and day I have been in the deep.
In journeying often, in pe-ls of waters, in perils robbers, in perils by mine own country-men, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren:
In weariness and painful-ness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fasting often, in cold and nakedness.
Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.
Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?
If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.
The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.
In Damascus the governour under Aretas the king, kept the city with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me.
And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

It is not expedient for me, doubtless, to glory, I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.
I knew a man in Christ above fourteen yeers ago, whether in the body, I cannot tell, or whether out of the body I cannot tell, God knoweth:
3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth) 4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.
5 Of such an one will I glory:
yet of my self I will not glory,
but in mine infirmities.
6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool: for I will say the truth. But now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.
7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.
8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.
9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.
10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.
11 I am become a fool in glorying: ye have compelled me:
for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behinde the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.
12 Truly the signes of an a-postle were wrought among you in all patience, in signes and wonders, and mighty deeds.
13 For what is it wherein ye were inferiour to other churches, except it be, that I my self was not burdensom to you? forgive me this wrong.
14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be burdensom to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend & be spent for you though the more abundantly I love you, the lesse I be loved.

16 But be it so: I did not burden you; neverthelesse, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother: did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, think you that we excuse our selves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest when I come, I shall not finde you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not, lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanesse, and fornication, and lasciviousnesse which they have committed.

CHAP. XIII.

THis is the third time I am coming to you: in the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you as if I were present the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that if I come again, I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through weaknesse, yet he liveth by the power of God: for we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examine your selves, whether ye be in the faith: prove your own selves: know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil: not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad when we are weak, and ye are strong: and also we wish, even your perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpnesse, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, & not to destruction.

11 Finally brethren, farewell, be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one minde, live in peace: and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with an holy kisse.

13 All the Saints salute you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the holy Ghost be with you all. Amen.

¶ The second epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippos in the city of Macedonia by Titus and Lucas.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE apostle to the GALATIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAul an apostle, not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead:

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia;

3 Grace be to you and peace, from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvell that you are so removed from him that ed you unto the grace of ist unto another Gospel:

7 Which is not another; but ere be some ℣ trouble you and ert the ℣ gospel of Christ.
But though we, or an an-from heaven preach any o-gospel unto you, then that we have preached unto let him be accursed.
As we said before, so say now again, If any man preach other gospel unto you than ye have received, let him cursed.
For do I now perswade men,
God? or do I seek to please
? for if I yet pleased men, I ist.
But I certifie you, brethren, ℣ gospel which was preach-of me, is not after man.
For I neither received it
, neither was I taught it,
but by revelatiō of Jesus Christ.
For ye have heard of my con-ersation in time past in the lews religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted ℣ church of God, and wasted it:
And profited in the Jews religion above many mine e-qualls in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.
But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mothers womb, & called me by his grace,
To reveal his son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and bloud:
Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them ℣ were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.
Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen dayes.
But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lords brother.
Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.
Afterwards I came into ℣ regions of Syria and Cilicia;
And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judea, which were in Christ.
But they had heard only,

that he which persecuted us in times past, now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.
24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAP. II.

Then fourteen years after, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.
2 And I went up by revelation, & communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run in vain.
3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.
4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spie out our liberty, which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage.
5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no not for an hour, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.
6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me:
God accepteth no mans person) for they who seemed to be somewhat, in conference added nothing to me.
7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter:
8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to ℣ apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me towards ℣ Gentiles)
9 And when James, Cephas, &
John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace ℣ was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.
10 Only they would that we should remember ℣ poor, ℣ same which I also was forward to do.
11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.
12 For before ℣ certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were were come, he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And ℣ other Jews dissembled likewise ℣ him, insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly, according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do ℣ Jews, why compellest thou ℣ Gentiles to live as do ℣ Jews?

15 We who are Jews by nature and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing ℣ a man is not justified by ℣ works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, ℣ we might be justified by the faith of Christ, & not by ℣ works of ℣ law: for by ℣ works of ℣ law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we our selves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For If I build again the things which I destroyed, I make my self a transgressour.

19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.

20 I am crucified with Christ: Nevertheless, I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAP. III.

O Foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, ℣ you should not obey ℣ truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain?

5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore, ℣ they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And ℣ scripture foreseeing that God would justifie ℣ heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they ℣ be of faith are blessed ℣ faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things ℣ are written in ℣ book of ℣ law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith: but the man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on tree:

14 That ℣ blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ: that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: though it be but a mans covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, and to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, ℣ ℣ covenant, ℣ was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, ℣ was four hundred & thirty years after, cannot disannul it, ℣ it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Where-

Wherefore then serveth the w was added because of gressions, til the seed should es to whom the promise was and it was ordained by an-
in the hand of a mediatour.
20 Now a mediatour is not a diatour of one, but God is one.
21 Is the law then against the mises of God? God forbid:
if there had been a law given ch could have given life, veririghteousnesse should have n by the law.
22 But the scripture hath con-ed all under sin, that the mise by faith of Jesus Christ ht be given to them that ve.
23 But before faith came, we re kept under the law, shut unto the faith which should rwards be revealed.
24 Wherefore the law was our ole-master to bring us unto rist, that we might be justifi-by faith.
25 But after that faith is me, we are no longer under a ole-master.
26 For ye are all the children
God by faith in Christ Jesus.
27 For as many of you as have en baptized into Christ, have t on Christ.
28 There is neither Jew nor ek, there is neither bond nor e, there is neither male nor ale: for ye are all one in rist Jesus.
29 And if ye be Christs, then e Abrahams seed, and heirs cording to the promise.

CHAP. IIII.

Now I say, that the heir, as long as he is a childe, difreth nothing from a servant,
ugh he be lord of all,
2 But is under tutours and go-rnours, until the time apinted of the father.
3 Even so we, when we were ildren, were in bondage under e elements of the world:
4 But when the fulnesse of the me was come, God sent forth
s Son made of a woman, made der the law,
5 To redeem them that were der the law, that we might re-ive the adoption of sons.
6 And, because ye are sons,
God hath sent forth the spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.
7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.
8 Howbeit, then when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.
9 But now after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggerly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?
10 Ye observe dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeers.
11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.
12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am: for I am as ye are, ye have not injured me at all.
13 Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh, I preached the gospel unto you at the first.
14 And my temptation which was in my flesh, ye dispised not, nor rejected, but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ
Jesus.
15 Where is then the blessednesse you spake of? for I bear you record, that if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.
16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?
17 They zealously affect you, but not well: yea, they would exclude you, that you might affect them.
18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you.
19 My little children, of whom I travell in birth again, until Christ be formed in you:
20 I desire to be present with you now, & to change my voice, for I stand in doubt of you.
21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?
22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free woman.

23 But he who was of the bond-woman, was born after the flesh: but he of the free-woman, was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But Jerusalem which is above, is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, Rejoyce, thou barren, that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travellest not, for the desolate hath many moe children then she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the spirit; even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless, what saith the scripture? Cast out the bond-woman and her son; for the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, but of the free.

CHAP. V.

STand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, & be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testifie again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law: ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye did run well, who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This perswasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that you will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you, shall bear his judgement, whosoever he be.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the crosse ceased.

12 I would they were even cut off which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty: onely use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walk in the spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other, so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led of the spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strifes, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christs have crucified the flesh, with the affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the spirit, let us also walk in the spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAP.

CHAP. VI.

BRethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spirituall restore such an one in the spirit of meeknesse, considering thy self, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Bear ye one anothers burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoycing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, communicate unto him that teacheth, in all good things.

7 Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the spirit, shall of the spirit reap everlasting.

9 And let us not be weary in well doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the houshold of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised: only lest they should suffer persecution for the crosse of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised, keep the law, but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the crosse of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ Unto the Galatians, written from Rome.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE apostle to the EPHESIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithfull in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spirituall blessings in heavenly places in Christ:

4 According as he hath chosen us in him, before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love:

5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ, to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved.

7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence:

9 Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed in himself;

10 That in the dispensation of the fulnesse of times, he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth, even in him;

11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him, who worketh all things after the counsell of his own will:

12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.
13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise; 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, until the redemption of the purchased possession unto the praise of his glory.
15 Wherefore I also after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all ¶ saints, 16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;
17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, in the knowledge of him:
18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what ¶ the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints:
19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power:
20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, & set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, 21 Far above all principality and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:
22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to ¶ church, 23 Which is his body, the ful-ness of him that filleth all in all.

CHAP. II.

AND you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;
2 Wherein in time past ye walked, according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience, 3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past, in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh, and of the minde, and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.
4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us;
5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) 6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:
7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace, in his kindness towards us, through Christ Jesus.
8 For by grace are ye saved, through faith, and ¶ not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:
9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.
10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained, that we should walk in them:
11 Wherefore remember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called uncircumcision by that which is called the circumcision in the flesh made by hands;
12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the common-wealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.
13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off, are made nigh by ¶ blood of Christ.
14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us:
15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments, contained in ordinances, for to make in himself of twain, one new man, so making peace;
16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby.
17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.
18 For through him we both have an access by one Spirit unto the Father.
19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers, and foreigners,
but fellow-citizens with the saints, & of ȳ houshold of God: 20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone, 21 In whom all the building fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in ȳ Lord:

22 In whom you also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

FOr this cause, I Paul the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,
2 If ye have heard of ȳ dispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to you-ward.
3 How that by revelation he made known unto me ȳ mystery, (as I wrote afore in few words,
4 Whereby when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ,) 5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the spirit, 6 That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:
7 Whereof I was made a minister according to ȳ gift of the grace of God given unto me, by ȳ effectuall working of his power.
8 Unto me, who am less then least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ:
9 And to make all men see, what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things
by Jesus Christ:
10 To the intent that now unto ȳ principalities & powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God;
11 According to the eternall purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:
12 In whom we have boldnesse and accesse, with confidence by the faith of him.
13 Wherefore I desire, that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.
14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
15 Of whom ȳ whole family in heaven and earth is named, 15 That he would grant you according to ȳ riches of his glory, to be strengthened ✠ might by his spirit in the inner man.
17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, that ye being rooted & grounded in love, 18 May be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height:
19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulnesse of God.
20 Now unto him ȳ is able to do exceeding abundantly above all ȳ we ask or think, according to ȳ power that worketh in us, 21 Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end, amen

CHAP. IIII.

I Therefore ȳ prisoner of the Lord, beseech you, ȳ ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,
2 With all lowlinesse & meeknesse, with long suffering, forbearing one another in love;
3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace.
4 There is one body, and one spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling.
5 One Lord, one faith, one baptisme.
6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.
7 But unto every one of us is given grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.
9 (Now that he ascended,
what is it, but that he also descended first into ȳ lower parts of the earth?
10 He that descended, is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things) 11 And he gave some, apostles, and some, prophets, and some, evangelists, and some, pastours, and teachers:

12 For ỹ perfecting of ỹ saints, for ỹ work of ỹ ministery, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come in ỹ unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of ỹ Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto ỹ measure of ỹ stature of ỹ fulnesse of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every winde of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftinesse, whereby they lie in wait to deceive:

15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16 From whom the whole body, fitly joyned together, and compacted by that which every joynt supplieth, according to the effectuall working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body, unto the edifying of it self in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testifie in the Lord, ỹ we henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in ỹ vanity of their minde,

18 Having the understanding darkned, being alienated from the life of God, through ỹ ignorance that is in them, because of the blindnesse of their heart:

19 Who being past feeling, have given themselves over unto lasciviousnesse, to work all uncleanesse with greedinesse.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ:

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Iesus,

22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitfull lusts;

23 And be renewed in the spirit of your minde?

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousnesse and true holinesse.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members, one of another.

26 Be ye angry, and sin not, let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 Neither give place to ỹ devil.

28 Let him that stole, steal no more, but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing, which is good, that he may have to give to him ỹ needeth.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, ỹ it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto ỹ day of redemption.

31 Let all bitternesse, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice.

32 And be ye kinde one to another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christs sake hath forgiven you.

CHAP. V.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as deer children.

2 And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour.

3 But fornication, and all uncleannesse, or covetousnesse, let it not be once named amongst you, as becometh saints:

4 Neither filthinesse, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, ỹ no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ, and of God.

6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh ỹ wrath of God upon ỹ children of disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 For ye were sometimes darkenesse, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light:

9 (For the fruit of the spirit is in all goodnesse, and righteousnesse, and truth)

10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord:

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitfull works of darknesse, darkness, but rather reprove them 12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things that are re-proved, are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest, is light.
14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.
15 See then ỹ ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 Redeeming the time, because the dayes are evil.
17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.
18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excesse, but be filled with the Spirit:
19 Speaking to your selves in psalms and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melodie in your heart to the Lord.
20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God, and the Father, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ,
21 Submitting your selves one to another in the fear of God.
22 Wives, submit your selves unto your own husbands, as unto
the Lord.
23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the churchand he is the Saviour of the body.
24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.
25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church and gave himself for it:
26 That he might sanctifie and cleanse it with the washing of water, by the word, 27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy and without blemish.
28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies:
he that loveth his wife, loveth himself.
29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh: but nourisheth it, and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:
30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, & of his bones.
31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joyned unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.
32 This is a great mystery:
but I speak concerning Christ and the church.
33 Neverth lesse, let every one of you in particular so love his wife, even as himself, and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAP. VI.

1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
2 Honour thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise) 3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.
4 And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singlenesse of your heart, as unto Christ:
6 Not with eye service, as men pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart:
7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, & not to men:
8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.
9 And ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbear-ing threatening, knowing that your master also is in heaven, neither is there respect of persons with him.
10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.
11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devill.
12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkenesse of this world, against spirituall wickednesse in high places.
13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loinsgirt about with truth, and having on the brest-plate of righteousnesse;

15 And your feet shod with the preparation of ℣ gospel of peace.

16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is ℣ word of God:

18 Praying alwaies with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance, and supplication for all saints,

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel:

20 For ℣ I am an embassadour in bonds; ℣ therein I may speak boldly as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychichus a beloved brother, and faithfull minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and ℣ he might comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love, ℣ faith from God the Father, and ℣ Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

¶ Written from Rome unto the Ephesians, by Tychicus.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE apostle to the PHILIPPIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAul and Timotheus ℣ servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus, which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all, making request with joy,

5 For your fellowship in the gospel, ℣ first day until now:

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; in as much as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all, in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgement:

10 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere, and without offence, till the day of Christ,

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousnesse, which are by Jesus Christ unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that ℣ things which happened unto me, have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places.

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envie and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to adde affliction to my bonds.

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached, and I therein do rejoyce, yea, and will rejoyce.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation, through your your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed: but that with all boldnesse, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is fruit of my labour: yet what I shall chuse, I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is far better.

24 Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide & continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy of faith.

26 That your rejoycing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me, by my coming to you again.

27 Onely let your conversation be as it becometh ȳ gospel of Christ, ȳ whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one minde, striving together for the faith of the gospel,

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries, which is to them an evident token of perdition: but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not onely to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake:

30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAP. II.

If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels & mercies:

2 Fulfill ye my joy, that ye be like minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one minde.

3 Let nothing be done through strife, or vain-glory, but in lowliness of minde let each esteem other better then themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this minde be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equall with God:

7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likenesse of men.

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the crosse.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth:

11 And that every tongue should confesse that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but now much more in my absence: work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both to will, and to do, of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:

15 That ye may be blamelesse and harmlesse, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the mids of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world:

16 Holding forth the word of life, ȳ I may rejoyce in ȳ day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy and rejoyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoyce with me.

19 But I trust in ȳ Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort when I know your state.

20 For I have no man like minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things & are Jesus Christs.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But I trust in the Lord, that I also my self shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus my brother, and companion in labour, and fellow souldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heavinesse, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death, but God had mercy on him: and not on him onely, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore § more carefully, that when ye see him again, ye may rejoyce, and that I may be the lesse sorrowfull.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and hold such in reputation:

30 Because for § work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAP. III.

FInally, my brethren, rejoyce in § Lord. To write § same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoyce in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more.

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of § tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews, as touching the law, a Pharisee:

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church: touching the righteousnesse which is in the law, blameles.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted losse for Christ.

8 Yea doubtlesse, and I count all things but losse for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the losse of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousnesse, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousnesse which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death,

11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my self to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behinde, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I presse toward the mark for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us minde the same thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so, as ye have us for ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the crosse of Christ:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who minde earthly things)

20 For our conversation is in heaven, where, from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ;

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved, & longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same minde in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yoke fellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoyce in the Lord alway: and again, I say, Rejoyce.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be carefull for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and mindes through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report: if there be any vertue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, & seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoyced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again, wherein ye were also carefull, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want, for I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where, and in all things I am instructed, both to be full, and to be hungry, both to abound, and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding, ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now, ye Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me, as concerning giving, and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God.

19 But my God shall supply all your need, according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now unto God, & our Father, be glory for ever & ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus: the brethren which are with me, greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Cesars household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

¶ It was written to the Philippians from Rome, by Epaphroditus.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE apostle to the COLOSSIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, & Timotheus our brother,

2 To the saints and faithfull brethren in Christ, which are at Colosse: grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying alwayes for you,

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all ℣ saints:

5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven: whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel,
6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; & bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth
7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:
8 Who also declared unto us your love in the spirit.
9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will, in all wisdom and spirituall understanding:
10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitfull in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God:
11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience, and long-suffering with joyfulnesse:
12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:
13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darknesse, and hath translated us into ℣ kingdom of his dear Son, 14 In whom we have redemption through his blood: even the forgivenesse of sins:
15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature.
16 For by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible, and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him.
17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.
18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in all things he might have the preeminence:
19 For it pleased the Father ℣ in him should all fulnes dwell.
20 And, (having made peace through the blood of his cross) ℣ by him to reconcile all things unto himself, by him, ℣ say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven,
21 And you that were some-times alienated, and enemies in your minde by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled,
22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy, and unblameable, and unreproveable in his sight:
23 If ye continue in the faith grounded & settled, & be not moved away from ℣ hope of ℣ gospel, which ye have heard, and ℣ was preached to every creature ℣ is under heaven, whereof I Paul am made a minister;
24 Who now rejoyce in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behinde of ℣ affliations of Christ in my flesh for his bodies sake, which is the church,
25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God, which is given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God:
26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages, & from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints,
27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:
28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus.
29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, ℣ worketh in me mightily.

CHAP. II.

FOr I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh:
2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ,
3 In whom are hid all ℣ treasures of wisdom & knowledge,

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words:
5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying, and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.
6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him;
7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.
8 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy & vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ: 9 For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.
10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power.
11 In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ:
12 Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.
13 And you being dead in your sins, and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses, 14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross:
15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.
16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holy day, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:
17 Which are a shadow of things to come, but the body is of Christ.
18 Let no man beguile you of your reward, in a voluntary humility, and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind; 19 And not holding the head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministred, & knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.
20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why as though living in the world,
are ye subject to ordinances?
21 (Touch not, taste not, handle not:
22 Which all are to perish with the using) after the commandments and doctrines of men.
23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will-worship, & humility, and neglecting of the body, not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAP. III.

IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God:
2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.
3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.
4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.
5 Mortifie therefore your members which are upon the earth, fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:
6 For which things sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience.
7 In the which ye also walked sometime, when ye lived in them.
8 But now you also put off all these, anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.
9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds:
10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge, after the image of him that created him:
11 Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.
12 Put on therefore (as elect of God, holy & beloved) bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering.
13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man

man have a quarrell against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body: and be ye thankfull.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wisdom, teaching, and admonishing one another in psalmes, & hymns, & spirituall sorgs, singing with grace in your hearts to ℣ Lord.

17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in ℣ Name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 Wives, submit your selves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be nor bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 Servants obey in all things your masters according to the flesh: not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in singlenesse of heart, fearing God.

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men:

24 Knowing that of the Lord, ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doth wrong, shal receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

CHAP. IIII.

Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equall, knowing that ye also have a master in heaven.

2 Continue in prayer, & watch in the same with thanksgiving:

3 Withall, praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest as I ought to speak.

5 Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 All my state shal Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, & a faithfull minister and fellow servant in the Lord:

8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts.

9 With Onesimus, a faithfull and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

10 Aristarchus my fellow prisoner salutes you, and Marke sister son to Barnabas (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him.)

11 And Jesus which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These onely are my fellow workers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.

12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, salutes you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and compleat in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.

14 Luke the beloved physician, and Demas greet you.

15 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house.

16 And when this epistle is read amongst you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans, and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.

17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministery which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it.

18 The salutation by ℣ hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

¶ THE

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAVL
the apostle to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

Paul and Sylvanus and Timotheus unto the church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord
Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers,

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God, & our Father:

4 Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.

5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad: so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God,

10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from & wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

1 For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain.

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you & gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness, God is witness:

6 Nor of men sought we glory: neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as & apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travel: For labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and justly, and unblamably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As you know, how we exhorted, and comforted, and charged every one of you (as a father doth his children)

12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as & word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye brethren became followers of & churches of God, which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrey-men; even as they have of the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us: and they please pleasse not God, and are contrary to all men:

15 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for ỹ wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you (even I Paul) once and again: but Satan hindered us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoycing? are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory & joy.

CHAP. III.

WHerefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone,

2 And sent Timotheus our brother, & minister of God, and fellow-labourer in ỹ gospel of Christ, to establish you, & to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions, for your selves know ỹ we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before, ỹ we should suffer tribulation, even as it came to passe & ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means ỹ tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

6 But now, when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you, in all our affliction & distress by your faith

8 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God,

10 Night and day praying exceedingly, that we might see your face, & might perfect which is lacking in your faith.

11 Now God himself, and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ direct our way unto you.

12 And ỹ Lord make you to increase & abound in love one towards another, & towards men, even as we do towards you:

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

CHAP. IIII.

FUrthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk, and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by ỹ Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possesse his vessel in sanctification and honour:

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter, because ỹ ỹ Lord is ỹ avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you, and testified:

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

8 He therefore ỹ despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, ye need not ỹ I write unto you: for ye your selves are taught of God, to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it towards all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more:

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, & to work with your own hands (as we commanded you)

12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, & ỹ ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not even as others which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died, and rose again; even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: & the dead in Christ shall rise first.

17 Then we which are alive & remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air: & so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

CHAP. V.

1 Of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For your selves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say,
Peace & safety: then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others: but let us watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep, sleep in the night, & they that be drunk-ken, are drunken in the night.

8 But we, who are of the day, let us be sober, putting on the breast-plate of faith and love, & for a helmet the hope of salvation.

9 For God hath not appointed us to wrath: but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

10 Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore comfort your selves together, and edifie one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you:

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their works sake, and be at peace among your selves.

14 Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

15 See that none render evil for evil unto any man: but ever follow that which is good, both among your selves, and to all men.

16 Rejoyce evermore.

17 Pray without ceasing.

18 In every thing give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

19 Quench not the spirit.

20 Despise not prophecyings.

21 Prove all things: hold fast that which is good.

22 Abstain from all appearance of evil.

23 And the very God of peace sanc-tifie you wholly: & I pray God your whole spirit, & soul, and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Faithfull is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

25 Brethren, pray for us.

26 Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss.

27 I charge you by the Lord, that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.

28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

¶ The first epistle unto the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE apostle to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul and Sylvanus, & Ti-motheus unto the church of the Thessalonians, In God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ,

2 Grace unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet,

meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, & the charity of every one of you all towards each other aboundeth:

4 So that we our selves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye indure:

5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you:

7 And to you who are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

8 In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ,

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power:

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe, (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:

12 That the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him: according to the grace of our God, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAP. II.

NOw we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition,

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he, as God, sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work; only he who now letteth, will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

9 Even him whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all power, and signes, and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish: because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned, who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught whether by word, or our epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, & God even our Father, which hath loved us, & hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAP. III.

FInally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be dorned as it is with you.

And that we may be deli-ed from unreasonable and ked men, for all men have faith.
But the Lord is faithfull, ho shall stablish you, and keep m evill.
And we have confidence in e Lord touching you, that ye th and will do the things which we command you.
And the Lord direct your arts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.
Now we command you, bre-
n, in the Name of our Lord sus Christ, that ye withdraw urselves from every brother at walketh disorderly, and t after the tradition which y received of us.
For your selves know how ye ought to follow us: for we ed not our selves disorderly among you.
Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought: but rought with labour & travell night and day, that we might not chargeable to any of you.
Not because we have not power, but to make our selves an ensample unto you to follow us.
For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.
For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busie-bodies.
Now them that are such we command, and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.
But ye brethren, be not weary in well doing.
And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.
Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.
Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always, by all means. The Lord be with you all.
The salutation of Paul with mine one hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.
The grace of our Lord Jesus
Christ be with you all. Amen.
The second epistle to the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL the apostle to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

Paul an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Saviour, & Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope,
Unto Timothy my own son in faith: Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father, and Jesus Christ our Lord.
As I besought thee to abide at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou might-est charge some that they teach no other doctrine:
Neither give heed to fables & endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather then godly edifying which is in the faith so do.
Now the end of the commandment is charity, out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned.
6 From which some having swerved, have turned aside unto vain jangling,
7 Desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.
8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully.
9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and prophane, for murtherers of fathers, and murtherers of mothers, for man-slayers, 10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankinde, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, & if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine.
11 According to the glorious gospel

gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me: for that he counted me faithfull, putting me into the ministery, 13 Who was before a blasphemer, & a persecutour, and injurious. But I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly, in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant, with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithfull saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long suffering, for a pattern to them & should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto the king eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour, and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare,

19 Holding faith and a good conscience, which some having put away, concerning faith have made shipwrack;

20 Of whom is Hymeneus and Alexander, whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAP. II.

I Exhort therefore, that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men:

2 For kings, and for all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour,

4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one Mediatour between God and men, the man Christ Jesus.

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not) a teacher of the Gentiles, in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up pure hands, without wrath & doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety, not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array,

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve:

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding, she shall be saved in child bearing, if they continue in faith & charity, & holiness with sobriety.

CHAP. III.

THis is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;

3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre, but patient, not a brawler, not covetous.

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity:

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without, lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre,

9 Holding the mystery of the in a pure conscience.

And let these also first be tried, then let them use the office a deacon, being found blameless.
Even so must their wives be honest, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.
Let deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.
For they that have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.
These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly.
But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou ought est to behave thy self in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.
And without controversie, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

CHAP. IIII.

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits,
and doctrines of devils;
Speaking lies in hypocrisie, having their conscience seared with a hot iron.
Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.
For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:
For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.
If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.
But refuse profane and old wives fables, and exercise thy self rather unto godliness.
For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is,
and of that which is to come.
This is a faithful saying,
and worthy of all acceptation:
For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.
These things command and teach.
Let no man despise thy youth: but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.
Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.
Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecie, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.
Meditate upon these things;
give thy self wholly to them;
that thy profiting may appear to all.
Take heed unto thy self, and unto the doctrine: continue in them: for in doing this, thou shalt both save thy self, and them that hear thee.

CHAP. V.

Rebuke not an elder, but in-treat him as a father, and the younger men as brethren:
The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.
Honour widowes that are widowes indeed.
But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.
Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplícations and prayers night and day.
But she that liveth in pleasure, is dead while she liveth.
And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.
But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be taken into the number, under threescore yeers old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works, if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints feet, if she have relieved & assisted, if she have diligently followed every good work;

11 But the younger widowes refuse; for when they have begun to wax wanton they will marry,

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And withall they learn to be idle, wandring about from house to house; and not only idle, but tatlers also, and busiebodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged, that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn: & the labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses.

20 Them that sin, rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other mens sins. Keep thy self pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomachs sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 Some mens sins are beforehand, going before to judgement: and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also, the good works of some are manifest beforehand, and they that are otherwise, cannot be hid.

CHAP. VI.

1 LEt as many servants as are under the yoke, count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the Name of God, and doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren, but rather do them service, because they are faithful & beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach & exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions, and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evill surmisings,

5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thy self.

6 But godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.

9 But they that will be rich fall into temptation, & a snare, and into many foolish and hurtfull lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10 For the love of money is the root of all evill, which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrowes.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called,

and professed a good pro-before many witnesses.

I give thee charge in the
of God, who quickeneth all and before Christ Jesus, bore Pontius Pilate wit-
good confession;
That thou keep this comment without spot, unre-mmill the appearing of Jesus Christ.
which in his times he shall is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science, falsly so called:

have erred concerning the faith.
Grace be with thee. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

Paul an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Jesus, 2 To Timothy my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and Christ Jesus our Lord.
3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;
4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindfull of thy tears,
that I may be filled with joy:
5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice, and I am perswaded that in thee also.
6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee, by the putting on of my hands.
7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.
8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel, according to the power of God.
9 Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began.
10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light, through the gospel:
11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.
12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless,
I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have beleeved, and I am perswaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.
13 Hold fast the form of sound words which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
14 That good thing which was committed unto thee, keep by the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in us.
15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned away from me, of whom are Phygellus, and Hermogenes.
16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus, for he oft

oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain.

17 But when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him, that he may finde mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

THou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore indure hardnesse, as a good souldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 The husbandman that laboureth, must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say, and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead, according to my gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an evil doer, even unto bonds: but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I indure all things for the elects sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

11 It is a faithful saying: for If we be dead with him, we shall also live with him.

12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us.

13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithfull, he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord, that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thy self approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But shun profane and vain babblings, for they will increase unto more ungodlinesse.

17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already, and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless, the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ, depart from iniquity.

20 But in a great house there are not onely vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth: and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the masters use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousnesse, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,

25 In meekenesse instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth,

26 And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devill, who are taken captive by him at his will.

CHAP. III.

THis know also, that in the last dayes perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankfull, unholy,

3 Without naturall affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers those that are good, 4 Traitours, heady, high-lovers of pleasures, more lovers of God,

5 Having a form of godlinesse denying the power thereof:
such turn away.
6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, & lead captive silly women, laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, 7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.
9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was.
10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering,
charity, patience, 11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra, what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.
12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.
13 But evill men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.
14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them:
15 And that from a childe thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus.
16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousnesse, 17 That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.

CHAP. IIII.

I Charge thee therefore before
God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing, and his Kingdom:
2 Preach the word, be instant in season, out of season, reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.
3 For the time will come when they will not indure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears:
4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.
5 But watch thou in all things, indure afflictions, do the work of an Evangelist, make full proof of thy ministery.
6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.
7 I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.
8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousnes, which the Lord the righteous judge shall give me at that day: & not to me onely, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me.
10 For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica: Crescens to Galatia: Titus unto Dalmatia.
11 Onely Luke is with me.
Take Marke and bring him with thee; for he is profitable to me for the ministery.
12 And Tychicus, have I sent to Ephesus.
13 The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest bring with thee & the books, but especially the parchments.
14 Alexander the copper-smith did me much evil, the Lord reward him according to his works:
15 Of whom be thou ware also, for he hath greatly withstood our words.
16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God, that it may not be laid to their charge, 17 Notwithstanding, the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me, that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lions.
18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

20 Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

¶ The second epistle unto Timotheus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Ephesians, was written from Rome, when Paul was brought before Nero the second time.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;

2 In hope of eternal life, which God that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To Titus mine own son after the common faith: grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city as I had appointed thee.

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers, and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucres sake.

12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slow-bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

15 Unto the pure all things are pure, but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure: but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober-minded.

7 In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort

Subject servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things, not answering again:
2 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared unto all men,

12 Teaching us, that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world;

13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ,

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purifie unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority.
Let no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work.

2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we our selves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour towards man appeared:

5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the holy Ghost,

6 Which he shed on us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour:

7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eter-nall life.

8 This is a faithfull saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have beleeved in God might be carefull to maintain good works.
These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law: for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is an heretick, after the first and second admo-nition, reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such, is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitfull.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

¶ It was written to Titus ordained the first bishop of the Church of the Cretians, from Nicopolis of Macedonia.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

1 A prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellow-labourer,

2 And to our beloved Ap-phia, and Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in thine house:

3 Grace to you, and peace from God our father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing of thy love, and faith which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effec-tuall, by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore though I might be much bold in Christ, to enjoyn thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for loves sake, I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds.

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him that is mine own bowels.

13 Whom I would have retained with me: that in thy stead he might have ministred unto me in the bonds of the gospel.

14 But without thy minde would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

¶ 15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever:

16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as my self.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that to mine account.

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee, how thou owest unto me even thine own self beside:

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord, refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more then I say.

22 But withall prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus:

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas my fellow-labourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ Written from Rome to Philemon by Onesimus a servant.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE apostle to the HEBREWS.

CHAP. I.

GOd who at sundry times, and in divers manners spake in time past unto § fathers by § prophets,

2 Hath in these last dayes spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made § worlds.

3 Who being the brightnesse of his glory, and the expresse image of his person, and upholding all things by § word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the majesty on high,

4 Being made so much better then the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent Name then they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father: and he shall be to me a Son.

6 And again, when he bringeth in the first begotten into the world, he saith, and let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto § Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity, therefore God, even thy God hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the works of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou remainest: and they all shall wax old as doth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed:

angels, but thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not fail.

12 And to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, untill I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministring spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

CHAP. II.

Therefore we ought to give ☞ more earnest heed to the things we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 For if ☞ word spoken by angels was stedfast, & every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward.

3 How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him:

4 God also bearing them witness both with signes, and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection ☞ world to come, whereof we speak:

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, what is man, that thou art mindeful of him, or the son of man, that ☞ visitest him.

7 Thou madest him a little lower then the angels; thou crownest him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands.

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jesus who was made a little lower then ☞ angels, for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour, that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he ☞ sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified, are all one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, I will declare thy Name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him: and again, Behold I, and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as ☞ children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same, that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil:

15 And deliver them, who through fear of death, were all their life time subject to bondage.

16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels: but he took on him ☞ seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest, in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For in ☞ he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them ☞ are tempted.

CHAP. III.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the apostle and high priest of our profession, Christ Jesus,

2 Who was faithfull to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory then Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour then the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man: but he that built all things, is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithfull in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after.

6 But Christ as a son over his own house, whose house are we if we hold fast the confidence, and the reioycing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherfore as ☞ holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wildernesse:
9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works fourty yeers.
10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway erre in their hearts, and they have not known my wayes.
11 So I sware in my wrath: They shal not enter into my rest.
12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.
13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called, To day, lest any of you be hardened through ℣ deceitfulnesse of sin.
14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold ℣ beginning of our confidence stedfast unto ℣ end
15 While it is said, To day If ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.
16 For some when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all ℣ came out of Egypt by Moses 17 But with whom was he grieved fourty yeers? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wildernesse?
18 And to whom ℣ sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them ℣ beleeved not?
19 So we see that they could not enter in, because of unbelief.

CHAP. IIII.

Let us therefore fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.
2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them ℣ heard it.
3 For we ℣ have beleeved, do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest, although the works were finished from the foundation of the world:
4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day, on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.
5 And in this place again; If they shall enter into my rest.
6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached, entered not in, because of unbelief;
7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.
9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.
10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.
11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.
12 For the word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joynts and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.
14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.
15 For we have not an high priest, which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.
16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAP. V.

For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:
2 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, & on them that are out of the way, for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

...for the people, so also ...himself, to offer for sins.
...And no man taketh this ...honour unto himself, but he that ...called of God, as was Aaron.
...So also Christ glorified not ...himself, to be made an high ...priest; but he that said unto
...him, Thou art my Son, to day
...have begotten thee.
...As he saith also in another ...place, Thou art a priest for ever
...after the order of Melchisedec.
...Who in the days of his ...prayers and supplications, with ...strong crying and tears unto

...him that was able to save him from ...death, was heard in that he feared.
...Though he were a Son, yet
...learned he obedience by the ...things which he suffered:
...And being made perfect, he ...became the author of eternal
...salvation unto all them that
...obey him.
...Called of God an high priest
...after the order of Melchisedec.

...For when for the time ye
...ought to be teachers, ye have

...For every one that useth
...milk is unskilful in the word

...But strong meat belongeth

CHAP. VI.

...Therefore leaving the princi...ples of the doctrine of Christ,
...let us go on unto perfection; not ...laying again the foundation of ...repentance from dead works,
...and of faith toward God,
...Of the doctrine of Baptisms,
...and of laying on of hands, and
...of resurrection of the dead, and
...of eternal judgement.
...And this will we do, if God
...permit.
...For it is impossible for those ...who were once enlightened, and
...have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the power of the world to come;
6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucifie to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.
7 For the earth which drink-eth in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:
8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.
9 But, beloved, we are perswaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.
10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his Name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.
11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope unto the end:
12 That ye be not slothfull, but followers of them, who through faith and patience inherit the promises.
13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself,
14 Saying, Surely, blessing, I will blesse thee, and multiplying, I will multiply thee.
15 And so after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.
16 For men verily swear by the greater, and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.
17 Wherein God willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsell, confirmed it by an oath:
18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us.

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the vail,

20 Whither the fore-runner is for us entred: even Iesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAP. VII.

FOr this Melchisedec king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him:

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all: first, being by interpretation king of righteousnesse, and after ỹ also king of Salem, ỹ is, king of peace

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of dayes, nor end of life: but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoiles.

5 And verily, they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of ỹ priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he, whose descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Abraham: and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction, ỹ lesse is blessed of ỹ better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes: but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham:

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after ỹ order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Judah, of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made not after the law of a carnall commandment, but after the power of an endlesse life.

17 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before, for the weaknesse and unprofitablenesse thereof:

19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did: by the which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And in as much as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made without an oath: but this with an oath, by him ỹ said unto him, The Lord ỹ ware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec)

22 By so much was Iesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue, by reason of death.

24 But this man because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmlesse, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then ỹ heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sinnes, and then for the peoples: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For ỹ law maketh men high priests,

Christ priesthood.

...ebr have infirmity, but the ...ord of ☧ oath, which was since ...w, maketh the Son who is ...onsecrated for evermore.

CHAP. VIII.

Of the things which we ☧ have spoken, this is ☧ sum: ...e have such an high priest, who ...t on the right hand of the ...one of the majesty in the ...avens:

2 A minister of ☧ sanctuary, ...nd of ☧ true tabernacle, which ...e Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is or...ained to offer gifts and sacrifi...: wherefore it is of necessi...at this man have somewhat ...o offer.

4 For if he were on earth he ...ould not be a priest, seeing that ...ere are priests that offer gifts ...ording to the law:

5 Who serve unto the exam...and shadow of heavenly things, ...s Moses was admonished of ...d, when he was about to make ...e tabernacle. For see (saith he) ...at thou make all things accor...g to the pattern shewed to ...e in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a ...re excellent ministery, by how ...uch also he is ☧ mediatour of a ...tter covenant, which was estab...shed upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had ...en faultless, then should no ...place have been sought for the ...cond.

8 For finding fault ☧ them, ...th Behold, the dayes come ...th Lord) when I will make ...e new covenant with the house ...Israel, and ☧ house of Judah,

9 Not according to the cove...nant that I made with their fa...thers in the day when I took ...them by the hand to lead them ...out ☧ land of Egypt, because ...they continued not in my cove...nant, and I regarded them not, ...saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant ...that I will make with the house ...of Israel after those dayes, saith ...the Lord, I will put my laws in...to their minde, and write them ...in their hearts: and I will be ...to them a God, and they shall ...be to me a people.

11 And they shal not teach eve-ry man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shal know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousnesse, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In ☧ he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old, is ready to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

THen verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a tabernacle made, the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread, which is called the sanctuary.

3 And after the second vail, the tabernacle, which is called the holiest of all.

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant, overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aarons rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant.

5 And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercy seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, ☧ priests went alwayes into ☧ first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone, once every yeer, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errours of the people.

8 The holy Ghost this signifying; that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for ☧ time, then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience,

10 Which stood only in meats, and drinks, and divers washings, and carnall ordinances imposed on them untill the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high

Priest of good things to come, by a great & more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands: that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither by ℣ blood of goats and calves: but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternall redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls, and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternall Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works, to serve the living God?

15 And for this cause he is the Mediatour of ℣ new testament: that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testatour.

17 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all, whilest the testatour liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first Testament was dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all ℣ people, according to ℣ law, he took the blood of calves, & of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoyned unto you.

21 Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministery.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood: and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves, with better sacrifices then these.

24 For Christ is not entered into ℣ holy places made with hands, ẅ are the figures of the true, but into heaven it self, now to appear in ℣ presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy places every yeer, with blood of others:

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgement:

28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many, and unto them that look for him, shall he appear ℣ second time, without sin, unto salvation.

CHAP. X.

FOr the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of ℣ things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered yeer by yeer continually, make the comers thereunto perfect:

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged, should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every yeer.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into ℣ world, he saith, Sacrifice & offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure:

7 Then said I, Lo, I come, (In the volume of the book it is written of me:) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt-offerings, and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein, which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will (O God:) he taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By

19 By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins.

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having an high priest over the house of God:

22 Let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, & our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering, (for he is faithful that promised)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love, and to good works:

25 Not forsaking § assembling of our selves together, as § manner of some is, but exhorting one another, and so much the more,
as ye see the day approaching.

26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received § knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgement, and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He that despised Moses' law, died without mercy, under two or three witnesses.

29 Of how much sorer punishment suppose ye shall he thought worthy, who hath troden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, & hath done despite unto § spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord: and again, The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fearfull thing to fall into § hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former dayes, in which after ye were illuminated, ye indured a great fight of afflictions,

33 Partly whilest ye were made a gazing stock both by reproaches, and afflictions; & partly whilest ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in your selves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For ye have need of patience, that after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

37 For yet a little while, and he that shall come, will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the just shall live by faith; but if any shall draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition;
but of them that believe, to the saving of the soul.

CHAP. XI.

NOw faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that

that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen, were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice then Kain, by which he obtained witnesse that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it, he being dead, yet speaketh.

5 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death, and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation, he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him; for he ℣ cometh to God, must believe ℣ he is and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith Noe, being warned of God, of things not seen as yet, moved with feare, prepared an ark to ℣ saving of his house, by the which he condemned the world, & became heir of ℣ righteousnesse which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed, and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also Sara her self received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a childe, when she was past age, because she judged him faithfull who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, & him as good as dead, ℣ many as ℣ stars of the skie in multitude, & as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were perswaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers, & pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they ℣ say such things, declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindefull of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned:

16 But now they desire a better country, ℣ is an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac, & he that had received the promises, offered up his onely begotten son,

18 Of whom it was said, that In Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead: from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob, and Esau, concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying blessed both the sons of Joseph, and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three moneths of his parents, because they saw he was a proper childe, & they not afraid of ℣ kings commandment.

24 By faith Moses, when he was come to yeers, refused to be called the son of Pharaohs daughter,

25 Chusing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, then to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season:

26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches then the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he indured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith he kept the passeover and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born should touch them.

29 By faith they passed through ℣ Red-sea as by dry land:

which

despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that indured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your mindes.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto bloo', striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation, which speaketh unto you as unto children. My sons, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loveth, he chastene h, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye indure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he, whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few dayes chastened us after their own pleasure, but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holinesse.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yeeldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousnesse unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees,

13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, & holinesse, without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently, lest any man fail of the grace of God, lest any root of bitternesse springing up, trouble you, and thereby many be defiled:

16 Lest there be any fornicatour, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsell of meat near sold his birth-right.

17 For ye know how that afterward when he would have inherited ℣ blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto the mount ℣ might be touched, and ℣ burned with fire, nor unto blackness, & darkness, & tempest,

19 And ℣ sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words, which voice they that heard, intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more.

20 For they could not indure that which was commanded: and if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust thorow with a dart.

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake.

22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels:

23 To the generall assembly and church of ℣ first born, which are written in heaven, & to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect:

24 And to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, ℣ speaketh better things than that of Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not, who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven.

26 Whose voice then shook the earth, but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth onely, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom, which cannot be moved, let us have grace whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear.

29 For our God is a consuming fire.

CHAP. XIII.

LEt brotherly love continue.

2 Be not forgetfull to entertain strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them: and them which suffer adversity, as being your selves also in ℣ body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousnesse: and be content with such things as ye have: For he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

8 Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

9 Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace, not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 We have an altar whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burnt without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also that he might sanctifie the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

14 For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his Name.

16 But to do good, & to communicate forget not, for with such sacri-

ften God is well pleased.
Obey them that have § rule
yours, & submit your selves:
they watch for your soules, as that must give account, that may do it § joy, & not with § is unprofitable for you.
Pray for us: for we trust have a good conscience in all willing to live honestly.
But I beseech you the ra-to this, that I may be ored to you the sooner.
Now the God of peace that up again from the dead our Jesus, that great shepherd the sheep, through the blood everlasting covenant, Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever, Amen.

22 And I beseech you brethren, suffer the word of exhortation, for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 Know ye, that our brother Timothy is set at liberty, with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen

¶ Written to the Hebrews,

THE GENERALL EPISTLE OF IAMES.

CHAP. I.

ames a servant of God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations,

3 Knowing this, that § trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work: that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not: and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering: for he that wa-vereth is like a wave of the sea, driven with the winde, & tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double-minded man is unstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of low degree rejoyce in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grasse he shall passe away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grasse, and the flowre thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his wayes.

12 Blessed is the man that indureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not erre, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variablenesse, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kinde of firstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to heare, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

20 For § wrath of man work-eth not § righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthinesse, and superfluity of naughtinesse, and receive with meekenesse, the engrafted word, which is able to save your soules.

22 But

22 But be ye doers of ȳ word, and not hearers onely, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his naturall face in a glasse:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straight-way forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this mans religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled, before God and the Father, is this, to visit the fatherlesse and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAP. II.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poor man, in vile raiment:

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place: and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partiall in your selves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world, rich in faith, & heirs of ȳ kingdom, ẅ he hath promised to them ȳ love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgement seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy Name, by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfill the royall law, according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self, ye do well.

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of ȳ law as transgressours.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now, if thou commit no adultery, yet if ȳ kill, thou become a transgressour of ȳ law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgement without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy reioyceth against judgement.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed & filled: notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body: what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, & I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou beleevest that there is one God, thou dost well: the devils also beleeve, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest ȳ how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled, ẅ saith, Abraham beleeved God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousnesse: and he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensuall, devilish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion, and every evil work.

17 But the wisdom that is from above, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easie to be intreated, full of mercy, and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisie.

18 And the fruit of righteousness is sowen in peace, of them that make peace.

CHAP. IIII.

FRom whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight, and war, yea ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amisse, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers, and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us, lusteth to envie?

6 But he giveth more grace, wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit your selves therefore to God; resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you: cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purifie your hearts, ye double-minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heavinesse.

10 Humble your selves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another, (brethren) he that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, & iudgeth § law: but if thou iudge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a iudge.

12 There is one law-giver, who is able to saue, and to destroy: who art thou that iudgest another?

13 Go to now, ye that say, To day, or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a yeer, and buy, and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow: for what is your life? It is even a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall liue, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye reioyce in your boastings: all such reioycing is euil.

17 Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAP. V.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep, and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments moth eaten.

3 Your gold and siluer is cankered and the rust of them shall be a witnesse against you, and shall eat your flesh, as it were fire: ye haue heaped up treasure together for the last dayes.

4 Behold, § hire of the labourers which haue reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, cryeth: and the cryes of them which haue reaped, are entred into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth

5 Ye haue liued in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton: ye haue nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye haue condemned and killed the iust, and he doth not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore brethren, unto the coming of the Lord: behold the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receiue the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient, stablish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned; behold, the iudge standeth before the door.

10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who haue spoken in § Name of the Lord, for an ample of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which indure. Ye haue heard of the patience of Iob, and haue seen the end of the Lord, that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But aboue all things, my brethren, sweare not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay: lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray ouer him, anointing him with oil in the Name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall saue the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up, and if he haue committed sins, they shall be forgiuen him.

16 Confesse your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual feruent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Elias was a man subiect to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three yeers and six moneths.

18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gaue rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you erre from the truth, and one conuert him,

20 Let him know, that he which conuerteth a sinner from the errour of his way, shall saue a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

¶ The

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL of PETER

CHAP. I.

PEter an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 According to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience, and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time:

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoyce, though now for a season (if need be) ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

8 Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory,

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls:

10 Of which salvation the prophets have inquired, and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified before hand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things which are now reported unto you by them which have preached the gospel unto you, with the holy Ghost sent down from heaven, which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end, for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ:

14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation:

16 Because it is written, Be ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every mans work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear:

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

20 Who verily was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,

21 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory, that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

23 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAP.

CHAP. II.

WHerefore laying aside all malice, & al guile and hypocrisies, & envies, & evil speakings

2 As new born babes desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious;

4 To whom coming as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 Ye also as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifice, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore it is contained in the scripture; Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious, and he that believeth on him shal not be confounded.

7 Unto you therefore which believe, he is precious; but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient, whereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people, that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

10 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you, as strangers, and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul,

12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles, that whereas they speak against you as evil doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorifie God in the day of visitation.

13 Submit your selves to every ordinance of man, for the Lords sake, whether it be to the king as supream,

14 Or unto governours, as unto them that are sent by him, for the punishment of evill doers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men.

16 As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

17 Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is thank-worthy, if a man for conscience toward God indure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

21 For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth.

23 Who when he was reviled, reviled not again: when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously.

24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAP III.

LIkewise ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives, that whereas they ſpeak evil of you as of evill doers, they may be aſhamed that falſly accuſe your good converſation in Chriſt.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be ſo, that ye ſuffer for well-doing, then for evil-doing.
18 For Chriſt alſo hath once ſuffered for ſins, the juſt for the unjuſt, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the fleſh, but quickened by the Spirit:
19 By which alſo he went and preached unto the ſpirits in priſon, 20 Which ſometime were diſobedient, when once the long-ſuf-fering of God waited in the dayes of Noe, while the ark was a preparing: wherein few, that is, eight ſoules were ſaved by water.
21 The like figure whereunto even baptiſme, doth alſo now ſave us, (not the putting away of the filth of the fleſh, but the anſwer of a good conſcience toward God) by the reſurrection of Ieſus Chriſt, 22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God, angels, and authorities, and powers, being made ſubject unto him.

CHAP. IIII.

FOraſmuch then as Chriſt hath ſuffered for us in the fleſh, arm your ſelves likewiſe with the ſame minde, for he that hath ſuffered in the fleſh, hath ceaſed from ſin:
2 That he no longer ſhould live the reſt of his time in the fleſh, to the luſts of men, but to the will of God.
3 For the time paſt of our life may ſuffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in laſciviouſneſſe, luſts, exceſſe of wine, reveillings, banquerings, and abominable idolatries:
4 Wherein they think it ſtrange, that you run not with them to the ſame exceſſe of riot, ſpeaking evill of you:
5 Who ſhall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.
6 For, for this cauſe was the goſpel preached alſo to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the fleſh, but live according to God in the ſpirit.
7 But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore ſober, and watch unto prayer.
8 And above all things have fervent charity among your ſelves: for charity ſhal cover the multitude of ſins. 9 Uſe

9 Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

10 As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God: if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth, that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise & dominion for ever & ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial, which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 But rejoyce, in as much as ye are partakers of Christs sufferings, that when his glory shal be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If ye be reproached for the Name of Christ, happy are ye, for the Spirit of glory, and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evill spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evill-doer, or as a busie-body in other mens matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorifie God on this behalf.

17 For ✠ time is come, that judgement must begin at the house of God, and if it first begin at us, what shal the end be of them ✠ obey not the gospel of God?

18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly, and the sinner appear?

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit ✠ keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithfull Creator.

CHAP. V.

THe elders ✠ are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, & a witnes of ✠ sufferings of Christ, & also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 Feed the flock of God, which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint but willingly: not for filthy lucre, but of a ready minde;

3 Neither as being lords over Gods heritage: but ensamples to the flock.

4 And when the chief shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory ✠ fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit your selves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble your selves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 Casting all your care upon him, for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devill, as a roaring lion walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing ✠ ✠ same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us into his eternall glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 By Sylvanus a faithfull brother unto you, (as I suppose) I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying, ✠ this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The Church that is in Babylon elected together with you, saluteth you, and so doth Marcus my son.

14 Greet ye one another with a kisse of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

✠ THE SECOND EPISTLE general of PETER.

CHAP. I.

SImon Peter a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them ✠ have obtained like precious faith with us through ✠ righteousnes of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you, through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord.

ening us his divine pow-given unto us all things ning unto life and god-through the knowledge that hath called us to and vertue;

hereby are given unto us ing great and precious ses, that by these you e partakers of the diure, having escaped the on that is in the world lust.

5 And besides this, giving all ence, adde to your faith, to vertue, knowledge;
to knowledge, tempe-
and to temperance, patiand to patience, godlinesse; and to godlinesse, brotherkindnesse, and to brotherly kindnesse, charitie.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye neither be barren, nor unfruitfull in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things is blinde, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall.

11 For so an enterance shall be ministred unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you up, by putting you
in remembrance:

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover, I will endeavour that ye may be able, after my decease, to have these things
in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father, honour, and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory; This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven, we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy, whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, untill the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation:

21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

BUt there were false prophets among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious wayes, by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evill spoken of:

3 And through covetousnesse shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you, whose judgement now of a long time lingreth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darknesse, to be reserved unto judgement:

5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noe the eighth person, a preacher of righteousnesse, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow,

throw, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly:

7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds:)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgement to be punished:

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed: they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities:

11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not a railing accusation against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not, and shall utterly perish in their own corruption.

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are, and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings, while they feast with you:

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin, beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practises, cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness:

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with mans voice, forbad the madness of the propher.

17 These are wels without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest, to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure, through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in

19 While they promise liberty, they themselves are servants of corruption: whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again intangled therein, and overcome, their end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb; The dog is turned to his own vomit again, and the sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

THis second epistle (beloved) I now write unto you, in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord & Saviour:

3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last dayes scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water, and in the water,

6 Whereby the world that then was being overflowed with water, perished.

7 But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store reserved unto fire, against the day of judgement and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But (beloved) be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, (as some count slackness) but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burnt up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness,

12 Looking for, and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire, shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless, we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore (beloved) seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot and blameless.

15 And account that the long suffering of the Lord is salvation, even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given unto him, hath written unto you,

16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to be understood, which they † are unlearned and unstable, wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with † errour of † wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ: to him be glory, both now & for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERALL OF JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled of the word of life:

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternall life which was with † Father, & was manifested unto us)

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth.

7 But if he walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive our selves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confesse our sins, he is faithfull, and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say, that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAP. II.

1 My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate † the Father, Jesus Christ † righteous:

2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, & † truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him, and in you: because the darkenesse is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darknes even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darknesse, and walketh in darknesse, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darknesse hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his Names sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning: I write unto you, youngmen, because you have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known ℣ Father.

14 I have written unto you, Fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you young men, because you are strong, and ℣ word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of ℣ Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doth the will of God, abideth for ever.

18 Little children it is the last time; and as ye have heard that Antichrist shall come, even now are there many Antichrists, whereby we know that it is ℣ last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us: for if they had been of us, they would doubtlesse have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest, that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have an unction from the holy One, and ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you, because ye know not the truth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: but he that acknowledgeth the Son, hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning: if that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternall life.

26 These things have I written unto you, concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him, abideth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie: and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one which doth righteousnesse, is born of him.

CHAP. III.

BEhold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not ter what we shall be: but we now that when he shall appear, shall be like him: for we shall him as he is.

3 And every man that hath his hope in him, purifieth him-even as he is pure.
4 Whosoever committeth sin, transgresseth also the law: for sin
the transgression of the law.
5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins, in him is no sin.
6 Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seen him, neither known him.
7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doth right-is righteous, even as is righteous.
8 He that committeth sin, is of the devil: for the devil sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.
9 Whosoever is born of God, doth not commit sin: for his seed remaineth in him, and he cannot sin, because he is born
of God.
10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.
11 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.
12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him?
Because his own works were evil,
and his brothers righteous.
13 Marvell not, my brethren, though the world hate you.
14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren: he that loveth not his brother, abi-deth in death.
15 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternall life abiding in him.
16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren,
17 But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him: how dwelleth the love of God in him?
18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed, and in truth.
19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.
20 For if our heart condemn us,
God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.
21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.
22 And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.
23 And this is his commandment, that we should beleeve on the Name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.
24 And he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the spirit which he hath given us.

CHAP. IIII.

BEloved, beleeve not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.
2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: every spirit that confes-seth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.
3 And every spirit that con-fesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God:
and this is that spirit of Anti-christ, whereof you have heard, that it should come, and even now already is it in the world.
4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them:
because greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the world.
5 They are of the world, therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.
6 We are of God: he that knoweth God, heareth us: he that is not of God, heareth not us:
hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God: and every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God: for God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And we have seen, and do testifie, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever shall confesse that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and beleeved the love that God hath to us: God is love, and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God and God in him.

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldnesse in the day of judgement, because as he is, so we are in this world.

18 There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment: he that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If any man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: For he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God, whom he hath not seen?

21 And this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God, love his brother also.

CHAP. V.

WHosoever beleeveth that Jesus is the Christ, is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God: when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments, and his commandments are not grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God, overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that beleeveth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ: not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit that beareth witnesse, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the word, & the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witnesse in the earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: & these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater: for this is the witnesse of God, which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that beleeveth on the Son of God, hath the witnesse in himself: he that beleeveth not God, hath made him a liar, because he beleeveth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

12 He that hath the Son, hath life, and he that hath not the Son, hath not life.

13 These things have I written unto you that beleeve on the Name of the Son of God, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the Name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

15

16 If any man see his brother a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say, that he shall pray for it.
17 All unrighteousness is sin,
and there is a sin not unto death.
18 We know that whosoever is born of God, sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.
19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.
20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true: and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.
21 Little children, keep your selves from idols. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth: and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth:
2 For the truth's sake which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever;
3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.
4 I rejoyced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.
5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee;
but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.
6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, that as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.
7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confesse not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver, and an Antichrist.
8 Look to your selves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.
9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God:
he that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.
10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed.
11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his evil deeds.
12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink, but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.
13 The children of thine elect sister greet thee. Amen.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

THE elder unto the well-beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth:
2 Beloved, I wish above all things, that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.
3 For I rejoyced greatly,
when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in truth.
4 I have no greater joy, than to hear that my children walk in truth.
5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;
6 Which have born witness of thy charity before the church:
whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:
7 Because that for his Names sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.
8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth.
9 I wrote unto the church, but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

20 Wherefore if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doth practise, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doth good, is of God: but he that doth evil, hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE.

1 JUde, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation: it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you, that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

6 And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness, unto the judgement of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom & Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them, for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds: trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots:

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame: wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

15 To execute judgement upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, & of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts, and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken

...re before of the apostles of
...r Lord Jesus Christ:
...18 How that they told you,
...ere should be mockers in the
...st time, who should walk af-
...r their own ungodly lusts.
...19 These be they who sepa-
...rate themselves, sensuall, having
...not the Spirit.
...20 But ye, beloved, building
...up your selves on your most ho-
...liest, praying in the holy ...Ghost,
...21 Keep your selves in the ...love of God, looking for the ...mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternall life.
22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:
23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire:
hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.
24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, 25 To the onely wise God
our Saviour, be glory & majesty, dominion and power, now and ever. Amen.

THE REVELATION OF S. JOHN THE DIVINE.

CHAP. I.

THE revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to passe; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John.
2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.
3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecie, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.
4 John to the seven churches which are in Asia, Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven spirits which are before his throne:
5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithfull witnesse, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth:
unto him that loved us, & washed us from our sins in his own blood;
6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father;
to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.
7 Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him:
even so, Amen.
8 I am Alpha and Omega,
the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.
9 I John who also am your brother & companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom & patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.
10 I was in the Spirit on the Lords day, & heard behinde me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha & Omega, the first and the last: and what thou seest, write in a book, & send it unto 7 seven churches which are in Asia, unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.
12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks.
13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks, one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.
14 His head and his hairs were white like wooll, as white as snow, and his eyes were as a flame of fire;
15 And his feet like unto fine brasse, as if they burned in a furnace: and his voice as the sound of many waters.
16 And he had in his right hand seven starrs: & out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword:
and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.
17 And when I saw him, I at his feet as dead: and he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not, I am the first and the last.

18 I am he that liveth, & was dead: and behold, I am alive for ever more, Amen, and have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter.

20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seven churches.

CHAP. II.

UNto the angel of § church of Ephesus, write, These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks:

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil, and thou hast tried them them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars,

3 And hast born, and hast patience, and for my Names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless, I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches: To him that overcometh, will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of § paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna, write, these things saith the first, and the last, which was dead, and is alive.

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, but thou art rich: and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer, behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried, and ye shall have tribulation ten dayes: be thou faithfull unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches: He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamus write, These things saith he, who hath the sharp sword with two edges:

13 I know thy works, & where thou dwellest, even where Satans seat is, and thou holdest fast my Name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those dayes wherein Antipas was my faithfull martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them § hold § doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He § hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches, To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write, These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brasse:

19 I know thy works, & chariand service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezabel, which calleth her self a prophetess, to teach, and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her, into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden:

25 But that which ye have already, hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 (And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers) even as I have received of my Father.

28 And I will give him the morning star.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. III.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis, write; These things saith he that hath the seven spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name, that thou livest, and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God,

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received, and heard: and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, & thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia, write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth, and shutteth, and no man openeth.

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my Name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come, and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee:

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth:

11 Behold, I come quickly, hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write, These things saith ℣ Amen, the faithfull & true witnesse, the beginning of the creation of God:
15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.
16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.
17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing: and knowest not ℣ thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blinde, and naked.
18 I counsell thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich, and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakednesse do not appear: and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.
19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.
20 Behold, I stand at ℣ door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.
21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.
22 He that hath an eare, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. IIII.

AFter this I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard, was it as were of a trumpet, talking with me, which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.
2 And immediately I was in the spirit: and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.
3 And he that sat, was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rain-bow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.
4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and they had on their heads crowns of gold.
5 And out of the throne proceeded lightenings, and thunderings, and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God.
6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like unto crystall: and in the midst of the throne, & round about ℣ throne were four beasts full of eyes before and behinde.
7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.
8 And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him, and they were full of eyes within and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.
9 And when those beasts give glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,
10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,
11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honour, and power; for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAP. V.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne, a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.
2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?
3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.
4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open

…ns and to read the book, nei…
…r to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith …me, Weep not: behold, the …ion of the tribe of Juda, the …t of David, hath prevailed …open the book, and to loose …s seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and lo, in the …dst of the throne, and of the …four beasts, and in the midst of …e elders stood a Lamb, as it …d been slain, having seven …rns, and seven eyes, which are …e seven spirits of God, sent …d into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the …k out of the right hand of …m that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the …k, the four beasts, and four …d twenty elders fell down be…re the Lamb, having every …e of them harps, and golden …ls full of odours, which are …e prayers of saints:

9 And they sung a new song, …ying, Thou art worthy to take …e book, and to open the seals …ereof: for thou wast slain, and …st redeemed us to God by thy …od out of every kindred, and …ngue, and people, and nation:

10 And hast made us unto our …od kings and priests, and we …all reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard …e voice of many angels round …out the throne, and the beasts, …d the elders, and the number …f them was ten thousand times …n thousand, and thousands of …ousands,

12 Saying with a loud voice, …Worthy is the Lamb that was …ain, to receive power, & riches, …nd wisdom, and strength, and …onour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And every creature which …s in heaven, and on the earth, …nd under the earth, and such as …are in the sea, and all that are in …them, heard I saying, Blessing, …honour, glory and power be unto him that sitteth upon the …throne, and unto the Lamb for …ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, …Amen. And the four and twenty …elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and …ever.

CHAP. VI.

AND I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard as it were the noise of thunder: one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat on him had a bowe, & a crown was given unto him, & he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo, a black horse: and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny, and see thou hurt not the oil, and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse, and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him: and power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, & for the testimony which they held.

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy & true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them, & it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow-servants also, & their brethren that should be killed, as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, & lo there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty winde.

14 And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free-man, hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains,

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who shall be able to stand?

CHAP. VII.

AND after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four windes of the earth, that the winde should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth, and the sea,

3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and fourty & four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephtali were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and lo a great multitude which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands,

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God, which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, & about the elders, & the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAP.

CHAP VIII.

AND when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an houre.

2 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God: and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer, and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angels hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightenings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed haile, and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grasse was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died: and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great starre from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, & upon the fountains of waters:

11 And the name of the starre is called Wormwood, and the third part of the waters became wormwood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, & the third part of the moon, and the third part of the starrs, so as the third part of them was darkened: and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying thorow the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Wo, wo, wo, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels which are yet to sound.

CHAP. IX.

AND the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a starr fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace, and the sun, and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth, and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree: but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five moneths, and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion when he striketh a man.

6 And in those dayes shall men seek death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battel, and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had brest-plates, as it were brest-plates of iron, and the sound of their wings was as the sound of charets, of many horses running to battell.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, & there were stings in their tails: and their power was was to hurt men five moneths.

11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue, is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

12 One wo is past, and behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar, which is before God;

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, & a moneth, and a yeer, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsmen were two hundred thousand thousand, and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having brest plates of fire, and of jacinct, and brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions, and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

18 By these three were the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone which issued out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, & brass, and stone, & of wood, which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAP. X.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rain-bowe was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth;

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea, and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer.

7 But in the dayes of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven, spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel, which standeth upon the sea, and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angels hand, and ate it up, and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesie again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAP. XI.

AND there was given me a reed like unto a rod, and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure

13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand; & the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past, and behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh angel sounded, and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ, and he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,

17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come, because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, & hast reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy Name, small and great, and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament, and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunder-lings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

CHAP. XII.

AND there appeared a great wonder in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she being with childe, cried, travelling in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven, and behold, a great red dragon having seven heads, and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and
the

the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her childe assoon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man childe, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her childe was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes.

7 And there was war in heaven, Michael and his angels fought against ℣ dragons & the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent called ℣ devil & Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ, for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony, and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore rejoyce ye heavens, and ye that dwel in them; wo to the inhabiters of ℣ earth, and of the sea: for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted ℣ woman which brought forth the manchilde.

14 And to ℣ woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might flee into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood, after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAP. XIII.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death, and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast, and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things, and blasphemies, and power was given unto him to continue fourty & two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his Name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwel upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the lamb, slain from the foundation of ℣ world.

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear:

10 He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he killeth with the sword, be killed with the sword.

is the patience, and the
of the saints.

And I beheld another beast
g out of the earth, and he two horns like a lamb, and ake as a dragon.

And he exerciseth all the er of the first beast before and causeth the earth, and which dwell therein, to ship the first beast, whose ly wound was healed.

And he doth great wonders, that he maketh fire come from heaven on the earth sight of men:

And deceiveth them that l on the earth, by the means those miracles which he had wer to do in the sight of the lying to them that dwell the earth, ‡ they should make mage to the beast, which had wound by a sword, & did live.

And he had power to give unto the image of the beast, that image of ‡ beast should both speak & cause, as many as ould not worship the image of beast, should be killed.

And he causeth all, both all and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark their right hand, or in their foreheads:

And that no man might buy sell, save he that had ‡ mark, the name of the beast, or the mber of his name.

Here is wisdom. Let him hath understanding count ‡ mber of the beast: for it is the mber of a man, & his number is six hundred threescore and six.

CHAP. XIIII.

And I looked, and lo a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred fourty and four thousand, having his fathers Name written in their foreheads:

And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, & as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders, and no man could learn that song, but the hundred & fourty & four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

These were they which were not defiled with women, for they are virgins: these are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth: these were redeemed from among men, being the first fruits unto God, and to the Lamb.

And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kinred, and tongue, and people,

Saying with a loud voice,
Fear God, & give glory to him, for the hour of his judgement is come: & worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship ‡ beast, and his image, & receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation, and he shall be tormented with fire & brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in ‡ presence of the Lamb:

And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever. And they have no rest day nor night, who worship ‡ beast & his image, and whosoever receiv-eth the mark of his name.

Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which dye in the Lord, from henceforth:
yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours, and their

their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, & upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle and reap, for the time is come for thee to reap, for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud, thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire, and cryed with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine presse of the wrath of God.

20 And the wine-presse was troden without the city, and blood came out of the wine-presse, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlonge.

CHAP. XV.

AND I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a sea of glasse mingled with fire, and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glasse, having the harps of God.

3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy wayes, thou King of Saints.

4 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy name: for thou onely art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee, for thy judgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breast girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever & ever.

8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God: and from his power, and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went and poured out his vial upon the earth, & there fell a noysom and grievous sore upon them which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man, and every living soul dyed in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers & fountains of waters, & they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus:

6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink: for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgements.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun, and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heats and blaspheme the of God which hath power these plagues: and they repented not, to give him glory.

And the fifth angel poured his vial upon the seat of the
, and his kingdom was full darkness, and they gnawed tongues for pain,
And blasphemed the God heaven because of their pains, their sores, and repented not of their deeds.
And the sixth angel poured his vial upon the great river Euphrates: and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.
And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, & out of the mouth of the false prophet.
For they are the spirits of devils working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battel of that great day of God Almighty.
Behold, I come as a thief.
Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame.
And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue, Armageddon.
And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air, and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven from the throne, saying, It is done.
And there were voices, and thunders, and lightenings: and there was a great earth-quake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.
And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell; and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.
And every island fled away and the mountains were not found.
And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

AND there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither, I will shew unto thee § judgement of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:
2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabiters of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.
3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet-coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads, and ten horns;
4 And the woman was arrayed in purple, and scarlet-colour, and decked with gold, and precious stone, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations, and filthiness of her fornication.
5 And upon her forhead was a name written, MYSTERY,
BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MO-THER OF HARLOTS, AND ABOMINATI-
ONS OF THE EARTH.
6 And I saw the woman drunken with § blood of the saints, & with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: & when I saw her I wondered with great admiration.
7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads, and ten horns.
8 The beast that thou sawest, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder (whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was and is not, and yet is.
9 And here is the minde which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.
10 And there are seven kings:
five are fallen, & one is, and the other

other is not yet come: & when he cometh, he must continue a short space, 11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ten horns which thou sawest, are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet: but receive power as kings, one hour with the beast.

13 These have one minde, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make war with the lamb, and the lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and king of kings, and they that are with him, are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, The waters ☞ ☜ sawest, where ☜ whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate, and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is that great city, which reigneth over ☜ kings of ☜ earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

AND after these things, I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power, and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of ☜ wine of the wrath of her fornication, and ☜ kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, & ☜ merchants of ☜ earth are waxed rich through ☜ abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, & double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

7 How much she hath glorified her self, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, & mourning and famine: & she shall be utterly burnt ☞ fire: for strong is ☜ Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And the kings of the earth who have committed fornication, and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off, for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city: for in one hour is thy judgement come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her, for no man buyeth their merchandise any more.

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stone, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyne-wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brasse, & iron, & marble,

13 And cynamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, & charets, and slaves, and soules of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly, are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these thines, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off, for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailers, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city?

19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried weeping, and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness, for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 Rejoyce over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles, and prophets, for God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee: & no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: & sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee:

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee: and the voice of the bridegroom, and of the bride, shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, & of saints, & of all that were slain upon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia: Salvation, and glory, & honour, and power unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, & did corrupt the earth with her fornication; and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia: and her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And the four and twenty elders, and the four beasts, fell down, and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen, Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoyce, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And to her was granted, that she should be arayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousnesse of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him: and he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw heaven opened, & behold a white horse, & he that sat upon him was called faithful and true, and in righteousnesse he doth judge, and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns, & he had a Name written, that no man knew but he himself.

13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipt in blood, and his Name is called, The word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron front and he treadeth the winepresse of the fierceneſſe and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his veſture, and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I ſaw an angel ſtanding in the ſun: and he cried with a loud voice ſaying to all the fowls that fle in the midſt of heaven, Come and gather your ſelves together unto the ſupper of the great God:

18 That ye may eat the fleſh of kings, and the fleſh of captains, and the fleſh of mighty men, and the fleſh of horſes, and of them that ſit on them, and the fleſh of all men, both free and bond, both ſmall and great.

19 And I ſaw the beaſt, and the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together to make war againſt him that ſat on the horſe, and againſt his army.

20 And the beaſt was taken, and with him the falſe prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beaſt, and them which worſhipped his image. Theſe both were caſt alive into a lake of fire burning with brimſtone.

21 And the remnant were ſlain with the ſword of him that ſat upon the horſe, which ſword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their fleſh.

CHAP. XX.

AND I ſaw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomleſſe pit, and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon that old ſerpent, which is the devill and Satan, and bound him a thouſand yeers:

3 And caſt him into the bottomleſſe pit, and ſhut him up, and ſet a ſeal upon him, that he ſhould deceive the nations no more, till the thouſand yeers ſhould be fulfilled: and after that he muſt be looſed a little ſeaſon.

4 And I ſaw thrones, and they ſat upon them, and judgement was given unto them: and I ſaw the ſouls of them that were beheaded for the witnes of Jeſus, and for the word of God, and which had not worſhipped the beaſt, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands: and they lived and reigned with Chriſt a thouſand yeers.

5 But the reſt of the dead lived not again untill the thouſand yeers were finiſhed. This is the firſt reſurrection.

6 Bleſſed and holy is he that hath part in the firſt reſurrection: on ſuch the ſecond death hath no power, but they ſhall be priests of God, and of Chriſt, and ſhall reign with him a thouſand yeers.

7 And when the thouſand yeers are expired, Satan ſhall be looſed out of his priſon,

8 And ſhall go out to deceive the nations, which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battel: the number of whom is as the ſand of the ſea.

9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compaſſed the camp of the ſaints about, and the beloved citty: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil that deceived them was caſt into the lake of fire and brimſtone, where the beaſt and the falſe prophet are, and ſhall be tormented day and night, for ever and ever.

11 And I ſaw a great white throne, and him that ſate on it, from whoſe face the earth and the heaven fled away, and there was found no place for them.

12 And I ſaw the dead, ſmall and great, ſtand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of thoſe things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the ſea gave up the dead which were in it: and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And death and hell were caſt into the lake of fire: this is the ſecond death.

CHAP. XXI.

1 And I saw a new heaven, and a new earth: for the first heaven, and the first earth were ... away, and there was no ... sea.

2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down ... God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst, of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit, to a great and high mountain, and shewed me the great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations: and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and fourty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper, and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third a chalcedony, the fourth an emerald,

20 The fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolyte, the eighth beryl, the ninth a topaz, the tenth a chrysoprasus, the eleventh a jacinct, the twelfth an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls, every several gate was of one pearl, and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 And

24 And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And they shal bring ȝ glory & honour of ȝ nations into it.

27 And there shal in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lambs book of life.

CHAP. XXII.

AND he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystall, proceeding out of ȝ throne of God and of ȝ Lamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and of either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, & yeelded her fruit every moneth: & the leaves of ȝ tree were for ȝ healing of ȝ nations.

3 And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and his servants shall serve him.

4 And they shall see his face, and his Name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun: for the Lord God giveth them light: & they shal reign for ever & ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithfull and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he that keepeth ȝ sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, & heard them, and when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold I come quickly, and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that do his commandements, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For without are dogs, & sorcerers, & whoremongers, & murderers, & idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 I Iesus have sent mine angel to testifie unto you these things in the churches, I am the root and the off-spring of David, and the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, come. And let him that is athirst, come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testifie to every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall adde unto these things, God shall adde unto him the plagues that are written in this book.

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so come Lord Iesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

FINIS.
